The Permanent Committee on Commissions presented a Special Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Commissions would report the following cases for action by the Assembly:

1. A petition from the Presbytery of Rock River, for the seating of Ruling Elder W. H. Elhart, as a Commissioner from said Presbytery, setting forth the fact that it was impossible for either of the regularly elected men (both principal and alternate) to attend the General Assembly, and that the Moderator and several near-by ministers join in asking the appointment of Mr. Elhart as Commissioner. We recommend that he be recognized as a Commissioner from said Presbytery.

2. A similar petition from the Presbytery of Great Falls, for the seating of Ruling Elder R. B. Noble, as a Commissioner from said Presbytery, setting forth the fact that the regularly elected Commissioners (both principal and alternate) were unable to attend, that it was too late to call a special meeting of the Presbytery, and that their request is accompanied by a petition, signed by all the ministerial members of the Presbytery except two. We recommend that Mr. Noble be recognized as a Commissioner from said Presbytery.

3. A communication from the Executive Commission of the Presbytery of Fort Worth, which is as follows:

"At a meeting of the Commission of the Presbytery of Fort Worth, the names of Rev. T. S. Cawsey and Rev. W. P. Morris were added to our roll, making thirty-six ministers, entitling us to two more Commissioners. Rev. W. A. Patterson was elected as principal, with Elder J. H. Harrison, of Mansfield, the alternates being Rev. H. B. Boyd, Denton, and Elder J. P. Wear, Fort Worth. Rev. N. B. Baker, Valley View, was elected alternate to Rev. J. W. Caldwell, in my place." Signed, for the Commission, W. A. Patterson.

The paper involves questions as to the powers of the Executive Commission of a Presbytery: first, to receive members, and secondly, to elect Commissioners to the General Assembly. We recommend that these questions be referred to the Standing Committee on Polity, to report as early as possible, pending which Report the seating of said Commissioners be held in abeyance.

W. B. Noble,
W. H. Roberts, } Committee.

The necessary papers for the election of Moderator and of the Standing Committees were delivered to a member in each of the Electing Sections, names being announced by the Stated Clerk, under the Rules, as follows:

The Moderator announced that he had appointed Ruling Elder James Yereance, of the Presbytery of New York, as Vice-Moderator of the Assembly.

Rev. John McMillan, D.D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, was introduced, and addressed the Assembly. The Moderator made a felicitous response.

The following Orders of the Day were fixed:
The first Order this morning, the Report of the Advisory Council on Church Extension.
The second Order this morning, the Report of the Executive Commission.
Monday, 9.40 A.M., the address of the Secretary of the American Bible Society.
Monday, 4.00 P.M., the Report of the Committee on the Intermediate Catechism.

The Advisory Council on Church Extension, through its Chairman, Rev. William T. Jaquess, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted.
The second and third resolutions of the Report were adopted, and are as follows:
1. The Council expresses its judgment, that efficiency in the administration of the whole cause prompts making the fiscal year of all home mission agencies correspond with the Assembly's year, beginning April 1.
2. In developing the policies of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, the Council recognizes the need of emphasizing both educational and pioneering phases, the one being properly magnified above the other, and vice versa, as varying conditions may prompt.

The first resolution, having to do with vacancy and supply, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures; the fourth, as to a change in the policy of the Board of Church Erection, to the Standing Committee on Church Erection; the fifth, sixth and seventh, as to Home Mission adjustments, to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The Executive Commission, through its Chairman, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted.

Section VIII of the Report, on Consolidation of Missionary Magazines, was made the Order immediately after the Report of the Committee on The Assembly Herald.

Section X, on Ministerial Relief and the Sustentation Fund, was made the Order following the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief on Monday, the Report to have the right of way until the whole matter is settled.

Section XI, on Revision of the Rules of the Board of Church Erection, was made the Order for Thursday afternoon in connection with the Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection, and to have the right of way until the whole matter is settled.

Section XIV, on Finances of the Commission, was referred to the Standing Committee on Finance.

Section XV, on the Moderator's Itinerary, the Assembly approved with grateful appreciation of the services of Dr. Carson in his itinerary during the past year, and its thanks to him, and also to the Central Church of Brooklyn, N. Y., which has so graciously given the services of its pastor to the Church at large. The question of Finance in connection with this itinerary was referred to the Committee on Finance.

All parts of the Report, not specified above, were adopted, including the Budget for the Assembly, and are printed with the other parts, as a unit, further on in the Minutes.

The Report of the Committee on Conference with Union Theological Seminary was made the first Order for this afternoon.

Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., Secretary of the Permanent Judicial Commission, presented a Report, which was approved, and the nomination of members for the Commission was referred to the Judicial Committee. The Report is as follows:

The Permanent Judicial Commission reports to the General Assembly:

1. That it has been duly organized in accordance with the Rules, and is now prepared for the transaction of business which may be committed to it by the General Assembly.

2. That the term of service of the following members of the Commission will expire at the close of the present meeting of the General Assembly: Ministers—Frank O. Ballard, D.D., W. M. Hindman, D.D., Robert Hunter, D.D.; Ruling Elders—W. E. Settle, C. S. Cairns.

By order of the Commission,
ROBERT HUNTER, Secretary.

The Electing Sections were notified of vacancies to be filled in the Standing Committees.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 17, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Special Committee on Conference with Union Theological Seminary, New York, through Rev. David G. Wylie, D.D., presented its Report of Progress, which was received, and approved, and the Committee as now constituted was continued under the general instructions of the last Assembly. The Report is as follows:

The Committee appointed to confer with the Directors of Union Theological Seminary, respectfully presents its Report to the General Assembly.

The General Assembly of 1911 adopted the following preamble and resolution:

"WHEREAS, The Union Theological Seminary, in the city of New York, was founded by Presbyterians and largely endowed from Presbyterian sources; and

"WHEREAS, Some years past there developed a condition which led to the severing of the relations which had existed from the organization of the Seminary, between it and the General Assembly; and

"WHEREAS, We are persuaded that there are in the faculty and in the directorate of Union Theological Seminary, men who are in accord with evangelical Christianity as expressed in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and who are zealous in all good work for the growth of the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ in the world; and

"WHEREAS, We believe that it would be a signal manifestation of the spirit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who prayed 'that they all may be one,' for Christian brethren under the gracious guidance of the Holy Spirit to remove all misunderstandings, alienations, and antagonism, and to become vitally and aggressively united in the doctrine of our beloved Church in the work of bringing nations and the world to Christ; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Assembly hereby authorize the Moderator to appoint a Committee of nine, to consist of five ministers, of whom the Moderator shall be one, and four ruling elders, none of whom shall be connected with the directors and faculty of the said Seminary, with a view to the reëstablishment of relations between the Seminary and the General Assembly on the basis of the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; this Committee to report at the next Assembly."

In accordance with this action of the General Assembly, the following-named persons were appointed as the Committee: Ministers—John F. Carson, David G. Wylie, William Hiram Foulkes, John R. Davies and S. S. Palmer; Elders—Louis H. Severance, Henry V. Freeman, Elisha H. Perkins and Warner E. Settle.

The Committee desires to express to the General Assembly its constant recognition of the serious issues involved in the trust committed to it. At the very outset, it was determined that the importance of the subject made it imperative that all the proceedings of the Committee should be kept within its own confidence, until such time as it might present its Report to the General Assembly, and therefore nothing has been made public.

The Committee has had three meetings, at each of which practically its entire membership was present. At the first meeting, which was held in Brooklyn, September 21, 1911, there was a thorough discussion of all matters involved. Sub-Committees were appointed to arrange for a conference with the Directors of Union Theological Seminary and to draft the outline of a communication to be submitted to the whole Committee and thereafter to be presented to the Board of Directors of Union Seminary. These sub-Committees faithfully discharged their tasks, and as a result the second meeting of the Committee was held in New York City, January 31 and February 1, at which time the paper to be submitted to the Board of Directors was presented to the whole Committee, and, after careful consideration and amendment, was adopted by the Committee as a proper statement of the grounds of its approach to Union Seminary.

This paper was read to the Board of Directors of the Seminary at a confidential meeting of the Board of Directors and the Assembly's Committee and was most cordially received by the Board of Directors. In due time the Board of Directors of Union Seminary replied to the paper of the Committee in detail, expressing their willingness to comply with the suggestions of the Assembly's Committee to the utmost extent of their ability. This reply was considered in fullest detail by the Assembly's Committee at its third meeting in New York City, April 10 and 11, at which time a second paper was prepared and adopted by the Committee for submission to the Board of Directors of Union Seminary, outlining clearly and faithfully the unanimous conviction of the Assembly's Committee as to the conditions upon which the proposed harmonious relations between the Seminary and the Church, on the basis of the Standards of the Presbyterian Church, might be established to the satisfaction of the General Assembly. The Committee suggested the appointment of a Committee from the Board of Directors of Union Seminary to confer with a sub-Committee of the Assembly's Committee and consider in detail all matters involved in order that the Assembly's Committee might be able to present a complete and final report to the General Assembly of 1912.

This paper was sent to the Board of Directors of Union Seminary. In response thereto a careful and considerate reply was made by Mr. Robert C. Ogden, President of the Board of Directors. In this communication Mr. Ogden said: "The great importance of the questions involved makes me unwilling to assume the responsibility of naming a Committee for their consideration without the presentation of your communication to the full Board and its action thereon. For this purpose our Board must meet, the Committee must give some special thought to your letter—trying to apprehend its bearings as well as its obvious purport—the conference must then take place, and should have ample time for deliberation—your sub-Committee must formulate its conclusions and report back to your Committee, which must then make up its Report to the General Assembly without haste. The engagements of members of our Board are such that several days, at least, must elapse before a meeting can be held, and even then we should run the risk of having a small one. The examinations and closing exercises of the Seminary are upon us. In view of all this, it does not seem to me possible to arrange for the conference in the very brief interval now remaining before the General Assembly will convene. I therefore venture to inquire whether it will not further the ends we all, I am sure, have at heart—if a report of progress be made to the coming Assembly, with a request for the continuance of the Committee for another year—whether, indeed, under the circumstances, this is not the only course really open. If this course be followed—and I can hardly conceive of the Assembly's making serious objection—we shall have ample opportunity for conference, in the autumn, and I feel confident that the result will be a more complete understanding than any that could be reached by a hasty colloquy within the next few days."

With this expression of the President of the Board of Directors your Committee is in hearty accord. While it has exercised due diligence and has been unswervingly loyal in its attempt to represent the mind of the General Assembly, and while it hesitates to suggest its own continuance for another year, yet it cannot do otherwise than submit to the Assembly a report of definite progress toward such a relationship as the last General Assembly sought to bring about. If the General Assembly is persuaded, as the Committee is, that the conferences between the Board of Directors and the General Assembly, through its Committee, should be further continued in the same spirit in which they have already been carried on, the Committee is prepared to go forward under a renewal of the trust reposed in it.

The Committee is prepared to submit to the Assembly copies of all communications that have been given and received by the Committee as well as the full minutes of its meetings. These documents, however, are not embodied in this Report because the Committee believes it to be wiser to wait until the work committed to it has been completed and it is in a position to make a full and final Report to the General Assembly. The Committee would therefore respectfully present a report of progress and would await the will of the General Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN F. CARSON, Chairman.

The Committee on Christian Life and Work, through its Secretary, Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted.

The plan for the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply presented in the Report was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, pending the Report on Overtures sent down by the last Assembly to the Presbyteries.

The following persons were elected as the class of members for 1912–1915: Rev. G. W. Bull, D.D., Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., and Mr. J. Fithian Tatem.

Section X, on Statistical Blanks, was adopted, as follows:

X. Statistical Blanks.—The last General Assembly referred to this Committee Overtures 62 to 117, from certain Presbyteries, asking that in the Statistical Reports the Presbyterial lists of ministers and churches should be arranged according to the alphabetical order of the congregations; also Overtures Nos. 267 to 269 from three Presbyteries, asking for various changes in congregational and Presbyterial blanks. There were also referred to the Committee petitions from six Presbyteries against any changes in the present reports. (See Minutes, 1911, p. 55.)

These Overtures received due attention from the Committee. It was found that they had been submitted to every Presbytery, and that the requests contained in them had not been sustained by a general demand for change. It is, further, a doubtful policy which would lead to a complete reversal of past statistical methods and rules, when the changes would lead to confusion, and might be regarded as unwise, if not as departures from principles maintained by this Church during its entire existence. The Committee recommends that they be answered in the negative.

Section A, containing Overtures as to Rolls of Members, was adopted and reads:

A. Overtures as to Rolls of Members.—The subject of the roll of suspended members naturally brings up the question of all rolls and registers in use by church Sessions, and the need of a more specific provision in the Form of Government for the placing or the removing of names from rolls and registers. The general rules as to rolls and registers is now contained in Form of Government, Chap. IX, Sect. 10, and reads as follows:

"It is important that every church Session shall keep a fair register of marriages; of baptisms, with the times of the birth of the individuals baptized; of persons admitted to the Lord's Table, and of the deaths, and other removals of church members."

The Committee respectfully recommends to the General Assembly that an Overture be sent down for the amendment and alteration of this Section. The text of the Overture is as follows:

"The General Assembly, under the provisions of the Form of Government, Chap. XXIV, Sect. 1, proposes to the Presbyteries the following amendment and alteration of the Form of Government, Chap. IX, Sect. 10, namely: Shall the Form of Government, Chap. IX, Sect. 10, be amended and altered so as to read:

"'X. Every church Session shall keep registers or rolls of persons admitted to or suspended from the Lord's Table; and of the deaths and other removals of church members; but the names of members shall be placed upon or removed from the rolls of the church only by order of the Session, and in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Discipline. The church Session shall also keep a fair register of marriages, and of baptisms, with the times of the births of the individuals baptized.'"

By the adoption of the foregoing amendment and alteration of Chap. IX, Sect. 10, of the Form of Government, full legal authority will be given for the roll of suspended members, and the power of the Session as to all the rolls will be clearly stated.

In addition to the above Overture, the Committee feels that certain conditions require that there should be a definite statement as to the contents of the roll of suspended members, and of the power and duty in relation thereto of the Session. It is therefore recommended that the following amendment to the Book of Discipline, Sect. 50, be sent down to the Presbyteries.

"The General Assembly, under the provision of the Form of Government, Chap. XXIV, Sect. 1, recommends to the Presbyteries the adoption of the following addition to Sect. 50 of the Book of Discipline as an amendment of the same. Shall the Book of Discipline, Sect. 50, be amended by the addition to it of the following paragraph, namely:

"The roll of suspended members shall contain the names of those members who have been suspended either with or without process. Such names shall not be reported to Presbytery as being among the active members of the church. The session shall make an annual review of the roll of communicants and of the roll of suspended members, before making its report to Presbytery, and in making such review shall make no erasures from the roll of communicants, without paying full regard to the law of the Church as contained in the Book of Discipline, especially as to due notice to absentees whose addresses are known, and the Session shall make earnest effort to restore to good and regular standing all suspended members."

The following Resolutions as to Sessions and Church members were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That Sessions be directed to comply carefully with the provisions of the Book of Discipline in relation to the transfer of absentee members from the Roll of Active Members of the congregation to the Suspended Roll.

Resolved, 2. That pastors and church Sessions are hereby directed to examine, as to the credibility of their profession of faith, all applicants for church membership, in accordance with the provision of Directory for Worship, Chap X, Sect. 3, keeping always in mind the fact that the only terms of admission to the Church are a "profession of faith in and obedience to Jesus Christ, followed by baptism."

Resolved, 3. That pastors and Sessions are hereby requested to establish in every congregation a class, for the instruction of candidates for membership and also of new members, in the fundamental principles of the Christian religion.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. CARSON, Chairman.

All parts of the above Report not adopted were referrred to the Standing Committee on Narrative.

A resolution concerning the Christian Citizen Conference to be held in Portland, Oregon, in July, 1913, was presented by Dr. Carson. On invitation of the Assembly, Rev. Henry C. Minton, D.D., spoke upon the subject. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Rev. Charles E. Edwards, D.D., was introduced by the Moderator, and presented the claims of the work among Bohemians in our country. The subject was referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The Electing Sections were ordered to meet at the close of this afternoon's session to elect members of the Nominating Committee to fill vacancies in the Executive Commission.

The Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, through its Chairman, Mr. Charles L. Huston, presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by Rev. Drs. Wicher, Hall, Minton, Foulkes and Wilson, was adopted. It is as follows:

In its Report to the last General Assembly, your Committee on Evangelistic Work stated that, in the event of its reappointment, it had determined to simplify its organization and enter upon a patient Program of constructive work. It asked for reappointment on the ground that the work committed to its care had by no means been fully accomplished. The Assembly reappointed the Committee with instructions which may be summed up as follows:

(1) To deepen the evangelistic spirit in the Church.

(2) To encourage such evangelistic campaigns as should have the approval of our ministers.

(3) To continue the conduct of evangelistic work among the students of our Presbyterian Colleges in coöperation with the Board of Education.

(4) Wherever necessary, to urge that Presbyterial and Synodical Committees be so changed in membership as to bring competent men into active service.

(5) To coöperate with the Committees of Synods and Presbyteries in arranging for and conducting conferences on evangelistic work.

(6) To present to the Presbyteries as rapidly as possible the system of Presbyterial evangelism known as the "Chester Plan."

(7) To appoint a sub-committee which should correspond with other Presbyterian and with Reformed Churches throughout the world concerning a possible coöperation with their Evangelistic Committees.

(8) To consider the request of the Presbyterians in California that the General Assembly's Committee conduct an evangelistic campaign in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915.

We have now to report the steps taken by your Committee in their effort to carry out these instructions. A meeting for reorganization was held in Atlantic City immediately after its reappointment and authority given to the Executive Committee to appoint a new Secretary. At a meeting of the Executive Committee held in Philadelphia on June 16 the selection of Rev. George Gordon Mahy as Secretary was reported and his appointment confirmed.

A Study of the Field and its Needs.

At this meeting it was decided to ascertain as far as possible the evangelistic conditions of the Church, and the Secretary was directed to make such a study in order that the Committee might determine:

I. The need for an increased evangelistic effort in the individual churches.

II. The nature and extent of the existing Presbyterial and Synodical supervision of the evangelistic work of the churches.

III. To what extent, if any, the church desired the continued coöperation of the Assembly's Committee.

I. The Need for an Increased Evangelistic Effort in the Individual Churches.—Through the kindly offices of Dr. Roberts, our Stated Clerk, we were able to secure the following classification of the churches by growth as represented in additions to their membership on examination for the year 1911. The figures here shown most clearly illustrate the need for an increased evangelistic effort in the individual churches.

Your Committee regards these totals as an urgent reason why this Assembly should send to the whole Church an earnest summons to a more definite and consecrated evangelism and should commission us as your representatives with such powers and instructions as will enable us to effectively present your action to all the churches.

II. The Nature and Extent of the Existing Presbyterial Supervision of the Evangelistic Work of the Churches.—A study of the Presbyterial supervision of the evangelistic work of the churches was made by direct correspondence with the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries and the Chairmen of Presbyterial Committees responsible for the evangelistic work in their fields.

Prompt and full replies were received from 246 Presbyteries. These enabled the Secretary to make a careful tabulation of the detailed information contained in the replies and to present a clear report with illustrative charts to your Committee at its meeting held in Columbus, O., on September 27. This report showed: (1) That of the 246 Presbyteries replying to our inquiry, 120 had appointed Evangelistic Committees, and 79 had committed to Home Mission Committees the responsibility for their evangelistic work. The report further showed that only 42 of these 246 Presbyteries had developed a clearly defined plan of Presbyterial evangelism, and that only 29 of the whole number reporting had undertaken and afterwards abandoned Presbyterial evangelistic work. These facts clearly indicated to your Committee that Presbyteries recognize their responsibility for the direction and development of evangelistic work, but that their Committees as appointed have been inactive for the reason that they have been without such leadership as would enable them to map out a plan of action or to develop their resources for the support of their work.

III. To what Extent, if any, does the Church desire the Continued Coöperation and Help of the Assembly's Committee? —The replies to the question whether these Presbyteries would welcome the aid of the Assembly's Committee were so clearly and emphatically in the affirmative and were accompanied by so many urgent requests for immediate coöperation, that the Committee has found it difficult to cover the field in any satisfactory measure, and at the same time do thorough work. These requests came from 187 Presbyteries which desired the help of the Committee either in strengthening the work which they had already begun or in helping them to set up a new program.

The Work among the Presbyteries.

As a result of the correspondence had with the churches and Presbyteries in connection with this study of conditions and the publication and circulation throughout the Church of the facts elicited by it, there was an immediate awakening of interest among the Presbyteries. This brought out many inquiries concerning methods of Presbyterial evangelistic work, and resulted in the appointment of Evangelistic Committees by 61 additional Presbyteries, so that at the present time 181 Presbyteries report Evangelistic Committees. In view of this awakened interest and inquiry and the important relation of these Presbyterial Committees to the evangelistic work of the Church, your Committee determined that the best possible way in which to carry out its instruction by the Assembly, "to stimulate the evangelistic spirit in the Church" would be to render them all possible assistance. The Committee therefore instructed its Secretary to enter into direct correspondence with all Presbyterial Committees, and to send them from time to time in printed form such practical suggestions concerning methods of work as we might be able to glean from the experience of those Presbyteries which had developed a definite evangelistic program. In addition to this, it was decided that the Secretary should visit during the winter as many Presbyteries as possible and confer with their Evangelistic Committees. Accordingly conferences were arranged with Committees and interested leaders in the majority of the Presbyteries in the Synods of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Baltimore and in a number of the Presbyteries in five of the Synods of the Middle West. These visits almost invariably led the Committees to strengthen their organization and to take a firmer hold upon their work, with the immediate result that many of the churches which would otherwise have allowed the year to pass without a direct effort to win men and women to Christ were led into an earnest evangelism.

This work of visitation among the Presbyteries in the eastern Synods was headed up in an Institute on Presbyterial Evangelism, which was held in Atlantic City, N. J., on February 27 and 28. This gathering was attended by representatives of forty-two of the sixty home Presbyteries in the four Synods of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Baltimore, these representatives coming from as far west as Buffalo and as far south as Washington—many of them at their own expense for railroad fare. Evangelistic conferences were also held in connection with seven Presbyterial meetings and at the fall meetings of eleven Synods. Speakers for these conferences were furnished by the Committee at its expense. At the time of the writing of this Report, preparation has been made for a similar Institute to be held at Louisville, Ky., May 14 and 15, for the representatives of the Presbyteries in the Synods of Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Kentucky. It is the firm belief of your Committee that this work of visitation among the Presbyteries and the conduct of Institutes with Presbyterial Evangelistic Committeemen will raise up in every Presbytery a group of men who will be able to furnish both the inspiration and the leadership required for a consistent and continuous policy of Presbyterial evangelism.

Six Presbyteries have during the year adopted the "Chester Plan" and others are ready to do so. Your Committee is advising these Presbyteries, however, to enter upon this work only after careful consideration and when they are sure that they will be able to give it adequate support for a period of at least three years. These Presbyteries are therefore seeking to strengthen their hands for a permanent work, rather than to enter hastily upon a program which they may afterwards be unable to maintain.

We desire to record our appreciation of the nobility and self-sacrifice of the men in our Church who have served on Synodical and Presbyterial Evangelistic Committees. They are burdened with their own pastoral cares, but they have cheerfully and bravely accepted the additional responsibility which this committee service involves. They have aroused the pastors and churches in many sections of our Church to a greater activity and earnestness in soul-winning. Without their cordial coöperation and help it would have been impossible for your Committee to have done the work which this Report presents.

Evangelistic Work in the Colleges.

In response to an invitation from the Chairman of your Committee, representatives of the Board of Education and of the Student Department of the Y. M. C. A. were called into conference shortly before the meeting of the last General Assembly, in order to decide upon a method of coöperation which would make more effective the evangelistic work conducted by your Committee and the Board of Education in our Presbyterian colleges. Since the meeting of the last General Assembly, a final conference was held in New York City, which was attended by representatives of the Student Department of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Associations, in addition to those present at the former conference. As a result of these conferences a method of coöperation was devised which insured not only the interest of the college authorities, but the coöperation of the Christian students affiliated with the College Associations. Under this plan of coöperation your Committee secured the speakers for the college campaigns, the Board of Education prepared the way through correspondence with the college authorities, and the local Student Associations, acting under the direction of the National Student Committees, took an active part in the preparatory work. The expense of these campaigns was shared equally by your Committee and the Board of Education. Speakers were sent to forty-three colleges. The reports from the speakers and from the college presidents show that the encouraging results reported by your Committee to the last General Assembly have during the present year been equaled, if not surpassed. One hundred and eighty-eight evangelistic addresses were given. One hundred and seventy students were led to confess Christ as Saviour and 442 students who had become careless and indifferent were led to make a new dedication of themselves to Christ. By reason of the experience which your Committee and the Board of Education have gained in the conduct of this work and the harmonious coöperation of the leaders of the student work in the colleges, we have already been able to initiate plans for the coming year which will be much more definite and thorough than anything yet undertaken in this field of unequaled opportunity and responsibility.

World-wide Work.

Dr. Chapman, who was appointed by the Assembly representative-at-large of your Committee, spent the early winter months in Great Britain and conducted successful evangelistic campaigns in Belfast and other points. Later in the winter he and his associates went to Australasia. They report an enthusiastic welcome and a general awakening of interest in the series of missions which began at Melbourne, and which will include all the principal cities and towns.

Your Committee was directed by the last General Assembly to appoint a Committee on Coöperation with other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches throughout the world, that it might conduct correspondence with similar Committees of these bodies regarding such evangelistic work as might be developed within their respective bounds. The Committee as appointed consists of: Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Chairman; Elder L. H. Severance, Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D.; with Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., and Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., ex-officio members.

Dr. Roberts visited Europe on behalf of this Committee in October and November, 1911, and held conferences with church leaders and officers in Edinburgh, London, Geneva and Belfast, two of which were with regularly constituted Evangelistic Committees of their Churches. At these Conferences requests were made that the Committee on Co-operation should not only continue the correspondence already entered upon, but that it should also present to the European brethren definite suggestions as to methods of evangelistic work approved by our own and other American Churches.

Dr. Roberts reports a conference of unusual interest with the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, in which 250 ministers and elders were present to meet him at the call of the Moderator, Rev. Dr. McMillan. Dr. Roberts also reports a deep interest in the subject of Evangelism as presented by him and the general expression of opinion that a world-wide revival of spiritual religion would be the best monument to the great reformers—Luther and Calvin—in connection with the four hundredth anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

The Request from the Pacific Coast.

Your Committee was instructed by the last General Assembly to give careful consideration to the request from the Presbytery of Oakland and others on the Pacific Coast that this Committee should take the lead in arranging for an Evangelistic Campaign in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915.

In carrying out these instructions, your Committee would report that Rev. Henry Collin Minton, D.D., as Chairman of a Sub-committee to which this matter was referred, went to California last November and held Conferences with Presbyterian and other evangelical leaders, both in Los Angeles and San Francisco. From the presentations made by Dr. Minton on his return, your Committee concludes that the need for such a work is very great, but that this is a task not for one denomination, but for all the Evangelical Churches, and that the initiative, indicating and guaranteeing at least a united moral support and a strong spiritual backing, must certainly be taken on the ground. Your Committee very strongly believes that something should be done to meet this need; that it is a splendid opportunity for the coöperation of all the Evangelical Churches in America; that the occasion is well timed to challenge the spirit of unity which now exists among the Churches. We are gratified to learn that a Federal Evangelistic Commission has recently been organized by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. We deem it a providential coincidence that this Commission should be created in time to face this great opportunity and trust that the Assembly will look with favor upon your Committee's recommendation to refer this whole matter of an evangelistic campaign on the Pacific Coast in 1915 to this body, with the assurance that our Church, represented by this Assembly and a constituent factor in the Federal Council, will be most ready to contribute its full share in the doing of this work.

This Report is respectfully submitted with the following Recommendations and Resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly appoint a Committee on Evangelistic Work, to be composed of nine ministers and nine elders, with a sufficient number of members living near enough to the headquarters in Philadelphia to constitute an active working Executive Committee; that the expenses of the members of the whole Committee in attendance at two regular meetings be paid by the General Assembly, and that this Committee be entrusted with the following commission:

(1) To do all in its power to deepen the evangelistic spirit in the individual Churches.

(2) By correspondence, conference and coöperation with Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, and by conducting carefully planned Evangelistic Institutes, to bring to the whole Church the best evangelistic experiences of any successful portions of the Church.

(3) To aid existing Synodical and Presbyterial Evangelistic Committees in their present effort to develop a definite and continuous program of evangelism in the fields under their supervision.

(4) To send strong speakers, with the evangelistic message, to our Presbyterian Colleges working in coöperation with the Board of Education.

(5) To coöperate with other denominations in any general program of evangelistic effort which may commend itself to the Committee.

Resolved, 2. That Presbyteries and Synods be urged to continue the policy which has been emphasized during the past year, of appointing men on their Evangelistic Committees, who, by reason of their personal influence and example, will be able to lead the churches in their fields to a more earnest and efficient evangelistic endeavor.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly urges all our churches to give cordial support to the present policy of the Assembly's Committee, which seeks, through coöperation with Presbyterial and Synodical Committees, to develop in the Church a more earnest and persistent evangelistic spirit and a more efficient evangelistic work.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly recommends to the faculty and student bodies of our Presbyterian colleges the fullest coöperation with your Committee and with the Board of Education in their effort to present to the students of these institutions, from year to year, through the agency of chosen ministers of our Church, the call to Christian discipleship and service.

Resolved, 5. That the present Committee on Coöperation with other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, consisting of three members of your Evangelistic Committee, be continued, and that it report the results of its work to the Assembly, through your Committee.

Resolved, 6. That your Committee be authorized to appoint special representatives selected from different sections of the country, who shall advise and coöperate with the Committee in carrying on its work.

Resolved, 7. That the General Assembly refer the matter of the proposed evangelistic campaign on the Pacific Coast, in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915, to the Evangelistic Commission recently created by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

For the Committee,
CHARLES L. HUSTON, Chairman.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored:

DYERSBURG, TENN., May 17, 1912.

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Louisville, Ky.:

Greetings: Read Philippians i : 2. Action on resolutions of the Permanent Committee has been unanimously adopted. Fraternal delegate is Prof. W. M. Wolfe.

J. M. W. DESHONG, Moderator;
JAMES EDWARDS, Stated Clerk.

The following response was sent:

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Dyersburg, Tenn.:

We cordially reciprocate your fraternal greetings, and invoke upon you the blessing of God. See Ephesians, chapter four, verses four and five.

MARK A. MATTHEWS, Moderator;
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 17, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.

SATURDAY, May 18, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners, who were duly enrolled: Minister—W. D. Atkinson, of the Presbytery of Bellefontaine; Ruling Elder—Richmond Herrell, of the Presbytery of White River.

The Committee on Polity, through its Chairman, presented a Special Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Polity, to which was referred, by the Assembly, the credentials of the Rev. W. A. Patterson and Ruling Elder J. H. Harrison, who were elected Commissioners to the General Assembly by the Executive Commission of the Presbytery of Fort Worth, reports that inasmuch as our Form of Government states that a Presbytery may create an Executive Commission and determine its powers and duties, and inasmuch as the Presbytery of Fort Worth created a Commission, distinctly stating that the Commission should have power to receive certain ministers by letter from other Presbyteries, and upon so receiving them have power to elect Commissioners to the General Assembly, we recommend that the credentials of these Commissioners so appointed, namely, Rev. W. A. Patterson and Elder J. H. Harrison, be approved and that these Commissioners be seated.

But the Committee on Polity reserves the right at a later day in this Assembly to ask the Assembly to take such action as will define the province of an Executive Commission with reference to receiving ministers by letter, and electing Commissioners to the Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

J. G. K. McClure, Chairman.

An invitation to visit its rooms was received from the Louisville Public Library, and was accepted with thanks.

Requests in said Reports for appropriations of money were referred to the Finance Committee.

All Overtures not referred to other Committees were ordered referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, through its Chairman, Mr. James Yereance, presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by Rev. M. D. Kneeland, D.D., Rev. B. L. Hobson, D.D., Rev. S. M. Templeton, D.D., and Hon. John W. Foster, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

> "In every country where it is honored, the Sabbath is a palladium of liberty and the ark of religion. A nation trained through its devout observance to the knowledge and practice of piety will neither aspire to be tyrants nor submit to be slaves."—Dr. Guthrie.
> "As we keep or break the Sabbath Day, we nobly save or meanly lose the last best hope by which man rises."—Abraham Lincoln.

Your Committee has during the past year continued to give its hearty coöperation to the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States (of which the Chairman of this Committee is the President), and to the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, both national organizations, as also to the various State and District Sabbath Associations auxiliary to and affiliated or coöperating therewith. We continue to believe most emphatically that these organizations, in many of which are represented the various Protestant denominations, Roman Catholic and labor organizations, can accomplish far more in securing the proper enforcement of existing Sabbath laws, in defeating the passage of the annual crop of anti-Sabbath bills in the Legislatures of the various States to break down the Sabbath, and in educating the people of the country in their God-given right of the Sabbath for rest and worship, than could possibly be effected by an organization of this Assembly in the same field for the same object, with the attending expense of its denominational agency.

From a world-wide vision of the Sabbath cause, we record with gratitude the following:

Victories during the Year.

Closing of Post-offices on Sunday.—Further progress has been made in this direction, until now 90 per cent. of the post-offices of the country are closed on the Lord's Day. The postal authorities at Washington, when first the movement was urged, feared the result would increase the deficit of the postal service for the previous year, which was over $17,500,000. They have been agreeably surprised that, at the end of one year, since the order for Sunday closing, the surplus was over $300,000—a net gain of over $18,000,000. Thus has God prospered the nation in this department in honoring His law.

In San Francisco, formerly, as many as 20,000, mostly strangers, called for their mail on Sunday; now not more than twenty people call.

Postal employés have recognized that with the boon of a Sabbath rest, there devolved an obligation to spend the day in worship as well as rest. Pastors throughout the country have welcomed them and their families to the services, and received many into the membership of their churches.

Does this experience not prove that the most effectual way to reach the unsaved and unchurched masses, as we speak of them, is for the Church to address itself to the task of changing conditions that bind 3,000,000 and more of the toilers of the nation to a slavery as blighting in its mental, physical and spiritual effect as was ever African slavery?

Lord's Day Week.—The week commencing the second Sabbath of April has this year been more generally observed throughout the world than ever before. Last year, 20,000 sermons enforcing the claims of the Sabbath were preached in England alone; this year we believe there have been an increased number there.

LEGISLATION.—New England.—No less than thirty-six bills relating to the Lord's Day were before the legislatures of the New England States, mostly for business or sports on that day. But two bills were passed—one mildly unfavorable to the cause, by permitting the sale of Kosher meat on Sunday morning, and affecting only the Jewish people who dwell in certain sections. The other, favorable, was passed in Connecticut, and provides that "every person or corporation who shall require or permit an employé to do any secular business or labor for more than six days, of ten hours each, in any one week, shall be fined not more than $50."

New York.—None of the anti-Sabbath bills before the New York Legislature this year has become a law. A bill limiting the hours of work to fifty-four hours in each week has been passed.

California.—The prospects of securing a Sunday law for California are promising. Nearly all classes of business seem to favor such a law. Labor organizations stand willing to coöperate, and all classes of what we call "laboring" men are anxious for one day's rest in seven. A mining operator having large interests in California and Oregon has advocated and urged upon other operators the necessity of Sunday rest for all miners, stating that he believed that thereby their productive value would be so increased that the miners could receive 25 per cent. advance in their wages, and the operators would still derive larger profits than under the present system, which requires seven days a week service.

North Dakota has enacted a law prohibiting any theatre, picture or other show or performance on Sunday.

Utah, in its new excise law, "provides that all licensed places must be closed on Sunday."

Sports, etc.—The United States Government has closed its reserves, on Sundays, to competing clubs, and forbids the presence of citizens, except by special permission.

There has been a marked reduction in Sunday baseball in Rhode Island and elsewhere throughout the country. Certain professionals now refuse to play ball on Sundays.

Some six years ago, the golf clubs of Chicago decided to discontinue Sunday golf, their object being the preservation of the "green." However, within a year, pressure for Sunday play became so great, the practice was resumed. Once again the pendulum has swung back, and the majority of the clubs in that city have come definitely to the conclusion that the "green" does require a day of rest, and have determined that there shall be no Sunday golf for the future. We are reminded of the sturdy Scotchman who was defending the Sabbath against the intrusion of this pastime. His opponent in argument said that he did not require a day of rest. The The Scotchman's reply was, "If you dinna, the green does."

China.—The late Imperial Government issued an edict which decreed that Sunday should thereafter be observed as a day of rest in the Chinese Court, and that no business, unless urgent, should be transacted by the Government Boards on that day. With the passing of the Empire, and with the new Republic in the hands of young Chinamen, many of whom are Christians, whose minds have been moulded by the faithful missionaries and cultured in our own universities, can we dream of anything stranger, a Chinese Republic with a Christian Sabbath!

While there is much cause for thankfulness, there is need of prayerful consideration as we briefly present a Survey of General Conditions.

Industrial.—While one day in seven is being more generally given for rest among the employés of many industrial concerns, our attention was directed a short time ago to the fact that one of the largest and wealthiest concerns in the country required thousands of their employés in certain departments to work seven days a week, twelve hours and more a day, with no holidays, and, if they lived through a year, a two weeks' vacation was given. The Chairman took up the matter with the heaviest capitalist interested—a Christian and very benevolent gentleman—to secure the remedy of these conditions. The result has been extended correspondence, but the conditions are not yet changed, and the employés, discouraged and well-nigh hopeless, still cry, "How long, O Lord, how long?"

Panama Exposition.—This Exposition will open in San Francisco, in 1915. Efforts have been made to close the gates on the Sabbath. The United States Government will close its Exhibition building, but has no control over the Exposition or its gates, since no financial aid has been sought from or is to be given by the Government: otherwise, following the precedents of former expositions, the Government would doubtless make the closing of the gates on Sunday a condition precedent to the grant. The present prospects for success in closing the gates on Sunday, are not as promising as we could wish. This is largely due to the fact that the ministry and Christian people on the Coast are only partially aroused. In the southern part of California the sentiment is strongly in favor of this. We urge all Commissioners from the Coast to use their weighty influence to secure the closing of the gates of the Panama Exposition on the Lord's Day.

Washington, D. C.—In the capital of the nation there is continued and increasing laxity in Sabbath observance, owing to the difficulty of securing legislation. The District of Columbia has no Sunday law, and all efforts to secure one have thus far been unavailing. Stores are open in many parts of the city; theatres, concerts, five- and ten-cent shows abound as on other days; building operations and real estate business are conducted as on other days. Many of the United States Government offices are open, and many of the clerks feel the pressure that compels them to be there; but we make special mention and commendation of the United States Post-office Department, which has not only so greatly aided in the Sunday closing of post-offices throughout the country, but has in its Department offices in Washington largely reduced Sunday work. Social functions on the Sabbath have very much multiplied, and their publicity and patronage by prominent officials and social leaders are tending very seriously to debauch the public conscience upon the whole subject. The Sabbath of the National Capital has reflex influence upon the whole country.

Salt Lake City.—Rev. Dr. Grannis, the efficient General Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, when in that city a couple of months ago, spoke on "The Sabbath as the Family Day," to an audience of 5,000, in the Mormon Tabernacle, at their regular Sunday afternoon meeting. He urged the importance of maintaining the purity and integrity of the family circle as the only hope of the nation. The address occupied forty minutes and was given the closest attention.

Light-house Inspection.—While the claim is made that the inspectors of light-houses along our coast are not expected nor obliged to work on the Lord's Day, it has recently come to light that a faithful inspector who has been long in the service and has a splendid record was removed because he objected to Sunday work, and a friend of a party in power was put in his place. The attitude of the Government service should be so clear and positive on the question, that no man need be in danger of losing his position because of his loyalty to the Sabbath. Government engineers and firemen, as well as inspectors, need and should have one day's rest in seven.

Ohio.—More aggressive work for Sabbath Observance is being conducted in the State of Ohio. At the solicitation of the Cincinnati Drug Clerks' Association, the General Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, when in that city a couple of months ago, started a movement to secure relief for that deadly overworked class of public servants, many of whom work seventeen hours per day, with but few Sundays or holidays. Some of these drug clerks said there were two rushes on Sunday: first, the "church" rush, and then the "theatre" rush. But for these rushes there would be but little call for them to work seventeen hours on Sunday. Asked for an explanation of the "church rush," they replied, "Oh, soda-water and cigars."

Sunday Sports.—In his admirable leaflet, "Using a Good Game in a Wrong Way," Rev. Dr. Malcolm J. MacLeod says: "The automobile and the links are doing more to empty our churches than any other lure of the evil one." One hundred thousand caddies are kept from Sabbath-school by golf. Even church members are sometimes offenders. Aviation meet at Mineola, L. I., was appointed "from September 23 to 30, excepting Sunday, September 24." In violation of this announcement, ascents were made on Sunday, but through appeals to the Governor and injunction secured, subsequent meets on Sunday were not attempted.

Sunday sports blight character. Criminology proves that they are the chief weakness of the foundations of character; nine-tenths of those who enter prison started that way by Sabbath-breaking, largely Sunday sport.

Canada.—International Fisheries: It is gratifying to note that Canada holds a high place among the nations of the world in her practical recognition of the Lord's Day. Some one has said that Canada has the best Sunday of any nation in the world. Through her representatives on the Fisheries Commission this year, she was instrumental in raising the question of the recognition of the Lord's Day to the level of international concern. To the representatives of Canada and those of the United States the Hague Tribunal had left certain matters for settlement. When in conference upon these matters the Canadian representatives raised the question of Sunday fishing, and insisted that the day should be recognized in any arrangement at which they should arrive. They were able to secure complete concession of their demands, and as a consequence the Lord's Day has a place in international relations as respects the fishing industry.

British Columbia.—The Attorney-General prosecutes all violations of the Lord's Day Act and gives his consent to local authorities to prosecute in organized territory.

Prince Edward Island is the banner province for Lord's Day Observance. It practically has no Sunday problems.

Nova Scotia.—Football games on Sunday afternoon by the sailors of a German training ship in port at Halifax, were stopped, on personal explanation being made to the parties concerned that this was not the custom of the place.

New Brunswick.—Railway construction, towing by lumber companies, abattoir work, loading of ships, etc., on Sundays, have been stopped.

England.—The steel industry in England has no Sunday labor. The moral and religious sentiment against Sunday labor is far stronger than in America. Dr. A. C. Dixon gives impressions of English church life. "They require that one practice and preach on strict observance of Sunday." The private secretary of King George wrote to a meeting, to advocate Sunday Rest Day for Actors, "The King heartily sympathizes with any movement toward assuring to working people rest on Sundays," and in giving assent to the Police Weekly Rest Day Act the King expressed his approval.

In closing this Survey and Report, your Committee again urges upon the ministers and officers of our churches that, by example as well as precept, the greatest care should be constantly exercised that the Lord's Day be sacredly observed by the Lord's people.

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly reiterates its strong and emphatic disapproval of all secular uses of the Sabbath Day, all games and sports, in civic life as also in Army and Navy, all unnecessary traveling and all excursions, and urges upon all employers of labor and captains of industry to recognize the need of the laboring man for his weekly rest day, and thereby insure his greater efficiency and happiness, and the greater prosperity of both capital and labor.

Resolved, 2. That we most respectfully call the attention of all public officials to the potent influence of their position, pro or con, on all moral questions, and the necessity of greater care on their part, proportioned to the exalted nature of the offices which they occupy, that they may strengthen rather than weaken, by their influence, public and private observance of the Lord's Day; and this Assembly respectfully, but emphatically, urges all public officials faithfully to enforce all laws to protect the Sabbath from desecration.

Resolved, 3. The General Assembly urges on all families not to buy anything on the Sabbath, to plan for their servants on the Sabbath and to help them fulfill their religious duties, and to pay laborers so that they may have Saturday afternoon to make provision for the Sabbath.

Resolved, 4. That this Assembly heartily endorses the plan of the Saturday half-holiday, and recognizes it as tending to the better observance of the Sabbath.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly hereby reiterates its emphatic condemnation of the Sunday newspaper, and urges the members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to refuse to subscribe for it or read it or advertise in it.

Resolved, 6. That the General Assembly respectfully requests the faculties of colleges and seminaries, if the way be clear, to omit recitations on Monday mornings, so as to leave the Sabbath free from the felt necessity of some of the students to prepare their lessons on that day.

Resolved, 7. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Presbytery, to coöperate with similar committees of other denominations within its bounds in aiding the work of local Sabbath associations; and where such organizations do not exist, to promote the formation of such associations in connection with the State or national organizations, the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance.

Resolved, 8. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Synod, of which the Chairman of each Presbytery's Committee on Sabbath Observance shall be at least a corresponding member, and that the Synod's Committee shall coöperate with the State Sabbath Associations.

Resolved, 9. That we most heartily commend and warmly endorse the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, national organizations, in their efforts to preserve, in its purity, the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, 10. That we earnestly recommend that the second week in April, embracing the second and third Sundays, be observed as a Week of Prayer for the preservation of the Lord's Day, in its quiet, rest and worship; that the lesson in all our Sabbath-schools, on the second Sabbath of April, be on the observance of the Sabbath; and that each pastor of our communion preach a sermon, on the second Sabbath of April next, or at some more convenient time, on the subject of the Sabbath, and that at that time an offering be made for the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States (which is the association organized by the coöperation of the General Assembly in 1888, and which represents the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in this department of Christian work), or, in lieu of an offering, we recommend that the Alliance be placed upon the list of benevolences of the churches, contributions to be sent to James Marshall Stuart, Treasurer, 203 Broadway, New York City, and that the Committee on Sabbath Observance be continued, without any expense, as usual, to the Assembly.

Resolved, 11. That the Moderator and Stated Clerk be authorized to petition Congress in behalf of this Assembly: (1) For a Sunday Rest Law for the National Capital, forbidding work, business and amusement on that day as in the best Sunday laws of the States; (2) for a law to make permanent by statute the reduction of Sunday work in post-offices, that has been accomplished by executive orders of the Postmaster-General, and to complete the suppression of all unnecessary work on that day.

The Judicial Committee, through its Chairman, presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Judicial Case No. 1, being the Complaint of S. W. Haynes vs. the Synod of Indiana. Said Complaint being found in order, it is recommended that it be sent with all the papers pertaining thereto to the Permanent Judicial Commission for adjudication.

Judicial Case No. 2, being the Complaint of Rev. Edward Eells vs. the Synod of New York. As no reason for the Complaint is given therein, it is recommended that no action be taken.

Judicial Case No. 3, being the Appeal of Rev. S. A. Penn vs. the Synod of Catawba. Said Complaint being in order, it is recommended that it be referred to the Permanent Judicial Commission for adjudication.

Judicial Case No. 4, being the Complaint of Miss Maggie Gowland vs. the Synod of Illinois. Said Complaint being found not in order, it is recommended that no action be taken.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. SNEED, Chairman.

In Judicial Case No. 3, Rev. James K. Thompson, D.D., was appointed by the Assembly as Counsel for the Appellant on the latter's written request.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Bristol, Tenn.:

BRISTOL, TENN., May 17, 1912.

Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, General Assembly Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Louisville, Ky.:

Please convey to your Assembly the fraternal greetings of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. Welcome South. May the things we hold in common, both past and present, as well as our common Lord, keep our friendship sweet, our faith steadfast, and our work invincible.

THOMAS S. CLYCE, Moderator;
THOMAS H. LAW, Stated Clerk.

The following was sent in response:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Bristol, Tenn.:

The General Assembly in session at Louisville, Ky., rejoices in your cordial salutations, and greets you as brethren beloved. We have by a unanimous vote decided to meet next May, at Atlanta, Georgia. We accept heartily your welcome to come South. See Romans, first chapter, verses eight to twelve.

MARK A. MATTHEWS, Moderator;
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Committee on The Assembly Herald, through its Chairman, presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

Your Committee herewith presents its annual report for the year ending December 31, 1911, which we are glad to say shows a substantial financial improvement over the last few years.

The deficit for 1911 was $2,073.27, as against $3,979.82 for 1910, and $5,076.29 for 1909—an improvement for 1911 over 1910 of $1,906.55.

The Assembly Herald for 1911 gave to its readers 580 pages of reading matter, divided as follows:

Home Missions	204 pages
Foreign Missions	154 "
College Board	27 "
Board of Education	28 "
Board of Ministerial Relief	29 "
Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work	34 "
Board of Church Erection	27 "
Board for Freedmen	26 "
Ministerial Sustentation Fund	11 "
Temperance	14 "
Special Articles	26 "

As indicating the appreciation of readers, your Committee received very strong letters which might be quoted possibly by the hundred. The Rev. S. C. Dickson, First Church of Bloomsburg, Pa., wrote: "I am glad to say that plans are under way to put The Assembly Herald in every family in my church as I did before in Point Pleasant, N. J. I congratulate you on the fine work now being done by The Assembly Herald and I enjoy the magazine more than ever."

The Rev. George E. Davies, Merriam Park Church, St. Paul, Minn., wrote: "I have always felt The Assembly Herald to be a wise investment upon the part of the Boards and feel it more distinctly now than ever. You are improving it in every way. I regard the February issue the best yet, but of course you will not be content till your good is better and your better is best."

Special numbers as follows have been prepared and received with marked approval. Large numbers of extra copies of these have been ordered and the editions in every case exhausted without calls being nearly supplied.

January—Information for the uninformed as to the work of each Board. Calls for 3,285 extra copies filled when the edition was exhausted.

June—General Assembly number.

The July number contained for the first time a résumé of the proceedings of the General Assembly. It was a great success, and, after supplying 4,574 copies above the regular edition, orders for over a thousand had to be returned.

Rev. George Edwin Parisoe, of the First Church of Minden, Neb., wrote: "The special numbers of The Assembly Herald containing the proceedings of the General Assembly have been delivered to my membership, and the people in each instance expressed a desire to receive in readable form the proceedings of the General Assembly. You have conferred a favor upon the membership of our great Church in publishing in this form the Minutes. I am sure it will prove a great help to pastors and an encouragement to the people for an enlargement of their gifts."

October was made a "Budget" number, and, although the subject was rather dry, yet it was well received and in all about 2,000 extra copies ordered.

Mr. C. G. Roop, of Bainbridge, N. Y., wrote to your Committee: "Your issue of January, 1911, is worth more in my judgment than any other six issues excepting the last, your Budget number, which with the January issue is worth more than all the others put together. A digest of the facts is most useful for presentation of the various causes. The general articles and illustrations are indispensable, but certainly digested statements presenting a given cause, e.g., Foreign Missions, in its entirety and succinctly, are more adaptable for making definite impressions on the minds of the average laymen."

Subscriptions.

When the books closed December 31, 1911, the subscription list showed a falling off for the year of 1,386 copies, but we are glad to say that this has been made up and the total at this date, April 1, is 51,492 copies, as compared with 50,709, December 31, 1910. It has been more difficult, in spite of an improved Assembly Herald to obtain subscriptions than at any time in the past. This is undoubtedly due to the special efforts put forth by the women's publications and to the great amount of literature furnished by the Boards.

Such attractive publications as All the World and the Bulletin gotten out by the Foreign Board, and the numberless leaflets which are distributed without charge by the Home, Foreign and other Boards, supply such an amount of reading matter that pastors and people frequently make the remark that they have all they need.

There was spent during the year 1911 $1,507.31 for subscription work, an increase of $426.02 over the year before. Most of this is accounted for by the expense incurred at the General Assembly at Atlantic City.

The item of subscription expense is very small considering the work to be done. The postage item alone for 1911 was about $500, so that the balance of $1,000 had to cover the cost of printing, subscription envelopes, blanks, etc., not only for getting new subscriptions, but in seeking to have the old ones renewed.

Advertising.

Advertising is just as worrying as ever. Religious publications, especially those in the denominational class and of a missionary character, are less and less in favor with the advertiser. Agencies, practically without exception, work against them. 1911 was a good year in this department for The Assembly Herald, the net receipts being $499.88 in excess of those for 1910 and the actual profit, after deducting the cost of the pages required to carry the advertisements, was approximately $2,243.

No other publication of the character of The Assembly Herald carries anywhere near as much advertising.

General.

We would call your attention to the missionary prayer meeting outline which now appears monthly in the Herald. The Rev. C. Waldo Cherry, of Troy, N. Y., was using a similar programme for his people and he has kindly prepared the page for The Assembly Herald. It is very well received and we believe will serve to bring the work of all of the Boards to the attention of the people and at the same time advertise the Herald.

The comparative balance sheet herewith appended shows receipts and disbursements for the years 1910 and 1911.

Respectfully submitted,

In connection with this Report, Section VIII of the Report of the Executive Commission, on the "Consolidation of Missionary Magazines," was considered and was adopted.

The following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on The Assembly Herald be requested to incorporate on one page of its monthly issue information to the Presbyterian public, which shall give the name of each Board of the Presbyterian Church, and of the various Women's Boards thereof, together with such other information as shall be necessary to enable persons desiring so to do, to make legal bequests to the various Boards of the Presbyterian Church.

The Stated Clerk presented the following:

To the General Assembly:

The Stated Clerk reports to the General Assembly of 1912, the state of the vote on the Overtures sent down to the Presbyteries by the General Assembly of 1911, and as follows:

Overture No. 1, to amend Form of Government, Chapter XII, Section 7: Presbyteries in the affirmative, 61; in the negative, 209; taking no action or not reporting, 22.

Overture No. 2, to amend Directory of Worship, Chapter VIII, Section 3: Presbyteries in the affirmative, 203; in the negative, 52; taking no action or not reporting, 37.

Overture No. 3, being Constitutional Rule No. 4: Presbyteries in the affirmative, 187; in the negative, 81; taking no action and not reporting, 24.

In accordance with the rule of the General Assembly, it is the duty of the Assembly to appoint a Committee of Canvass, consisting of three ministers and two ruling elders.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Report was received, and the following Committee of Canvass was appointed: Ministers—Edgar W. Work, D.D., W. S. Gilbert, Peyton H. Hoge, D.D.; Ruling Elders—William P. Nye and D. W. McWilliams.

The Special Committee on the Tenth Council of the World Presbyterian Alliance, through its Chairman, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to name the delegates to the Tenth Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System reports as follows:

The Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1911 (see Minutes, p. 120) and by the following action:

We recommend the names of the following, as a Committee of the General Assembly, to nominate the delegates to the Pan-Presbyterian Council, to be held in Aberdeen, Scotland, in the summer of 1913, the members of the Committee, in accordance with custom, to be delegates: Ministers—John F. Carson, D.D., W. H. Roberts, D.D., W. B. Noble, D.D., Robert Mackenzie, D.D., J. V. Stephens, D.D., H. B. MacCauley, D.D; Ruling Elders—Gen. Ralph E. Prime, W. H. Scott and Henry W. Jessup. The first three names are ex-officio members of this Committee.

The Committee met in the city of New York, January 5, 1912, and has given careful attention to the matter entrusted to its care. The basis of representation in the Council is one member for each 12,000 communicants in the Churches, entitling this Church to 112 delegates. The distribution of delegates has been made on that basis, in so far as practicable, geographically and by Synods. The ministers number 62 and the ruling elders 48. The General Assembly of 1911 appointed the members of this Committee as delegates, nine in number, and the other persons selected number 101, and it is recommended that the two additional delegates be the Moderators of the Assembly for 1912 and 1913. The entire list is as follows:

It is understood that the expenses incurred by attendance upon the Council are to be paid by the delegates themselves. This has been the unvarying usage in connection with the Councils.

The adoption of the following customary resolutions is recommended:

1. That in accordance with usage, the Moderator for the time being and the Stated and Permanent Clerks are hereby constituted a Committee to fill vacancies in the delegation.

2. That the delegates be directed to report to the General Assembly meeting in 1914, through two of their number, selected by themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

John F. Carson, Chairman.

The Committee on Editions of the Constitution presented a Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Committees on New Editions of the Constitution, the Digest, and the Reprinting of the Minutes, constituted of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, presents a joint Report as follows:

1. The Committee on Editions of the Constitution respectfully reports that the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work has issued, under the editorship of the Committee, an edition of the Constitution, dated 1912, which is accurate and complete. During the ecclesiastical year there has also been printed a German Edition of the Administrative Standards, under the editorship of competent German scholars in the ministry of this Church.

2. The manuscript for a new edition of the Digest is practically in hand, and needs but little additional matter. The Stated Clerk, who is the editor, feels, however, that there is need for a very careful personal revision of all material in the Digest prior to publication. The work is in such shape, that it will be issued at an early date.

3. Material for the reprinting of the Minutes of the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly is in hand, and it is hoped that the time will soon come when it will be appropriate for this General Assembly to provide for the publication of the same. The following resolution is submitted for adoption.

Resolved, That the Committees on Editions of the Constitution, on the Digest, and on the Reprinting of the Minutes be continued, with the same purposes and under the same directions as hitherto.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
WM. B. NOBLE,
ALEXANDER HENRY.

Rev. Charles W. Hays presented a Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. Also a question, which was referred to the Committee on Polity.

The Committee on the Centennial of Princeton Theological Seminary presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Committee to bear congratulations to Princeton Theological Seminary on its Centennial was appointed by the following action of the General Assembly of 1911:

"That the congratulations of the Church, through this General Assembly, be extended to Princeton Theological Seminary, in view of the approaching one hundredth anniversary of the founding of that institution, and that, in response to the invitation presented, the following Committee be appointed to participate in the coming Centennial: Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., the Moderator of the Synod of New Jersey, the Moderator of the Synod of New York, the Moderator of the Synod of Pennsylvania, the Hon. Woodrow Wilson, Governor of New Jersey, and the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska." (Minutes, 1911, p. 189.)

The names of the Moderators of the Synods on the Committee are as follows: the Rev. William M. Dager, A.B., Moderator of the Synod of New Jersey; the Rev. Martin D. Kneeland, D.D., Moderator of the Synod of New York; and the Rev. Samuel A. Cornelius, D.D., Moderator of the Synod of Pennsylvania.

The Committee reports the performance of its acceptable duty, and acknowledges the hearty welcome with which it was received by the authorities of "The Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., located at Princeton, New Jersey." The Centennial was celebrated on May 5, 6 and 7. The exercises were characterized by appropriate dignity, felicitous addresses, and by the presence of more than 500 alumni, also the representatives of Presbyterian and other Churches on both sides of the Atlantic, and delegates from more than one hundred institutions of learning. Specially notable was the presence of the Moderators of the General Assemblies of the Church of Scotland, the United Free Church of Scotland, the Free Church of Scotland, and the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. There were also present the Moderators or Presidents of eight American Churches. The occasion was historic and the Celebration worthy of the Seminary and the Church.

It is recommended that the following minute be approved by the Assembly:

"The General Assembly hereby places upon record its congratulations to 'The Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., located at Princeton, N. J.,' upon its one hundred years of completed service to Christ and to the Church. The plan of the Institution, adopted by the General Assembly of 1811, sets forth the relation of the General Assembly to the Theological Seminary as 'the patron and fountain of its power,' and states the design of the Institution in definite terms. It was established—'To form men for the Gospel Ministry who shall believe and cordially love, and therefore endeavor to protect and defend in its genuineness, simplicity, and fullness, that system of religious belief and practice which is set forth in the Confession of Faith, Catechisms, and Plan of Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church'; also 'to provide for the Church men who shall be able to defend her faith against infidels and her doctrines against heretics'; and further who shall possess 'an enlightened attachment not only to the same doctrines but to the same plan of government.'

"The General Assembly heartily recognizes that the Boards of Directors and Trustees, and the Faculty of the Seminary, have administered with fidelity the trust committed to them, and in particular acknowledges that the educational progress made by the Institution has been for the most part due to its able and scholarly professors, who through four generations have been largely instrumental in the production of ministers competent by abilities, learning and training, for the high and holy office of ambassadors of Jesus Christ.

"The General Assembly congratulates itself that forty-three of its Moderators have received training within the walls of this Institution, that many of the leaders in the missionary and benevolent work of the Church have had the same privilege, and that out from it have gone hundreds of home and foreign missionaries, and above all, in the successive generations, a great number of pastors who have served faithfully in their respective spheres of labor, and have built up Christ's likeness in many human lives, and have laid the foundation of churches and organizations which have become powers in the Church Universal. The Assembly also rejoices in the catholicity of the Institution as shown by the fact that students of all evangelical churches have been freely admitted to its courses of instruction. In this breadth of acknowledgment of Christian fellowship, the Seminary and the Church are one.

"With grateful recognition of the loyalty of the widespread constituency, that from the origin of the Institution has furnished the resources and the sympathetic support which have enabled it to maintain with some degree of adequacy the purposes for which it was established, the Assembly commends the Institution to the Church at large, for a continued generous and cordial support, believing that there lies before Princeton Theological Seminary along the lines of the trust reposed in it, a most useful and great future. 'Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.'"

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN F. CARSON, Chairman;
WM. H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

The Special Committee on the Overture from the Presbytery of Great Falls presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Overture from the Presbytery of Great Falls respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was appointed, on the recommendation of the Committee on Polity (see Minutes, General Assembly, 1911, p. 226) and consists of the Moderator and the Stated Clerk, with the Rev. John Dixon, D.D.

The Overture referred to the Committee was as follows:

"1. Where a church has ceased to maintain regular meetings, and there is no specific requirement named in the State statutes, shall a written notice of a congregational meeting, sent through the mails, be deemed a sufficient notice?

"2. When communicants of a church are suspended in accordance with the Book of Discipline (Chapter VII, Section 50) (Digest, 1898, p. 665), is it necessary that a formal notice of said action shall be served on the parties suspended, in order that said action shall become effective?

"3. In the above action, do suspended members still retain the right to vote in congregational meetings, either before or after the serving of a formal notice of suspension?"

The Committee has given careful consideration to the whole subject of the Overture, and respectfully reports the following answers to the questions of the Presbytery of Great Falls.

1. Notices as to congregational meetings, i.e., meetings having to do with the election of trustees and the care of the temporalities, are subject as to the character and the time of notice to the Statutes of the State wherein the congregation is located. The Presbytery is, therefore, respectfully referred to persons familiar with the statutes of the State of Montana, in this matter of notices for "congregational" meetings.

2. When absentee members of a church are suspended, in accordance with the Book of Discipline, Chapter VII, Section 50, it is, after effort at notification on the part of the Session. The notice of Session's intention to act precedes suspension, and does not come after it. The law of suspension, however, contained in Section 50 of the Book of Discipline, affects only absentee church members, who have removed from the community where the church with which they are connected is located, and does not affect members temporarily absent from church services and still residing in the community. The Session cannot by resolution suspend resident church members, but must proceed regularly by process in accordance with the Book of Discipline. But where the Session suspends non-resident absentee members by resolution, and the provisions of the Book of Discipline in cases without process have been complied with as to notification, its power cannot be questioned, and no formal notice of action taken by the Session is necessary to make such suspension effective.

3. The right of members of a "congregation" to vote at "congregational" meetings, as distinct from "church" meetings, is altogether distinct from the right of communicant members to vote at meetings of the ecclesiastical body known as "a church." Persons who are not church members, but who are regular attendants, and contribute to the support of church worship, are entitled, under the laws of several of the States, to vote for trustees, and at "congregational" meetings, strictly so called. The right to vote in church and congregational meetings is taken away from communicant members when they are suspended by act of Session, but the question of the right of non-communicants to vote at congregational meetings is one to be determined by the regulations of the State conferring the Charter upon the congregation, and under the Charter.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. CARSON,
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS,
JOHN DIXON.

The Report of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of America was submitted as printed in the "Blue Book," and was referred to the Standing Committee on the Brotherhood.

The Rev. Frank Foster, representing the American Tract Society, addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of that Society. The following was adopted:

Resolved, That this General Assembly reaffirms the resolutions of former Assemblies as to the American Tract Society.

It is heartily approved for its threefold operations. (1) Its Union Missionary Colportage, by means of which it takes the message of salvation to the people, wherever they may be found, more especially to the immigrants and other exceptional peoples. (2) Its many publications for the evangelization of the masses and building them up into Christian citizenship. (3) Its publications, on the foreign missionary field, in the vernacular of each country, of tracts giving the Gospel rapidly and intelligibly to the heathen, and of books for the instruction of the native converts and the building up of an intelligent native ministry. The Edinburgh Ecumenical Missionary Conference showed most clearly that this ought to be done on a very much larger scale.

The Assembly rejoices with this Society in the way God has used it. We look upon its work as our own, and recommend that each Presbytery appoint a Committee on the Tract Society and that each church give it a place in their annual budget of benevolences. It is also commended to men and women of wealth, as worthy of a much larger measure of financial support.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday at 9 A.M., and was closed with special prayer for the Divine blessing upon the services of the coming Sabbath.

SATURDAY, May 18, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of the Board of Education and another in the interest of the Presbyterian Brotherhood.

MONDAY, May 20, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of Saturday's sessions were read and approved.

The following telegram was received:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., May 17, 1912.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of America, Louisville, Ky.:

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church here in session sends you cordial Christian greetings. We greatly appreciate your coöperation with us in our Master's service, and bid you Godspeed in all your evangelistic, educational and missionary campaigns.

HENRY W. WARREN, President;
J. B. HUMPHREY, Secretary.

The following response was sent:

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Louisville, Ky., cordially reciprocates your fraternal greetings. We rejoice that we stand with you steadfastly for the evangelical faith, and that we are at one with you in all the work of the Kingdom of Christ. See Ephesians, chapter three, verses fourteen to nineteen.

MARK A. MATTHEWS, Moderator;
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

A telegram from California on the Subject of Divorce was referred to the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work.

The Rev. John Fox, D.D., Secretary of the American Bible Society, addressed the Assembly concerning the work of that Society, and the subject was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, to report appropriate action.

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, recommending Atlanta, Ga., as such place. The Report was adopted by a unanimous and rising vote, and the Assembly sang the Doxology. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully reports that invitations have been received from the First Presbyterian Church, Atlantic City, N. J.; the Central Presbyterian Church, Rochester, N. Y., and the Harris Street Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Ga. All these invitations are accompanied by other invitations from religious, civic and commercial bodies. The invitation from the Church at Atlanta, Ga., is accompanied by an invitation from the Presbyterian Ministers' Association of Atlanta, the Evangelical Ministers' Association of Atlanta, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, the Mayor and Common Council, and the Auditorium and Armory Committee of the City of Atlanta. The Governor of the State of Georgia likewise joins in extending a welcome to the Assembly. It is further to be noted that the invitation to this Assembly was first extended to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., and it was understood that it would not be extended to other Presbyterian Bodies unless first accepted by that Assembly, and that Assembly, by its telegram to this body, on Saturday, gave us a hearty "welcome South." The invitation is also to be extended to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, and to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South. The purpose is to bring these several bodies together in the city of Atlanta at the same time, for simultaneous meetings, and it is noteworthy that they represent nine-tenths of the Presbyterians in our country. The invitations from the Harris Street Church and the Presbyterian Ministers' Association, extend the offer of free entertainment to all Commissioners and officers of the Assembly, with the free use of church edifices and the Atlanta Auditorium for meetings.

The Committee has been much impressed by the invitation from the Central Church, Rochester, N. Y., and the various religious, civic and commercial bodies of that important city. The subject of the meeting at Atlanta was submitted to the brethren from Rochester, and in the spirit of Christian courtesy and out of a sincere desire for the highest welfare of the Church, they expressed their willingness to withhold their invitation until another year. The same is true of the brethren representing Atlantic City. The Committee recommends the following action by the Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly places upon record its gratification with the cordial spirit of fellowship which characterizes the invitation extended for its next meeting at Atlanta, Ga., and rejoices in the welcome extended to it by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., meeting at Bristol, Tenn.

Resolved, 2. That the invitation as extended by the Harris Street Church, of Atlanta, Ga., and by other religious, civic and commercial bodies of that city, endorsed by the Governor of the State, is most heartily accepted.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly is pleased to accept the free offer of entertainment for its Commissioners and Officers and the free use of buildings for meetings.

Resolved, 4. That the Moderator and Stated Clerk of this Assembly, with the pastor of the Harris Street Presbyterian Church, be the Committee of Three, asked for in the invitations, to make the necessary arrangements in connection with the meeting at Atlanta, Ga., and that this Committee have the power to appoint such other committees as may be necessary to secure a successful gathering.

Respectfully submitted,

M. A. MATTHEWS, Moderator and Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report on papers referred to it, which was adopted, and is as follows:

1. A Resolution commending a Civic Reform Conference, to be held in Portland, Oregon, in July, 1913, and

2. Overture 272, from the National Reform Association, relating to the same subject and requesting this Assembly to appoint representatives to said Conference.

The Committee reports that, while endorsing the plan of said Conference, and commending it as one that should have the support of all friends of righteousness, yet, owing to the Constitution of the Church, it is not possible for the Assembly to appoint representatives to any other than ecclesiastical bodies.

3. On the resolution referred to it, recommending an amendment to a Standing Rule, we recommend as follows:

Resolved, That the Rule pertaining to the election of the members of the Nominating Committee for the Executive Commission of the Assembly be amended, by adding the following sentence to the Rule as found on page 39 of the Manual, following the word "reverse": "The members of the Special Committee shall be elected by the respective Electing Sections immediately after the election of the members of the Standing Committee."

The Special Committee on Religious Education, through its Chairman, Rev. George B. Stewart, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Pending its consideration, the Order of the Day arrived.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, through its Chairman, Rev. F. L. Hayden, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Overtures Nos. 254 and 255, referred on Saturday to this Committee, were on request referred to the Committee on Polity. The Report was adopted, except the seventh resolution, the consideration of which was deferred until action should be taken upon the Report of the Executive Commission on Relief and Sustentation.

Your Committee on Ministerial Relief would present for your consideration the following Report:

1. We recognize, with a sense of deep and abiding thanksgiving to Almighty God, the obligations we are under to every man and movement that have, in plan or practice, endeavored to assist in the beneficent and beautiful ministry of love to our aged and disabled ministers of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. We would make special mention of those men of far vision and wise execution, who have, for so many years, wrought in this blessed ministry in the Board of Ministerial Relief and the Sustentation Fund. We here record our deep appreciation of the labors of our beloved Secretary, Rev. Dr. B. L. Agnew, and express the earnest hope, mingled with our deepest sympathy with him in his present illness, that our Father may spare his precious life for many years, and that the Church may give to him that comfort which his great heart has for many years poured out for his brethren in age and weakness.

2. That Overture No. 256, from the Presbytery of Santa Fé, asking that local evangelists be aided by the Board of Ministerial Relief, under similar conditions with ordained ministers, be answered as follows:

(a) The terms of the charter of the Board of Ministerial Relief do not permit making any such grants.

(b) The content and purpose of the Overture are such as to commend it to the Committee, the Board of Relief and the Assembly, and we advise said Presbytery to seek the needed relief in a way harmonious with the existing laws governing in such cases.

3. For sixty years past, our Assemblies have listened to able reports from Committees, similar to this one, while the vast armies of ministerial beneficiaries and their dependents have received the blessings of life at the hands of an insufficient generosity, and sometimes of a grudging charity, and have gone into eternity. This Report is not a headstone erected above these memories, nor are these words the creation of beautiful cerements for a revered corpse. The past year, in gathering and distributing the offerings of the Church by the hands of the Board, has not been unlike previous years, except in the increasing number of applications for aid. More than 1,200 families have eaten at this table, and blessed the hands that distributed the dole. One hundred and sixty-two new names were added to the roll of beneficiaries—the largest number ever added during a similar period. The Fifty-seventh Annual Report of the Board of Relief is in your hands. Read it and ponder well its lessons. Now note this fact: During the past year the Church at large decreased its offerings to this Board slightly. This gives us our view-point of observation, i.e., the rapidly lengthening roll of dependents, and the needed proportionate increase in the offerings of the Church. The insufficient support of these deserving men and their loved ones is the continued and increasing regret of the Church, but somehow, in some quarters, the matter ends in this regret. It has not yet issued in gifts sufficient to make our care of these worn-out ones anything like generous. What is $100 or $300 to one without income from another source? How can the well-fed Christian beseech the blessings of God on his bountiful table, while the spectre of want sits over against his brother, the aged servant of God, as he breaks his long fast with a meagre meal? This is the picture your Committee wishes you to see. This is the tragic fact your Committee wishes you to appreciate.

4. Methods of administration are not above change. Our Boards are not mummies, to be placarded and reverenced, but living organisms, having a motive worthy of human, Christian effort, and capable of adaptation to the ever-changing conditions of our ecclesiastical life. Through our machinery, we are trying to remedy the difficulty to which your attention has been called. We have three expert hands working on the problem of a wise readjustment of our methods, and possibly of our machinery. This adjustment of its parts seems to your Committee to be necessary. The Board of Relief has its tried, successful and time-honored methods. The originators of the Sustentation Fund have formed a plan to aid in relieving the situation, and the Executive Commission is courageously, and with marked ability, trying to furnish you with a workable and satisfactory plan of adjustment.

5. Your Committee has examined the various plans proposed, but it is not within the purview of this report to discuss these plans. We would, however, suggest as follows:

(a) The Board of Ministerial Relief was instituted as, and for many years has been, the successful trustee and dispenser of the benevolent funds of the Church, given to relieve aged and infirm ministers and their dependents, and any change in its methods or Constitution should be in the line of greater efficiency and economy in administration, as well as increased aid to the needy.

(b) That these aged and beloved wards of the Church should receive from the Board aid sufficient to meet their reasonable needs, that in their last days on the earth they may consciously rest in the tender care of the Church, to which their strength and years have been devoted.

(c) It is evident to all, that some means in harmony with this spirit of tender ministry should be devised that will make it possible to increase this aid to the point of rational comfort.

(d) The Sustentation Fund, in its plan and purpose, was devised to that end, and to operate in such a way as to make the recipient of that aid the beneficiary of his own industry and economy, exercised during the years when his earning capacity is at its best. But confusion has been caused, so that it has become apparent to us all, that some plan of coördination or combination of these two agencies is now demanded in the interest of harmony and effectiveness.

(e) Your Committee, therefore, calls attention to the fact that the Executive Commission will at this time submit to you a proposed plan of adjustment or coördination, and we ask for it the most careful and prayerful consideration.

6. Your Committee would recommend to this Assembly the following:

(a) That Presbyterial Committees of Relief be urged to give a more careful, and, at the same time, sympathetic examination of all applications for aid, to the end that, while all needy ones have their full share, those persons who have another income sufficient to meet their reasonable needs be deterred from asking aid from this Board.

(b) That whatever form this department of the Assembly's machinery of benevolent work may have when it is submitted to you and finally adopted by you, every pastor and Session give to it their hearty endorsement, to the end that harmony of spirit and action may be secured throughout the Church, and the larger possibilities of this Christian benevolence be speedily realized in a substantial increase of aid to all those persons whose worthiness and inability entitle them to participate in this heavenly bounty.

(c) That in a spirit of gratitude to our ever-blessed Lord, for the supreme honor He has conferred on us—His unworthy ministers in the Word of life, His co-laborers in service and sacrifice—we do all in our power to relieve the strain our present problems have put on us, realizing that in our complex relationships we are all the necessary parts of the great Church founded by our fathers, and that these purposes, in their last analysis, cannot be wrought out unless together we move and serve and love as brethren.

7. The terms of office of four members of the Board expire with this Assembly, and we respectfully ask you to defer any action in this matter for the present.*

8. That we have examined the minutes of the Board of Relief and of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Relief, submitted by the two Secretaries, have found them in perfect order, and recommend their approval.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,
F. L. HAYDEN, D.D., Chairman.

The Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, through its President, Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Resolutions 1, 2 and 3 were adopted as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Report of the Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund be and hereby is approved.

Resolved, 2. That this Assembly hereby expresses its gratification at the progress the Fund has made during the fiscal year just closed.

Resolved, 3. That the Secretary of the Fund is hereby directed to convey to the friend of this cause who contributed the sum of $50,000, the appreciation and thanks of this Assembly.

Consideration of the two remaining resolutions was deferred until action should be taken upon the Report of the Executive Commission upon Relief and Sustentation.†

The following communication was received, read, ordered spread upon the Minutes, and referred for answer to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union.

Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Chairman of Committee on Church Coöperation and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

MY DEAR DR. ROBERTS:—Through the Commission on Christian Union, the Disciples of Christ in America desire to present their greetings to your General Assembly, and to express their wish for closer coöperation with your communion. Upon the great vitals of Christianity we are agreed. Only upon formal Christianity are we separated, and has the time not come for us to go beyond the rigid bounds of denominationalism and sincerely seek for that unity for which our Lord—yours and ours—prayed and without which the Church cannot fulfill its divine purpose? You and we are brethren and we stand ready for such coöperation as shall prove to the world our common brotherhood. We are not asking that you come to us, nor that you permit us to come to you, but there must be a common basis upon which we as children of the same Lord can meet in common worship and common service. To find this basis we present ourselves as fellow-searchers with you.

Your servant in Christ Jesus,

PETER AINSLIE,

President Commission on Christian Union of the Disciples of Christ in America.

The consideration of Section X of the Report of the Executive Commission on Ministerial Relief, and the Sustentation Fund, was taken up. By consent of the Assembly, an amended Plan was substituted for the original Plan as contained in the Report, and Resolutions for putting the Plan into immediate operation were substituted for those originally presented. The amended Plan and Resolutions were adopted by a unanimous and rising vote, and the Assembly sang the Doxology. The amendments will be found in their place in the full Report of the Executive Commission, proceedings of Friday, May 24.

The Stated Clerk was directed to convey to Rev. B. L. Agnew, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, the sympathy of the Assembly, in his illness, and the Moderator led the Assembly in prayer for his restoration to health.

Addresses were delivered by Rev. J. D. Moffat, D.D., representing the Board of Ministerial Relief; Rev. George F. Greene, D.D., representing the Sustentation Fund; Rev. William H. Foulkes, D.D., of the Executive Commission; and Rev. F. L. Hayden, D.D., Chairman of the Standing Committee on Relief.

The following Resolutions were adopted:

1. That the present salaried officers of the Board of Relief and of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund shall continue to serve as the officers of the new Board, until October 1, 1912, unless their successors shall have been previously elected.

2. That in the event that any one of the salaried officers of either the Board of Relief or of the Sustentation Fund is not elected as his own successor, his salary shall be paid up until the close of the ecclesiastical year, March 31, 1913.

The provisions of the Reports of the Board of Relief and the Sustentation Fund as to membership were placed on the Docket, to be heard at the same time as the Report on said membership by the Executive Commission.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 20, 2.45 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The unfinished business, the Report of the Special Committee on Religious Education, was taken up. The Report was adopted and is as follows:

The General Assembly of last year, on the recommendation of this Committee, took the following action:

"That this Committee and the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work be authorized and instructed, jointly to continue, during this coming year, the work of religious education as already begun, and to perfect a plan for the transfer of the work to this Board, and report to the next Assembly."

This twofold duty thus assigned to us we have endeavored to discharge. Early in the year, Dr. George W. Bailey was constrained by continued ill-health to resign from the Committee. Dr. Bailey had been a member of the Committee from the beginning, and was a most faithful and efficient member until he was laid aside by illness. The Moderator of the Assembly accepted Dr. Bailey's resignation, and appointed Rev. William H. Boocock, of Buffalo, N. Y., to fill the vacancy thus created.

On account of the change in our work caused by the association of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work with us, it was found possible to dispense with meetings of the whole Committee, and to transact all business coming before the entire Committee by correspondence, thus saving much time and money.

Immediately upon the adjournment of the Assembly, your Committee and the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work formulated a plan for carrying forward the work jointly committed to us. A Joint-Committee was appointed, consisting of Rev. Samuel McLanahan, Rev. John Harvey Lee, Dr. Cheesman A. Herrick, representing the Board, and Dr. George B. Stewart, Dr. Alexander H. McKinney and Rev. William H. Boocock, representing this Committee. This Joint-Committee was instructed to prosecute the work with all diligence and to report from time to time to its constituent bodies. This Joint-Committee held its first meeting in July last, and has held monthly meetings each month since then, except in December.

Many matters have been considered by the Joint-Committee, and have been deferred to some future time when, they can receive the deliberate consideration they demand.

Many matters have been begun, and are now in various stages toward completion, and some have been brought to a conclusion.

Work Finished

1. Your Committee issued, last year, a leaflet on the work of the Council of Religious Education in the particular church. The edition of this leaflet having become exhausted, and there being a constant demand for it, the Joint-Committee issued a new edition. The demand for this leaflet is an indication of the desire of pastors and churches to bring about the adequate coördination and unification of their educational agencies.

2. The Joint-Committee prepared and published a leaflet on the Constitution of the Presbyterial Committee on Religious Education, recommended by the last two General Assemblies. It has also communicated at least once with all the home Presbyteries, asking them to provide a committee on Religious Education, either by the consolidation of existing committees having allied duties or by the appointment of a new committee.

As the work of the Presbyterial Standing Committees on Sunday-school and Young People's Societies is largely educational, and as they both head-up in the Board to which the Assembly contemplates the transfer of the work of this Committee, it seemed expedient to suggest to the Presbyteries that these Presbyterial committees might wisely be consolidated with the Committee on Religious Education. Thus would the multiplication of Presbyterial committees be avoided and a unification of the work would be accomplished. An increasing number of Presbyteries are complying with the recommendation of the Assembly in making provision for this work.

3. The Joint-Committee gave careful consideration to the Sunday-school lessons, and arrived at the following conclusion: (a) The "supplemental lessons" now in use are satisfactory for schools using the Uniform Lessons; (b) these lessons are not necessary for schools using the Graded Lessons; and (c) the Graded Lessons arranged by the International

Sunday-school Association, and the helps upon them published by our Board as efforts to work out the improvement of the Sunday-school curriculum, are worthy of commendation by our Church.

4. Pursuant to the recommendation of the last General Assembly (see Minutes, 1911, p. 293), President Cheesman A. Herrick and Dr. George B. Stewart were appointed to represent the Board and the Assembly's Committee respectively in the Council of the Reformed Churches.

5. Through the coöperation of the Young People's Department of the Board, the Joint-Committee has been able to use the "efficiency campaign" and the Summer Conferences of that department for the promotion of our work.

Work in Progress.

1. At the request of the Joint-Committee, and along lines prescribed by it, two ministers of our Church are preparing, respectively, a manual for use in preparation for the first communion, and a manual on Church History.

2. We have made some progress toward the solution of the extremely difficult problem of text-books for Biblical instruction in preparatory schools.

3. We are at work on a Survey of Methods of Worship in Sunday-schools and the home, with a view to subsequent recommendations.

4. We have had conferences with our missionary Boards relative to mission study work. We have also done something toward the development of the "outline curriculum in missions," contained in our report of last year.

5. In all our work, we are keeping in view the purpose which largely influenced the Assembly in the appointment and continuance of the Committee, namely: to promote the systematic and thorough Christian nurture of the children and youth in our congregations, and, to this end, to seek the higher efficiency of all the educational agencies in the particular church.

Continuance of the Work.

We have not been negligent of the second part of our task, which contemplated the preparation of a plan for the transfer of our work to the Board. As the year advanced it became evident to the Joint-Committee, that, in view of the present state of the work and its demands, it would not be wise to make the transfer at this time, and that it should be continued for another year under the plan followed this year. In this judgment the Board and your Committee concur.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That churches, Presbyteries and Synods be advised to prosecute the work of religious education and the unification and coördination of the agencies of religious education, as recommended by previous Assemblies.

2. That the effort of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, to help our Sunday-schools to improve their educational methods, and to provide the best helps for Uniform and Graded Lessons, be commended; and that the Sunday-schools be encouraged to increase their efficiency through wise grading of their scholars and the use of graded material.

3. That the efforts of the Young People's Department of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, to bring the Young People's Societies to higher efficiency through study classes and other educational methods, be commended; and that the Young People's Societies be encouraged to pay more attention to this phase of their work.

4. That pastors and Sessions be advised as to the superior educational methods and the excellent material provided by our various mission Boards for the nurture of the youth in missionary work through the Sunday-schools, mission study classes, young people's societies, and guilds; and that they be zealous to make use of these methods and this material.

5. That this Committee and the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work be authorized and instructed jointly to prosecute this work under the instructions of last year; that the Board be directed and authorized to pay the expenses of the same; and that report be made to the next Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE B. STEWART, Chairman.

A Resolution on the Exclusion of Medical Advertisements from Religious Journals, and another on International Peace, were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Education, through its Chairman, Rev. C. C. Albertson, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., Secretary of the Board; Rev. M. G. Allison, student pastor at Wisconsin University, and others, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

Your Committee on Education, aware of the unwisdom of affirming that any one special department of Church work is the most important subject to be considered, begs leave to direct the attention of the Assembly—and through it, the attention of the Church—to the fundamental and vital value of this work, related as it is to the vexed and vexing problem of finding and furnishing leaders in every branch of Christian activity. A poet wrote:

> "Vain mightiest fleets of iron framed,
> Vain our all-conquering guns,
> Unless proud Albion keeps unstained
> The pure hearts of her sons."

In vain do we build chapels and churches; in vain do we found and endow theological seminaries; in vain do we survey the "gates of ancient empire lifted off their hinges" for the forward movement of the evangelizing Church, if, when the voice of God sounds forth, "Who will go for us?" there is no adequate response on the part of our sons and daughters; if the spirit of the age has so paralyzed the spirit of moral heroism as to evoke, in answer to that challenge, no better response than, "Here am I; send someone else!"

In 1896, for the first time in American history, we took our place among the great commercial nations of the world, the balance of trade being in our favor to the extent of $75,000,000. The next year, it was $100,000,000; the next, $300,000,000, and the next, $615,000,000. It is no mere coincidence, that in 1897 our number of ministerial and missionary candidates fell from 1,037 to 911. The next year, it decreased to 814; and the next, to 716. We reached the "low water mark" in 1902, with but 572. These were the seven fat years of commerce, and the Church's seven lean years. In 1903, with commerce not less prosperous, a religious reaction had set in. We had begun to adjust ourselves to the new conditions. The Church awakened to the danger—all the churches were alarmed. Influences were set in motion to avert the peril. The number of ministerial and missionary candidates began to increase. The figures show 658 in 1904, 699 in 1906, and 1,205 in 1912. We have had seven years, if not of fatness, at least of "increasing plumpness."

And your Committee is convinced that your Board of Education has had no unimportant part in arresting the decline and promoting the growth of interest in the supply of ministerial and missionary candidates among us.

We do not wish to be understood as believing that the fact adverted to above—the increase of commercialism in America—is the only explanation of the dearth of candidates for ministerial and missionary offices; nor even that it is the chief cause of that decline. We are not unaware that the comparatively recent movement toward social service in various fields—a movement which, with some, has become an organized passion, a crusade, and which we do not lament—has opened innumerable new fields for unordained men and women who aspire to be moral leaders; men and women who, two decades ago, impelled by the same motive, must have devoted themselves to some form of ministerial or missionary work. But, rejoicing in the growing number of such as give themselves to institutional work of a social and philanthropic character, we call them and the whole Church to a new sense of the truth expressed by Count Okuma, at the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the beginning of Christian missions in Japan: "No nation that neglects the spiritual can permanently prosper. . . . . Modern civilization had its rise in the Sage of Judea, and in Him alone is the dynamic of moral progress."

No more urgent duty lies upon the Church, under the hand of God, and in consideration of current conditions, than to look to the sufficient supply and the adequate training of those who, at home and abroad, are to continue the work the Master began, "both to do and teach." Jesus Christ was, supremely and unceasingly, a Preacher. "The Spirit of God hath anointed me to preach." Incidentally, He healed—healed that He might make every miracle of healing a parable of redemption. His successors are to preach, to proclaim, to forth-tell.

In fifteen years, our country's population has increased by millions. The membership of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. has increased by tens of thousands, but our supply of ministers and missionaries has increased by only 168.

Now, if ever, we should fall to prayer—nay, rise to prayer, for never do we rise so high in power as when we bend to pray. "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He send forth laborers into the harvest." "Send forth"—that is strong; it is "thrust forth," exactly the word that describes how Jesus swept the mercenaries out of the temple!

Our best defense against the ills of changing times is still, as it ever has been, prayer. Our most effective agency for recruiting forces is still prayer. We must not forget that prayer is a force as real as radium. "I wish I could give you something more substantial than my prayers," said a friend to a departing missionary. "That you could not do, though you had the wealth of the world to give," was his reply.

We urge the Church, therefore, through its Commissioners in this Assembly, to increased faith and fervency in prayer that He who founded and still inhabits the Church may raise up, in larger numbers, prophets and apostles, evangelists, pastors and teachers, "for the building up of the body of Christ."

"We write unto you, fathers," and mothers, to remind you that the first ordination of every minister and missionary is at your hands while still your children are about your hearthstone and your altar.

We remind you, elders and teachers, that boundless opportunity is yours to speak the word, in due season, to the youth who is meditating, long before his elders are aware of it, "What shall I do with my life, where invest it so as to secure the largest returns of satisfaction?" We remind you, pastors, that, both in private and public, you may not only affirm the excellence of the ministry as a vocation, but demonstrate its glory in the obvious joy of your labor.

We have read with care and pleasure the Annual Report of the Board of Education, and marked the manifoldness of its service to the Church. We believe that if the large number of our churches which did not, last year, or in any previous year, contribute so much as a penny to the Board, were informed of its work, few of them could resist making an effort, henceforth, to redeem their record.

Consider: Since the Board was organized, it has assisted, by loans and grants, more than 15,000 candidates for the ministry and missionary work. Has it pauperized them? Does the nation pauperize the military cadet at West Point and the naval cadet at Annapolis by educating them, free of charge, boarding and clothing them while they are in training to be leaders of our militant forces on land and sea? Free instruction, free books, free tuition, free board, free lodging and free uniforms did not debilitate the manhood or degrade the spirit of Grant and Sherman and Sheridan, or of Schley and Sampson and Dewey!

We heartily approve the efforts of the Board to provide for the religious care and culture of our Presbyterian students in State Universities. And we mark the indubitable evidences that the representatives of the Board who are at work in such institutions are conserving much of our most valuable personal material, from which already we begin to see the development of coming leaders in Christian work of every kind.

We approve the plan of the Board, put into operation a year ago, by which the benefits of loans and grants from the Board are extended to medical students, both men and women, preparing for service under the Board of Foreign Missions. By this provision eleven such students have been aided during the past year.

We perceive in every foreign-speaking student helped, at Dubuque or at Newark, the relation between the Board and the missionary fields at home or abroad.

We approve the Board's effective plan of evangelistic and vocational campaigns in colleges, and note the ceaseless activity of its Secretaries, who, for much of the time, during the year, are in the field, visiting the colleges and churches.

We offer the following resolutions and recommendations:

1. That in the case of Overture No. 267, from the Presbytery of Minnewaukan, referred to this Committee, no action be taken.

2. That Overture No. 268, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, be adopted, as follows:

"Resolved, (1) That the Faculties of our colleges and seminaries be requested to discourage the practice of the supply of pulpits on the part of ministerial candidates who are lower in their course than the middle year of seminary.

"Resolved, (2) That the Board of Education be instructed to decline to aid students who allow extra-academic activities to interfere with their class standing, and to admonish those who are engaged in regular or intermittent preaching to refrain from this practice until they have entered upon the second year of their seminary course."

3. That the Board be commended for its complete and searching report of conditions affecting the supply of ministerial candidates and other matters relating to Christian leadership. The tabulations and charts are valuable and should be studied carefully by the Church.

4. That the suggestion of the Board, that ministerial candidates be encouraged to pursue their studies at those colleges where increased efficiency is the rule and where a consistent advance is sought in the strengthening of the Liberal Arts courses, be approved.

5. That the Board be authorized to remit the obligations of men aided, who enter the ministry of any branch of the Reformed Church holding the Presbyterian system, provided such Church shall extend a like courtesy to this Board in similar instances.

6. That the additional rules presented by the Board, governing the policy of aid to certain medical students looking forward to work upon the foreign field, as found upon pages 15 and 16 of the Report, be approved.

7. That the Board be instructed to continue and strengthen the Plan of College Visitation under which evangelistic and vocational meetings have been held in forty-four of our colleges, in coöperation with the evangelistic Committee of the Assembly.

8. That churches and individuals contributing to the work of ministerial education and the training of lay workers be urged to use the Board of Education as their agent in transmitting funds to such institutions and such students as are in direct relation with the Board, under the authority of the Assembly, rather than to send their contributions direct to such institutions or students.

9. That the progress of the Board in supplying the religious needs of Presbyterian students at State universities be most heartily commended, and that the new policy be approved of assuming the entire support of certain university pastors in those Synods whose Presbyteries coöperate with the Synod's Committee in increasing the apportionments to Education, based upon the contribution of the Board to this work in such Synods.

10. That the Board be instructed to use more stringent methods in dealing with students who allow extra-academic activities to interfere with their scholarship standing, and to admonish those engaged in supply work to refrain from this practice, unless under highly exceptional circumstances, until they have finished at least the first year of their theological course.

11. That Presbyterial Committees be urged by the Assembly to keep in closer touch with their candidates, and that they be earnestly admonished to exercise the utmost care in learning the whereabouts of candidates who have abandoned their purpose to enter the ministry, and that they use every means within their power to assist the Board in collecting refunds of aid.

12. That the Board be authorized and instructed to prepare a comprehensive plan for reaching Sabbath-schools, Young People's Societies and Brotherhoods, with information touching the demand and opportunity for Christian leadership in the ministry and missionary life, including the introduction of such material into mission-study courses. We further suggest to pastors and superintendents the desirability of setting apart one Sunday during the year for the consideration of this important subject, to be known as Vocation Day.

13. That the newly created Department of Publicity and Research be approved and commended to the Church as a most useful agency for the dissemination of information relating to Christian Education.

14. That the election of Mr. Edward R. Sterrett to the treasurership of the Board, succeeding Mr. Jacob Wilson, resigned, be approved.

15. That the election of the following gentlemen to membership upon the Board be approved: Walter E. Rex, Esq., Mr. Gustavus W. Knowles, Mr. Alba B. Johnson,

Mr. James A. Hayes, Mr. John Y. Boyd, Mr. Evan G. Chandlee, Mr. Craig N. Liggett, Mr. James L. Wilson, Mr. Thomas L. Latta; and that the reëlection of the following-named gentlemen to succeed themselves be approved: Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D.D., William H. Oxtoby, D.D., George W. Bailey, M.D., John Calhoun, D.D., John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Edward B. Hodge, Jr., M.D., Mr. William R. Nicholson.

16. That the discontinuance of the Department of the South and Southwest, in view of the transfer of its work to the Board of Missions for Freedmen, be and hereby is approved.

17. That the second Sunday of February, 1913, which is the ninth, and the Thursday preceding the second Sunday, which is the sixth, be observed as Days of Prayer, in our academies, colleges, universities and churches, for the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon these institutions, to the end that there may be an adequate consecration of our youth to the activities of Christian leadership, specially in the ministry and the missionary life.

18. That the Report of the Treasurer and the Minutes of the Board, having been carefully reviewed and found correct, be approved.

In behalf of the Committee,
CHARLES C. ALBERTSON, Chairman.

The Special Committee on the Intermediate Catechism, through Rev. D. Schley Schaff, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Pending its consideration, the hour of adjournment arrived, and it was made the Order for 11.30 A.M., to-morrow.

Orders were fixed for to-morrow as follows:

1. The Report on Mileage.
2. An address by the Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., in behalf of the Waldensian Church of Italy.
3. Nominations by the Judicial Committee for the Permanent Judicial Commission.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 20, 8 o'clock P.M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interest of the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

TUESDAY, May 21, 1912, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Rev. Henry C. Minton, D.D., addressed the Assembly in behalf of the Waldensian Church of Italy.

The Judicial Committee presented the following nominations for the Permanent Judicial Commission: Ministers—W. Francis Irwin, D.D., Solomon C. Dickey, D.D., David H. Johnston; Ruling Elders—J. B. Welch and C. D. Lennox.

An opportunity was given for nominations from the floor. None being presented, nominations were closed.

The following was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Presbyterian Churches in every land have always favored the education of the people, and have, as a result, built up not only church, but also educational institutions, from the common school up to the university; and

WHEREAS, The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America has always maintained, in its history, and development this educational policy for two centuries; and

WHEREAS, The educational demands of one generation differ from those of another, requiring the development of educational agencies suited to the needs of the day; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly approves cordially the Winona Assembly and Bible Conference, at Winona Lake, Ind., the Stonybrook Association, L. I., N. Y., and kindred institutions, believing them to be necessary educational agencies in connection with religious work, and admirably adapted to present-day religious needs.

Resolved, 2. That these institutions are commended to the hearty moral and financial support of the congregations and ministers of this Church.

Resolved, 3. That this Assembly advises that the Charters of these institutions be so worded as to insure that any funds given for their support and endowment shall be held for the maintenance of the cardinal principles of evangelical religion.

The allowance for the Entertainment of Commissioners was fixed at two dollars per day.

The Committees on Synodical Records were announced as follows:

The Standing Committee on Freedmen, through its Chairman, Rev. Hugh Spencer Williams, presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. John M. Gaston, Associate Secretary, and E. P. Cowan, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The General Assembly's Standing Committee on Missions for Freedmen submit the following Report:

The Forty-seventh Annual Report of the Board of Missions for Freedmen to this Assembly has in it much to encourage.

FINANCIAL.—Because the Church contributed more to this cause than was given in any other year, more could be put into the work, thereby producing more and better results.

The total receipts from all sources this year were	$255,418 16
As against last year's aggregate of	214,377 24
With an increase of	$41,040 92

The largest sources of increase are legacies and miscellaneous contributions. Only $527.69 of the advance is credited to the churches. Four thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine churches, an increase of twenty-one over last year, contributed by congregational offerings to this cause. It is earnestly desired that a more general touch with the work of this Board be secured by a larger proportion of our churches participating in the annual offerings for its support, as only about one-half made church offerings in the past year.

SELF-SUPPORT.—In addition to the amount received and spent by the Board, it should be carefully noted that the work was augmented by contributions to church and school work by the people on the field, these receipts being simply reported to the Board and not included in their financial statement. The contributions on the field were:

To church work	$68,118 41
To school work	77,838 09
	$145,956 50

In addition to this amount, contributions were received for the benevolent agencies and Boards of the Church—including the Freedmen's Board, $3,061.71—totaling $149,017.58, or almost $150,000, from the field toward their own uplift and for the good of others.

This should not be lost sight of. It needs emphasis. We are all familiar with discussions on the high cost of living. We have not forgotten the severity of the winter through which we have just passed and the sufferings caused by it, especially in our large cities. These things also bore heavily upon the poor and needy class in the South, among which our Board has been working.

With the low price of cotton, the extra outlay for the necessities of life was felt very keenly by those who have at best to scheme and plan to make both ends meet. The extreme cold affected school attendance and at times caused the suspension of public services. We should therefore give the more credit to those whose contributions to the support of themselves and others, notwithstanding their poverty, have approximated $150,000.

Extent of Work.—Under the Board are 398 churches and missions with 24,863 communicants, ministered to by 240 ministers, who received 1,542 persons on confession of faith and 217 by certificate.

In connection with the churches there are 386 Sabbath-schools with 22,978 pupils.

For educational purposes there are 131 schools with 420 teachers and 15,045 pupils.

Woman's Department.—The Woman's Department has been of invaluable help in many ways, and through its coöperation means have been provided for the sending out of twenty-three new teachers who could not be provided for in any other way.

Colored Cumberland.—Such funds as have come from the former Cumberland churches have been used in extending aid to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored. From the General Fund of the Board the salary of a professor in the Theological Department of the Colored Cumberland Academy at Bowling Green has been paid. Beside this, $2,648.25 have been sent to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.

Farm Homes Scheme.—This plan of assisting colonists in a practical way, under the direction of a capable superintendent, to secure a home and support for themselves and families, is now in operation. Forty acres or less is rented at reasonable rates to desirable persons who at a later time will have the privilege of buying. By building eight little homes of three rooms each, with a separate kitchen, and repairing two others, homes have been provided for and rented to ten families. Many more such places could easily have been tenanted, but the Board conservatively plans to try out the scheme carefully and observe its results before enlargement.

Carnegie Library at Biddle.—After a long effort to secure the necessary money, Biddle University is now occupying the new Carnegie Library, which was completed during the year.

Harbison College.—Harbison College has been removed from Abbeville, S. C., to Irmo, near Columbia, S. C., and is to be distinctly an industrial college for boys only. The encouraging outlook is a warrant for the opening of the fourth floor of the initial building which was ready at the opening of the present school year. Under a specially trained agricultural teacher, the boys, with different tracts of land, and the incentive of competition and prizes, are doing splendid work.

Labor on the farm is accepted as part payment of tuition; so that in caring for stock and various other forms of farm work, as well as cooking, dish-washing, etc., the college is fitting its students for work on the farm—a good place to provide for themselves and families, and a splendid thing for the country at large, to keep men on the farms.

The generosity of one lady, who completely equipped a blacksmith shop, suggests a good way to help in this cause, for other industries will be added just as soon as the finances for them are provided.

Places for Worship.—In coöperation with the Church Erection Board in a plan by which they furnish one-third, the Freedmen's Board one-third and the people themselves one-third, many weak congregations have been helped to secure, improve, remodel or enlarge their places of worship.

Loss by Fire.—$16,000 was received in insurance for the large brick building of the Mary Allen Seminary which was accidentally destroyed by fire on January 13. A new building will be erected with this insurance money, though the old one, through the rise in values, could not have been replaced, even without furniture, for less than $25,000.

Evangelistic Work.—In the midst of all the work in churches and schools there is always in view the saving of souls. The Board is doing something for a part of its constituency of 9,000,000 people, and souls are being saved as shown by the 1,542 received on confession of faith. But more emphasis is to be, as it should be, put on the spiritual side of the work. Evangelism must extend even to those churches and schools under the direction of our Freedmen's Board. The Rev. J. J. Wilson, who enters upon the evangelistic and temperance work by the coöperation of the Freedmen's Board and the Permanent Committee on Temperance, is a faithful pastor, and the sympathy and support of the Church is asked for this new and needy work which just commenced the first of this month.

We commend the Board and the Secretaries for their diligence, devotion and fidelity, and for their liberal, progressive and economical administration of their trust.

We recommend that the following action be taken:

1. That the Treasurer's Report, audited by a public accountant, and the minutes of the Board, be approved.

2. The Assembly heartily commends the Board for its aggressive evangelistic and temperance movement, in the securing, in coöperation with the Assembly's Committee on Temperance, of the Rev. J. J. Wilson to visit the churches, holding temperance and evangelistic meetings.

3. It approves also the Farm Homes Scheme, which the Board has now in operation, and the Harbison Industrial College, where modern and intensive farming is to be the special object, in subordination to the main purpose of daily training in religious life.

4. That the churches make an earnest effort to meet the ten per cent. increase asked for by the Budget Committee, in order to meet the growing needs of the Board.

5. That the Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies be urged to make at least one offering each year for this cause, preferably on the Sabbath nearest to Lincoln's birthday, or, if this day be not convenient, then on some other Sabbath, in accordance with the desire of the Session of each church.

6. That on Overtures Nos. 188, 189, 190, 191, 346 and 347,* concerning a change of the name of the Board, no action be taken at present, on account of property rights and other issues involved.

7. That the Rev. Maitland Alexander, D.D., the Rev. Samuel J. Glass, D.D., the Rev. J. M. Duff, D.D., Mr. Vincent Miller and Mr. A. C. Robinson, whose terms as members of the Board expire at this time, be reëlected for a term of three years.

In behalf of the Committee,

H. Spencer Williams, Chairman.

The Order of the Day, the Report on the Intermediate Catechism, was taken up. The following resolutions were adopted:

*See for text of Overtures, pp. 41 and 51.

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly approves the Intermediate Catechism prepared by its Committee, and directs the Board of Publication to print it for distribution.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly continues the Committee, with the request that it receive suggestions, and make such revision as in its judgment seems advisable, and report to the next Assembly.

The Report was adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Committee on an Intermediate Catechism would respectfully report as follows:

Your Committee was created by the General Assembly, meeting in Kansas City, Mo., 1908, in response to Overtures from thirteen Presbyteries, viz., Bellefontaine, Bloomington, Cayuga, Columbus, Dayton, Detroit, La Crosse, Maumee, Monroe, Muncie, Oakland, Princeton and Sedalia.

The action of the Assembly was as follows:

The Committee shall consist "of six ministers and three elders, to consider the preparation of a Catechism, covering the system of faith and practice held by this Church and taught in the Holy Scriptures, to be used for home instruction and in the Sabbath-schools. The Catechism shall be simpler in language than the Shorter Catechism, and shall not be one of the standards of the Church. If the Committee find the way clear, it shall prepare a draft of the Catechism and, before beginning the work and during its progress, shall confer with the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work."

The Committee reported progress to the Assemblies of 1909 and 1910, and was continued. At the General Assembly of 1911, meeting in Atlantic City, it presented a catechetical draft of seventy-seven questions and answers. The Assembly accepted the Report and continued the Committee for another year, to bring its final Report to the Assembly of 1912. It also enlarged the Committee so as to consist of twelve members instead of nine.

The three additional members are the Moderator of the Assembly, the Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., who was named by the Assembly itself, and the Rev. Henry C. Minton, D.D., and the Rev. Maitland Alexander, D.D., who were appointed by the Moderator. The places made vacant by the resignations of Rev. J. G. K. McClure, D.D., and Rev. Henry Van Dyke, D.D., were filled by the appointment of the Rev. George N. Luccock, D.D., and the Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D. Mr. Charles S. Holt, having found it impossible to attend any meeting of the Committee during the year, presented his resignation, which was accepted and the vacancy not filled.

Your Committee, as thus reconstituted, completed its organization with the Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., as chairman, and the Rev. George N. Luccock, D.D., as associate secretary.

During the year the Committee has held six meetings, which occupied the larger part of six separate weeks. Three daily sessions were held from 9.00–12.45, 2.30–5.30 and 8.00–10.00.

In following out the Assembly's instructions, your Committee has reëxamined the Scriptures with an eye to including in its statement those truths which, in its judgment, should be embodied in the Catechism it was created to frame. It has also consulted every available and pertinent catechetical and credal help within its reach. It has examined again the chief catechisms of the period of the Reformation, and the Puritan catechisms prepared in the period preceding the Westminster Assembly. It has also had before it the more recent catechisms of the Baptist, Methodist and Moravian communions, and especially the School Catechism prepared by a Conference of Members of the Reformed Churches in Scotland, 1907, and the Evangelical Free Church Catechism for use in Home and School, prepared at the direction of the Free Churches in England and Wales, 1898. To these is to be added the Roman Catholic Catechism of Christian doctrine, prepared and enjoined by order of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, 1885. The Committee has also had the benefit of catechetical drafts communicated to us by pastors in our own communion and of their own making.

In prosecuting our work, your Committee set no limit to full and unrestricted discussion. It was inevitable, with so large a proportion of the Committee new to the work, that the entire material should have to be gone over afresh; while, at the same time, the effort was made not only to preserve the spirit of the draft presented in 1911, but also as far as possible, its form.

The following principles were laid down in the instructions given by the Assembly of 1908: 1. That the Catechism "cover the system of faith and practice held by this Church and taught in the Scriptures." 2. That it be adapted for use in the home and Sabbath-school. 3. That "it be simpler in language than the Shorter Catechism."

In carrying out these instructions, it has seemed wise (1) that your Committee should avoid even the appearance of making an attempt to furnish a revision of the Shorter Catechism or a parallel to it, either by adopting its exact sequence of thought or its distinctive phraseology;—and (2) that, as far as possible, it should employ the method of statement and the method of approach to Christian truth now in vogue in the pulpit and Christian intercourse within our Church.

Turning to the Catechism, which we herewith present, your Committee begs leave to call attention to the following particulars:

1. The Catechism will be found, we believe, to contain the fundamental doctrines in clear and unmistakable language.

2. In its general plan, it follows the catechetical type which may be called the Calvinistic or Westminster type. The Lutheran type of catechism, represented by Luther's Small Catechism of 1529, begins with the question, "What is the first commandment?" and then proceeds in three parts to explain the Commandments, the articles of the Creed and the clauses of the Lord's Prayer. The Heidelberg Catechism, representing a second group, has as its characteristic feature the experimental element. Its first question runs: "What is thy only comfort in life and in death?" This catechism also arranges its material under three heads—Man's Misery, Christ's Redemption and Our Thankfulness for Redeeming Grace.

On the other hand, Calvin's Catechism, issued in 1542 and containing 373 questions, opens with a question involving man's responsibility. It runs:

"What is the chief end of man's life?"

Answer: "To know God."

This catechism was used in Scotland until the Westminster Catechisms were adopted by the Scotch Assembly, 1648. It gave to the Puritan catechisms of England and this country —and more especially to the Westminster Catechisms—their distinctive tone and method.

Your Committee has also introduced its work by a statement involving man's capacity to know God.

3. The scheme of the Catechism will be seen to follow a natural and orderly progress of thought. It opens with a statement of what man needs most to know and closes with the things promised beyond this life for those that love God. Man's responsibility being set forth, the Bible is defined as the supreme source of Christian truth (questions 2–4); then follow statements of what God is in Himself and of His will for us (5–7). Sin and its consequences are then taken up (8–10); and the remedy for sin—Salvation (11). Then follows the section about Christ, through whom salvation is wrought out, His divine nature, His life on earth, His death and resurrection and His promise to come again (12–17). We next proceed to the appropriation of salvation by repentance and faith and to the work of the Holy Spirit in the sinner and in the heart of the believer (18–22). This treatment is concluded with questions bearing on the sinner's duty to accept and confess Christ (23). Next follows a definition of the Church and its work, together with the last command of Christ to carry the Gospel into all the world (24–29). With question 30, begins the treatment of the helps which God has provided for our growth in grace, viz.: The Bible, the two sacraments, prayer and fellowship in the Church (30–42). A definition of Church membership, with its value and duties, leads naturally to the definition of the meaning of the term Presbyterian and the functions of Presbyterian Church officers (43–56). The Ten Commandments are then given, together with a brief summary of their main teachings; and this is followed by a statement of some of the principles of conduct as set forth in the New Testament (57–71). The Catechism closes with the promises given for this life and the life to come to those who love God (72, 73).

The following elements have distinct treatment: the doctrinal (or theological) (1–22); ecclesiological and missionary (23–29); the sacraments and the means of grace (30–42); the governmental (Church polity) (43–56); the ethical (57–71); the eschatological (72, 73). Or, if it is possible to make anything like such a strict distinction, the doctrinal element is treated in questions 1–29 and the practical in questions (30–73).

Prominence, it will be seen, is given to the word Salvation. In the definition of the Church, regard was had to the spirit of Christian union now moving among Christians. The obligation of the sinner to accept Christ and enter the Church is strongly emphasized (23, 43, 44). The constitution of the local church is set forth. A comprehensive statement of our Lord's earthly life is made (13, 14). Special stress is laid upon worship, the Sabbath and the home (62, 63, 65).

4. The Scriptures are at times introduced by exact quotations. After careful discussion, it was decided that such forms as the Lord's Prayer, the words instituting the Lord's Supper, and the Commandments, being in familiar and frequent use, should be given in the words of the Authorized Version. In other cases, the language is taken from the American Revision. The suggestion was made that texts be added to each of the answers, but it was decided to leave this matter to the Assembly.

5. In some cases it will be found that the words we use are not in the historical catechisms. Such words, however, will be found to have Scriptural warrant. One such is "estrangement" (10). Separation, alienation and other words were suggested to indicate the consequence of sin which the word is intended to stand for. Estrangement is derived from Ezek. 14 : 5, and it seemed to us to have a distinct value in view of the Biblical associations with such terms as stranger and foreigner. Another such word is success (71). This word was introduced to call attention in the sharpest way to the true ideal of a useful life. It is used in connection with Joshua's career.

6. The experimental element, so it seemed to your Committee, is a valuable feature of this work. The attempt has been made to establish at the very start a sympathetic relation between teacher and learner and thus to lay stress upon religion as an experience as well as a system of truth. The persuasive has been combined with the mandatory. The form of the first question is not: "What does man most need to know?" but "What do we most need to know?" This element—or spirit—will be found pervading the Catechism. On the other hand, the abstract form of statement, which likewise has its great advantages, is also frequently employed.

It is hardly necessary for your Committee to call attention to the fact that, in its attempt to frame questions, it has found itself at times greatly embarrassed in view of the exact and consecrated language used in the Shorter Catechism. Such forms of expression as "effectual calling," for example, were almost compulsive. But to have adopted such cherished phraseology would have been to depart from what we regarded as a sound principle, not to parallel the Shorter Catechism. The expressions, which the Committee has used in this and other cases, will be found, we believe, to be Scriptural, expressing the same truths, although their use in a Catechism may at first not seem to be as forcible as the old forms.

As examples of answers on which the Committee—as reconstituted—has expended much time, we call attention to (9, 71). In passing, it may be said that the discussion in each of these cases, as well as in at least one other, occupied more than three hours. The unanimity, with which the final statements were reached, was regarded by the Committee as a cause of special thankfulness.

In the answer to "What is sin?" it will be seen that the definition holds closely to Scriptural language and includes both sins of omission and commission—sin of actual transgression and sin as a state. In the statement of "What is the Lord's Supper?" we have endeavored to include the full teaching of the Scripture in the light of Christian experience.

If we look at the size of the Catechism, it will be found to have 73 questions as against 107 in the Shorter Catechism, and the extent of it to be two-thirds of the extent of the Shorter Catechism.

A catechism, like any other serious work, is a matter of development as well as of study and investigation It becomes a part of one's experience and grows from less to more. To bring a body of great truths into a form that will be comprehended by young people, without being childish, and yet to embody these great truths in such statements that the memory may retain them through life, as adequate definitions, this is the task we have had constantly before us.

Thus the labors of four years are brought to a close. In offering the Assembly this Catechism it will be easily understood that probably no individual member of the Committee regards it, as in all respects, the work he would himself offer, if to him alone the construction of the Catechism had been left. This was, as seems probable, the case with the Westminster Divines, when they offered the Westminster Catechisms and the Confession of Faith to the British Parliament. Nevertheless, your Committee is unanimous in presenting this as its finished product. It is also unanimous in the hope that the Assembly will find in it a catechism which will be useful not only as a form of sound words for instruction in home and in Sabbath-school, but also as a manual which pastors may use in the preparation of young persons for membership in the Church—a thing which a number of pastors during the progress of our work have signified to us their desire to have. It is confidently believed that the Assembly will find the statements of this manual Scriptural in thought and language, as well as warm and evangelical in Christian tone and spirit.

INTERMEDIATE CATECHISM.

Q. 1. What do we most need to know?

A. We most need to know what God would have us believe and do.

Q. 2. Where do we best learn what God would have us believe and do?

A. We best learn what God would have us believe and do in the Bible.

Q. 3. What is the Bible?

A. The Bible is the Word of God, a collection of books, written by men who were guided by God to teach us about Himself and His will.

Q. 4. How is the Bible divided?

A. The Bible is divided into two parts: the Old Testament containing thirty-nine books, and the New Testament containing twenty-seven books.

Q. 5. What does the Bible teach about God?

A. The Bible teaches that God is our Heavenly Father, who made all things and rules over all, in wisdom, righteousness and love.

Q. 6. Is there more than one God?

A. There is only one God, the true and living God, yet in three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Q. 7. What does the Bible teach about God's will for us?

A. The Bible teaches that it is God's will for us that we love Him with all our heart, soul, strength and mind; and that we love others as ourselves.

Q. 8. What is sin?

A. Sin is disobeying God, or coming short of what He would have us be and do.

Q. 9. How does God look upon sin?

A. God looks upon sin with holy displeasure and great sorrow; and calls upon us all to repent, warning us of the consequences of sin.

Q. 10. What are the consequences of sin?

A. The consequences of sin are estrangement from God, increasing sinfulness in ourselves, injury to others, and the righteous judgments of God in time and in eternity.

Q. 11. How has God provided for our salvation from sin?

A. God, of His great mercy, has provided for our salvation from sin by the gift of His Son, Jesus Christ.

Q. 12. Who is Jesus Christ?

A. Jesus Christ is God's eternal and only-begotten Son, who humbled Himself to become man, and so is God and man.

Q. 13. How did Jesus Christ become man?

A. Jesus Christ became man by being born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem of Judea, as it had been foretold; and His name was called Jesus, which means Savior, because He was to save His people from their sins.

Q. 14. How did Jesus Christ live on earth?

A. Jesus Christ lived on earth a truly human life, with its joys and sorrows, tempted as we are yet without sin, always doing the will of God, and so setting us a perfect example.

Q. 15. How did Jesus Christ die?

A. Jesus Christ died on the cross, the just for the unjust, that He might reconcile us to God and save us from our sins.

Q. 16. When did Jesus Christ rise from the dead?

A. Jesus Christ rose from the dead the third day after His burial, and after forty days ascended into heaven.

Q. 17. How will Jesus Christ come again?

A. Jesus Christ will come again with power and great glory, and will judge us all according to our works.

Q. 18. How do we receive Jesus Christ as our Savior?

A. We receive Jesus Christ as our Savior by repentance and faith.

Q. 19. What is it to repent?

A. To repent is to be truly sorry for sin and to turn from it unto God for forgiveness, with sincere purpose to do God's will.

Q. 20. What is faith in Jesus Christ?

A. Faith in Jesus Christ is believing on Him and trusting Him as our own Savior and Lord.

Q. 21. How does God lead us to believe on Jesus Christ?

A. God leads us to believe on Jesus Christ by the work of the Holy Spirit in our hearts, showing us that we are sinful and disposing and enabling us to accept Him, as He is offered to us in the Gospel.

Q. 22. What is the work of the Holy Spirit in us who believe?

A. The work of the Holy Spirit in us who believe is to give us hatred of sin and love of righteousness, knowledge of the truth, power for service and assurance that we are children of God.

Q. 23. What is the duty and privilege of those who believe on Jesus Christ?

A. The duty and privilege of those who believe on Jesus Christ is to confess Him before men and to come into full communion with the Church.

Q. 24. What is the Church on earth?

A. The Church on earth is the whole body of those who confess Christ as Lord and Savior, together with their children.

Q. 25. Is there more than one Church?

A. There is only one Church, Jesus Christ being the Head, in which all the company of the saved, in heaven and on earth, are included.

Q. 26. What is the great work of the Church on earth?

A. The great work of the Church on earth is to bear witness to Jesus Christ and so to advance the kingdom of God.

Q. 27. What is meant by the kingdom of God?

A. By the kingdom of God is meant the rule of God in the hearts of men so that in love to Him and their fellow men, they live in righteousness, peace and joy.

Q. 28. What is our sure hope concerning the kingdom of God?

A. Our sure hope concerning the kingdom of God is that it will increase until it be fully come in all the earth.

Q. 29. What is our duty concerning the kingdom of God?

A. Our duty concerning the kingdom of God is to obey the last commandment given by our Lord: "Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Q. 30. What special helps has God appointed for us in our Christian life?

A. The special helps which God has appointed for us in our Christian life are the Bible, the sacraments, prayer and fellowship in the Church.

Q. 31. How should we use the Bible?

A. We should use the Bible with reverence, read it daily, treasure it in our hearts and obey it in our lives.

Q. 32. What are the sacraments?

A. The sacraments are the two sacred observances which Christ gave to the Church, Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Q. 33. What is Baptism?

A. Baptism is the sacred use of water, as appointed by Jesus Christ to signify God's cleansing us of our sins, our consecration to God and our entrance into the Church.

Q. 34. Why are the infant children of the members of the Church baptized?

A. The infant children of members of the Church are baptized to signify their dedication to God, because His covenant made with believing parents includes their children.

Q. 35. What is expected of baptized children?

A. It is expected of baptized children that they will think of themselves as dedicated to God and, in early years, confess Jesus Christ and come to the Lord's Supper.

Q. 36. What is the Lord's Supper?

A. The Lord's Supper is the sacred use of bread and of the cup, appointed by the Lord Jesus, in which, in thankful remembrance of Him, we shew forth His death and, in communion with one another, by faith partake of Him.

Q. 37. How was the Lord's Supper appointed?

A. The Lord's Supper was appointed by the Lord Jesus in the night in which He was betrayed, when He took bread and gave it to His disciples, saying, "Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me"; and also the cup and gave it to His disciples, saying,

"This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for many for the remission of sins: drink ye all, of it."

Q. 38. How should we come to the Lord's Supper?

A. We should come to the Lord's Supper with true sorrow for our sin, with glad assurance of God's forgiveness in Jesus Christ, and with confidence that He will give us new strength to serve Him.

Q. 39. What is prayer?

A. Prayer is communion with God in the name of Jesus Christ, in which we tell God of our love to Him, our sorrow for our sins, our thankfulness for His gifts and our desires for ourselves and others.

Q. 40. After what manner did Jesus Christ teach us to pray?

A. Jesus Christ taught us to pray after this manner:

"Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen."

Q. 41. How did Jesus Christ encourage us to pray?

A. Jesus Christ encouraged us to pray by His promise: "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you."

Q. 42. Does God always answer our prayers?

A. God does answer our prayers, not always as we expect, but as is best for us and for His kingdom.

Q. 43. How should we value membership in the Church?

A. We should value membership in the Church as a means of obeying and honoring Christ, of guarding and strengthening our Christian life and of doing good to others.

Q. 44. What are the chief duties of a member of the Church?

A. The chief duties of a member of the Church are faithfulness to Christ in daily life, regular attendance on the services of the Church, support of its work by prayer and offerings, and effort to extend its influence.

Q. 45. To what branch of the Church do we belong?

A. We belong to that branch of the Church, called Presbyterian.

Q. 46. How do we obtain the name Presbyterian?

A. We obtain the name Presbyterian from the word presbyter, which means elder.

Q. 47. What do we mean by a Presbytery?

A. By a Presbytery we mean the presbyters, or elders, equal in authority and organized to have charge of the Church in a certain district.

Q. 48. Who are the officers of the Presbyterian Church?

A. The officers of the Presbyterian Church are ministers, ruling elders and deacons.

Q. 49. Who are the Trustees of a church?

A. The Trustees of a church are its temporal officers.

Q. 50. What is a minister?

A. A minister is one who is called of God and set apart by the Church to preach the Word and to administer the sacraments, and is ordinarily the pastor, or bishop, of a particular church.

Q. 51. What are the governing bodies of the Presbyterian Church?

A. The governing bodies of the Presbyterian Church are the Session, the Presbytery, the Synod, and the General Assembly.

Q. 52. What is the Session of a church?

A. The Session consists of the pastor and the ruling elders of that church.

Q. 53. What are the duties of the Session?

A. The duties of the Session are to receive and dismiss members, to watch over and promote their spiritual welfare and, in general, to direct the whole work of the church.

Q. 54. What are the duties of deacons?

A. The duties of deacons are to care for the poor and to distribute the offerings made for them.

Q. 55. What are the duties of trustees?

A. The duties of trustees are to control and care for the property of the church, under the laws of the State and of the Church, and to manage its material interests so as to promote its spiritual welfare.

Q. 56. By whom are officers in the Presbyterian Church chosen?

A. Officers in the Presbyterian Church are chosen by the people.

Q. 57. What special statement of God's will is given us in the Old Testament?

A. The special statement of God's will given us in the Old Testament is the Ten Commandments.

Q. 58. What are the Ten Commandments?

A. The Ten Commandments are:

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Q. 59. What do the first four commandments teach?

A. The first four commandments teach that there is but one God, that we should worship Him alone, reverence His name and keep His Sabbath holy.

Q. 60. What does the fifth commandment teach?

A. The fifth commandment teaches that it is our duty to love and honor our parents and obey them in all things, in the Lord.

Q. 61. What do the last five commandments teach?

A. The last five commandments teach that we should not take from others anything which is theirs: their life, their purity, their property, or their good name; and should not even in our hearts covet what is theirs.

Q. 62. What great truth did Jesus Christ teach about our worship of God?

A. The great truth which Jesus Christ taught about our worship of God is: "God is a Spirit; and they that worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

Q. 63. How should we keep the Sabbath?

A. We should keep the Sabbath holy, as a day set apart by God for rest and worship and for the highest good of ourselves and others.

Q. 64. How should we value our bodies?

A. We should value our bodies as temples of the Holy Spirit, to be kept pure and healthy, that in them we may serve and glorify God.

Q. 65. What is our duty to our home?

A. Our duty to our home is to fill it with devotion to God and the spirit of love, so that it will be a blessing to every member of the household and to the community.

Q. 66. What is our duty to our country?

A. Our duty to our country is to love and pray for it, to obey its laws, to secure and sustain worthy officers, and to serve the common good.

Q. 67. What is our duty to other countries?

A. Our duty to other countries is to respect their rights, to pray for their welfare and to seek justice and peace among all nations.

Q. 68. What rule did Jesus Christ give for our treatment of others?

A. The rule which Jesus Christ gave for our treatment of others is: "All things whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them."

Q. 69. What rule did Jesus Christ give for our treatment of enemies?

A. The rule which Jesus Christ gave for our treatment of enemies is: "Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, bless them that curse you, pray for them that despitefully use you."

Q. 70. In what spirit are all God's commandments to be obeyed?

A. All God's commandments are to be obeyed in the spirit of love, for love is the fulfilling of the law.

Q. 71. What is a Christian's true success in life?

A. A Christian's true success in life is faithfulness to God and man in duties great and small.

Q. 72. What has God promised for this life to those who love Him?

A. God has promised for this life to those who love Him, to give them His peace and joy, to make all things work together for good and to keep them unto the end.

Q. 73. What has God promised for the life to come to those who love Him?

A. God has promised for the life to come to those who love Him that, being risen with Christ and made like unto Him, they shall serve God for ever in the glory and joy of heaven.

NOTE.—See for signatures of members of the Committee, page 107.

The Mileage Committee presented a Report, through the Stated Clerk, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Mileage Committee respectfully reports to the Assembly requesting permission to pay mileage bills, reserving announcement of details for another opportunity. Payment will be made on Thursday.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 21, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Colleges, through its Chairman, Rev. E. A. Wicher, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman and Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Colleges respectfully reports that the Annual Report of the College Board and the minutes of the Board have been submitted to it. The Report of the Secretary shows that fifty-seven colleges and seven academies are affiliated with the Presbyterian Church, and receive financial support directly or indirectly from the College Board or various agencies of the Church represented by the College Board. The number of students in the sixty-four schools of the Church during the past three years has been as follows:

College students	6,815	7,317	7,818
Preparatory students	4,109	4,172	4,797
Other students	8,309	7,751	10,286
Total	19,323	19,240	22,901

This gives an increase in 1912 over 1910 of 3,578 and is a most gratifying evidence of appreciation of the Christian school on the part of the public.

Policy of the College Board.—The Committee commends most heartily the activities of the College Board during the past year, and bestows its unqualified endorsement upon the policy of the Board in the use of funds under its control. It commends the splendid judgment and devoted efforts of the Secretary, Dr. Robert Mackenzie, as evidenced by the character and quantity of work done under his administration. The Committee desires to express its appreciation of the economic administration of the affairs of the Board, and also of the clear, precise, illuminating manner in which the minutes of the Board have been kept.

Finances.—The response during the past year to the appeals of the College Board has been more generous than in any previous year. The response made to solicitations for financial support by the College Presidents has been more liberal than in any year except in 1910–1911, when the sum raised was $1,918,172.83. But one item of that year, the John S. Kennedy bequest of $738,377.79 to New York University, a form of gift most unusual, if deducted from the total of that year, would leave $1,173,794.45 as the sum raised in the usual ways. During the past year the amount raised by the usual methods is $1,343,935.86, or $169,131.41 increase over the former banner year.

The College Board joins with the Standing Committee in asking the Assembly to give its heartiest thanks to the Presidents, by whose self-sacrificing efforts this impressive sum was secured, and to the generous individuals and associations by whose aid and sympathy this princely amount was obtained for Christian education. Most hearty appreciation is bestowed upon the Rev. George R. Brauer, for the comprehensive and exhaustive presentation in the Report of the finances of the Board.

STANDARDIZATION.—The Committee expresses its gratification at the steps taken by the conference of Presidents of Presbyterian Colleges at Louisville, Ky., May 15 and 16, looking toward the standardization of the colleges:

A standard college must meet the following requirements:

1. It must have six professors, giving full time to college or university work, and offer a course of four full years in the liberal arts and sciences; and must require for admission not less than the usual four years of academic or high-school preparation or its equivalent, in addition to the pre-academic or grammar school studies.

2. Its heads of departments must have the Baccalaureate degree and M.A. degree, or, in lieu of the M.A. degree, conspicuous teaching ability.

3. It must have $200,000 of productive funds, or an income for maintenance of not less than $15,000 per annum.

4. It must have a library of not less than 5,000 volumes.

5. It must have a laboratory equipment sufficient for at least two years' work each in physics, chemistry, botany, biology and zoölogy, according to modern methods of instruction in these subjects.

6. It must meet the requirements of the College Board as to the Christian character of the professors and instructors and as to the Biblical instruction.

The Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the minutes of the Board, which have been examined and found in order, be approved.

2. That the financial report of the Board, duly audited by a public accountant, be approved.

3. That 10,000 copies of the Report of the College Board be printed for distribution among the colleges and the churches as the Board may deem expedient.

4. That the protest of the Presbyterian college presidents and representatives against the publication, by the U. S. Department of Education of conclusions, not based on facts and accurate investigation be endorsed.

5. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of office expire at this time, viz., John R. Mackay, D.D., Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., James E. Clarke, D.D., Gates D. Fahnestock, J. C. Egbert, Thomas E. Hodges, George A.

Plimpton and John R. Rush, be reëlected for the term of three years; and in the place of Nathaniel Tooker, deceased, that Henry B. McCormick be elected, and in place of William Sloane, resigned, that the Rev. F. E. Stockwell be elected.

6. Overture No. 186, from Kalamazoo Presbytery, praying that the General Assembly provide some plan for the pensioning of professors in our Presbyterian colleges, was referred to your Committee. In view of the fact that the General Assembly of last year (1911) took action upon this matter, instructing the College Board to provide such a plan, and that this has now become a part of the policy of the Board to be worked out as soon as possible, it is recommended that no further action is necessary in the premises.

Overture No. 187, from the Synod of Atlantic, referred to your Committee, prays that Biddle University be placed by the Assembly under the fostering care of the College Board. In view of the fact that Biddle University is directly under the control of the Board of Freedmen, and is already recognized by the College Board as an institution with which the Board is authorized to coöperate, therefore, it is recommended that no action be taken.

In behalf of the Committee,

EDWARD A. WICHER, Chairman.

A proposed amendment to the Report of the Executive Commission was referred to that body.

Rev. William Rader, of San Francisco, addressed the Assembly in behalf of holding the 1915 meeting of the Assembly in that city.

The Committee on Nomination of Members of the Executive Commission reported nominations as follows:

For the class of 1910–1913.—Ministers—Rev. William Foulkes, D.D., Kansas City, Kan., to complete the unexpired term of his son, Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D., New York, resigned; Ruling Elder—Hon. Isaac H. Orr, St. Louis, Mo., to complete the unexpired term of E. E. Beard, Esq., resigned.

For the class of 1912–1915.—Ministers—Mark A. Matthews, D.D., Seattle, Wash.; David G. Wylie, D.D., New York City; Wallace Radcliffe, Washington, D. C.; Ruling Elders—Charles T. Thompson, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mr. Logan C. Murray, Louisville, Ky.

Respectfully submitted,

MARK A. MATTHEWS, Moderator and Chairman.

An opportunity was given for nominations from the floor. None being presented, the nominations were closed.

The Standing Committee on Temperance, through its Chairman, Rev. Frederick E. Stockwell, presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by the Chairman, by Rev. Percy Y. Shelly, Associate Secretary, and Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D.D., was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance respectfully reports that it has carefully examined the Minutes of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, and finds them well kept and in order, and therefore recommends them for approval.

A certified public accountant has examined the records of the Treasurer, as required by the General Assembly, and he has certified his approval of said accounts.

Its printed Report of fourteen pages has been placed by the Permanent Committee in the hands of the Commissioners. In this Report your Standing Committee notes with extreme satisfaction the attainment of certain definite and distinct results. A part of the work of the Permanent Committee during the year has been more than 1,000 meetings held by representatives of the Committee in twenty-eight States; the preparation of 25,000,000 pages of literature in eleven different languages, and their distribution into every State in the Union and into more than twenty foreign lands; the sale of literature at cost to sister denominations; and the sending of over 20,000 letters to our pastors and churches.

Materials for the quarterly temperance lessons in the Westminster Senior Quarterly, for the monthly edition of The Assembly Herald, and for a press bulletin to the secular press at frequent intervals, have also been provided by the Committee. 125,000 copies of the Temperance Day Programme and 100,000 pledge cards and rolls have been distributed among the 1,208,130 members of the Sunday-schools in our 10,051 churches. Temperance surveys have been made in different cities, so that the Church might have a clear knowledge of the actual conditions facing her. The Amethyst has increased its circulation until the edition for the present month is 98,000, a gain of 23,000 since last year. Libraries of modern works on temperance, by special arrangements with the several publishers, have been prepared by the Committee to be sold at $5 or $10 each, according to the number of books in the libraries. These libraries are intended to find a place in the more than 15,000 schools, colleges and seminaries that now lack this modern equipment. All this great work has been done by two secretaries and two lecturers, employed all of the year, with four additional lecturers during part of the year, one speaking Spanish and one various Slavic languages.

We regret to learn that there seems to be an open, if not a determined and persistent effort to deliberately set aside the law of the land forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquors in army canteens. If the Government itself in the persons of the recognized defenders of its honor and integrity is to be above its own laws, what can be expected of the common people, many of whom have great difficulty in distinguishing their right hands from their left in things moral and legal?

In view of the fact that this last year saw the largest amount spent upon liquors in the history of the country, viz., $2,362,046,508, we believe that the Presbyterian Church can do no less than reassert her utter abhorrence of the scourge which is ever seeking to extend its predatory grip upon the homes of the land. As a branch of the great Church of Christ, we do assert our belief in the mission of the Church as a definer and defender of ideals. In the realm of temperance this ideal is the present repression and the earliest possible suppression of the liquor traffic.

Keeping this ideal before us, we would commend every effort that results in the nearer attainment of this end, be the approach never so little. We therefore assert our endorsement of our Permanent Committee on Temperance for their efficient, faithful and extensive work this past year. We would express our gratification at the wisdom shown by our Committee in its coöperation with the National Temperance and Publication Society, the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Anti-Saloon League, the National Reform Association, the National Inter-Church Temperance Federation, and with all other local and national organizations that strive in one way or in another to safeguard the interests of the American home, and to protect our sons and daughters.

We believe that there should be a continuous growth in the spirit of comity and fellowship among all agencies that aim to resist and to counteract the efforts making against the righteousness, peace and prosperity of our land.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we heartily approve the Assembly's Permanent Committee, and commend the earnest diligence and zeal on the part of its members, together with its secretaries, lecturers, and special workers in their efforts against the liquor power.

Resolved, 2. That the members of the Committee whose terms expire with this General Assembly be reëlected to succeed themselves, viz.: Ministers—J. R. Harris, D.D., E. Trumbull Lee, D.D., John F. Hill, D.D.; Elders—O. L. Miller, M.D., W. R. Zeigler, W. W. Shields.

Resolved, 3. That we commend The Amethyst, the official organ of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, and urge its use by all of our churches and Sunday-schools.

Resolved, 4. That we call upon our schools and other institutions of learning to give a larger place to modern scientific literature on temperance, and that where the way be open acceptance be made of the offer by our Committee of the prize of $25 in gold for each and every oratorical contest along the lines of temperance.

Resolved, 5. That there be a general observance of Temperance Sunday in our churches and Sunday-schools, either on the third Sunday in October or on some other convenient day.

Resolved, 6. That each of our congregations make an offering to the work of the Temperance Committee, due care being given each year to the amount raised, so that it shall be a constantly increasing sum; and that the total amount given to the Committee this year be not less than $35,000.

Resolved, 7. That we recommend the appropriation of $500 by the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work for literature to be used by the Permanent Committee on Temperance, trusting that another year an amount larger than that hitherto appropriated may be granted.

Resolved, 8. That this Assembly reiterate the deliverances of former Assemblies, notably those of 1871 and 1877, that declared the manufacture and sale of alcoholic stimulants inconsistent with the claims of Christian duty, and that the purity of the Church requires her to refuse to admit to her membership or to retain therein those who have a part in such manufacture and sale, whether indirectly or directly, and we urge the duty of Christian consistency in unselfish opposition thereto.

Resolved, 9. That we deplore the seeming disregard of the laws of the land in reference to the sale of liquors at army posts, and call upon the officials of the Government charged with the maintenance of law and order to see that said laws are especially well enforced in the official precincts of the land; and that the Stated Clerk be directed to transmit this action of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to the proper officials of the United States Government at Washington.

Resolved, 10. That we endorse the Kenyon-Shephard Bill, known as Senate Bill No. 26,214 and as House Bill No. 4,043, or any other bill that aims to remedy the injustice suffered by several States and numerous communities, who, having denied a legal standing to the liquor traffic, find themselves helpless in the face of a judicial nullification of their prohibitory laws; and that the Stated Clerk be directed to transmit this action of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to the Chairmen of the respective Committees in Congress having this matter in charge.

Resolved, 11. That we commend to patriotic men and women in our churches the Permanent Committee on Temperance of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, which Committee has been duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania this past year, as now able to receive, to hold and to administer bequests and legacies to be used in the warfare against the liquor traffic.

Resolved, 12. That our Committee be encouraged to aid in every possible way in the campaign of education in behalf of temperance that is being waged this year in many of our States.

Resolved, 13. That we again denounce "The White Slave" traffic and its kindred evils, believing that public opinion must be aroused, educated and brought to the point where there shall no longer be two standards of morality, one for men and one for women.

Resolved, 14. That we insist that the laws of the several commonwealths in reference to the Sunday closing of the saloons be fully and impartially enforced.

Resolved, 15. That the Permanent Committee on Temperance be authorized, if deemed necessary, to borrow on the notes of its Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer, an amount of money not exceeding at any one time six thousand dollars.

For the Committee,

FREDERICK E. STOCKWELL, Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report referring papers, which was adopted and is as follows:

Overture No. 226, relating to Mission work among Jews, to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

Overture No. 303, on Church Union, to the Committee on Polity.

Overture No. 370, on incorporating the metrical psalms in the Church Hymnal, to the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work.

The Special Committee on Church Coöperation, through its Chairman, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., presented its Report, which, with the exception of Resolution 3, referred to the Finance Committee, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union respectfully reports to the General Assembly of 1912 as follows:

The Committee has met but once during the year, at Pittsburgh, Pa., on March 19, 1912, and that through a Sub-committee. The chief reason for the omission of a meeting lies in the fact that the Reformed Church in the United States, through its judicatories, is engaged in considering the Plan of Union, with a view to any possible modifications of the same which may be deemed wise. It is expected that a meeting of your Committee with the Committee of the Reformed Church will be held sometime during the fall of the present year. Both Committees will then be in possession of information which it has not been possible to secure thus far. Another reason for but one meeting is owing to the fact that the Commission of the Protestant Episcopal Church does not desire at present to hold conferences with any of the bodies interested as to the proposal of that Church for a World Conference on Faith and Order. Neither the Committees of the Disciples of Christ, nor the United Presbyterian Church, were prepared for the Conferences proposed. The present report is submitted under three heads:

I. The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

II. The Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S.

III. The Reformed Church in the U. S.

I. Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The Federal Council during the past fiscal year has been seeking to advance the general interests of the Church in several directions. Especial attention has been given to the work in charge of the Social Service, the Home Mission and the Family Life Commissions. There has also been excellent work done in connection with the organization of Federations in the States, in cities and in rural communities. The work of the two District Secretaries, the Rev. H. B. MacCauley, D.D., and the Rev. Charles E. Bacon, D.D., has been of excellent character and productive of considerable results. Christian fraternity has been sedulously cultivated and the cause of Christian unity decidedly advanced. While, however, there has been great sympathy with the Federation Movement throughout the whole United States, yet that sympathy has not found sufficient expression, in a pecuniary way, to make it possible for the Federal Council to continue progressive work in the future, unless there be a large addition to its financial resources.

The Social Service Commission, for instance, reports to the Executive Committee of the Federal Council that it could use, with much benefit to the general interests of the Churches, the sum of $10,000 per annum. And realizing that Social Service is only one branch of general church work, the Executive Committee has established a Commission on Evangelistic Work, composed of members from every denomination in the Federal Council. It is believed that much good can be accomplished through the bringing into harmonious and systematic relations all the various Evangelistic Committees and Agencies of the several Churches. This new Commission may involve expense, but the expectation is that any sums needed for the work will be provided by generous individuals or by the denominations interested.

The Second Federal Council of the Churches has been appointed to meet in Chicago, Ill., Wednesday, December 4, 1912. The number of denominations at present in the Council is 32, representing about 16,000,000 of communicants. The General Assembly is entitled to appoint four delegates at large, and in addition one delegate for each 50,000 communicants or part thereof—32 in all. This Committee on Church Coöperation and Union was authorized by the last Assembly to name the delegates, reporting them to this Assembly for its information. A number of the delegates are members of the Committee, and were present at the first Federal Council held in Philadelphia, in December, 1908. It is the judgment of the Committee that it is to the advantage of both the Federal Council and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., to appoint, as a portion of the delegation to such an important body, persons already familiar with the circumstances and conditions connected with the whole Federation Movement. The names of the delegates are as follows:

The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, 1. The General Assembly renews its congratulations to the Federal Council on the progress which is being made in giving practical effect to the actual spiritual unity of all who believe in and serve Jesus Christ.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly expresses the hope that the Second Federal Council to be held at Chicago, Ill., in December, 1912, will endeavor to perfect plans which shall give an increasing, practical effect to the work of coöperation between the numerous Christian bodies which constitute the constituency of the Council.

Resolved, 3. That there be paid to the Federal Council the sum of $1,350, as the apportionment of this Church, for the expenses of said Council for the year ending March 31, 1913.*

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly expresses its pleasure that the Committee has organized a general Evangelistic Committee, representing thirty-two denominations, with the Chairman of the Assembly's Committee on Church Co-operation and Union at its head.

* Referred and adopted, May 24, 1912.

II. The Protestant Episcopal Church.

The Commission of the Protestant Episcopal Church reports that eighteen Christian Churches, chiefly American and Canadian, have approved of the proposal submitted by it for a World Conference of all Christian Churches on Faith and Order. It is understood that this Conference cannot be held for several years. It is further understood that no meeting of a Committee of Arrangements for such Conference will be held until a larger number of Christian Churches have approved of the proposal of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and have appointed delegates to such Conference.

The Commission of the Protestant Episcopal Church has issued a circular letter, inviting the prayers of God's people in all lands for His blessings upon the Conference Movement, and commending to all the duty of cultivating the spirit of Christian unity.

To these two propositions the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., through its General Assembly, can but give cordial assent. Our Church has always maintained that Christian unity is a thing that is actually existent, and that organic union is a very different matter from Christian unity. Our Church maintains that "the visible Church, which is also Catholic or Universal under the Gospel (not confined to one nation, as under the law), consists of all those throughout the world that profess the true religion, together with their children; and is the kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ, the house and family of God, out of which there is no ordinary possibility of salvation." The quotation just given from the Standards, is sufficient evidence of the attitude of the Presbyterian Church toward all other Christian Churches. We do commend to our people prayer, that Christian unity, as thus set forth practically, may be increasingly the characteristic of the life of all other Christian Churches, without exception. The following resolution is submitted in this connection, for adoption:

Resolved, That this General Assembly entrusts the negotiations, with a view to the proposed World Conference on Faith and Order, to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, and instructs the Committee to adhere firmly to the condition that no Church shall be invited to participate in the proposed Conference that does not positively declare its faith in and obedience to Jesus Christ as God and Saviour, and also with instructions to decline to discuss, as preparatory to the proposed conference, any questions as to Faith and Order.

III. Reformed Church in the United States.

The tentative Plan of Union between the Reformed Church in the U. S. and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was adopted by the General Synod of the Reformed Church and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in May, 1911 (see Minutes of this General Assembly for 1911, pp. 236 to 241). The Concurrent Declarations, preliminary to the Plan of Union, dealing first, with the doctrinal agreement of the two Churches, and, second, declaring the conviction that the effort to unite the two Churches in one body should continue, were adopted by the General Assembly unanimously and by the General Synod by a large majority.

The approval of the Concurrent Declarations led to the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Plan of Union contained in this Report is hereby submitted by the General Assembly and the General Synod to the subordinate judicatories, for information and discussion, as an acceptable plan for future action, subject to such modifications as conditions may require.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union is hereby directed and empowered to confer with the Committee on Closer Union of the Reformed Church in the U. S., and on the basis of such information as may be received by both Committees, to make final report to the respective supreme judicatories in 1914.

Resolved, 3. That the following papers, prepared by the Joint Committees, be published by the Boards of Publication of the respective Churches, and distributed in the discretion of the Committee, viz.: (a) The Historical Statement as to the Relations of the Presbyterian and the Reformed Church; (b) the Present Status of the Reformed Church in the U. S., Doctrine, Cultus, Polity and Usages; and (c) the similar statement for the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

In compliance with the third of the above resolutions the two Committees of the respective Churches prepared and published through the Boards of Publication of the Churches, the documents referred to in said resolution No. 3. Copies of this document have been distributed with this Report and also throughout the Church.

The Committee on Union of the Reformed Church in the U. S. requests this General Assembly to draw the attention of Presbyteries to Concurrent Declaration No. 2 of the joint report on Union, found in the Minutes for 1911, p. 237. The Declaration is as follows:

"2. In view of this historical kinship and doctrinal agreement, we also declare our conviction that the effort to unite the two Churches in one body should continue, and the General Assembly and the General Synod hereby recommend to the Presbyteries, Classes and congregations to confer in the spirit of comity with reference to the proposed union, and to coöperate with one another during the coming triennium, whenever practicable, with a view to taking definite action for organic union, in the supreme judicatories of the two Churches, in 1914."

This General Assembly heartily recommends to the Presbyteries of this Church to seek conferences with the Classes of the Reformed Church in the U. S., located within the same general territory. Such conferences will do a great deal in the way of promoting that spirit of fraternal fellowship and true sympathy which is the chief human agency in bringing about the union of historic Churches.

The Committee has further to report that no information up to April 15, 1912, had been received by the Committee on Union of either Church which made a joint meeting necessary. It will be noted that final report is to be made to the respective supreme judicatories in 1914, the year of the Triennial Meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S.. The Committee respectfully requests the adoption of the following resolution.

Resolved, That the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union is hereby directed and empowered to proceed with the work of Conference, as circumstances may permit, with the Committee on Closer Union of the Reformed Church in the U. S., report as to the status of the movement toward Union to be made to the General Assembly of 1913.

In behalf of the Committee,

Wm. H. Roberts, Chairman.

The Committee on Canvass of Overtures sent down to the Presbyteries by the Assembly of 1911 presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Canvass of the Votes on Overtures sent down to the Presbyteries by the Assembly of 1911 reports as follows:

Overture No. 1.—The Overture reads: "Shall the Form of Government, Chap. XII, Sect. 7, be so amended that the first sentence shall read:

"The General Assembly shall meet at least once in every two years." (Minutes, 1911, p. 142.)

To this Overture the following Presbyteries have made answer in the affirmative: Atlantic, Bell, Buffalo, Butler, Cairo, Carlisle, Cayuga, Central Washington, Chattanooga, Chemung, Choctaw, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbia–A, Dallas, Ebenezer, Erie, Flint, Genesee, Geneva, Havana, Hudson, Huntsville, Huron, Indianapolis, Iowa City, Jonesboro, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Lincoln, Little Rock, Logansport, Louisville, Neosho, New Brunswick, Newton, New York, Niobrara, Northumberland, Petoskey, Phœnix, Rochester, Rock River, Rushville, Saginaw, St. Louis, Salt Lake, Salt River, Siam, Southern Arizona, Steuben, Syracuse, Topeka, Waterloo, Westchester, Western Africa, West Jersey, White Water, Willamette, Yadkin, Zanesville.—61.

The following Presbyteries have made answer in the negative: Aberdeen, Abilene, Adams, Alaska, Albany, Alton, Ardmore, Arkansas, Athens, Austin, Baltimore, Beaver, Bellefontaine, Bellingham, Benicia, Binghamton, Birmingham, Birmingham–A, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Butte, Cape Fear, Carthage, Catawba, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Central West, Champlain, Chester, Cheyenne, Chicago, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbia River, Columbus, Cookeville, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, Elizabeth, El Paso, El Reno, Emporia, Ewing, Fargo, Florida, Fort Dodge, Fort Smith, Fort Worth, Freeport, French Broad, Galena, George, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Gunnison, Hastings, Helena, Highland, Hodge, Holston, Hopewell-Madison, Houston, Huntingdon, Indiana, Iowa, Iron Mountain, Jefferson, Jersey City, Kalispell, Kearney, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kirksville, Kittanning, Knox, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Le Vere, Lima, Logan, Long Island, Los Angeles, McAlester, McClelland, McGee, McMinnville, Madison, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukan, Minot, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muncie, Muskogee, Nashville, Nassau, Nebraska City, New Albany, Newark, New Castle, New Hope, Niagara, North River, Oakes, Oakland, Obion-Memphis, Ogden, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Oxford, Ozark, Paris, Parkersburg, Pecos Valley, Pembina, Pendleton, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Porto Rico, Portsmouth, Princeton, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Reserve, Rio Grande, Riverside, Rogersville, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, St. Cloud, St. Joseph, St. Lawrence, St. Paul, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San José, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Seattle, Sedalia, Shenango, Sheridan, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Solomon, Southern Oregon, Southern Utah, Southern Virginia, Spokane, Springfield, Springville-Talladega, Steubenville, Transylvania, Troy, Tulsa, Twin Falls, Union, Utica, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Waukon, Wellsborough, Wenatchee, Westminster, Wheeling, White River, Wichita, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yellowstone, Yukon.—209.

The number of Presbyteries taking no action or not reporting is 22.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 292, and the provision of Chap. XXIV of the Form of Government, Sect. 1, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries shall approve, in writing, of an amendment or alteration of the Form of Government and Book of Discipline. A majority of the Presbyteries is 147, and inasmuch as only 61 have voted in the affirmative, and this is not a constitutional majority, the Overture is not carried.

Overture No. 2.—The Overture reads: "Shall Chap. VIII, Sect. 3, Directory for Worship, be amended as follows: After the word 'head,' insert a comma, and add, after the word 'head,' the phrase, 'calling him by name,' so that the sentence shall read and be punctuated as follows: 'Then the minister shall baptize the candidate by pouring or sprinkling water upon his head, calling him by name, and using these words'?" (Minutes, 1911, p. 216.)

To this Overture the following Presbyteries have made answer in the affirmative: Aberdeen, Adams, Alaska, Alton, Ardmore, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Beaver, Bell, Bellefontaine, Bellingham, Benicia, Binghamton, Birmingham, Birmingham–A, Bloomington, Boisé, Box Butte, Buffalo, Cairo, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Carthage, Catawba, Central Dakota, Central West, Chattanooga, Chester, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbia–A, Columbia River, Columbus, Cookeville, Crawfordsville, Dallas, Dayton, Des Moines, Detroit, Duluth, Elizabeth, El Paso, El Reno, Erie, Fargo, Flint, Florida, Fort Dodge, Fort Smith, Fort Worth, French Broad, Galena, Genesee, Geneva, George, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Gunnison, Havana, Helena, Highland, Hodge, Holston, Hopewell-Madison, Houston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huntsville, Huron, Indiana, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iron Mountain, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kalispell, Kansas City, Kirksville, Kittanning, Lackawanna, Larned, Lehigh, Le Vere, Lincoln, Logan, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, McAlester, McClelland, McGee, McMinnville, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukan, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muskogee, Nashville, Nassau, Nebraska City, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, New Castle, New Hope, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, Northumberland, Oakes, Oakland, Obion-Memphis, Ogden, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Oxford, Ozark, Paris, Parkersburg, Pecos Valley, Pembina, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Phœnix, Pittsburgh, Portland, Portsmouth, Princeton, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Reserve, Rio Grande, Riverside, Rochester, Rogersville, Rushville, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, Salt Lake, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San José, Santa Fé, Seattle, Siam, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Arizona, Spokane, Springville-Talladega, Steuben, Steubenville, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Tulsa, Union, Utica, Waco, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Waterloo, Waukon, Wellsborough, Wenatchee, Western Africa, Westminster, Wheeling, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin, Yellowstone, Yukon, Zanesville.—202.

The following Presbyteries have made answer in the negative: Abilene, Albany, Arkansas, Black Hills, Blairsville, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Butte, Cedar Rapids, Central Washington, Chemung, Cheyenne, Chicago, Corning, Council Bluffs, Denver, Dubuque, Emporia, Ewing, Freeport, Hastings, Jefferson, Jonesboro, Kearney, Kendall, Knox, Lansing, Lima, Little Rock, Maumee, Minot, Monmouth, Muncie, Neosho, North River, Ottawa, Porto Rico, Rock River, St. Cloud, St. Joseph, Salt River, Sedalia, Shenango, Sioux Falls, Southern Oregon, Southern Utah, Southern Virginia, Springfield, Troy, Twin Falls, Westchester, Wichita.—52.

The number of Presbyteries taking no action or not reporting is 38.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 292, and the provision of Chap. XXIV of the Form of Government, Sect. 1, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries shall approve, in writing, of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government and Directory for Worship. A majority of the Presbyteries is 147, and inasmuch as 202 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make the declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.:

"I hereby declare that Overture No. 2, sent down by the Assembly of 1911, to the Presbyteries, being an amendment of the Directory for Worship of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, has been duly adopted as an amendment to the Directory for Worship, Chap. VIII, Sect. 3, and is a part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

Overture No. 3.—The Overture reads: "The General Assembly shall have power to appoint a Permanent Committee or other agency to supervise the supply of vacant pulpits and the service of unemployed ministers. The number of members, the officers, and their duties, shall be determined by the Assembly. The powers of the agency shall be as follows: to conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries and their Committees, concerning unemployed ministers and vacant congregations; to seek to adjust, in coöperation with Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, the requirements of vacancy and supply, by methods adequate to the given conditions in any Synod or Presbytery; to furnish information to church Sessions and ministers; to suggest to the General Assembly plans for administration, and to make an annual report to the Assembly." (Minutes, 1911, p. 224.)

To this Overture the following Presbyteries have made answer in the affirmative: Aberdeen, Abilene, Adams, Alaska, Albany, Alton, Ardmore, Athens, Atlantic, Baltimore, Bell, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Birmingham–A, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Buffalo, Butte, Cairo, Cape Fear, Carthage, Cedar Rapids, Central Washington, Champlain, Chattanooga, Chemung, Chester, Cheyenne, Chippewa, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbia–A, Columbus, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dallas, Dayton, Des Moines, Dubuque, Ebenezer, El Paso, El Reno, Erie, Ewing, Fargo, Flint, Florida, Fort Dodge, Fort Smith, Freeport, French Broad, Galena, Genesee, George, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Gunnison, Hastings, Helena, Highland, Hodge, Holston, Hopewell-Madison, Houston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huntsville, Huron, Indianapolis, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kalispell, Kearney, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kirksville, Knox, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Le Vere, Lincoln, Logan, Long Island, McAlester, McClelland, McGee, McMinnville, Mahoning, Mankato, Mattoon, Minneapolis, Minnewaukan, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muncie, Muskogee, Nassau, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, New Castle, New Hope, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, Oakes, Oakland, Obion-Memphis, Ogden, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Ottawa, Oxford, Parkersburg, Pembina, Pendleton, Peoria, Petoskey, Phœnix, Pittsburgh, Porto Rico, Portsmouth, Princeton, Reserve, Rochester, Rock River, Rogersville, Rushville, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence, Salt Lake, Salt River, San Joaquin, San José, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Seattle, Shenango, Siam, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Southern Arizona, Southern Utah, Southern Virginia, Springfield, Springville-Talladega, Steuben, Steubenville, Syracuse, Transylvania, Troy, Tulsa, Twin Falls, Utica, Waco, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Waukon, Wellsborough, Wenatchee, Westchester, Western Africa, Westminster, Wheeling, White Water, Willamette, Winona, Yellowstone, Yukon, Zanesville.—187.

The following Presbyteries have made answer in the negative: Arkansas, Austin, Beaver, Bellingham, Binghamton, Birmingham, Black Hills, Butler, Carlisle, Central Dakota, Central West, Chicago, Chillicothe, Choctaw, Clarion, Columbia River, Cookeville, Denver, Detroit, Duluth, Elizabeth, Emporia, Fort Worth, Geneva, Indiana, Iowa, Iowa City, Iron Mountain, Jefferson, Jonesboro, Kansas City, Kittanning, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Little Rock, Logansport, Los Angeles, Louisville, Madison, Marion, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minot, Monmouth, Nashville, Nebraska City, Neosho, Northumberland, Osborne, Ozark, Paris, Pecos Valley, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Portland, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Rio Grande, Riverside, Saginaw, St. Cloud, St. Joseph, St. Louis, St. Paul, San Francisco, Sedalia, Sheridan, Solomon, Southern Oregon, Spokane, Topeka, Union, Waterloo, West Jersey, White River, Wichita, Winnebago, Wooster and Yadkin.—81.

The number of Presbyteries taking no action or not reporting is 24.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 292, and the provision of Chap. XII of the Form of Government, Sect. 6, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries shall approve, in writing, all "enactments proposed by the Assembly to be established as rules regulative of the constitutional powers of Presbyteries and Synods." A majority of the Presbyteries is 147, and inasmuch as 187 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make the declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.:

"I hereby declare that Overture No. 3, sent down by the Assembly of 1911, to the Presbyteries, has been constitutionally adopted as Constitutional Rule No. 4, of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

We recommend that the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be authorized to include in this report any additional reports of Presbyteries or Overtures, until June 1, 1912.

In behalf of the Committee,
EDGAR W. WORK, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Brotherhood was made the second Order for Friday morning.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 21, 8 o'clock P.M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interest of the Board of Home Missions.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 1912, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Rev. W. H. Black, D.D., delegate from the Council of the Reformed Churches in America, addressed the Assembly.

Rev. Alexander Stewart, M.A., former Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Victoria, Australia, addressed the Assembly.

The Moderator, in behalf of the Assembly, responded to each of the addresses.

A Resolution on Sunday-school missionaries' claim to relief was referred to the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. Cornelius M. Steffens, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., was adopted. The Report is as follows:

In presenting this Report for the consideration of the General Assembly, your Committee desires to express gratitude to God for the good way in which He has led the affairs of the Church in the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and to congratulate the Church on the wise and statesmanlike policies of the Board, and the consecration with which the Secretaries carry on their work.

In a careful study of the Report of the Board, as well as that of the Treasurer, we have been impressed with the magnitude of the task before the Church, to Christianize America. It calls forth larger things than we have before attempted. The problem of immigration and the tremendous territory of the South and Southwest, the great West and Northwest, and the large cities demand expenditure of men and money commensurate with the new opportunities.

What a wide district is embraced within the Synods of Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Texas—nine Synods, ten States! In this territory, with 722,000 square miles, there live over 20,000,000 inhabitants. Throughout this vast region we are confronted with the larger part of the negro problem; it is here, too, that the Mexican question has become acute; and a still growing influx of people enlarges the vision.

Alaska is prominently before the public to-day. Her political and commercial interests are widely discussed. Her citizens are demanding territorial organization and self-government.

Congressional interest—so long withheld—is now manifesting itself along the two very important lines of conservation and transportation. Inasmuch as political and commercial interests are alert to future possibilities, in this as yet undiscovered country, it is incumbent upon the Presbyterian Church, which has always stood at the forefront in Alaskan missionary enterprise, to quicken its interest and renew its activities, that religion and morality may keep pace with commerce and government in the development of this great northern empire.

Your Committee rejoices to know that in the Northwest, in the lumber camps, on the frontier, in Cuba, Porto Rico, and in all this broad domain, the Church has caught the vision respecting the concentration of all its energies, in its supreme mission to carry out the command of Jesus Christ when He said, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world," and is preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ to America, in order to make America Immanuel's Land.

In carrying out this programme the Board realizes that it is not organized for its own sake. The visions and struggles and sacrifices of the missionary in the difficult places of our country justify the Board's existence, which is made possible only by a constituency demanding such services and co-operation.

From the Report of the Board we gather the summary of work accomplished during the past year:

RECEIPTS.—Receipts for current work under immediate direction of the Board of Home Missions, $1,009,112.84. Additional receipts for current work under direction of the Woman's Board, $482,070.01. Additional receipts transmitted through the Board for special current enterprises not under its direction, $12,449.09. Which make a total, for current work through the Board's treasury, of $1,503,631.94. Receipts for current work administered directly through the treasuries of self-supporting Synods and Presbyteries, $454,787.88. A total for current Home Mission work, for last year, of $1,958,419.82.

In addition to this amount, the Board received substantial sums for investment in the interests of the Home Mission work, and not for use in current work. Not including $52,500 of annuities unavailable for any purpose until the death of the annuitants, these amounts increase the total of money which reached Home Mission treasuries, during the year, to $2,298,762.23.

In this, no reckoning is made of hundreds of thousands of dollars administered by other Boards of the Presbyterian General Assembly, doing work in the United States, of numerous down-town missions and parish institutions financed by the budgets of local churches or of millions of money contributed by individual Presbyterians in the support of religious, general, social and philanthropic enterprises not directly organized under Presbyterian auspices.

WHENCE THE MONEY COMES.—Churches, as such, contributed to the Board's treasury $298,276.64. Besides this, our churches probably contributed 50 or 60 per cent. of the total directly administered by the self-supporting Synods and Presbyteries.

Women's Missionary Societies contributed, for work administered by the Woman's Board, $281,626.24; for other work of the Board, $1,466.15, or a total of $283,092.39

Young People's Societies and Sunday-schools contributed for the work administered by the Board, including that of the Woman's Board, $108,446.29. The records do not show how much these organizations contributed to the work administered directly by the self-supporting Synods and Presbyteries. From individuals and miscellaneous sources there was contributed to the work of the Board, including the Woman's Board, $66,541.12.

From legacies the amount contributed to the work of the Board, including the Woman's Board, is $797,214.87, of which sum $315,000 was carried to the Special Reserve Account.

What the Money Does.—Almost 3,500 churches, missions and out-stations were assisted in maintaining their work in as many needy communities, throughout continental United States, east and west. north and south, in the islands and in Alaska.

About 3,000 ministers and other workers were supported, wholly or in part, in preaching, teaching and varied lines of the Gospel ministry. About 14,000 persons were brought into membership of the Church by profession of faith, and about 8,000 by certificate; thousands of children and others received instruction in Gospel truth, and unnumbered communities were led to higher standards of daily living. New churches were organized, to the number of 130.

Inspirational influences emanated from Home Mission agencies, which quickened every phase of the Church's life and ministry; immigrant masses were brought into sympathetic relations with the Church and other institutions of the Republic; rural churches were led to see their mission of leadership in community life, and discouraged country ministers gained a sense of dignity and worthfulness in their calling; direct and definite leadership was assumed in the stressful social movements of the nation and of local communities; every group of exceptional people, Indians, Spanish-Americans, aliens and the coming citizens of every race and color, was leavened with Christian truth; numerous phases of all the great problems of modern spiritual ministry were studied anew, and modern scientific methods were brought under bondage of the forces establishing the Kingdom of Heaven upon earth.

The Faithful Servants.—We learn with mingled sorrow and joy that the Master has given rest to the following faithful servants, who have entered upon their glorious reward, believing that it may be said of them, that the spirit of the Lord was upon them and that they were sent "to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord." They were faithful unto the end. Let us reverently listen to the roll-call of those who are no longer on the firing lines:

Mr. Harvey E. Baker	Myra, Texas.
Rev. C. C. Bullock	Avoca, Texas.
Rev. E. P. Butler	Crescent City, Florida.
Rev. J. A. Cahill	Magdalena, New Mexico.
Rev. Robert Ennis	Jacksonville, Oregon.
Rev. George Frank	Emery, South Dakota.
Rev. Harold J. Frothingham, D.D	Elsinore, California.
Rev. C. B. Ludwig	Whitewood, South Dakota.
Rev. Samuel B. Moyer	Pueblo, Colorado.
Rev. George H. Perry	Salmon, Idaho.
Rev. David B. Simpson	Dexter, New Mexico.

We also note the home-going of the oldest member of the Board, who served for fifteen years, Gen. A Noel Blakeman. On the Woman's Board, two noble women, Mrs. Darwin R. James, who served from 1881 to 1912, and Mrs. Delos G. Finks, who served from 1886 to 1911, after many years of gracious service, are now resting from their labors. Having lost these faithful servants, may our hearts and prayers go out in sympathy to the homes from which they have gone. May the God of all peace and comfort sustain all those who so loyally and lovingly upheld and inspired the courage and faithfulness of these workers in the vineyard.

The Departments.—We note with increasing interest and enthusiasm the statesmanship with which the Board approaches the task of Christianizing America, beginning in a small way, nine years ago, with the establishment of four departments, Social Service, Church and Country Life, Immigration, and Indian Work. These have developed into immeasurable factors in expanding and deepening Home Missions. The future evolution of these departments, through experience, meets in an intensive way the imperative modern demands. The correlation of our duty to God and to men will in this manner receive the correct emphasis and approach perfection.

Social Service.—This development grew out of the original plan of the Board for a "Church and Labor Department." It now embraces all moral and social problems. Its object is, to enlarge the power of the Church in an intelligent way, to apply the principles of Christianity to the broad sphere of modern social life, and to create a spiritual influence by means of which to make society clean, pure and Christlike, and to incarnate the golden rule in man's words and deeds. A study of such problems as charities, corrections, child welfare, woman's work, labor and capital, public health and housing, public parks and recreations and the economic and moral welfare of the community, will secure to the Church enlarged influence. In order that any appreciable good may result, we must have open eyes and clear judgments, we must undertake accurate investigation, and intelligently appreciate life in all its relations, so that we may restrain or eliminate evil from society, and thus enable the the Church to become the true Evangel for the salvation of all mankind.

A survey made, during the past year, in such cities as Cleveland and Chicago enabled these communities to understand more clearly the task before the Christian Church. We hope these exhibits may show the Church more fully the importance of the regeneration of the individual, through the Spirit, and may cause it to realize what a vital part American citizenship has in the reformation of society and government.

Church and Country Life.—It is a subject for congratulation, that this department has already accomplished work of a high value, through its surveys, which have created profound interest among sociological students and experts all over the land and have influenced other denominations to take up similar work. We express the hope that, through "a follow-up system," this may lead to still greater results and, under the blessing of God, may prepare the way for a revival of true Christian life in lapsed and now destitute country regions.

Immigration.—Another feature of our modern American life has called forth a new adjustment of the Board's work. The settlement, in our great cities, of immense numbers of foreign-speaking peoples who live by themselves, is a challenge of the Church of Christ. The burden is felt in some of the self-supporting Presbyteries and Synods. Here is where the national Board must come to assist the weaker organizations. Christian leadership, above everything else, is the great need of the hour. The harvest truly is great and the laborers are few. Yet there is the promise of Christ: "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He send forth laborers into His harvest." May the Church be humbled to become the interceding and praying people of God in this gigantic mission.

Indian Department.—The Presbyterian Church is not theorizing about the "Indian Problem." It is busy with a God-appointed task. It is trying to deal in a practical, earnest, systematic way with the conversion to Christianity, and the nurture in the faith, of a race which is not vanishing, but steadily increasing in numbers, and whose destiny and place in our civilization is to be early determined.

The purposes of the Board are speedily to evangelize the 50,000 Indians of our Christian land, who have no missionaries or churches; to enlarge the number and capacity of Christian schools where the Bible is taught daily and the atmosphere of the school is that of the Christian home; to establish an industrial and institutional work for the neediest tribes and field missionaries, and to encourage the Indians everywhere in America to adjust themselves to the new conditions and strange relations into which they have been forced, and to help them, under God, to work out their own salvation and destiny in American life.

Missionary Salaries.—A year ago, provision was made by which the Board would coöperate with churches in securing for the missionaries a minimum salary of $800. This in most cases has been reached, and is still found to be inadequate. In many parts of the country it is impossible to secure for a family a fair living on that sum. The Board has, therefore, taken another forward step. It proposes now to make $900 the minimum for the missionary's salary. This will be done, however, only on two conditions: First, that the congregation that is being assisted shall coöperate with the Board in this advance; and, secondly, that the missionary shall become an installed pastor; this is done in order to secure that great essential for permanent progress in the more permanent relation of the missionary to the people.

United Work.—It is gratifying to note the renewed and general study of Home Mission administrative problems. The resulting tendencies would appear to be making in the right direction. American ideals of administration should prevail in the articulation of part with part in its Home Mission work. The complete independency of any part must work disastrously to that part and to the whole. Each Synod and Presbytery discovers its dependence upon others, if not for financial aid, certainly for inspiration and fellowship in the administration of its work. This essential American principle is accentuated by to-day's intricate social problems. Wide sections of the country share new and common tasks, and the proposed federation of Synods, by groups, for the common approach to common problems is a wise recognition of to-day's needs.

In similar manner, the knitting of the whole into a common fabric through the offices of the national Board of Home Missions is recognized to be important. This involves no sacrifice, but rather the exaltation of the Presbyterian and American principle of the rights of each part in the whole. It must be injurious for any Synod or Presbytery to lose vital relation with the Board as the federal centre of Home Mission administration.

The Board and all of its resources should be back of every Synod and Presbytery of the Church. Some Synods require especially the financial help of the Board; others, assistance in the development of their own resources; still others, some other ministry, but each has a right to require and to gain from the Board help at that point where the need is real. Under present complicated conditions throughout the Church the Board should be equipped to render a varied service. Each Synod should be able to look with confidence to it for such guidance and assistance as the peculiar developments of its field shall prompt the Synod to seek. Leadership in the approach to any and all phases of the many-sided Home Mission task should be definitely expected of the Board.

The cramping effects of extreme independency in Synods or Presbyteries is apparent from experience. Sections of the Church whose natural resources are the largest have sometimes least developed their powers of giving and doing. Larger plans, conceived in a more liberal statesmanship, will alone develop these resources. No Synod should rob the national enterprise of its coöperation; no Synod should rob itself of the tonic of a large task.

The time is past when the fear of centralized power can properly deter intimate coöperation. Every agency should be given all the power it can use in discharging the common responsibility of all parts of the Church. There is never peril in responsible power. The Church should call its administrative agencies to account for their stewardship, but no artificial check can safely be put upon any sincere and wise attempt to meet the common obligation.

Consideration of need should be the guide in shaping all plans. There is no virtue in machinery which is not designed to produce results. Where two agencies would only be in one another's way by attempting to work together, they should, of course, work separately. On the other hand, no need should be permitted to suffer neglect. If any part of the Church is unable to cope with its problems, no pride of self-dependence should permit a neglect which must in the end put the health of the whole Church in jeopardy. Your Committee feels that there never was a time when the need was so patent for all Home Mission agencies to join in intimate coöperation; and it is gratifying to note the general desire to mold all agencies into a common force, employed upon a common task.

Your Committee has had referred to it by the Assembly the plan of federation of the work of Home Missions proposed by the Advisory Council of Church Extension, which we offer for adoption in an amended form, and also a statement as to work among foreign-speaking peoples:

1. In regard to work among foreign-speaking peoples, it is the judgment of the Council that such work should be administered by the Presbytery or Synod in which it is located, as far as this is feasible; that owing to the peculiar nature of this work and the problems arising under it, it is especially desirable that Synods and Presbyteries engaged in it keep in close touch with one another and with a central agency having interest in, and expert knowledge of, the whole field. This may best be done through the Immigration Department of the Home Board. The Council, therefore, advises that those engaged in this work keep in touch with this department as tending to the unification and increased efficiency of the work as a whole and in all its parts.

2. To secure closer and more efficient advisory relations between Home Mission agencies, the Council asks the Assembly to adopt a plan, of which the following shall be the outstanding features, adjustment of details being left to the agencies concerned.

Proposed Plan for Federating the Self-supporting Synods and the Board of Home Missions.

Preamble.—Valuable as self-administration and support have been to synodical missions, resulting not alone in more careful supervision because of the nearness of the authority to the need, but also in larger and more comprehensive giving, the conviction is growing that there should be a closer relation established between all the agencies of Home Mission work within the denomination. Not only does this age of coöperation suggest this, but changing social conditions and the incoming millions of foreign-born citizens demand it.

Believing that a plan of coöperation can be established between the Home Board and the self-supporting Synods, without in the least disturbing present organization and independence, the Advisory Council would respectfully suggest the following plan of federation to the Assembly, requesting that, if it meet with the Assembly's approval, it be sent down to the Home Board, and the Synods named, for their consideration and action, it being understood that the Boards and two-thirds of the Synods concerned shall provide for the inauguration of the plan.

1. That the self-supporting Synods be organized into groups, of which the following may be taken as a suggestive arrangement:

The Eastern Group, consisting of the Synods of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Baltimore and West Virginia.

The Group of the Middle West: Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin.

The Western Group: Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri.

2. That each Synod and its constituent Presbyteries shall continue their present form of organization, except as changes may be deemed desirable by the Synod or Presbytery concerned.

3. That each Synod shall appoint not more than two members, either ministerial or lay, to constitute, in company with similar representatives from other Synods of the same group, a Federation Council, meeting once or twice each year, as the group may desire; representatives of the Home Board being corresponding members of each group.

4. That each of the Synods shall appoint one representative as a corresponding member of the Home Board, who shall attend annually a meeting of the Board, at the Board's expense, being also welcomed at any meeting of the Board.

5. That it shall be the duty of the Home Board to appoint one of its officers, or a representative, to assist the Synods in matters of synodical finance, budgets, work among peoples of foreign speech, etc., at the request of the Synod's Home Mission officials.

6. That each Synod, if desiring, shall have the privilege of availing itself of the treasury facilities of the Home Board, providing that if such Synod's account is overdrawn the Board shall send a representative into that Synod for the purpose of assisting it to get back to a position of self-support.

7. The Council asks that the developments of the future be permitted to determine the continuance of the Council as now constituted, it being the conviction that if the plan proposed above shall be put into operation, it and other methods of bringing Home Mission agencies into harmonious and effective relationships will produce better results and at less cost than the present Advisory Council.

Overtures Referred.—Your Committee had referred to it Overture No. 271, from the Presbytery of Southern Oregon, in reference to the relations between labor and capital, asking the Assembly to take steps looking to the organization of an Industrial Commission, which shall have representatives from different denominations; and we offer the following answer:

1. That we greatly deplore the contentions between labor and capital, and are willing to lend our influence for their elimination.

2. That the Presbyterian Church as a whole is not devoted to the interests of one class as opposed to those of another.

3. That the establishment of an Industrial Peace Commission by the Assembly does not seem practicable and wise, in addition to the Department of Social Service already established.

Replying to Overture No. 358, from the Presbytery of Minneapolis, No. 356, from the Presbytery of Spokane, and No. 269, from the Presbytery of Buffalo, with regard to the suspension, by the President of the United States, of the order of Robert V. Valentine, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, concerning the use of sectarian insignia and garb in Government Indian schools and sectarian instruction, we would say that a representative of the Board, and others interested, have already appeared before the Administration, and made request for the revoking of the President's order, and that the President has this request now under consideration, it is recommended that the General Assembly take advantage of this opportunity to declare its position on this important matter, in the following action: The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. expresses its judgment, that the Constitution of the United States, and the traditions of our national life, demand that there shall be no attempt at proselyting, in any Government institution, even in an indirect manner; that the use of ecclesiastical insignia and garb in Government schools constitutes a subtle and powerful propaganda; that the fact that this has been permitted in time past, as it never should have been permitted, does not justify its continuance; that one Church should not seek or desire special privileges which other Churches do not possess nor ask; and that complete obedience, on the part of everybody concerned, to the principle of freedom from all trace of sectarianism in Government institutions, is the only just and fair basis on which Government schools can be maintained;

And the Assembly respectfully requests the President of the United States to see to it that the order of Commissioner Valentine be revived, and put into impartial operation immediately.

Your Committee has had referred to it Overture No. 226, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, referring to the Jewish Peoples; and the following answer is offered:

Resolved, That the Overture be answered in the negative, efforts to evangelize the Jews having already been made, as the reports of the Board will show.

Resolved, That we approve of continued efforts to find the best method of bringing the Gospel to the Jewish people.

The Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. We have examined the Minutes of the Board of Home Missions, find them neatly and correctly kept, and recommend that they be approved.

2. The term of service of the following members of the Board expires with this Assembly, and their reëlection is recommended: Ministers—Rev. D. Stuart Dodge, D.D., Rev. Lyman Whitney Allen, D.D., Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin, D.D.; Laymen—Frank L. Babbott, Theodore W. Morris, William S. Bennet, LL.D.

The election of Rev. John Lyon Caughey, D.D., in place of Rev. John Douglass Adam, D.D., resigned, is also recommended.

We recommend for the Class of 1914, Mr. Francis O. Phraner, in place of Gen. A. Noel Blakeman, deceased; and Mr. H. K. Mitchell, in place of Mr. C. B. Orcutt, deceased.

We recommend for the Class of 1915, President John H. Finley, LL.D., in place of Mr. Thomas H. Perrin, deceased.

3. That the Assembly goes on record as most heartily commending the faithfulness of the members of the Board of Home Missions, and the unswerving and untiring devotion of its consecrated Secretaries.

4. That the Presbyteries and the churches are recommended to a careful study of the Budget for Home Missions, prepared by the Executive Commission, assigning for national Home Missions, $746,698.32, and for presbyterial and synodical Home Missions in the self-supporting Synods, $491,909.63. The formal adoption of this budget for Home Missions is recommended, and an earnest and systematic effort to provide the full quota.

5. That the Assembly recommends to the Indian Department of the Board the advisability of establishing, wherever practicable, professorships in Indian schools, where theological instruction may be offered to Indian men who may have a call to the Gospel ministry.

6. That the Sunday-schools be urged to continue to devote the offerings on the Sunday before Thanksgiving to the work of the Woman's Board, and on the Sunday nearest Washington's birthday to the work of the Board of Home Missions, such offerings to be secured as part of the apportionment made in the Budget.

In behalf of Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

CORNELIUS M. STEFFENS, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Work on the Continent of Europe presented its Report, which was accepted. Resolution No. 2 of the Report was referred to the Board of Home Missions. The remainder of the Report was adopted, and is as follows:

A committee was constituted by the General Assembly in the year 1902, in answer to an overture from the Presbytery of Lackawanna, "to deal immediately with the needs of the foreign populations." It was called "The Special Committee on a Ministry for the Hungarians and Other Immigrants." Its first Report was made to the General Assembly in 1903, by Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Chairman. In the Report it was urged that "the matter of correspondence with the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, with special reference to the needs of all Reformed Churches on the Continent of Europe," be entrusted to the care of persons specially interested in the work; and a recommendation was adopted by the General Assembly, that "a Committee of five be appointed by the Moderator." Dr. J. W. Cochran was made Chairman of that Committee.

The Special Committee made their first Report to the General Assembly in 1904.

For some years a Committee of the Alliance on "Church Work on the European Continent" had been addressing letters to the various General Assemblies of the Reformed faith, pressing home the needs of the native Churches of Europe, and also the needs of English-speaking tourists and residents in European lands. Attention was especially drawn to the need of providing during the summer months stated supplies for preaching stations, to be established where American tourists and students do most congregate. Various centres where such services should be established were indicated. It was believed that such a work would tend to strengthen the Protestant movement in these centres. It was urged that the Presbyterian Church is indigenous to the soil of the Old World. No other family of Churches has such a natural-born right in Europe as we have. Neither Episcopal, nor Methodist, nor Baptist, nor Congregational Churches have the same inheritance. Native pastors welcome Presbyterians above all denominations. If the Reformed Churches of Europe are to be awakened to their present great opportunity, no agency is better qualified to stimulate and encourage them than the Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and America.

Moreover, there is urgent and growing need for churches to reach the English-speaking residents. More and more are the Continental cities filling up with English-speaking colonies. In Berlin 5,000, in Paris 30,000, Americans are found. Students of art, music, science, medicine, law and theology are crossing the waters in ever-increasing throngs. American business is pushing its way and building up a rapidly-growing trade in all these cities. For these classes permanent chapels should be established with preaching services all the year. Such chapels would be centres of redeeming influence in the midst of worldliness, immorality, and lax standards of life. If we hope to preserve the thousands of foreign residents from the contaminations of European life, we must follow them with religious services that will appeal to them. We spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to save the students in American colleges and universities from the temptations surrounding them. Do we owe a lesser debt to our students abroad? How much more should we be interested in these young men and women when they go to foreign soil, and find themselves relieved of all restraints thrown about them at home? And think of the tourists! Tens of thousands of them fill the European cities, profaning the Lord's Day by all manner of promiscuous sight-seeing, using as a pretext that there is no English-speaking service. No sufficient attention has been paid to the matter by the American Church. There are a number of places that should be manned this summer, where live, earnest men should each Sunday gather in the tourists for Christian worship. Shall it be done? The burden rests upon the great Presbyterian Church.

The Episcopal Church of England has about 400 places of worship on the Continent. She has two societies—the first, called "The Society for the Promotion of the Gospel in Foreign Parts," under direction of the High Church party, having nearly 200 places of worship, the other society is the "Colonial and Continental Church Society," having 223 places of worship. The rivalry between these two societies is intense. Many Presbyterian tourists attend the Episcopal service in Europe, because Presbyterian services are not provided. The Scotch Presbyterian Churches are at work. The United Free Church has two Continental Presbyteries, the Presbytery of Italy and the Presbytery of Spain and Portugal. They have forty-five preaching stations and spend $75,000 a year upon the work. Twenty-two places of worship are open all the year. There are many chapels open only in the summer months, and others only in the winter months. If you wish to spend a whole year at Amsterdam, Brussels, Dresden or Naples, you may worship in a Scotch Presbyterian Church. If you wish to spend the winter at Budapest, Nice, San Remo, Montreux, or Cannes, you may take advantage of the liberality of the Scotch Church. If you wish to spend the summer in Lucerne, Interlaken, St. Moritzbad, or Wiesbaden, it is the Scotch Church to which you turn.

It is not with the idea of duplicating this work, but taking it to places now destitute that our Church is called. The Scotch Church has appealed to us to help. Their words are:

"You as Churches owe as much to Geneva, to France, to Holland and to Germany as we do. You have Huguenot Churches, and descendants of the Huguenots among you still. You have important German Reformed and Dutch Reformed Churches. Some of the best elements in your Great Republic are drawn from immigrants from the Continent of Europe. Should you not pay these debts in a Church capacity, not leaving it merely to the good-will of isolated individuals? In some important respects you have facilities for doing this work which we in Britain have not. You have in your American and Canadian Churches not a few eminent ministers, gifted licentiates and students of Divinity, able to preach with acceptance and power in English, but whose mother tongue is French, or German, or Dutch. These men would be invaluable for work on the European Continent. Could not your Churches, as such, do something to send them to, and to encourage and support them in it? They would do effective ministerial and pastoral service in an English-speaking congregation on the Continent; and at the same time bring fully into touch with American Evangelistic and Presbyterian life and work these European Americans."

Your Committee cannot emphasize too strongly the importance of providing American services in places thronged by Americans. Why should thousands of our people in Europe depend for their English services upon the few scattering Scotch Presbyterian Churches throughout Europe, or be compelled to attend the English Episcopal services? Rather than do that, your American, wedded to his own ways, will find a ready pretext to go nowhere at all.

It is lamentably true that the one great field not covered by the missionary activities of the American Presbyterian Church is the Continent of Europe. The Foreign Missionary Board cares for the heathen; the Home Missionary Board provides for the destitute places of our own land; but what are we doing for our brethren across the sea, engaged in a desperate struggle with superstition on the one hand and rationalism on the other? Practically nothing.

We have in Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany, a small colony of Americans, who have maintained Christian worship after the Presbyterian order for several years. A church was organized in 1907 with forty members, and an American minister was called to take charge. From the opening day not a service has been omitted these five years. The place of worship is a hall in the Imperial Hotel. A church building is an immediate necessity. About $2,000 has been raised by the members of the Church towards the purchase of a lot, and it is hoped that in some way money may be raised to erect the building. Rev. Stuart Bready, formerly of Washington, D. C., is now pastor of the church, under appointment of the Committee and the Board of Home Missions. This little church raises about $1,200 a year for self-support, and your Committee has been able this year to supplement the amount by $400. The General Assembly last year recommended that the Board of Home Missions consider earnestly the question of the needs of the fields under the care of your Committee. In pursuance of this action the Chairman of your Committee entered into correspondence with the officials of the Home Board; the result of which was an action by the Board appropriating $400 to the work in Frankfort. A subsequent application for aid to the work at Carlsbad and Munich did not meet with success. Your Committee greatly regrets this halt in the Board's policy in aiding work on the Continent. Other points are demanding immediate attention, and we believe that the Board of Home Missions should assume this work.

Wiesbaden presents an opening. Through the courtesy of the Burgomaster, a fine room in the Town Hall has been offered for the use of American services. If, by any arrangement, a pastor could be secured to take charge of the work for one season, we have no doubt that the results would justify the establishment of a permanent station. Nauheim is also appealing to us. There is an open door for services, such as the Presbyterian Church can give. One who is familiar with the situation writes: "Everywhere the churches are empty, the Lord's Day desecrated, and a fearful worldliness prevails among nominal Christians. The whole atmosphere is charged with the spirit of unrest. Socialism is rife, and of the rankest kind. The stage is presenting French plays to crowded houses. The literature is so contaminated that much of it would not be allowed to be transmitted through the mails in the United States. Yet it is a matter for thanksgiving that there is a hunger for undefiled religion among the people. Little groups are forming in many places for prayer and for the reading of God's Word; and, although it means separation from friends, these German believers have the true spirit and are alive to the work. There are signs of promise that cheer amidst the surrounding apathy and apostasy. American visitors here are mutely appealing, by their temptations and needs, for religious services in their own tongue."

Munich presents an opening that is hard to resist. The time is ripe for us to place a minister in that great capital, filled with American tourists, commercial men and students.

At Carlsbad, after an experiment three years ago, the Committee considered our Church justified in establishing a preaching station during the season; and there is reason to believe that a goodly number of Americans there would welcome and financially assist the maintaining of such a work.

For all these fields, and others that are calling for our help, we earnestly desire and believe that our Home Board should assume responsibility.

The Latin Quarter, Paris, continues to be our most interesting field. Rev. Ernest W. Shurtleff, D.D., is now completing his sixth year of work among the students. Nothing could better justify this work than the interest taken in it by the American colony in Paris, which has become responsible for at least $2,000 a year toward its support. The students also contribute liberally, according to their means. For lack of room at the Atelier on Boulevard Montparnasse, a much larger hall has been secured on Boulevard Raspail. The average attendance exceeds 500. Your Committee has been able, again this year, to send $2,000 toward the support of this work, raised entirely by private subscriptions. This Committee cannot continue, not to say enlarge, the interesting and inviting work on the Continent unless the Church shall see fit to assume a larger responsibility for it than it has yet done. We firmly believe that this work should be maintained and advanced. The amount appropriated by the Board of Home Missions this year, though supplemented by liberal gifts from individuals, and a few contributions from churches, was utterly inadequate to meet the barest needs of the situation. May the Presbyterian Church not longer remain disobedient to this heavenly vision.

We recommend the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Committee be and is hereby continued, constituted as follows: Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, Chairman; Rev. L. Y. Graham, D.D., Rev. J. Gray Bolton, D.D., Rev. Albert E. Keigwin, D.D., Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Rev. Wm. H. Oxtoby, D.D., Rev. Herbert A. Manchester, D.D., Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., Rev. L. T. Chamberlain, D.D., Rev. C. T. Edwards, D.D., Rev. Chauncey W. Goodrich, Rev. Henry vanDyke, D.D., Hon. William P. Potter, John E. Parsons, Esq., Mr. Ralph W. Harbison, George W. Bailey, M.D., and Charles S. Holt, Esq.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly hereby expresses its gratification at the action of the Board of Home Missions in appropriating $400 to the church at Frankfurt a. M.;

and that the Assembly hereby directs the Board of Home Missions to consider the advisability of continuing the appropriation to Frankfurt for another year; and that the Board be also urged to make appropriations for other points on the Continent when approved and recommended by your Committee, after consultation with the Board. (Referred to the Board of Home Missions.)

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly rejoices in the great work among the American students of Paris, sustained through these seventeen years, and now most efficiently conducted by Rev. Ernest W. Shurtleff, D.D.; and would hereby express gratitude to the great Head of the Church that He has raised up so many strong friends and supporters of this most important cause.

Resolved, 4. That the Committee is cordially commended to the Church, and especially to generous individuals, for support in the work it is seeking to do.

In behalf of the Committee,
SYLVESTER WOODBRIDGE BEACH, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Finance Committee, after favorable consideration of Overture No. 270, from Kansas City Presbytery, relating to the expenses incurred, in Missouri, in legal matters pertaining to the union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, recommend that the Overture be referred to the Executive Commission, in conference with the Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

A telegram from the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church was read, and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work, through its Chairman, Rev. W. H. Matthews, presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by Rev. Alexander Henry, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee counts it a great privilege to present the Report of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Sabbath-school missionary work. We feel that this Silver Anniversary should be fittingly celebrated in our schools and churches by calling special attention to the splendid record of the Board's work as set forth in the Seventy-fourth Annual Report. The organization of 20,000 Sabbath-schools, 1,500 Presbyterian churches, and the addition of $1,000,000 worth of church property should cause us devoutly to thank God for His goodness and for the seal of His approval upon our efforts.

Our gratitude should be shown in a substantial way by calling upon our churches to make an appropriate silver offering on Children's Day, or at such a time as may be most convenient for them. This offering to be sacredly set aside for the further development of the work so wisely entered upon.

The Report of the Assembly's Special Committee on Religious Education has already been received and adopted by your body, and it is unnecessary for us to say that we heartily approve of the joint work of the Board and this Committee, in the line of religious instruction.

During the past year, the Board has lost the valuable leadership, in its Young People's Department, of the Rev. Willis Lord Gelston. His resignation was due to ill health, and the Board reluctantly surrendered his services; but it is pleased to report that the Rev. William Ralph Hall is, for the present, performing the duties of Superintendent of the Young People's Department with great fidelity.

Financially, the Board has prospered, and will soon be prepared to pay the small remaining sum of the old indebtedness of $800,000 on the Witherspoon Building.

Because of these conditions, the Board informs your Committee that it is now able to give the much-needed encouragement in building up the business end of its work. The rapid development in this branch of the Board's work, under its efficient management, calls for more capital to meet the increasing demand; to respond to this call will mean, in the end, a much larger fund for missionary work.

That the Board had to borrow $110,000 during the year, and pay interest on same, is to be regretted. This is from no fault of the Board, but because the Board is not now permitted to add enough of its profits to its working capital, and because of $75,000 advanced for the lot on which the Witherspoon Building stands. We are pleased to note that the books show that this $75,000 has been replaced. To provide for the future, the Board asks permission to set aside fifty per cent.

instead of thirty-three and one-third per cent. of its profits as a working capital, as soon as the Missionary Department begins to receive the added revenue from the rents of the Witherspoon Building.

It is with satisfaction that your Committee notes the gradual evolution of the Presbyterian Hymnal to its present stage of excellence. The revised Hymnal is pronounced, by the highest authorities in the musical world, as well as by experts in hymnology, to be the best hitherto published.

The examination of the records of the Board has impressed upon the Committee the magnitude of the work committed to the care of the Board. The Board has a many-sided problem in dealing with its missionaries on the field. Not only is it coöperating with its missionaries in every way possible, in their attempts to organize and foster Sunday-schools on their various fields, but it is emphasizing its educational feature, calling upon these missionaries to assist it in doing this equally important Sabbath-school work. The records reveal the fact that the Board has endeavored, so far as its means will permit, to continue to extend the educational work as outlined in last year's Report. We feel that the Assembly should heartily commend the action of the Board, and warmly endorse the appointment of Educational Superintendents in the various States and districts.

Your Committee offers the following recommendations:

1. That churches and Sabbath-schools, so far as possible, hold a service on Children's Day, in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Sabbath-school missionary work, and take a silver offering in connection with the same.

2. That fifty per cent. of the net profits of the Business Department, instead of thirty-three per cent., as at present, be reserved, and added to the capital of the Board, as soon as the Missionary Department begins to receive the added revenue which will come to it on the payment of the balance of the mortgage on the Witherspoon Building, the remaining fifty per cent. to be paid to the Missionary Department.

3. That the attention of all our churches be called to the excellence of the Revised Hymnal, and that all congregations be urged to secure it when purchasing new books.

4. That $500 be devoted to the work of the Temperance Committee during the coming year.

5. That the following members of the Board, whose terms will expire in June, be reëlected to serve for three years: Ministers—Rev. William Brenton Greene, D.D., Rev. Loyal Young Graham, D.D., Rev. Mervin J. Eckels, D.D., Rev. Samuel McLanahan, Rev. J. D. Hunter; Elders—William W.

Allen, Thomas W. Synnott, George Hale, M.D., L. M. Rice, Thomas R. Patton.

6. That the Board be congratulated on the near prospect of discharging, in full, the mortgage indebtedness on the Witherspoon Building.

7. That Rally Day be observed in all the churches, and that the young people observe the first Sunday in February as Young People's Day, using the literature published by our Board and taking liberal offerings for the purposes indicated.

8. The hearty endorsement of the action of the Board in the appointment of Educational Superintendents in the various States and districts.

9. That the records of the Board be approved, and the various officers of the Board be commended for their fidelity.

10. As to Overture No. 264, from the Presbytery of Muskogee, asking for a course in Bible reading, it is recommended that it be referred to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.

11. As to Overture No. 265, from the Synod of Wisconsin, asking the Board to promote a society for boys between the ages of twelve and seventeen, its reference to the Board for careful consideration is recommended.

12. As to Overture No. 266, from the Presbytery of Bellefontaine, requesting action "looking toward the incorporation, bodily, of the latest approved metrical version of the Psalms into the Presbyterian Church Hymnal," it is recommended that it be referred to the Board.

13. Overtures Nos. 257–263, 305, 308, 354* and 355, from various Presbyteries, all bearing upon the present Graded Lesson Helps, were referred to your Committee. They were carefully considered, and a public invitation was extended to all who wished to express themselves on this subject to appear before the Committee. Four hours were given to those who accepted the invitation. The speeches were limited to ten minutes each, and the brethren were heard alternately.

After listening to these men, the entire Committee felt that the new method of instruction, through the use of Graded Helps, had, in its three experimental years, completely vindicated itself to the Church, and that the discontinuance of the graded system of instruction would be a calamity, and a departure from the historic position of our beloved Church in always endorsing the best pedagogical methods known to the educational leaders of the world.

On the second point, which had to do with matter rather than method, there was not complete unanimity. A large majority of the Committee, however, after sifting the evidence against the present Graded Lesson Helps, came to the conclusion that these Helps were in conformity with the standards of the Presbyterian Church, and that the method of publishing them, in conjunction with other denominational bodies, should, on account of comity, economy and efficiency, be continued. The last Report of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work shows a total saving, effected through coöperation, of $25,345.60. That is, the Board has been enabled, by working with other denominational bodies, to publish the Graded Helps at a saving for our Sabbath-schools of about $10,000 per annum. Many schools are not purchasing the Helps because the price is prohibitive. To publish our own, singly, would put them still farther from the reach of the schools where money is scarce.

A large majority of your Committee, therefore, would have preferred to present to this Assembly an action entirely in line with the deliverances of former General Assemblies, which are as follows:

The General Assembly of 1910 adopted the following Report, presented by its Special Committee on Religious Education: "That the Assembly again commend the Graded Lessons thus far published by our Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and advise pastors, Sessions and Sunday-schools to use them so far as practicable."

In 1911, the Assembly adopted the following resolution presented by the Standing Committee on the work of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work: "That the Board be commended for the progress made toward the perfecting of the Graded Lessons, and be encouraged to complete these lessons as soon as practicable."

Your Committee believe that no unnecessary obstacles should be placed in the way of the work of the Board. It recognizes the difficult task before the Board in seeking to carry out the wishes of the General Assemblies of 1909, 1910, and 1911, in supplying the perfectly satisfactory system of study.

The careful and conservative men who compose the Board are a guarantee to the Committee that all its members are anxious to guard the doctrinal standards of our beloved Church.

However, in view of the fact that Overtures have been presented by Presbyteries which hold that the Graded Lesson Helps are not in conformity with our doctrinal standards, and the fact that a few members of our Committee do not agree with the majority concerning this matter, and the further fact that it is impossible to go into the subject in a way that would satisfy all concerned, even if all the sessions of the Assembly were devoted to this one purpose, therefore your Committee, in order to secure complete unanimity, offers the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Graded Lessons now in use in the Sunday-schools are unsatisfactory to a portion of the Church; and

WHEREAS, Our Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work is one of a syndicate publishing said Graded Lessons; therefore be it Resolved, 1. That the Assembly, through its Moderator, appoint an ad interim Committee, to which shall be referred, in connection with the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, the whole matter of the Graded Lessons.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly directs the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work and the ad interim Committee to be appointed to withdraw from circulation such Graded Lessons as the Committee finds objectionable.

Resolved, 3. That said ad interim Committee report to the General Assembly which will meet in Atlanta, Ga., in 1913, all matters concerning said issue.

As to the Overtures Nos. 257–263, 305, 308, 354 and 355, thus considered, your Committee recommend no action, but asks that they be placed in the hands of the ad interim Committee for information only.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM H. MATTHEWS, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk was directed to express to Rev. J. R. Miller, D.D., of Philadelphia, the sympathy of the Assembly, in his illness. The Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., delivered a sympathetic address, and the Rev. M. A. Brownson, D.D., at request of the Moderator, led the Assembly in prayer in behalf of Dr. Miller.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented a supplementary Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Overtures Nos. 254, 255 and 364, from the Presbyteries of Los Angeles, Sacramento and Philadelphia, concerning the amendment of the Board's rule passed by the Assembly of 1889, governing the honorably retired list, being referred to this Committee, it is recommended that these Overtures be answered in the affirmative.

In order to avoid further confusion in the interpretation of the Board's rule, it is recommended that the rule as passed by the General Assembly in 1889 does and is intended to include pastor's assistants, who are ordained ministers, missionaries, and all other ordained ministers, who are employed by the Boards of the Church, Synods, Presbyteries, or their Committees.

Concerning the resolution referred from the house, dealing with unordained missionaries, who have served fifteen or more years under the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and asking that they be placed on the Board of Relief, it is recommended that it be disapproved, and reference is made to the answer already adopted on Overture No. 256.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

F. L. HAYDEN, D.D., Chairman.

A resolution offered concerning China was referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

The Permanent Judicial Commission reported that it had elected its officers for the ensuing year according to the Rule of the Assembly, to-wit: Moderator, Hon. Rush Taggart; Vice-Moderator, Rev. Thomas A. McCurdy, D.D.; Clerk, Rev. Jesse F. Forbes, D.D.; their terms of service to commence at the close of this Assembly.

The Report was approved.

A Resolution concerning Sunday-school missionaries and local evangelists was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of Foreign Missions

---

THURSDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on Polity, through its Chairman, Rev. J. G. K. McClure, D.D., presented its Report. Pending its consideration, the Order of the day arrived.

It was announced that Elder J. R. Clayes, of the Presbytery of San Joaquin, had been injured by an accident, and was in a hospital in this city. It was ordered that his mileage be sent to him, and that the sympathies of the General Assembly be tendered to him by the Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. Frank W. Russell, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. Stanley White, D.D., Secretary of the Board, missionaries from the field, and prayer led by Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted. It is as follows:

In presenting this Report your Committee desires to record its deep appreciation and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his rare blessing bestowed upon the work of Foreign Missions during the past year. We also bear record to the increased interest manifested in the great opportunity and privilege of evangelizing the world. It has been apparent not only in a more pronounced prayer spirit, but also in the intensity and importunity of intercession, and the inevitable result has been enlargement of purpose, power and accomplishment. In one word, the year has witnessed a pronounced deepening of the Church's determination to further the proclamation of Jesus Christ in all the world.

The Board of Foreign Missions presents to-day its Seventy-fifth Annual Report to the General Assembly. Its Diamond Jubilee! Wonderful, almost beyond imagination, is the history of these seventy-five years. Filled are they with the signal guidance and miraculous blessing of God. The feeble organization of 1837, with 44 missionaries and the expenditure of $37,000, has now 1,083 American missionaries, and expended last year nearly $2,900,000 in the various departments of its work, including, however, $831,000 from the Kennedy bequest, appropriated for new equipment.

This may not be an inopportune moment to consider some outstanding facts in this great department of our Presbyterian work. As has been said, there are 1,083 American missionaries, and also a native force of 2,334 men and women. We have 116,000 communicants, and the gifts of native Christians last year totaled $501,000. There were added, in 1912, on confession of faith, 16,700, or substantially 15 per cent., and there are 60,000 catechumens.

The seventy-fifth year! What a glorious starting-place for the evangelization of the world in the next twenty-five years, our generation, and we can do it if we will. God give us vision, love and potent desire to arise to this opportunity and finish the superstructure whose foundation, under God, has been so masterfully laid.

Financially, this has been the greatest year in the history of our foreign work. The full receipts, exclusive of special China famine relief offerings, being $2,877,844, the wise administration of which is a marked tribute to the Board's efficiency.

Lifting eyes to fields white unto harvest, we note some blessed facts. One is the remarkable growth in the last eleven years. In 1901, we had 41,500 communicants on the foreign field; in 1912, there are 116,000. In 1901, the total contributions of the Church at home to this work were $998,325; this year we reached the record sum, from living sources, of $1,850,000, or an increase of 85 per cent. Somewhat more in detail, touching these eleven years, and considered now only in the percentage increase, behold the situation: a 45 per cent. increase in the foreign missionaries themselves; 140 per cent. increase in the native forces; 98 per cent. increase in organized churches; 175 per cent. increase in communicants; schools, 130 per cent.; pupils, 137 per cent.; Sunday-school scholars, 300 per cent.; hospitals, 100 per cent.; receipts from all living resources at home, 85 per cent. increase, while during the past eight years there has been an increase of 450 per cent. in the contributions from native Christians. Or, in order that you may more clearly see, permit us to report the single comparison, so far as contributions are concerned, that while the home Church in eleven years has increased its gifts 85 per cent., the native Christians in eight years have increased their gifts 450 per cent., which constitutes a challenge to the Church.

I suppose it is indeed difficult, if not quite impossible, for us who live in the slow-going Occident to comprehend some of the rapid changes in the swiftly-moving Orient. For the East is truly kaleidoscopic. Something has hustled it, our friend Kipling to the contrary, notwithstanding. In China, the old examination halls are no more, but in their stead are to-day 35,000 schools and colleges developed by the Imperial Board of Education, and in these schools are more than 64,000 instructors and 900,000 pupils. The demand for education, in the Flowery Kingdom, is wide-spread, and China is constantly sending her brightest young men in wonderful numbers to America for the best university training. In view of this fact, that the young men of the Orient, especially the Chinese studying in American universities, will occupy positions of great influence on their return home, we recommend to our Presbyterian people residing near institutions where these men study, that they, as far as possible, befriend them and throw about them Christian influences, so that, returning home, they may in turn exert a positive Christian influence, when later they occupy commanding positions in their own home land. Every consideration calls for more energetic effort along educational lines. No thinking man can read the articles appearing in the daily and weekly press and not be deeply moved thereby.

The educational note has been clearly struck during the past year. We do not say it has been supreme, but it has been significant. The Japanese government is carrying forward extensive educational plans. In India, our Church has a signal honor in the appointment of the Rev. J. C. R. Ewing, President of Forman Christian College, to the Vice-Chancellorship of the University of Punjab, and the honors conferred upon him during the recent illustrious visit of the King and Queen of Great Britain give him a vastly broadened sphere of Christian influence and power.

China.—Swiftly scanning the field, we see China with missionary work interrupted by political upheaval, but the interruption more than compensated for by the enlarged opportunities in the new Republic. The Church should not lose sight of the fact that the Republic of China owes its inception to the efforts of men who are the product of missionary enterprise, and the character of the new Republic will be determined largely by the attitude of the Protestant Church. In the judgment of our best missionaries, the Chinese are prepared to follow wise leadership along moral and spiritual lines. China will not wait. The message which the Presbyterian Church has for China, of the saving grace of God and Christian education, must be given NOW.

Japan.—In one sentence, regarding Japan, we say: That the thoughtful men of the Island Empire are awakening at last to the impossibility of building national morality upon irreligion—hence our opportunity!

Korea.—The Korean Church is to be praised, whose characteristics are: Christ all in all, the presidency of the Holy Spirit, the Bible the Living Word and text-book, its motto "For me to live is Christ," and demanding proof of regeneration before church membership is granted.

Siam.—Siam and Laos: We find the government moving toward a higher standard of public schools and even unto compulsory education, doors of opportunity flung wide open, with king and officers promising every encouragement to our work.

The Philippines.—From our far Eastern dependency, the Philippines, come encouraging signs, especially noted in the deepening sense of native responsibility in the preaching of the Gospel to their own people.

India.—It seems sacrilege to dismiss the great Indian Peninsula, with its 300,000,000 people, with the single statement that to-day there is a better feeling than there has been for years.

Syria.—In Syria there is national change, unrest and suspicion. For years the workers have been conscious of conditions developing, from a political point of view, which have now become openly manifest. The attitude of the nominally Christian powers of Europe, such as Italy, Great Britain and Russia, toward Turkey and Persia has tended to antagonize and solidify the Moslem forces. Added to this, the rise of the young Turkish party, with its gift of liberty to Turkey, has tempted the opponents of Christianity, and particularly the Moslems, to become more outspoken in their opposition. Our prayers, therefore, are needed for Syria.

Persia.—In Persia, in spite of the tragic political, economical and social conditions of the past year, nearly all our schools have been in greater demand than ever before. One missionary writes: "In Persia we have never had such an opportunity for direct evangelical work. It is the most open of all Moslem lands under the Mohammedan rule to-day. The parents of boys and girls of the highest and most influential classes, of those who are to be the leaders of New Persia, are ready, at any sacrifice, to pay full rate for our education, and many of the boys and girls have to be turned away for lack of room. The two greatest needs are more money and more workers, and these before possible political changes make the work more difficult. The Moslem people are realizing that their faith is their handicap, and the foundations of Islam are shaken.

Africa.—Turning to Africa, that great dark continent for which Livingston gave his life and where his heart is buried, the year closing has been marked with more confessions of Jesus Christ, more additions to the churches, more itinerant evangelistic work by both missionaries and natives, more village schools conducted, more opportunities beckoning, more wrestling in prayer, more competition and opposition, more new missionaries coming, more tangible and commanding reasons to thank God and move forward than ever before. The last year, with a greater income and work for the churches, gives reason for profound thankfulness, and issues a clear call to the Church, that now is the time for advancing, with the message of the Gospel, into the very heart of the once dark continent. Nearly all the churches are self-supporting. The Elat Church has 7,500 subscribers to a monthly envelope system; the total contributions of the mission for the past year amounted to over $11,000—a truly remarkable showing for a people as poor as the natives of Africa.

Latin America.—Yesterday's neglected continent; to-day's most wonderful land of opportunities, even amidst its civil and religious strife. Note that the General Assembly of Brazil, with its two Synods, seven Presbyteries and over 12,000 members, celebrated, in Rio de Janeiro, in January, 1912, the jubilee of the establishment of Protestant missions in Brazil.

In Colombia there is now a larger missionary force than ever before in its history, and the four stations which the mission has desired, for twenty years, to have kept open are all occupied. The land lies before us, at once a great need and a great opportunity. In Santiago proper the population is approaching the half-million mark, and a city extending in all directions. The city is a Roman Catholic stronghold. Vested interests remain. The arrogance of office is obtrusive at all points of contact. Religious indifference seems general on the part of the wage earners and professional men. In spite of this, the Instituto Ingles reports a larger attendance than ever before.

In Mexico, the Revolution formally came to a close with the resignation of President Diaz and his flight to Europe, in May, 1911.

The contrast between the work in Guatemala twenty-five years ago and to-day is very significant. Then, including all the Protestant workers, there were but three native believers; now there are nineteen congregations, varying in attendance from 12 to 250. It is now possible to travel on muleback from the Atlantic to the Pacific, or from Honduras to Mexico, and stop every night at an Evangelical preaching point.

Pacific Coast.—The work among the Chinese in California has been increased by the addition of a new mission located at Marysville, a town of 4,000 or 5,000 in the Sacramento Valley. This was formerly under the care of the Congregationalists, although supported largely by the Presbyterians. The uniting of the workers of all denominations among Orientals on the Pacific Coast into one organization, under the name of "The American Workers among Orientals on the Pacific Coast," marks an advanced step in behalf of the spiritual welfare of the Asiatic population.

The Departed Workers.—With bowed heads and quiet voice we record the names of the following, who have passed from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant, during the last year, resting from their labors, their works following after them:

	Born.	Appointed.	Died
Rev. Jonathan Wilson, D.D.	1830	1856	1911
Rev. F. J. Newton, D.D.	1847	1870	1911
Rev. John E. Hail	1873	1900	1911
Mrs. William Jessup	1870	1890	1911
Rev. Daniel McGilvary, D.D.	1828	1857	1911
J. C. Hepburn, M.D.	1815	1840	1911
Rev. John M. Hyde	1862	1892	1912

The Home Field.—Turning our vision homeward, there is need of enlarged policy. Remember that nothing will so arouse the individual church as a great missionary purpose. Remember, too, that the foreign field is the great apologetic of to-day. We almost lose heart sometimes when we see the situation at home; then lifting our eyes we behold the wonderful successes of the Cross abroad, and we are cheered and heartened.

The Committee would emphasize three larger elements of missionary policy:

First, and fundamentally, we must continue to broaden and solidify the base of missionary support, resting on the whole Church.

The second of our larger elements of missionary policy must be provision of the funds required to furnish necessary equipment for activities commensurate with our task. Our missions need at the present time new property amounting to $3,000,000, beyond all that was provided from the Kennedy bequest.

The third need that we should hold in view, is the Educational Equipment and Endowment Fund. The Board has an immense educational enterprise; it is far and away the greatest educational enterprise connected with the Presbyterian Church, and your Committee dares to venture the assertion that for an expenditure of $190,000, the Presbyterian Church is doing greater things educationally than are Harvard, or Yale, or Princeton, or Columbia, with their tenfold larger expenditure of money. Whatever other transformations may pass over the missionary purpose within the next few years, it is certain that our responsibilities for Christian education on the mission field will only be intensified. The educational fund, which should not stop with less than $5,000,000, should be a conspicuous element in our policy.

We have spoken of three of the larger elements of our missionary policy, but, after all, these things do not constitute our aim or purpose. They are only devices, projects toward the accomplishment of that which is our aim, namely, the naturalization of Christianity in each of our mission fields as an indigenous power—a native institution. We must feel the burden of world need and responsibility far more heavily than we have ever felt it. We must lay out our projects with a far bolder and more daring faith. All our plans for expansion need to be carried through with purposes facile and sensitive to the development of national churches, and the sense of national missionary responsibility on the part of these churches. They must be baptized with more passionate prayer. The dominating note of the mission policy must be the consecration of the native church to bear the chief burden of evangelization.

And what shall we say more? We have seen the world field and its need. Our hearts have been filled and thrilled as we have heard records of heroism and daring; as we have noted signal successes and victories. It remains for us, members of the Assembly, gathered from every portion of our land, to catch afresh the glory, carry back the fire, to be used of God in our churches and homes to forward unto blessed efficiency what we have here been privileged to behold.

The Committee submits the following resolutions for adoption:

1. That the Minutes of the Board and the financial report, which have been examined and found in perfect order, be approved.

2. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of service expire with this meeting of the Assembly, be reëlected to serve for three years in the Class of 1912–1915, viz.: Ministers—John Fox, D.D., Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., Charles R. Erdman, D.D., J. H. Jowett, D.D., William P. Merrill, D.D.; Laymen—W. P. Stevenson, Scott Foster and L. H. Severance.

3. That the Assembly recognize with profouud gratitude to God the increased response that has been made to the Foreign Mission appeal, and which has brought into the Board's treasury this year receipts, which for the first time in its history amount to more than $2,000,000, and which have enabled it to send to the field, in 1911–1912, ninety-seven new missionaries—the largest number ever sent in one year.

4. That the Assembly, recognizing the educational crisis throughout the East, and especially in China, reiterates its approval of the establishment by the Board of an Educational Equipment and Endowment Fund to meet this need, and endorses the Board's policy, strengthening this fund by applying to it, each year, all legacy receipts in excess of $100,000, as recorded in the following action of the Board, taken April 15, 1912: "That the Treasurer of the Board be instructed, until otherwise ordered by the Board, henceforth to credit to the Educational Endowment Fund, at the close of each fiscal year, all excess of legacy moneys received for the general uses and purposes of the Board, over $100,000, with the understanding that any exceptional legacies which may be received, such as the bequest from Mr. John S. Kennedy, will be considered and disposed of by the Board by special action, and with the further understanding that any specific designation by testators with regard to the use of their bequests will, of course, be rigidly observed by the Board."

5. That the Assembly expresses its approval of the Board's endorsement of the "Policy for China," drawn up by the Committee of Reference and Council, at the request of all the Foreign Mission Boards working in China, and adopted at a meeting held in New York, February 29, 1912. This plan contemplates: (a) An increase of missionaries in the next three years; (b) The establishment, as far as possible, of union educational enterprises; (c) A unified system of primary and secondary schools; (d) The circulation of interdenominational literature; (e) The settling up of evangelistic campaigns; (f) Interdenominational conferences on the field; (g) The establishment of interdenominational Federal Councils of Missions working in different fields; (h) The fullest measure of coöperation in every phase of Christian enterprise.

6. That the Assembly record its appreciation of the splendid devotion and sacrifice of the women of the Church, who have, through their Jubilee gifts of $197,000, increased their offerings this year by more than $217,000, and who now, with unwearied faith, have responded to China's need, by issuing a call to the women of the Church to enter upon a campaign of information, prayer and consecration, leading to definite financial results.

7. That the Assembly heartily approves the action of the Executive Commission and its Budget Committee, in its recognition of the emergency that China's Revolution has created in the work of the Foreign Board, and join with it, with the women and with the Foreign Board, in making the following appeal to the Church. That in view of the extraordinary emergency now confronting the Church in China, an effort be made to reinforce the China Missions within the next three years, by the appointment of 100 new missionaries, irrespective of wives, and the securing of special gifts in excess of the regular budget, which will cover the cost of maintenance, including the new property and the enlargement of the work which this reinforcement will involve, and that the Church be urged so to redouble its efforts for Foreign Missions, that the above can be accomplished without prejudice to the necessary progress in those Missions where our Church has a complete monopoly of the missionary work.

8. That the Assembly, recognizing the increasing efficiency of the Executive Commission working harmoniously with the Boards through the Joint Committee of the Executive Commission and the Boards, urges pastors and Sessions: (a) To secure a contribution for benevolence from every member of the Church; (b) to establish, as far as possible, Mission study classes; (c) to circulate missionary literature in churches and Sunday-schools, and, by use of the Prayer Books of Missions, to bring the Church to its knees in intelligent, definite and vital prayer for the Kingdom of God; and (d) the Assembly urges the utmost care in the selection of Chairmen of Foreign Mission Committees in the Presbyteries.

9. That the Assembly, having received a message directly from the Rev. J. Walter Lowrie, D.D., Chairman of the China Council, which represents all our work in China, calling the Church to prayer, the Stated Clerk be directed to reply to the missionaries with the words from Col., chap. 1, verses 3 to 6 and 9 and 10.

In behalf of the Committee,
FRANCIS W. RUSSELL, Chairman.

The following resolution as to the Intermediate Catechism was adopted:

In view of the fact that the Committee on the Intermediate Catechism has presented to the Assembly such an admirable work, which gives promise of great usefulness to the Church in the instruction of youth; and as the truths therein stated are based directly on the Word of God; and as the presence on the pages of the Catechism of such passages of Scripture as apply to the statements in the answers would be helpful in indicating the Biblical sources of the teaching; and as in its Report (see p. 90 in the Blue Book, Sec. 4) the Committee says that "The suggestion was made that texts be added to each of the answers, but it was decided to leave this matter to the Assembly," therefore,

Resolved, That the Assembly authorizes the Committee on the Intermediate Catechism to present, along with the Catechism, such proof-texts as it may deem suitable and adequate.

The unfinished business, the Report of the Committee on Polity, was taken up. The Report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Polity reports that the following Overtures and Papers have been placed in its hands and have been considered:

Overture No. 280, from the Presbytery of Pueblo, asking for the reaffirmation of certain acts of the General Assembly with reference to the relations of the Board of Home Missions and the Presbyteries, and for a new statement of those relations. It is recommended that no action be taken, on the ground that there is already sufficient legislation governing the relation of the Board of Home Missions to the Presbyteries.

Overture No. 285, from the Synod of Colorado, asking for the authorization by the General Assembly of the proposed organization of the Presbytery of Laramie. It is recommended that the Synod of Colorado be authorized to erect another Presbytery in Wyoming, to be known as the Presbytery of Laramie, from the present Cheyenne Presbytery; Cheyenne Presbytery to consist of Fremont, Natrona, Converse, Niobrara, Platte, Goshen and Laramie Counties; Laramie Presbytery to consist of Albany, Carbon, Sweetwater and Uintah Counties and that part of Lincoln County lying south of the Eighth Standard Parallel, as established by the election of 1911.

Overtures Nos. 286, 287, 288, from the German Presbyteries of Galena, George, and Waukon asking the General Assembly to erect said Presbyteries into the German Synod of the West, whose boundaries shall include the territory covered by the said three Presbyteries. It is recommended that the following act be adopted as follows:

Be it enacted, 1. That the German Synod of the West is hereby erected, to consist of the Presbyteries of Galena, George and Waukon, and the boundaries of Synod shall include the territory covered by the said three Presbyteries;

Be it enacted, 2. That the German Synod of the West be directed to meet in the Eden Church, Nora Springs, Iowa, August 14, 1912, at 7.30 P.M., and that the Rev. Daniel Grieder be appointed to convene the Synod, preach the opening sermon, and preside until the Synod shall have been duly organized, or, in case of his absence, the oldest minister present shall perform these duties.

Overture No. 291, from the Synod of Ohio, asking the Assembly's approval of the Synod's proposed action in reference to the dissolution of the Presbyteries of Bellefontaine and Marion and the erection of a new Presbytery. It is recommended that the approval of the Assembly be given to the Synod's proposed action; that the name of the new Presbytery shall be the Presbytery of Marion; that the territory of the new Presbytery shall include the territory of the Presbyteries of Bellefontaine and Marion as now constituted, comprising the following counties; Champaign, Logan, Hardin (in part), Wyandot, Crawford, Morrow, Delaware, Union and Marion; that the roll of churches and ministers shall consist of the churches and ministers in both Presbyteries at the time of the constitution of the union; and that the union be constituted and effected at Delaware, Ohio, on the second Monday of September, 1912, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.

Overture No. 290, from the Presbytery and Mission of North Laos, asking authority to divide the said Presbytery in such manner as shall facilitate the care of the churches and open the way for the organization of a Synod. It is recommended that the request be declined, the Assembly deeming that the time is not opportune for this proposed action. The Assembly, however, assures the Presbytery and Mission of North Laos of its great gratification at the wonderful success of the work in Laos, and expresses the hope that in the near future the increase of the native ministry and the extension of the work will warrant the Assembly in forming such a Synod as is desired.

Overture No. 292, from the Synod of Texas, asking the Assembly's approval of the erection of the Southwest Bohemian Presbytery, its boundaries coinciding with those of the Synod of Texas. It is recommended that inasmuch as all necessary constitutional action relating thereto has been properly taken, the General Assembly herewith expresses its approval.

Overture No. 293, from the Synod of Texas, asking the Assembly to approve the union of the Presbyteries of Denton and Fort Worth.

It is recommended that inasmuch as all necessary constitutional action relating thereto has been properly taken, that the General Assembly herewith expresses its approval.

Overtures Nos. 294 and 295, asking for the transfer of the German Church of Rosemont, Neb., and of the transfer of the Rev. Henry H. Ahrens, the pastor, from the Presbytery of Hastings to the German Presbytery of George. It is recommended that the transfers be made, upon the approval of the Presbytery of Hastings and the Synod of Nebraska.

Overture No. 296, from the Bohemian Church of Wahoo, Neb., in the Presbytery of Omaha, Synod of Nebraska, asking that it be transferred to the Central West Bohemian Presbytery, Synod of Iowa. We recommend such transfer, when concurred in by the Presbytery of Omaha and the Synod of Nebraska.

Overture No. 297, from the Presbytery of Milwaukee, asking the transfer of the Bohemian Church of Caledonia to the newly organized Central West Bohemian Presbytery, Synod of Iowa. We recommend such transfer, subject to the approval of the Synod of Wisconsin.

Overture No. 369, from St. Paul's German Presbyterian Church, Madison, Wis., asking the Assembly to transfer said church from the Presbytery of Madison to the Presbytery of Galena. We recommend such transfer, subject to the approval of the Presbytery of Madison and the Synod of Wisconsin.

Overtures Nos. 276, 277 and 278, with reference to the reduction of the number of delegates to the General Assembly. We recommend that an Overture be sent to the Presbyteries, amending Chap. XII, Sect. 2, of the Form of Government, to read as follows, viz.: The General Assembly shall consist of an equal delegation of bishops and elders from each Presbytery, in the following proportion, viz.: Each Presbytery consisting of not more than forty ministers, shall send one minister and one elder, and each Presbytery consisting of more than forty ministers shall send one minister and one elder for each additional forty ministers, or for each additional fractional number of ministers not less than twenty-five, and these delegates so appointed shall be styled Commissioners to the General Assembly.

Overture No. 283, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, as to the right of a Presbytery to elect the members of a Synodical Commission or Permanent Committee. It is recommended that the answer be, that it is not constitutional for a Presbytery to elect the members of a Synodical Commission or Permanent Committee.

Questions referred by the Assembly to the Committee on Polity: Has a Session the right to refuse to receive into church membership an applicant bearing a letter from another Presbyterian church, certifying to the good and regular standing of the applicant; and, if such letter is refused, must the Session give the applicant the reason for the action?

The following answers are recommended: A Session has the right to refuse to receive into church membership an applicant bearing a letter from another Presbyterian church, certifying to the good and regular standing of the applicant, and the Session is not compelled to give any reason for such refusal.

Overture No. 282, from the Presbytery of St. Joseph, inquiring whether a minister of another Presbytery may Moderate a meeting of the church Session, when authorized to do so by the Presbytery in which said church is situated. It is recommended that the answer be: In accordance with action already taken by the General Assembly (see Digest, p. 962), the Moderator of a vacant church shall be of the same Presbytery as the church.

Overture No. 284, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, asking a definition of the terms "reserved roll" and "suspended list" of church membership. It is recommended that, inasmuch as the Assembly has already taken action, in adopting the report of the Committee on Christian Life and Work, to send down an Overture on these subjects, as recorded on pp. 127 and 128 of the Blue Book of this year, no action is required.

Overture No. 362, from the Presbytery of Chemung, asking a definite deliverance upon the question of the acceptance of women by a Presbytery as candidates for the ministry. The following answer is recommended: That while the Assembly gives its hearty endorsement to the broad work now being carried on by the godly women of our Church, we deem it inexpedient to have a Presbytery receive under its care women as candidates for the ordained ministry.

Overture No. 281, from the Presbytery of North River, with reference to the attitude of Presbyteries toward one another in the matter of receiving ministers into membership. We recommend the following answer: That while Presbyteries are to be careful to observe due courtesy toward each other, each Presbytery has the right, under the Form of Government, to determine for itself whom it will receive into membership.

Overtures Nos. 298 to 302, from the Presbytery of Seattle, upon the subject of church federation. It is recommended that, introduced with their preamble, the Overtures which follow shall be sent down to the Presbyteries for their action:

One of the most far-reaching utterances of the World's Missionary Conference is, "The churches of the mission field may lead the way to unity, but they cannot move far nor move safely without the coöperation of the Church at home. The supreme need is not schemes of union, but apostles of unity."

In many of our fields the Christian forces are needlessly divided as to membership and work, so that there is a serious overlapping and waste of men, money and labor. This is certainly reprehensible, from the standpoint of every fact that bears on the perpetuity of the Church of Jesus Christ, and pernicious in so far as it is a handicap to evangelistic and missionary effort. In many places a union of churches is desired, but as yet there is no bond of union under which such an association can be formed. Some form of organization should be devised that will give to such bodies of worshipers more than an affiliated relationship to the larger bodies of which they form a part, and from which they are willing to be partially separated. While it is not possible to foresee all the things that will appear necessary in order to effect an adjustment of our present machinery to form a spiritual or organic union, we believe the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America is ready to take the first step in that direction and leave the further development of the plan to the direction of the Holy Spirit and to the wisdom of those persons into whose hands the future work may fall. The following points seem to be sufficient for a beginning, and adequately to preserve the essential features of an interdenominational polity:

1. Bodies of Christian people in a given community of which Presbyterian people or a Presbyterian organization are a part, may form into an interdenominational union for worship and ecclesiastical administration.

2. Such bodies may have individual autonomy, but that autonomy must be in harmony with such principles as are herein declared as consonant with Presbyterian faith and polity.

3. All denominational parties to such a union shall have representation in the courts of the denomination of which they form a part.

Overture I.—Shall the Form of Government be amended as follows: Chap. I, Sect. 8, be numbered 9 and the following be made Sect. 8: "A minister of the Presbyterian Church may become a pastor of a congregation formed under a bond of union with another denominational body, if such a union is made for the promotion of evangelical faith and life as evangelical truth is interpreted by Presbyterian standards"?

Overture II.—Shall Chap. VIII of the Form of Government be amended by the addition of the following:

"a. A union or federated congregation, of which a Presbyterian church is a part, may form its own plan of autonomy, but such plan of autonomy shall receive the sanction of the Presbytery within whose bounds the congregation is located.

"b. Such a united body shall have the right to appeal to, or have conference with, any other court than the Presbytery to which the Presbyterian body in it shall belong, but the Presbytery may also be heard in that court, in whatever interests it may have, under the Presbyterian Form of Government."

Overture III.—Shall Chap. IX of the Form of Government be amended by the addition of the following:

A Presbyterian church in union with another body of Christian worshipers shall be represented by its elders in the courts of the Presbyterian Church, without prejudice on account of being a part of a united body.

Overture IV.—Shall Chap. X of the Form of Government, Sect. 13, be amended by adding the following:

a. A minister who is called to become the pastor of a congregation formed under a bond of union shall be enrolled as a member of the Presbytery within whose bounds said congregation is located.

b. A minister of the Presbyterian Church shall be deprived of no right or privilege because of his relation to a union body.

Overture V.—Shall the following section be added to the Book of Discipline:

a. Ministers who serve congregations formed under a bond of union shall be amenable to the Presbytery of which they are members.

b. All cases of judicial process relating to ministers serving congregations formed under a bond of union shall come under the Rules for Judicatories and the processes of the Book of Discipline.

Overture No. 303, from the Presbytery of Seattle, asking "That this General Assembly recommend a movement for the union of small churches in communities, where it can be done in the interests of ministerial efficiency and practical economy, and without injury to the cause of Christ; and that Presbyteries take such action as shall bring about a union of Presbyterian churches with other denominational bodies within their bounds."

We recommend the adoption of the Overture as the expression of the opinion of the Assembly.

Executive Commissions.—The Committee having asked for the privilege of recording its opinion as to the powers of the Executive Commissions of Presbyteries, recommends that the following action be taken:

The General Assembly, while recognizing the desirability and necessity, in special instances, of a Presbytery's granting power to its Executive Commission to act in its behalf, calls upon the Presbyteries to exercise great care in granting such powers to an Executive Commission.

Overture No. 372, from the Synod of New York, asking for the erection of a Synod of New England. It is recommended that the following Act be adopted:

Be it enacted, I. That the ministers residing in, and the congregations located within, the six States of Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont, Connecticut and Massachusetts, and subject to the jurisdiction of the General Assembly, be and are hereby erected into a Synod, to be known as the Synod of New England, and that the boundaries of such Synod be co-terminous with the above-named States, viz., Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont, Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Be it enacted, II. That the Synod of New England hold its first meeting in the First Presbyterian Church of Boston, Mass., on Tuesday, October 22, 1912, at 2 P.M., and that Rev. Herbert A. Manchester, of East Boston, be the convener, preaching the opening sermon, and presiding until the Synod shall be duly organized; or, in case of his absence, the oldest minister present shall perform these duties.

Be it enacted, III. That the Synod of New England shall be composed of four Presbyteries, as follows:

1. The Presbytery of Boston, consisting of the ministers and churches in Greater Boston and Lynn, Mass., the churches being

Lynn,	Mattapan,	Boston, Scotch,
Waltham,	Somerville,	Boston, St. Andrews,
Brookline,	Boston, 1st,	Boston, Roxbury.
Hyde Park,	Boston, 4th,	—13 in all.
Quincy,	Boston, East,

2. The Presbytery of Newburyport, consisting of the ministers and churches in the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and that portion of Massachusetts east of the Connecticut River and north of the Connecticut line and the 42d degree of latitude, except Greater Boston and the cities of Lynn, Worcester and S. Framingham; the churches being

Antrim,	Bedford,	Portland,
Barre,	New Boston,	Newburyport, 1st,
Lowell,	Litchfield,	Newburyport, 2d,
Graniteville,	Manchester, W'm'r,	West Barnet,
South Ryegate,	Manchester, Ger.,	Lawrence.
Londonderry,	Haverhill,	—19 in all.
Windham,	Houlton,

This Presbytery shall meet at Newburyport, Mass., on Tuesday, October 8, 1912, at 2 P.M., and Rev. A. M. Paterson, of Newburyport, Mass., shall be the convener, preaching the opening sermon, and presiding until the Presbytery shall be duly organized; or, in case of his absence, the oldest minister present shall perform these duties.

3. The Presbytery of Providence, consisting of the ministers and churches in the State of Rhode Island, and all Massachusetts south of the 42d degree of latitude, together with the cities of South Framingham and Worcester; the churches being

Providence, 1st,	Newport,	South Framingham,
Providence, 2d,	Woonsocket,	Fall River,
Lonsdale,	Worcester,	New Bedford.

—9 in all.

This Presbytery shall meet at Providence, R. I., on Tuesday, October 8, 1912, at 2 P.M., and Rev. Lester M. Conrow, of New Bedford, Mass., shall be the convener, preaching the opening sermon and presiding until the Presbytery shall be duly organized; or, in case of his absence, the oldest minister present shall perform these duties.

4. The Presbytery of Connecticut Valley, consisting of the ministers and churches in the State of Connecticut, and all Massachusetts west of the Connecticut River, including Springfield and Holyoke, Mass.; the churches being

Stamford,	Bridgeport,	Noroton, Darien,
Greenwich,	Springfield,	Sound Beach.
Hartford,	Holyoke,	—10 in all.
New Haven,	Thompsonville,

Except that ministers without charge who are now enrolled members of the Presbytery of Westchester shall remain members thereof, save that any of them may elect to become members of said new Presbytery of Connecticut Valley, by notice to the convener thereof, before the organization of said new Presbytery.

This Presbytery shall meet at Stamford, Conn., on Tuesday, October 8, 1912, at 2 P.M., and Rev. J. F. Johnstone, of Hartford, Conn., shall be the convener, preaching the opening sermon, and presiding until the Presbytery shall be duly organized; or, in case of his absence, the oldest minister present shall perform these duties.

Overture No. 363, from the Presbytery of Westchester, asking that in case the Synod of New England is erected, the churches of Connecticut from New Haven west to the New York State line be left in the Presbytery of Westchester. We recommend that this Overture be answered in the negative.

Respectfully, J. G. K. McClure, Chairman.

The following resolutions, presented by Rev. M. D. Kneeland, D.D., pertinent to the erection of the Synod of New England, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly, upon the constituting of the Synod of New England, expresses itself in hearty accord with the renewed efforts of the Presbyterian churches of New England to reach more fully, in connection with other Evangelical bodies, that section of our country.

It commends the new Synod of New England as the record of an important historical event, and also as indicative of an awakening desire to meet the increasing demands made by the immigration of foreigners into New England, especially from the Continent of Europe, with its continental Sunday, making New England the most foreign section of our country to-day, and also to meet the growing demand for the existence of a strong Presbyterian Church in New England.

Resolved, That we especially commend the efforts of the Presbyterian Church of Newburyport, Mass., the very church founded by George Whitefield, in 1745 (167 years ago), and under whose pulpit the bones of Whitefield rest to-day, making this one of the most sacred shrines of Presbyterianism in the United States, to raise an endowment of $50,000, in order to preserve and maintain this important historical church and hallowed crypt for coming generations.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 23, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

Notice was given of the nomination, for Trustees of the General Assembly, of Rev. J. Harvey Lee and Mr. G. V. Massey.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to cast the ballot for the nominees for the Judicial Commission, and they were declared duly elected, as follows: Ministers—W. Francis Irwin, D.D., S. C. Dickey, D.D., D. H. Johnston; Ruling Elders—J. B. Welch, C. D. Lennox.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to cast the ballot for the nominees for the Executive Commission, and they were declared duly elected as follows: Minister—William Foulkes, D.D., to complete the unexpired term of his son, Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D.; Ruling Elder—Hon. Isaac H. Orr, to complete the unexpired term of E. E. Beard, Esq. For the class of 1912: Ministers—Mark A. Matthews, D.D., David G. Wylie, D.D., Wallace Radcliffe, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Charles T. Thompson and Logan Murray.

The Executive Commission, to which was referred the subject of the American Bible Society, reported the following, which was adopted:

The General Assembly again recognizes the historic relationship existing between itself and the American Bible Society, by which the Society has acted for the Church in the fundamental work of the translation, publication and circulation of the Scriptures. The Missions of the Church at home and especially abroad have been greatly assisted by this service. The Assembly therefore again heartily commends the Society to the continued prayers and increased gifts of the churches.

The Executive Commission presented the following Report, which was adopted, and the Stated Clerk was authorized to cast the ballot for the persons named in the Report, as members of the Presbyterian Board of Relief and as nominees for Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, and they were declared respectively duly elected and nominated.

WHEREAS, The Executive Commission has received, for the Assembly, the resignations of all the members of the Presbyterian Board of Relief, and of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, therefore be it Resolved:

1. That these resignations be accepted, with thanks for services rendered, to take effect July 18, 1912.

2. That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America hereby elects the following-named persons as members of the Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, their election to take effect on the 18th day of July, 1912:

For the Class whose Term expires May, 1913.

Rev. William J. Darby, D.D., Mr. I. Layton Register,
Rudolph M. Schick, Esq., Thompson McClintock, Esq.

For the Class whose term expires May, 1914.

Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., A. Charles Barclay, Esq.,
Rev. George F. Greene, D.D., Henry B. McCormick, Esq.

For the Class whose term expires May, 1915.

Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., H. S. P. Nichols, Esq.,
Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., Mr. H. G. Goodrich.

3. That the members of the Board of Relief, etc., whose term expires May, 1912, be reëlected to serve until July 18, 1912, when their successors shall begin to serve.

4. That the following-named persons be nominated to the members of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, as members of the Board of Directors of said fund:

For the Class whose term expires 1913.

Rev. William J. Darby, D.D. Mr. I. Layton Register,
Rudolph M. Schick, Esq., Thompson McClintock, Esq.

For the Class whose term expires 1914.

Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., A. Charles Barclay, Esq.,
Rev. George F. Greene, D.D., Henry B. McCormick, Esq.

For the Class whose term expires 1915.

Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., H. S. P. Nichols, Esq.,
Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., Mr. H. G. Goodrich.

5. That the Executive Commission be authorized and directed to receive resignations, and to nominate men to fill the vacancies, in either of the above agencies, that may be caused by the non-acceptance or resignation of any of the men above named and now either elected or nominated, until both agencies shall have been duly constituted with the above-named members or their successors, on the 18th day of July, 1912.

6. That the class of members of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund whose term expires at this time, be nominated to the Fund for reëlection, to serve until July 18, 1912.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a supplementary Report on papers referred to it, which was adopted, and is as follows:

That no action be taken on the following Overtures:

Overtures 228 to 235,* inclusive, asking that the Assembly elect all officers of the Boards of the Church.

Overture No. 236, from the Presbytery of Utica, against the union of the Board of Relief and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund.

Overture No. 306, from the Presbytery of Spokane, against the reëstablishment of relations with Union Theological Seminary, New York, N. Y.

As to Overture No. 273, from the Presbytery of Maumee, on a plan for benevolent offerings, it is recommended that it be referred to the Executive Commission.

Overture No. 365, from the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions, the Board of Missions for Freedmen, the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and the General Assembly's Committee on Religious Education, with reference to a Department of Missionary Education. It is recommended that the following Resolution be adopted:

*See List of Overtures, pp. 39-51

Resolved, That unity in the educational work of the Church can be attained, and the interests of efficiency in missionary education be best secured, by the prosecution of missionary education by a Department of Missionary Education, to be under the care of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and of Freedmen, in which the missionary educational work of these Boards shall be unified, this Department to have charge of the work of Missionary Education, in coördination and harmonious correlation with the educational work of the Board of Publication.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection, through its Chairman, Rev. W. Beattie Jennings, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by the Rev. Duncan J. McMillan, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee on the "Board of the Church Erection Fund" would respectfully report:

We have examined the minutes of the Board and find them correct. The Report of the Treasurer, also, has been gone over with care and is found correct.

The Board mourns the loss of Rev. Dr. Charles J. Young, who, after a faithful service of seventeen years, was called to his reward.

The Report of the Board records a year's work of extraordinary largeness and complexity, well done, though the Board is obliged to state that "the demands have so far exceeded the resources that application for sums aggregating $80,500, which have been approved, await the income of another year for confirmation. The appropriations have been made with careful discrimination, and with great regret that many worthy and needy churches are compelled to find temporary relief elsewhere until such a time as the Board shall be able to confirm and pay their appropriations."

All Overtures relating to the Board of the Church Erection Fund were referred by the Assembly to the Executive Commission, and not until yesterday were they handed by the Commission to this Committee. Meanwhile, believing that the matter of most of the overtures was involved in the Report of the Board, your Committee asked a conference with the Executive Commission, which was readily granted. Later a conference was held with the Representatives of the Board. These conferences revealed the fact that the Committee's proposed recommendations were in substantial accord with the views of the Board's Representatives, and also with the conclusions of the Executive Commission. For this reason the Standing Committee makes no Report on the Overtures, separate from that of the Executive Commission, but gives to that Report its endorsement.

With this explanation of the absence of any recommendations concerning the matters referred to in the Overtures, the Committee makes the following routine recommendations:

1. That the minutes of the Board be approved.
2. That the Report of the Treasurer be approved.
3. That the Board be commended for its diligence and fidelity in the discharge of its work.
4. That the following members of the Board, whose term of service expires in May, 1912, are nominated for reëlection: Ministers—Rev. Anson P. Atterbury, D.D., Rev. William Russell Bennett, Rev. David R. Frazer, D.D., Rev. John S. Zelie, D.D.; Ruling Elders—D. Stuart D. Jessup, M.D., Charles Glatz, and William H. Parsons.

And that the following new members are nominated:

For one year: Minister—John H. Boyd, D.D.; Ruling Elder—E. C. Stringer.

For two years: Minister—J. Frank Smith, D.D.; Ruling Elder—W. N. Cosby.

For three years: Minister—Robert B. A. McBride; Ruling Elder—H. P. Crowell.

5. That all our churches, those receiving aid and others, be urged, in view of the constantly increasing demands upon the Board, to enlarge their gifts to the cause of Church Erection.
6. That the Assembly hear, in connection with this Report, the Rev. Duncan J. McMillan, D.D., the Corresponding Secretary of the Board.

Respectfully submitted,
W. Beattie Jennings, Chairman.

The following telegram was sent to the United Presbyterian General Assembly, in session at Seattle, Wash.:

The General Assembly in session at Louisville sends you most cordial Christian greetings, and expresses the hope that the joint meetings at Atlanta, Ga., will be blessed to the uplift of all our churches.

Mark A. Matthews, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

Section XI of the Report of the Executive Commission was taken up, amended and adopted.

The Reports already presented were accepted as an answer to all the Overtures referred to the Executive Commission.

A Resolution, adopted and incorporated into the minutes of the Board of Church Erection, naming $250,000, was referred to the Executive Commission.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence, through its Chairman, Rev. S. C. Dickey, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Pending its adoption, the following Corresponding Delegates were introduced by the Chairman and addressed the Assembly, and the Moderator responded to their addresses:

Rev. Wm. McKibbin, D.D., Delegate from the World Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System.

Rev. Hugh B. McCauley, D.D., Delegate from the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Rev. J. B. Kolb, D.D., Delegate from the Presbyterian Church in Brazil.

Rev. H. C. Underwood, D.D., Delegate from the Presbyterian Church in Korea.

The Report was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence reports as follows:

There are present at this Assembly representatives of certain Churches and general organizations in whose progress and purposes we are, as Presbyterians, deeply interested. Their names with their delegates, are as follows:

World Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, Rev. William McKibbin, D.D.

Council of the Reformed Churches in America, Rev. William H. Black, D.D., LL.D.

Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, D.D.

Presbyterian Church in Brazil, Rev. J. B. Kolb, D.D.

Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, Prof. W. M. Wolfe.

Presbyterian Church in Mexico, Rev. W. E. Vanderbilt.

Presbyterian Church in India, Rev. E. W. Simpson and Dr. R. H. H. Goheen.

Presbyterian Church in Korea, Rev. H. C. Underwood, D.D.

Presbyterian Church in Ireland, Rev. John McMillan, D.D.

Presbyterian Church in Australia, Rev. Alexander Stewart, D.D.

Waldensian Church, Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D.

Of the above, the following have been heard: The Rev. William H. Black, D.D., the Rev. John McMillan. D.D.,

the Rev. Alexander Stewart, M.A., and the Rev. Henry C. Minton, D.D.

The Assembly has received salutations by telegraph from the delegate of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The Committee rejoices, in the name of the Assembly, to have had these brethren with us or sending communications to us.

The Committee draws attention, with much pleasure, to the fact that the Presbyterian Church in Brazil celebrated, in January of this year, its semi-centennial. This Church originated in the missions established in the country by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. It is to be remembered that the Huguenot colony was established in Brazil, in 1553, through the influence of John Calvin.

It is with gratification that we announce that the Presbyterian Church in Korea will hold, this year, in September, its first General Assembly. The progress of the Kingdom of Christ in this country is a cause of deep thankfulness to God.

Resolutions will be found below on these subjects.

The Committee recommends:

1. That the representatives of Churches and organizations who have not yet been heard, be given each five minutes.

2. That the Rev. Arnaldo Stasio, a minister of this Church, be authorized to represent the Assembly at the annual meeting of the Waldensian Synod this summer, the same to be without expense to the Assembly.

3. That the corresponding delegates be the guests of the Assembly while in attendance upon this meeting.

4. That the Assembly expresses hearty congratulations to the Presbyterian Church in Brazil upon the semi-centennial of its establishment, and invokes upon the Church the abundant blessing of the Holy Spirit, in all its work.

5. That the Assembly rejoices in the progress of the Presbyterian Church in Korea, and congratulates it that its first General Assembly meets in September of this year.

6. That the Moderator and Stated Clerk be authorized to reply to the several communications received from sister Churches.

For the Committee,

S. C. DICKEY, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk reported to the Assembly the certified record of the Permanent Judicial Commission, in the case S. W. Haynes vs. the Synod of Indiana, and delivered it to the Chairman of the Commission to read.

The Moderator read the appropriate Rule, and charged the Assembly to remember that it was sitting in a judicial capacity as a court of Jesus Christ.

The Report of the Commission was read by the Chairman, Rev. W. N. Hindman, D.D., was affirmed, and entered upon the Record as the final judgment of the Assembly. The Judgment is as follows:

HAYNES vs. THE SYNOD OF INDIANA.

In the matter of the complaint of S. W. Haynes, an elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Portland, Presbytery of Muncie, Synod of Indiana, against the action of the Synod in nominating two of its members, Rev. J. S. Howk, D.D., and Rev. H. B. Hostetter, to the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, for election to membership on its State Board of Trustees, your Permanent Judicial Commission begs leave to make the following Report:

The complaint is based on the ground, that as the Indiana Anti-Saloon League is a non-ecclesiastical organization, the action of the Synod in thus procuring the election of two of its members as Trustees of the State Board of the Indiana League, established an official connection between the Synod and the Anti-Saloon League, in violation of the organic law of the Presbyterian Church, and contrary to numerous deliverances of its General Assembly, condemning such a connection.

The organic law referred to is contained in Chap. 31, Sect. 4, Confession of Faith, which provides:

"Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing, but that which is ecclesiastical: and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary; or by way of advice or satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the civil magistrate."

The manifest object of this section is to maintain the separation of Church and State, and, as conducive to that end, to prevent the Church from becoming entangled, through any of its agencies, with political or other organizations of a non-ecclesiastical character; and such is the interpretation repeatedly given it by the General Assembly.

In 1909, the General Assembly, through its Permanent Judicial Commission, declared illegal the action of South Dakota Synod in recommending the reëlection of Synodical delegates for appointment as directors of the Anti-Saloon League of that State. In the concluding paragraph of the Report and judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission (Minutes, General Assembly, 1909, p. 204), it is said:

"The Anti-Saloon League being admittedly a non-ecclesiastical body, the Judicial Commission further finds that, however commendable and proper the action complained of may have appeared to be, the same being contrary to the fundamental law of the Church, the complaint is well taken and must be and is hereby sustained."

Other deliverances of the General Assembly to the same effect may be found in its published Minutes as here indicated: Minutes, 1848, p. 58; 1860, p. 44; 1873, p. 504; 1880, pp. 42, 43; 1881, p. 551; 1891, p. 135; 1893, p. 86; 1899, p. 93; 1903, p. 160; 1906, pp. 80, 177, 234; 1907, pp. 138, 227; 1908, pp. 203, 204.

It is conceded by the members of the Synod representing that judicatory on the hearing, that the two ministers of the Presbyterian Church recommended by Indiana Synod for election to membership on the State Board of Trustees of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, are members of the Indiana Synod, and that their election by the State Board of Trustees of the League to membership thereon, followed the recommending of their names therefor by the Synod; but it is insisted for the Synod that by the action complained of, it merely advised the Indiana Anti-Saloon League of the fitness of the persons nominated for membership upon its State Board of Trustees; and that, as the Board was not compelled to elect as Trustees these nominees, there was no violation by the Synod of Chap. 31, Sect. 4, of the Confession of Faith.

Our consideration of the facts presented by the record, compels us to reject this contention, for it is patent that the course pursued by the Synod was but an indirect way of accomplishing what was forbidden by the organic law of the Church referred to.

In our opinion, the action of the Synod in question, though it may not have been so intended, did give it representation upon the State Board of Trustees of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, and as fully established an official connection between the Synod and Anti-Saloon League as if the two members of the Synod on the League's Board of Trustees had been elected by the Synod. So it is not material whether the membership of the two ministers of the Synod on the League's Board of Trustees was procured through election by the Synod, or because of their nomination by the Synod and election by the League's Board of Trustees, the legal effect would be the same, as in either case the official connection between the Synod and the League, which the law forbids, would be established.

Although the Synod of Indiana claims to have only suggested to the State Board of Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League the names of two of its members for election as Trustees thereof, since their election by the Anti-Saloon League's Board followed the presentation of the names by the suggestion of the Synod, the Synod's suggestion of the names was, in meaning and legal effect, a nomination of the persons named.

It will be observed that Sect. 4, Chap. 31, Confession of Faith, does not permit a Synod to "handle or conclude" a matter which is non-ecclesiastical. The nomination by the Synod of two of its members for election as Trustees of the State Board of the Anti-Saloon League, was the "handling," by the Synod, of a non-ecclesiastical matter, forbidden by the law, although concluded by the act of the Anti-Saloon League's Board in electing them Trustees, if the nomination and election together resulted in an official connection between the Synod and Anti-Saloon League.

While we are constrained to hold that Indiana Synod violated the organic law of the Presbyterian Church in the matter complained of, it is nevertheless true that many deliverances issued and resolutions adopted by the General Assembly record the attitude of the Church as uncompromisingly opposed to the liquor traffic, and that it seeks by every legitimate means to lessen and destroy the same and the evils thereof. It has pledged to the Anti-Saloon League the fullest coöperation consistent with the Constitution of the Church; and while it cannot become officially connected with any non-ecclesiastical body, the Assembly will not deny to itself, nor to the lower judicatories, the right to advise Presbyterians within their bounds, individually or collectively, to support, or connect themselves with, any temperance organization or movement working orderly for the promotion of such cause; but, on the other hand, strongly urges such action as a duty and high privilege. Provided, however, that if such persons become connected officially or otherwise with any such non-ecclesiastical body, it shall be only as individuals or members of the Presbyterian body at large, and not as delegates or official representatives of any Presbyterian Church or Judicatory. (Minutes, 1907, p. 138; 1811, p. 474; 1818, p. 689, 690 (reprint); 1830, p. 298; 1860, p. 262, N. S.; 1873, p. 504. See Digest, pp. 618 to 630; Confession of Faith, Chap. 31, Sect. 4.)

On the record presented in this case, it is the finding and judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the complaint of S. W. Haynes, as to the action of the Synod of Indiana, is well taken, and therefore it must be and is sustained. WILLIAM M. HINDMAN, Vice-Moderator;

ROBERT HUNTER, Clerk.

The Stated Clerk reported to the Assembly the certified Record of the Permanent Judicial Commission, in the case of S. A. Penn vs. the Synod of Catawba, and delivered it to the Chairman of the Judicial Commission to read.

The Report was read, was affirmed, and entered on the Record as the final judgment of the Assembly. The judgment is as follows:

S. A. PENN vs. THE SYNOD OF CATAWBA.

The Permanent Judicial Commission, to whom was referred, for hearing and decision, the appeal in this case, reports as follows:

The Presbytery of Southern Virginia, in 1910, preferred charges against Rev. S. A. Penn, a minister in said Presbytery; tried and deposed him from the Gospel ministry. The appellant, the said S. A. Penn, appealed to the Synod of Catawba; which body, in view of irregularities in the trial, suspended the sentence of the lower court, and remanded the case to the Presbytery for retrial. In 1911, the Presbytery of Southern Virginia retried the case, and reached its former judgment. The appellant again appealed the case to the Synod of Catawba, which body issued the case, and suspended the action of the Presbytery. Whereupon, the appellant, the said S. A. Penn, has appealed to the General Assembly, from the decision of the Synod of Catawba.

In the issue of this case, the Permanent Judicial Commission finds the record in the case extremely defective, so that there is a grave question as to whether, under the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, the General Assembly has jurisdiction in the case. But granting the appellant the benefit of the doubt, the Permanent Judicial Commission finds:

That upon the record, supplemented by the explanations and arguments of both parties in the case, the appellant has failed to sustain his appeal in any of its specifications. On account of which, the Permanent Judicial Commission dismisses the appeal, and directs that the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly transmit a certified copy of this judgment to the Synod of Catawba, to be made a part of the record in the case. It also directs that a similar copy be furnished to S. A. Penn, the aforesaid appellant.

FRANK O. BALLARD, Moderator;

The Permanent Judicial Commission, having completed its sittings for this Assembly, was authorized to adjourn.

The Presbyterian Historical Society was made the first Order for to-morrow morning, and the Report on Theological Seminaries the third Order.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 23, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of Temperance.

FRIDAY, May 24, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Committee on Foreign Missions presented a Report upon a paper referred to it concerning China, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly hereby records its gratitude to God for the wonderful providence which has given to our fellow-Christians in China a new government which has, as its fundamental principles, liberty, both civil and religious, equality, enlightenment and progress.

Resolved, 2. That we extend to the Christian Church of the new Republic our heartiest congratulations upon the unparalleled opportunity now afforded it to glorify God and serve their nation by helping to lay a foundation of truth and righteousness, which will insure the stability of the newly established republic.

Resolved, 3. That we assure the Christians of the United Republic of China that they have the hearty God-speed and unceasing prayers of the Christians of the United States of America.

Resolved, 4. That the Stated Clerk of this Assembly be instructed to send to Dr. S. I. Woodbridge, Shanghai, China, a copy of these resolutions, to be published in the Chinese Christian Intelligencer.

The Standing Committee on Polity presented a supplementary Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Overtures 289 and 357, both from the Synod of New Mexico, asking for the erection of the Presbytery of Northern Arizona, and also asking for the erection of the Synod of Arizona. It is recommended that the following Act be adopted:

Be it enacted, 1. That the Assembly approves the action of the Synod of New Mexico, in proposing to erect the Presbytery of Northern Arizona, and erects said Presbytery, embracing the counties of Apache, Navajo, Coconino, Mohave and Yavapai, in the State of Arizona, and consisting of the ministers and churches resident and located in said counties, as follows: Ministers—David M. Wynkoop, Charles H. Bierkemper, Howard A. Clark, Alfred C. Edgar, Alexander Black, John Butler; Churches—Flagstaff, First; Mayer; Springerville, First; Chloride.

That the Rev. Howard A. Clark, of Flagstaff, be named as convener of the said Presbytery of Northern Arizona, and the Rev. John Butler, of Tuba, as alternate; and that the initial session of said Presbytery be held in the First Presbyterian Church of Flagstaff, Arizona, on the 21st day of August, 1912, at 4.30 P.M.; or, if that date be found impracticable, at the first date possible thereafter.

Be it enacted, 2. That the Synod of Arizona be and hereby is erected, its boundaries to embrace the State of Arizona, and said Synod to consist of the Presbyteries of Northern Arizona, Phœnix and Southern Arizona.

Be it enacted, 3. That the Presbytery of Phœnix shall include the counties of Maricopa, Pinal, Yuma, Pima and Santa Cruz, in Arizona, and its roll shall consist of: Ministers—Charles H. Cook, D.D., William I. Brooks, Henry M. Campbell, Thomas C. Moffett, D.D., Frazier S. Herndon, Frank C. Reid, Dirk Lay, G. A. Henderson, Charles L. Corwin, W. W. D. Himebaugh, George H. Gebby and A. K. Locker shall be under care of this Presbytery.

Be it enacted, 4. That the Presbytery of Southern Arizona shall include the counties of Cochise, Graham, Greenlee and Gila, in Arizona, and its roll shall consist of: Ministers—Harlan P. Cory, John G. Pritchard, J. W. Henderson, Curry H. Love, Rafael Q. Martinez, J. H. Barkwell, Allan Krichbaum, John E. Fry, J. Craig Watt, R. A. McLaren Browne, and W. C. Brewer; Churches—Clifton; Bisbee, Covenant;

Benson; Metcalf, Mex.; Bisbee, Mex.; Morenci, Mex.; Lowell; Solomonville; Morenci; Douglas, First; Globe; Douglas, Mex.; Globe, Mex.; Duncan; Miami and Roosevelt;—and that licentiate J. Raymond Waite and local evangelists A. Madero, A. Ibarra, Miguel Treviso and Charles R. Fisk shall be under the care of this Presbytery.

Be it enacted, 5. That the Rev. H. P. Cory, of Globe, Arizona, be the convener of the Synod of Arizona, and Rev. W. W. Breckenridge be his alternate, and that the initial meeting of said Synod of Arizona shall be held in the First Presbyterian Church of Deming, N. M., on the 27th day of September, 1912, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.

Be it enacted, 6. That the General Assembly hereby changes the boundaries of the Synod of New Mexico, making them correspond to the boundaries of the State of New Mexico.

It was ordered that the Commissioners who remain over Sabbath be allowed $2 per day for entertainment, until Monday morning.

Rev. Joseph Brown Turner, General Secretary of the Presbyterian Historical Society, addressed the Assembly.

The Moderator appointed Rev. Daniel H. Martin, D.D., as the Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions.

The Moderator called to the platform the pages who were serving the Assembly, introducing them by name, and offered prayer in their behalf.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was adopted, seriatim:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures has considered the Report of the Executive Commission of the World Presbyterian Alliance, and submits the following:

1. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America has received with great satisfaction the admirable Report of the Executive Commission of the Western Section of "The Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System." The following items from the Report are noted with special gratification: The World-wide Movement for Evangelization, largely under the leadership of our own Church; the signs of deepening spiritual life, and return to evangelical faith of the Church of Geneva, so long under rationalistic influence and control; and the preparation, by the Bohemian

Church, to celebrate the 500th anniversary of John Huss, and to secure a theological building and endowment as a memorial of the martyr and of the anniversary, an enterprise which the Assembly commends to the sympathetic liberality of its constituency. The Assembly also commends the work of the Section in seeking to provide English services for Americans on the continent of Europe.

2. It would further call attention to those items of the Report that detail the work of the Churches represented in the Alliance on this side of the Atlantic in Home and Foreign Missions, Sabbath-school work and kindred causes. Our Church is indeed the largest single constituent in this work, yet so great is the army of which we are a part that our work is not more than half, in some departments less than half of the whole. In Foreign Missions the Churches included in the Section have 1,727 missionaries, with 7,160 native workers, and 178,629 members, and over $3,000,000 contributed and expended in the work. In Home Missions they report 3,466 home missionaries, 4,401 churches aided, and 138,090 confessions of faith in mission churches, and expenditures of over two and a quarter million dollars. These same Churches report nearly two and one-half millions of Sunday-school scholars. Special increase in Sunday-school activity is shown by the Reformed Church in the U. S. (German), in which the membership of the Sunday-schools exceeds the church membership by 25,000.

The following recommendations are offered for adoption:

1. That this Assembly heartily commends this world-wide organization, and in particular as it endeavors to carry on work on the continent of Europe.

2. That this Assembly expresses its gratification that the Western Section of the Presbyterian Alliance is leading in the world-wide evangelistic movement, and rejoices that Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., has been selected by the Western Section of the Alliance as the director of the movement.

3. That as the attention of the General Assembly has been called to the fact that Dr. Chapman is now conducting evangelistic services under the auspices of the Presbyterian Churches of Australia and New Zealand, it is recommended that this Assembly extend its hearty greeting to Dr. Chapman and the Presbyterian Churches of Australia and New Zealand, assuring them of our interest in the work and of our prayers for God's richest blessing upon it.

For the Committee,

JOHN F. CARSON, Chairman.

The serious illness of Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., in Melbourne, Australia, was announced, and Rev. W. B. Noble, D.D., at the request of the Moderator, led the Assembly in prayer in his behalf. The Stated Clerk was directed to send a cablegram to Dr. Chapman, expressing the sympathy of the Assembly, which was done.

Louisville, Ky., May 24, 1912.

Chapman, Southern Cross, Melbourne:

Assembly sends sympathy.

Roberts.

An answer was received to the above immediately after the adjournment of the Assembly:

Melbourne, May 24, 1912.

Many thanks. Much better. Work progressing greatly.

Chapman.

The following telegram of Christian greeting was received, and the Stated Clerk was directed to respond to it:

Des Moines, Iowa, May 24, 1912.

To the Presbyterian General Assembly, Louisville, Ky.:

The Northern Baptist Convention, meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, sends Christian greeting. We are one with you in devotion to the interests of the Kingdom of God, the Lordship of Jesus Christ and the noblest service to humanity. We rejoice in your great work, and pray for the largest blessing upon your noble Church.

Emory W. Hunt, President;
William C. Bitting, Corresponding Secretary.

The following response was sent to the foregoing telegram:

To the Northern Baptist Convention, Des Moines, Iowa:

The Presbyterian General Assembly, in session at Louisville, Ky., heartily reciprocates your fraternal greetings and rejoices that we are one in the Faith, Hope and Love of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour.

Mark A. Matthews, Moderator;
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported upon the Plan for the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply, which has been authorized by the adoption of Constitutional Rule No. 4, by the Assembly and the Presbyteries.

The following amendments to the Plan are recommended:

Section 2. After the word "Committee" in the first line, insert the words "for the present year shall be made by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and after the present year."

Section 3. Insert at the end this sentence: "His appointment must have the confirmation of the Executive Commission."

Section 5. Insert "Chicago, Ill.," as location of office.

Section 6. Strike out at the end of this Section the sentence: "all correspondence shall be treated as confidential."

Section 8. Substitute for this Section the following: "The expenses of organizing the work of the Permanent Committee shall be met by the General Assembly, and shall not exceed $1,000. The expenses of management by the Permanent Committee, when the work has been organized, shall be determined by the Executive Commission, both as to amount and as to the method of securing moneys."

The amendments to the Plan and the Plan were adopted by the General Assembly.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures then nominated the following as the members of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply, and they were elected by the Assembly. They are as follows:

For the term of three years.—Ministers—George N. Luccock, D.D., John E. Bushnell, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Henry P. Crowell, E. A. K. Hackett.

For the term of two years.—Ministers—John Timothy Stone, D.D., William L. McEwan, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Robert S. Sinclair and Benjamin F. Edwards.

For the term of one year.—Ministers—S. S. Palmer, D.D., Paul B. Jenkins; Ruling Elders—A. A. Loetscher and William R. Farrand.

The Plan of the Permanent Committee as adopted is as follows:

1. The General Assembly hereby appoints, under the provisions of Constitutional Rule No. 4, a Permanent Committee, consisting of six ministers and six ruling elders, to be divided into three classes, each composed of two ministers and two ruling elders. One of these classes shall be elected annually, and the full term of service shall be three years: provided, however, that at the first election, one class shall be elected for one year, a second class for two years, and a third class for three years; and thereafter each following Assembly shall elect two ministers and two elders to fill the vacancies made by those whose terms of office then expire.

2. Nominations for membership in this Committee for the present year shall be made by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and after the present year shall be referred to the Standing Committee of the General Assembly on Christian Life and Work. No more than three members shall be from any one Synod.

3. The officers of the Permanent Committee shall be a Chairman, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and such others as may be necessary, and shall be elected annually. The Corresponding Secretary shall be chosen outside the membership of the Committee, and shall be the only salaried officer. His appointment must have the confirmation of the Executive Commission.

4. The powers and duties of the Permanent Committee, as stated in Constitutional Rule No. 4, are as follows:

"To conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries and their Committees concerning unemployed ministers and vacant congregations; to seek to adjust, in coöperation with Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, the requirements of Vacancy and Supply by means adequate to the given conditions in any Synod or Presbytery; to furnish information to church Sessions and ministers; to suggest to the General Assembly plans for administration, and to make an annual report to the Assembly." (Minutes, G. A., 1911, p. 224.)

5. The office of the Permanent Committee shall be located at Chicago, Ill.

6. The duties of the Corresponding Secretary shall be as follows: Under the direction of the Permanent Committee, he shall act as a constant and helpful medium of communication with different parts of the Church, through the respective Presbyterial and Synodical Committees on Vacancy and Supply. He shall stimulate to organized and concerted action, so that at the earliest moment the plan in its essential features, though with varying detail, may be in operation in every Presbytery. His business shall be wholly to give information, to be a depository and distributor of facts, both as to unemployed ministers and vacant churches, to whom both ministers and churches may apply, and by whom they may be put at once in correspondence with Presbyterial or Synodical Committees, or with other parties or bodies interested.

7. The Permanent Committee shall have power to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the transaction of its business, and shall report the same to the General Assembly.

8. The expenses of organizing the work of the Permanent Committee shall be met by the General Assembly, and shall not exceed one thousand dollars. The expenses of management by the Permanent Committee, when the work has been organized, shall be determined by the Executive Commission, both as to amount and as to the method of securing moneys.

9. Each Presbytery, it is recommended, should appoint a Committee, under the provisions of the Form of Government, Chap. XXI, Sects. 2, 3 and 4, to have supervision of all vacant churches within its bounds, except as such supervision may be arranged for otherwise by the Presbytery in special cases. The term of service of this Committee should be not less than three years.

10. It shall be the duty of the Committee of Presbytery to prepare and keep a list of the vacant churches within its bounds, and of such of its unemployed ministers as are competent for service, and not relieved by Presbyterial action from the regular work of the ministry; and also to arrange for the supply of the vacant churches from its list of available ministers, and from such other sources as may be suggested by correspondence with the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply. All details of adjustment shall be left to each Presbytery, to be determined by its own conditions and needs.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented an additional Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee report that two papers submitted were received on the eighth day of the Session by the Stated Clerk, too late, under the rules, for action. It is recommended that they be returned to the Stated Clerk.

Overtures Nos. 148* to 185, 344 and 345, from the Synod of West Virginia and many Presbyteries, relating to intercollegiate football. It is recommended that no action be taken on these Overtures, but that their subject-matter be referred to the College Presidents, at their meeting in connection with the General Assembly of 1913.

Overtures 192 to 220 and 348, from the Presbytery of Adams and other Presbyteries, asking the Assembly "to define clearly and specifically the functions, powers and prerogatives of the Board of Home Missions as related to the Presbyteries and Synods," and in answer to the following questions, "Has the Board the constitutional right to initiate and direct the work and the workers in organizing Presbyteries?" "Are the functions of the Board ministerial or executive and judicial?" "Does a Presbytery or Synod, receiving aid from the General Mission Fund of the Church, thereby surrender any of its constitutional rights and prerogatives?"

*See for text of Overtures, pp. 41 to 51.

The answers to these Overtures are found in the Charter of the Board of Home Missions, as it appears in the Digest, on p. 343, and in the "Principles and Rules for the Work of Home Missions," adopted by the Assembly in 1883, and recorded in the Digest, p. 347.

The functions, powers and prerogatives of the Board of Home Missions are thus declared in the act of incorporation of the Board, in 1872, viz.: "The object shall be to assist in sustaining the preaching of the Gospel in feeble churches and congregations in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and generally to superintend the whole work of Home Missions in behalf of said Church, as the General Assembly may from time to time direct; also, to receive, take charge of and disburse all property and funds which at any time and from time to time may be entrusted to said Church or said Board for Home Missionary purposes."

The Principles and Rules pertinent to these Overtures are as follows:

1. "Within the bounds of a Presbytery the work of the Board of Home Missions should be carried on in harmony with the Presbytery, according to the principles and rules hereinafter stated; but a discretion should be allowed to the Board in outlying districts, where direct Presbyterial control is difficult or impracticable."

2. "The Board should not, in ordinary cases, decline to grant an appropriation recommended by a Presbytery, unless, in its judgment, after viewing the whole field to be supplied, it shall appear that the funds at its disposal are all needed for more deserving or more promising work; and whether it does thus appear must be determined by the Board. But in all questions touching the organization of churches or the character of ministers, the Board, in case of difference between itself and the Presbytery, should abide by the final judgment of the Presbytery."

5. "No church shall be organized by a missionary within the limits of any Presbytery, unless authority has previously been obtained from the Presbytery."

4. "Synodical missionaries should hold to the Board the same relation as other missionaries whose support is provided, in whole or in part, by the Board, and their work shall be conducted in harmony with the interests of the Synod and of the Board."

The Presbytery or Synod receiving aid from the General Mission funds of the Church does not thereby surrender any of its constitutional rights and prerogatives.

Overture No. 227, from the Synod of Montana, as to using the term "Pastor-at-Large." The following answer is recommended: That, inasmuch as the commissions are issued, not by the Board, but by the Presbytery (Digest, 1907, p. 347), it is within the discretion of the Presbytery, to use the title locally preferred.

Overture No. 238, from the Synod of West Virginia, concerning a Forwarding Agent for the Boards. It is recommended that this Overture be answered in the negative, as the matter referred to is included in the work of the Executive Commission, which is endeavoring to complete a plan for raising the benevolent funds of the Church.

Overture No. 279, from the Presbytery of Steubenville, in reference to supplying Session Clerks with the Assembly Minutes. It is recommended that this Overture be answered in the negative, for the reason that there are about 10,000 Clerks of Sessions, and it costs 88 cents per copy to print and mail the present edition of 11,500 copies of the Minutes of the General Assembly, and there is no provision made for the money necessary to meet such an added expense.

Overtures Nos. 221 to 224, 349 and 350, from a number of Presbyteries, relating to a reorganization of the Home Mission Board. It is recommended that these Overtures be answered in the negative, for the reason that the General Assembly has committed its evangelistic work to the Evangelistic Committee, which Committee has done a work that has been heartily commended by the Assembly, and justifies and requires the continued separate existence of the Committee.

Overture No. 360, from the Presbytery of Minneapolis, in the matter of "licensing and ordaining to the ministry of our Church, men who doubt or deny the teachings of God's Word, as interpreted by our Standards," asking the Assembly to "take such action as will put an end, both to this flagrant defiance of rightful authority, and to this forcing upon the Church teachers of doubt and unbelief." It is recommended that the Assembly adopt this Deliverance:

The Constitution fixes the authority and responsibility for the licensing and ordaining to the ministry of the Presbyterian Church, in the Presbytery. Any Presbytery that licenses and ordains to the ministry men who deny the teachings of God's Word as interpreted by our Standards, is guilty of perjury, in violating the Constitution of the Church, and such violation should be remedied, but the remedy, to be effective on the part of the Assembly, must be upon protest, complaint or appeal, upon specific charges, giving names and dates and whatever is needful in proof of the offense charged.

Overture No. 366, being a Memorial from the Presbyterian Historical Society, in reference to Presbyterial and Sessional Records. It is recommended, in connection with this Memorial, that the following recommendations be adopted:

That the Presbyteries be requested and directed to take forthwith such steps as will discontinue the keeping of Presbyterial Records and Sessional Records upon the "Loose Leaf System," and will require that such records and registers heretofore made on loose leaves, shall be permanently and strongly bound up in book form.

That the attention of the Presbyterian Board of Publication is called to the unsuitable materials, such as "roan" and commercial "morocco," now used in record books furnished by it to the Sessions, and to direct that the practice be discontinued, and that the Board furnish the churches with the requisite books only in bindings that promise to be permanent, and with paper that reasonably affords the same assurance, and the said Board is directed to make careful study and test of these materials, in order to secure the most permanent results.

Overture No. 371, from the Presbytery of Geneva, relating to the combination of the Board of Ministerial Relief and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund. It is recommended that no action be taken, because this Assembly has already adopted a plan of combining the Board of Relief and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund.

Overture No. 374, being a memorial from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, asking the General Assembly to consider whether it be not advisable that all the negro Presbyterians of America should be gathered into a separate denomination. The following answer is recommended:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., has heard with interest the memorial of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, of May 19, 1911, and would say in answer:

1. That we recognize with joy the work of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, in building up the Kingdom of our common Lord and Master.

2. That we desire to see a closer union with all Christians, and especially of all Presbyterian Christians, for the work of Christ.

3. That in the absence of any expressed desire, among our colored Synods and Presbyteries, for the proposed plan of union, we do not regard any further action at this time to be expedient.

Overture No. 377, being a communication from the International Sunday-school Association. It is recommended that the following reply be sent by the Stated Clerk:

"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in session at Louisville, Ky., has received with much appreciation the greeting of your Association. We assure you of our continued coöperation in the educational and evangelistic work of the Sunday-schools, and reaffirm our belief in the Bible as its text-book, and as the Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice."

Overture No. 378, being a Resolution touching medical advertisements in Presbyterian publications. The following action is recommended:

WHEREAS, Great harm is done by false and misleading statements in medical advertisements; and

WHEREAS, Such advertisements in religious papers gain a force and influence from the character of the papers in which they are published; therefore,

Resolved, That all editors and publishers of church papers, in association with our Church, be urged to exclude such advertisements from their columns.

Overture No. 225, from the Presbytery of Rochester, asking the Assembly to empower the Home Board "to extend its care to the colored people of the entire country." It is recommended that this Overture be answered in the negative, for the reason that the General Assembly is not prepared to empower the Board of Home Missions to carry on work among the colored people in that section of the country assigned to the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

Paper No. 380, being the platform of the new Peace Movement. It is recommended that the following declaration be adopted:

While the Assembly may not approve or endorse any proposal or programs, the Presbyterian Church stands for the plan of arbitration in relation to international disagreements, and is vitally concerned for the speedy realization in righteousness of the reign of universal peace and good-will.

The Report of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and also Paper No. 367, being a memorial from the Permanent Committee on Work among Colored People of the said Council. It is recommended that the following Resolutions be adopted:

1. Basis of Coöperation in Home Missions. The Overture submitted to the Supreme Judicatories a year ago was adopted, and thereby it becomes a rule governing this Church on this subject, and our Home Mission Board is therefore instructed accordingly. The following Resolutions on this matter are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, (a) That this Assembly recognizes the fact, clearly shown by the statistical tables of our Committee on

Life and Work, pertaining to Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers, that in many communities of our Synods, the spread of Home Missions, and general church work in all denominations, is hindered by having so many fields where churches are weak and overlapped, or wanting altogether.

Resolved, (b) That this Assembly would hereby approve of opening correspondence with the Churches in the Federal Council, and especially of having conferences between the various Home Mission Boards and the Home Mission Committees of Synods, Presbyteries and Classes of the Churches in the Council of Reformed Churches, with a view to forming and operating such definite plans of assignment of certain fields to certain churches, and of comity and coöperation among the weak churches, as will provide for larger churches and better support and help to prevent the overlapping of churches.

Resolved, (c) That the matter of arranging for such correspondence and conference between the various Home Mission Boards and Committees aforesaid, be referred to the Assembly's Committee on Christian Life and Work, with directions to report on the results to the General Assembly of 1913.

2. Christian Education.

(a) The Board of Education is hereby instructed to appoint two members of the Board, to meet in joint Committee with representatives from similar agencies, to constitute a joint Committee, which shall seek to promote the coöperation of the Constituent Churches in providing student-pastors and religious education at State universities.

(b) This General Assembly authorizes the Board of Education to consider, and, if advisable, to report for approval, plans to release students who have received aid from scholarship funds from any agency of ours, and who, after their graduation from one of our theological seminaries, accepted pastorates in other Churches being constituent members of this Council, from obligation to repay to the agencies such sums as they have received from said scholarship funds.

3. On the Colored Work of the Council the following action is recommended:

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., approves of the general terms of the Plan for Coöperation as adopted by the Permanent Committee of the Council on Colored Work; and that our several Boards and other Permanent Agencies interested in this work are authorized to coöperate with this Permanent Committee, as far as allowed by the rules and regulations adopted by these Boards and other Permanent Agencies, and approved by the General Assembly.

4. The reëlection of the members of the Council is recommended, whose terms expire this year, viz.: Ministers—John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Chicago, Ill.; James G. Bolton, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.; William H. Black, D.D., Marshall, Mo.; A. Edwin Keigwin, D.D., New York City; James E. Clarke, D.D., Nashville, Tenn.; Ruling Elders—John E. Parsons, New York City; Alfred G. Reeves, New York City; John R. Rush, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Louis A. Bowman, Chicago, Ill.; J. L. Twaddell, Philadelphia, Pa.; and it is recommended that Mr. James Yereance, of New York, be appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. William M. Lanning.

5. That the appointment of the several Permanent Committees in connection with the coöperative work of the Churches is approved.

6. That the Resolutions 1 and 2, on p. 12 of the "Blue Book," be adopted. They are as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Supreme Judicatories authorize their Executive Agencies to appoint representatives to be present at future meetings of the Council.

Resolved, 2. That each of the Supreme Judicatories appoint Standing Committees to report upon the Minutes and recommendations of the Council.

For the Committee,

JOHN F. CARSON, Chairman.

The Mileage Committee presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Mileage respectfully presents the following Report:

The Committee has carefully examined, vouched and audited the accounts of each Commissioner, and the same have been approved by the Committee, the checks being countersigned by the Stated Clerk and signed by the Treasurer, in accordance with the plan adopted for 1912.

The number of Commissioners on the roll is 851. The whole number of Presbyteries is 292. The number of advisory members is 9, and the number of Presbyteries not represented is 7.

The Foreign Mission Presbyteries are exempt from payment, and the Presbyteries composed of Indian and colored ministers and churches are not in a position ordinarily to pay the apportionments in full.

The receipts and disbursements are as follows:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments,	Mileage Fund	$45,754 21
" "	Entertainment Fund	19,074 91
" "	Contingent Fund	39,199 31
Total		$104,028 43

DISBURSEMENTS.

For Mileage Bills	$39,306 63
Balance on hand, Mileage Fund	6,447 58
Entertainment Fund (balance)	19,074 91
Contingent Fund	39,199 31
Total	$104,028 43

The balances of these funds are in the hands of the Treasurer of the Assembly.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly again urge upon all Presbyteries, including those heretofore exempt, the absolute necessity of their contributing in full to the Mileage, Contingent and Entertainment Funds, and the importance of forwarding these contributions to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days prior to its next meeting.

2. That the apportionments for next year be eight (8) cents for each communicant, apportioned as follows: To the Mileage Fund, $3\frac{1}{2}$ cents; to the Entertainment Fund, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents; to the Contingent Fund, 3 cents. Reduction is not practicable, owing to the expenses to be incurred in connection with litigation, and for the expenses of the Executive Commission.

3. That should the need arise for borrowing funds for Assembly, the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer be authorized to borrow the sums needed, by and with the advice and consent of the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission.

4. The Assembly approves the payment of the bills of Commissioners from certain Presbyteries that have not paid their apportionments or have paid in part only. These payments were guaranteed by the Commissioners, and it is ordered that said Presbyteries pay the amounts due, to the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer, on or before July 1, 1912.

5. That the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer of the Assembly be empowered, at their discretion, to pay Commissioners such other and further sums as they may consider justly due to them, by reason of their having underestimated railroad charges and other expenses incurred in returning home.

6. That the details of the plan of financial administration be referred to the Stated Clerk, to the Treasurer and to the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission, with the view of further modification.

7. That the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer be authorized to have the accounts for Mileage and Entertainment of this Assembly duly audited.

8. That the thanks of the General Assembly be extended to such railroads and other transportation companies as have carried Commissioners at reduced rates.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK A. BOOTH, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Brotherhood, through its Chairman, Rev. J. Frank Smith, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman, by Mr. Charles S. Holt, President of the Brotherhood, and by Rev. William H. Foulkes, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Presbyterian Brotherhood respectfully reports to the General Assembly:

The Brotherhoods of the Churches of North America, in the Men and Religion Forward Movement, have driven light through our blind spots and broken down walls shutting us from the knowledge of the world's waste, want and wickedness.

In the light of the little done and much to be done; in the face of the tragic needs of the moment; with the cry for a new heroism and a new chivalry ringing down upon us, we are often dumb with wonderment over the vastness of the work. Without the imperial faith that believes that what should be done can be done, and without the optimism that looks for God to give the new vision and ordain the new, triumphant leadership, we often find ourselves in the Slough of Despond. The hour has struck for us to restate the argument for, and to rediscover the ground of, the appeal of the Brotherhood.

1. The very name, "Brotherhood," has a wealth of tender suggestions. The magical word "brother," often on the lips of our Lord, modified into "Brotherhood," has appealed to the imaginations of men to such an extent that scores of organizations use the beautiful sentiment more widely than the children of light. We should recover our inheritance.

2. The newer, better-expressed objective entitles the Brotherhood to a kindlier consideration. Whatever haziness marked the definitions of the ends aimed at originally, we are now furnished with tasks measurable in the simplest speech. The Book, the Boy, Missions, Evangelism and Social Service, emphasized by the Brotherhoods, and sent resounding through "The Men and Religion Forward Movement," define, as never before, our program. The Brotherhood is a legitimate conserver of the tasks and the gains from this movement, and we must meet the responsibility of the trust.

3. The history which the world-wide Brotherhood movement is making should enshrine it in the hearts of the Church. In Great Britain the Brotherhoods have a half million members. These have such a vigorous and victorious programme that hurtful antagonisms and many other obstacles to progressive governmental policies and aggressive religious activities are vanishing before their influences. In America the Brotherhood of our own Church, in many places, is triumphing gloriously. Dr. Stone's church in Chicago has a thousand men grappling and solving the religious problems of the Church and the city. Dr. Carson's Church Brotherhood threw itself into a fight to keep a man who had tried to block Governor Hughes' anti-race track gambling measures from going to Congress. He was defeated by a majority less than the membership in that single Brotherhood. The Brick Church Brotherhood of Manhattan initiated and pushed through a measure of great public value. The Brotherhood of the Presbytery of New York has formed a "Bureau for Strangers," the duty of which is to aid Presbyterians and other men locating in that city. When placed, these are assigned to the church nearest. A report from that church on the men assigned is expected. This bureau, the chairman of which is George H. Richards, 68 William Street, promises to accomplish much for Presbyterian churches, in conserving the men and their influences for the Kingdom. It aspires to see such organizations in other cities. Doubtless, it can be duplicated with advantage elsewhere.

Such facts as these should induce a friendly attitude toward the Brotherhood everywhere. How shall that attitude be expressed? Your Committee recommends:

1. The earnest prosecution of the work the Brotherhood of our Church has already initiated, and the conservation of the best features of the work done by men of the North American Churches through the Men and Religion Forward Movement. The denominational Brotherhoods are the only organized forces at hand to do it. Organized for enlisting the masculine life and activity of the denomination, they are craven to shirk. Presbyterian men must meet the responsibility imposed by the new light and the new opportunity.

2. Authority is given the National Council of the Brotherhood to appeal to individuals for funds to bear the expenses of the organization, and, whenever the way is open, to ask churches able to do so, to put the cause of the Brotherhood in the yearly budgets. A few liberal men should not be required to carry the whole financial burden for the entire Church.

3. Your commendation and support of that breezy, brilliant little magazine, Men at Work, edited so ably and unselfishly by Dr. William C. Covert, of Chicago. That organ should be our bond of union, the open forum for the expression of the plans and ideals of the whole Brotherhood movement. It is published by the headquarters in Chicago, 509 South Wabash Avenue.

4. The most cordial coöperation of the Brotherhood and the Boards and other agencies of the Church. The former should furnish the latter the most perfect organization possible for the accomplishment of the ends at which they aim. It should mass and inspire the men of our Church for the whole round work of Christian activity.

5. The wider and wiser organization of the Brotherhood forces. In churches, groups of neighboring churches, Presbyteries and Synods, the Brotherhood, indorsed by the Church and called by the necessities of the hour, should receive a new emphasis. Where previous organizations halt or limp, they should be revitalized; where organizations are dead, they should be supplanted by living ones. Paper brotherhoods led by paper officials result in paper triumphs. Presbyterian men are summoned to a crusade, and, for the accomplishment of the largest results, whatever the name of the organization existent now, the local units should be related to the National Brotherhood. Presbyterian men and Presbyterian organizations must be assets for Presbyterianism. Pastors and Sessions should see to it that their men become a part of the National Brotherhood movement. Names and forms of local organizations are minor considerations. But the relating of these organizations to, and the fellowship with, the general movement are exceedingly important. There is an inspiration in numbers, lightning in contact.

6. In agreement with the request made by the National Council of the Brotherhood, we recommend the appointment of an advisory Committee of seven, five ministers and two elders, experienced and successful in Brotherhood work, to confer with the Council of the National Brotherhood in an effort to make more efficient and more general the success of the movement. The necessary expenses of the Committee shall be paid by the Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

J. Frank Smith, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, through its Chairman, Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by Rev. Drs. Hemphill and Carson, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries of the General Assembly of 1912 would report as follows:

The Committee has held three meetings since its appointment, and has carefully considered all the papers committed to it. The reports for the year from the Seminaries, under the control of the General Assembly, indicate abundant reasons for gratitude to the Great Head of the Church for His continued favor to these schools of sacred learning, to which the Church must look for her supply of pastors, missionaries and theological teachers.

The maintenance and progress of the Church are so indissolubly united with the spiritual prosperity of our theological Seminaries, that the Church at large should be called upon to feel, and to show, a far deeper interest in these institutions than is common. Criticism and censure have not been wanting, in recent years, and these have doubtless been instrumental in awakening the directors and faculties of our Seminaries to the necessity of special courses of instruction and of specific training for the on-coming ministry, that must meet the conditions of thought and life in the world of to-day. But what is far more to the point now, the Seminaries need the material support of generous givers in the Church for enlarged equipment, and the coöperating influence and efforts of pastors, Sessions and Presbyteries in directing the attention of choice young men, with sufficient preparatory education, to the ministry, as the noblest and most useful sphere of Christian service. The greatest need of the Seminaries is more students. The Seminaries need the prayer of the Church continuously, and should have the grateful recognition, on the part of the Church, of the unmeasurable value of the vital work of training a thoroughly equipped ministry. The theological Seminary is the head and crown of our entire educational system.

As gathered from the reports of the Seminaries for the year 1911 and 1912, the following items are of especial interest:

1. The names of the Seminaries: Princeton, Auburn, Western, Lane, Kentucky, McCormick, San Francisco, Dubuque, Newark, Lincoln, Biddle, Omaha, The South.

2. The student bodies classified as follows:

	Graduate Students.	Under-graduates.	Total.	Graduating Class.
Princeton	36	151	187	37
Auburn	3	52	55	16
Western	21	54	75	14
Lane	8	60	68	14
Kentucky	10	43	53	12
McCormick	14	137	151	47
San Francisco		18	18	6
Dubuque		19	19	7
Newark		18	18	5
Lincoln		44	44	16
Biddle		20	20	5
Omaha		17	17	4
	92	633	725	183

The total number of students is twenty-five in advance of the number reported to the Assembly last year. The number of graduates is ten less than that reported a year ago.

3. Endowments and equipments to the extent of $11,000,000 were reported to the last General Assembly. These have been increased during the year just closed by substantial additions. The annual income produced is about $600,000. The Seminary libraries include more than 300,000 volumes.

4. Items of special note, with reference to particular institutions. Princeton reports the resignation of the Rev. Prof. John DeWitt, D.D., LL.D., from the chair of Church History. At his own request he was released from his duties and made Professor Emeritus. The Committee would record its sense of full appreciation of the faithful and brilliant instruction given by Professor DeWitt in this department of sacred learning in three Seminaries of the Church—Lane, McCormick and Princeton. This Assembly has already received and adopted the Report of the Committee, appointed a year ago, to convey to Princeton, on the occasion of the recent centennial celebration of the founding of the Seminary, the congratulations of this body. The truest tribute to this great institution, the oldest of our Seminaries, and the most enduring memorial of its one hundred years of theological service, are to be found in the world-wide influence of its gifted and consecrated professors, whose teachings have had expression in the characters, lives and labors in the Gospel, on the part of almost 6,000 graduates who have gone forth from its gates to extend the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in our own land and on foreign mission fields. Some four hundred foreign missionaries, graduated from Princeton, have been faithful witnesses for Christ, and, on the roll of the martyrs, who have sealed their testimony with their blood, the name of Princeton is written in shining lives laid down.

Auburn Theological Seminary presents a Report showing that this Seminary insists upon the standard set for matriculation. Seven students failed of admission during this year. The additions to endowment amounted to $17,200. Two fellowships for graduate students have been provided. The summer school in Theology held its first session last summer, and the indications are that there will be a large attendance this summer. The method of sending students to engage in Social Settlement work in the large cities has proved very satisfactory. The "Ministers in Residence" plan, inaugurated in this Seminary, is valuable in bringing students into personal touch with the prominent ministers of the Board.

The Western Theological Seminary reports the first course of missionary lectures on the L. H. Severance Foundation, given by Prof. Edward Warren Capen, Ph.D., of the Hartford School of Missions; theme, "Sociological Progress in Mission Lands." This course of six lectures will be published within a year. The Fellows of the Seminary have been pursuing their studies at different universities in this country and abroad. We commend to persons of wealth in our communion the endowment of fellowships in our theological Seminaries, as a powerful encouragement to the highest scholarship among our students. An addition of $121,631.27 was made to the endowment during the year. A new building, known as Memorial Hall, and containing, besides rooms for eighty-five students, a large social hall, has been completed, at a cost of $130,000, of which about $40,000 is still to be raised.

Lane Seminary. We note, with satisfaction, the large list of speakers invited to deliver courses of lectures and occasional addresses, on practical problems of the day, evangelism and missions. The number of members in the Junior Class, 32, was more than the combined membership of the other two classes, 28, and the total number the largest in the history of the school, 68, including post-graduates and special students. The examiners are especially hearty in their expressions of appreciation of the thorough, practical and spiritual quality of the training given to the students. Improvements have been made in the property, adding much to its beauty, convenience and comfort. The Trustees have adopted, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, certain modifications of an agreement which has been in force for two years between Lane Seminary and the "Theological Seminary of the South."

The Board unanimously adopted the following agreement, subject to the approval of the Assembly:

"CINCINNATI, May 8, 1912.

"The Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the South, hereinafter called 'The South,' and the Lane Theological Seminary, hereinafter called 'Lane,' in view of the fact that the two years' period therein provided for is about to expire, hereby agree to modify the Agreement between them, dated June 24, 1910, as follows:

"1. That the Alliance continue for another year, the Seminary of the South to be responsible for the salary of Dr. Farr, and a sum of not less than one thousand dollars for scholarship aid.

"2. That during the year the Seminary of the South have the assistance of Dr. Stephens in raising the funds pledged by them.

"3. That at the close of the year, Drs. Stephens and Farr be elected as Professors in Lane Seminary, and the Seminary of the South cease to do any work in theological instruction.

"4. That Lane Seminary be privileged to seek funds in the territory tributary to the Seminary of the South.

"Except as thus expressly modified, the said Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

"Witness the signatures of said parties hereto, in duplicate, by their proper officers thereto duly authorized."

"All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed) "WILLIAM MCKIBBIN, President.

(Signed) "JAMES J. MUIR, Secretary."

The Theological Seminary of Kentucky, Louisville. This Seminary, as shown by its Report, appears to be in good condition. The only change noticed in the Board of Directors is G. H. Mouring, Esq., of Louisville, Ky., who has succeeded William Irvine, D.D., of Greenwood, Miss., deceased. The faculty remains unchanged. The number of students last year was fifty-three, and of graduates twelve. The Board has appointed a committee to confer with the faculty and to consider the curriculum with reference to giving more comprehensive instruction in religious education and sociology, in accordance with the recommendations of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., at its last meeting. The Seminary has need of additional endowment and of a larger scholarship fund. The sum of $25,000 has been offered to the Seminary on condition of securing an additional amount of $75,000, and the Board has taken steps toward securing this amount. The Board would be glad to have approval of the General Assembly in this effort. This Seminary, under the joint control of the General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. and in the U. S. A., occupies a unique position at the gateway of the South, and is destined to exert an increasingly strong influence upon the ministry of these Churches in the coming years of Presbyterianism in all this vast region. Organic Union of Control in this institution has proved most beneficial.

McCormick. We note the election of Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., LL.D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., as Cyrus H. McCormick Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology. The chair of Ecclesiastical History, occupied by Dr. A. C. Zenos, is to be known, hereafter, as the chair of Historical Theology, and instruction in New Testament Theology is to be included in this department. The Chair of Biblical Theology is discontinued. The chair of Hebrew and Cognate Languages, occupied by Dr. A. S. Carrier, is henceforth to be designated as the chair of "Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis." The chair of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis, occupied by Professor George L. Robinson, is hereafter to be known as the chair of "Biblical Literature and the English Bible."

Prof. A. A. Hays, formerly instructor in New Testament Exegesis and Church History, was appointed an adjunct Professor of New Testament Exegesis and Ecclesiastical History. All students were engaged in evangelistic and city mission work.

San Francisco reports that the Seminary life has been marked by a very high spiritual tone. Never before has there been a deeper interest among the men in their own spiritual life and in mission work, particularly among the boys of San Anselmo. The regular work of the Seminary has been supplemented during the year by numerous lectures and addresses by representative men of the Church, including Secretaries of the Board, missionaries from various parts of the world and representatives of various reform movements. The principal events of the year have been the installation of Professor Martin in the Chair of Apologetics and Missions and of Professor Landon as President of the Seminary. The President's installation, on February 22, 1912, was the largest and most representative function ever held at the Seminary. The charge was delivered by the Rev. Mark A. Matthews, D.D., of Seattle, the Moderator of this Assembly.

Dubuque, German. Rev. C. M. Steffens, D.D., was duly installed as President and Professor of Practical Theology, April 23, 1912. The additional endowment received during the year was $70,230.38. It was determined to prosecute a canvass until an endowment of $500,000 is attained. If the school shall keep pace with the normal growth of this work, an endowment of the amount named is the least possible sum required. The Seminary records its gratitude to Mr. Louis H. Severance, of Cleveland, for a splendid dormitory building costing $50,000. The sixtieth anniversary of the school was celebrated April 22–28, when notable addresses by the former Moderator, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., and others were delivered.

Newark, German. This school was established in 1869, to meet the demands of the large German immigration of that date. It is organized and equipped for this work. Pressing need has made it desirable to undertake "polyglot" in addition to German work. The curriculum has been enlarged. There are Italian, Hungarian, Ruthenian, Syrian and Hebrew students. The enlargement of scheme and work has not been supplemented by a corresponding increase of funds. It is necessary to secure competent instructors. A new building is urgently needed. Subscriptions have been received to the amount of $46,487.21 toward a fund of $60,000 for erection of "Knox Hall," in memory of Dr. Charles E. Knox, the past and only President of the Faculty, and $15,000 of this sum was subscribed on the condition that the whole amount should be secured in one year. The Report has been approved by the Presbytery of Newark. Mr. Elias D. Smith, Mr. Raymond S. Pearce and Mr. James N. Jarvie have been elected to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors.

Lincoln University, Theological Department. We find this Seminary is in good working condition and in a normal state. The statistical and financial reports submitted are in regular form. Special emphasis is laid on the need of a building in which every-day religious life and activity of the students may be promoted, a place where the associated moral and religious daily life can have facilities for better development. The demand for an educated and godly ministry for churches of colored people, both North and South, as well as for Mission fields, in the West Indies and Africa, was never so great as at the present hour. Lincoln and Biddle Universities deserve at the hands of the Church a much larger support than these institutions are receiving.

Theological Department, Biddle University. The chief feature of the Report is the completion of a library building, at a cost of $15,000. Of this, $12,000 came from Mr. Carnegie, and most of the remainder was contributed by the colored Presbyterians in the South. There is an endowment of $12,000 for the library. Three of the students are looking to missionary work in Africa if the way may open. No financial report is given, as the teachers are also professors in the University, and the accounts are one.

Omaha. This Seminary deserves the continued approval of the Assembly in its effort to add the sum of $125,000 to the endowment. At the close of the year, the Rev. Matthew B. Lowrie, D.D., who had been connected with the Seminary for twenty-one years as Professor, for nine of these years as President, asked to be relieved of professorial duties. His resignation was accepted by the Board of Directors, with cordial and appreciative expression of the indebtedness of this institution for his devoted and efficient services for its welfare. The President, the Rev. A. B. Marshall, D.D., was appointed to the Chair of Homiletics, Pastoral Theology and English Bible, made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Lowrie.

The importance of this institution in the Central West increases year by year.

Your Committee recommends:

1. That the General Assembly approves the election of all Directors and Trustees recorded in the accompanying Reports.

2. That the General Assembly approves the election and transfer of all Professors in our theological Seminaries, as recorded in the accompanying Reports.

3. That in accordance with the request of the Theological Seminary of Kentucky, the General Assembly heartily commends to the generosity of the Church the effort inaugurated by the Board of Trustees to raise an additional endowment fund of $75,000.

4. That the General Assembly cordially commends to liberally disposed persons of our Presbyterian Church, the Theological Seminaries of Newark and Dubuque, in their efforts to provide a ministry for preaching the Gospel to the foreign-speaking peoples of our country.

5. That the agreement of Lane Theological Seminary and the Seminary of the South, as recorded in the accompanying Report, be approved.

6. That the General Assembly reaffirm its former recommendation to chairmen of Presbyterial Committees on Education, to encourage all candidates for the ministry, under their care, in preparatory schools and colleges, to pursue appropriate courses in Greek and such other studies, as will best prepare them for their theological course.

7. That the General Assembly cordially commends the coöperation which has been given by the Board of Education, with our colleges and seminaries, in turning the minds of promising young men toward the Gospel ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

MARCUS A. BROWNSON, Chairman.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly recommends for aid to the Board of Freedmen, the Presbyterian Colored Missions in Louisville, Ky., under the direction of the Committee on Colored Evangelization of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches.

The Committees on Synodical Records presented their Reports, pending which the Assembly took recess and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 24, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Permanent Judicial Commission announced that it had returned all papers in its hands to the Stated Clerk.

The Moderator announced the Advisory Committee for the Presbyterian Brotherhood, as follows: Ministers—H. C. Swearingen, D.D., E. W. Work, D.D., Charles R. Erdman, D.D., Aquilla Webb, D.D., J.W. McDonald; Ruling Elders—William H. Scott, Robert P. Hargitt.

The Moderator announced the following as the Committee on Publication and Sunday School Work: Ministers—Charles Little, D.D., Robert S. Inglis, D.D., Frank W. Sneed, D.D., W. R. Taylor, D.D., T. N. Weaver, D.D., Marcus A. Brownson, D.D.; Ruling Elders—George W. Bailey, John Wanamaker, L. H. Severance, Pres. John H. Finley, Hon. John W. Foster.

The Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion presents its Report to the General Assembly as follows:

By action of the last General Assembly, this Committee was continued, with same general powers as heretofore (see Minutes, 1907, p. 140; 1908, p. 28; 1909, p. 240; 1910, p. 71; 1911, p. 246).

There has been no change in the Committee's membership, organization or methods, during the past year. John M. Gaut, Esq., is still continued as General Counsel for the Committee, and his services have been invariably rendered with ability, diligence and fidelity, so as to command the appreciation of all concerned. Rev. J. M. Hubbert still serves as the Committee's Secretary and Agent.

LITIGATION.—In the Committee's last Report, a year ago, it was stated that a case taken to the Supreme Court of Mississippi by appeal had been argued, but that no decision had at that time been rendered. We are now pleased to say that the members of the Court handed down a unanimous opinion strongly maintaining the validity of the union, and decreeing the property in litigation to those adhering to the Reunited Church.

For information, we here name the nine States in which the union has been sustained by Courts of last resort, calling the States in the order in which the opinions were delivered, viz.: Georgia, Kentucky, Texas, California, Indiana, Illinois, Arkansas, Alabama, and Mississippi. Tennessee and Missouri are the States in which the Supreme Courts have rendered adverse decisions. Oklahoma is the only State now in which litigation has been begun and the question of union is yet to be passed upon by the Supreme Court of the State.

In Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee and Texas, and possibly in some other States, there have been cases of local litigation, some of which have been of such character and importance as to require the services of the Committee's General Counsel in aid of local counsel.

We are glad to report that the United States Supreme Court, on November 6, 1911, handed down a favorable opinion in the Nashville (Tenn.) Publishing House case. It will be remembered that in this case our attorneys, on the question of jurisdiction, took an appeal from the Circuit Court of the United States for the Middle District of Tennessee, which appeal has been sustained, so that it remains for the lower Court, its jurisdiction having thus been determined, to try the case on its merits. A similar decision was given April 1, 1912, by the United States Supreme Court in the Grace Church, Nashville, Tenn., case, so that this case also will be tried on its merits, in the Court below.

We likewise report a favorable opinion delivered by the United States Circuit Court, at Nashville, Tenn., on April 4, 1912, in the case wherein the Trustees of the Philadelphia Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work were the complainants, and the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was defendant. When the anti-unionists got possession of the Nashville Publishing House, as a result of the adverse decision rendered by the Tennessee Supreme Court, the Philadelphia Board's claim against the Nashville House, on merchandise account, was repudiated; whereupon, suit was brought in the Federal Court for the recovery of said claim, and the result of this suit was a decree in favor of complainants.

The case in the Federal Court in Missouri has not yet come to trial.

FINANCES.—The finances of the Committee are in charge not only of this Committee, but also of the Executive Commission of the General Assembly. By direction of the General Assembly, it is necessary, before moneys can be appropriated for legal purposes, for the objects and amounts to be approved by the Commission. The present financial situation is as follows: The General Assembly of 1911 authorized the setting apart of a certain sum of money, as a legal fund, by the following Resolution:

"That a sum equal to one cent per capita be and hereby is set apart from the presbyterial apportionments for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, as a Legal Fund, and that out of such fund the loans made by the Stated Clerk for litigation expenses be paid, any surplus left over to be subject to the orders of this Committee" (Minutes, General Assembly, 1911, p. 246, Resolution 3).

The sum of money thus set apart amounted to $12,206.04. There was paid out of it, by authority of the Executive Commission, through loans by the Stated Clerk, the sum of $7,953.54. These loans were duly paid. During the present year there has been paid to John M. Gaut, Esq., as General Counsel, $2,500, as salary, the payments being semi-annual, on June 1 and December 1, 1911, and, in addition, for expenses, $209.79. Since the close of the fiscal year, the Committee has paid to John J. Vertrees, Esq., of Nashville, Tenn., $800, completing the payment of the fee of $1,000 for services rendered by him. The total of these payments during the year is $3,509.79, and leaves on hand a balance to the credit of the Legal Fund of $742.71. There will be due to John M. Gaut, Esq., on June 1, 1912, the sum of $1,250 for salary, and for expenses about $100. The deficiency, therefore, on account of legal expenses on June 1, 1912, will be $617.29. It is proper to add, that the Committee recently voted the sum of $200, from funds collected by the Chairman, toward the payment of the fee of Judge Hughes, who had been chosen counsel by the Committee on "Pastoral Oversight," appointed by the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly of 1906. Further, it is to be noted, that the Tennessee sub-committee of this Assembly's Committee has raised and disbursed to date the sum of $2,624.55, and that there are now no sums due on account of the expenses of the Cumberland Committee just named.

It is respectfully requested that provision be made by the Assembly for further payments on account of legal expenditures, by the passage of Resolutions Nos. 1 and 4, at the end of this Report.

The following Resolutions are submitted for adoption:

Inasmuch as the union between the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was a contract between these Churches, and inasmuch as the whole reunited Church is interested in the legal interpretations of the Contract of Union, of the doctrinal standards, the ecclesiastical authority and the property rights of the Church, such as are now being made by the civil courts, therefore, Resolved, 1. That the Committee on Legal Matters and the Executive Commission of the General Assembly are hereby authorized, in their discretion, to make appropriations on behalf of the General Assembly, to assist in meeting the expenses of suits where these general questions are involved. But this resolution shall not be construed as authorizing appropriations for the expenses of litigation which involves only the ownership of local church property.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee on Legal Matters and the Executive Commission be authorized, when deemed advisable, to appoint a commission, consisting of one or more ministers or lay members of the Church, with authority to defend suits for the above purposes, to wit, to protect the contract of union, to prevent the misinterpretation of our doctrinal standards, to preserve our ecclesiastical authority and to defend our property rights.

Resolved, 3. That the Committee be continued, with power as to all general litigation now in progress, in connection with the Reunion of 1906, but that no new suits be approved, except after consent given by the Executive Commission of the General Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That the Committee be empowered, in its discretion, to continue the employment of John M. Gaut, Esq., as General Counsel, and in such manner and for such time, as it may deem wise.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Executive Commission presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Overture No. 239, from the Presbytery of Lackawanna, as to giving credits for missionary contributions other than those made through the Boards. It is recommended that this be referred to the Joint Executive Committee, with power.

Upon Sect. VI of the Report of the Commission as to the "unification of Presbyterial Committees" of certain Boards, and in respect to a resolution offered on the floor of the Assembly and referred to the Commission, it is recommended that the following be added to the Report: "In making the deliverance herein contained, the Executive Commission recognizes the fact that it is the constitutional right of Presbyteries and Synods, to act in the matter of uniting these or any committees on the work of the Boards, as in their judgment local conditions demand."

The Report of the Executive Commission, as amended, was adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Executive Commission respectfully submits to the General Assembly its Fourth Annual Report. The subjects are presented successively in the following order:

I. Meetings.
II. Members.
III. Plan for Presbyterial Executive Commissions.
IV. Plan of Administration of Assembly Finances.
V. Report of the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission.
VI. Report on Unification of Presbyterial Committees.
VII. Report on Committees on Religious Education.
VIII. Consolidation of Missionary Magazines.
IX. Report on Purchasing Agent and General Treasurer.
X. Report on Federation of Relief and Sustentation.
XI. Report on Revision of the Rules of the Board of Church Erection.
XII. Report on Conferences with the Boards.
XIII. Report of the Budget Committee.
XIV. Financial Statement.
XV. Report of Joint Executive Committee.
XVI. Moderator's Itinerary.

I. Meetings.

The Executive Commission met during the sessions of the Assembly at Atlantic City, N. J., May 17–26, 1911, and the first meeting of the Commission, as organized by the election of a new Chairman and members, was held May 26, 1911. Subsequent meetings were held at New York, N. Y., June 22–23, 1911; Spring Lake, N. J., August 1–2, 1911; Baltimore, Md., November 21–22, 1911; New York, N. Y., January 24–25, 1912, and Brooklyn, N. Y., March 13–14, 1912. The Commission will also meet at Louisville, Ky., May 15, 1912, and on succeeding days, during the Sessions of the Assembly.

II. Members.

Mr. T. D. Foster, of Ottumwa, Iowa, elected a member for three years, by the General Assembly of 1911, was unable to accept the appointment, owing to pressure of business. The Executive Commission, having power under its constitution to fill vacancies, chose as a member, in Mr. Foster's place, Charles J. Deacon, Esq., of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Mr. Deacon accepted the appointment.

The Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D., a member of the class whose term expires in May, 1913, tendered his resignation, on March 13, to the Commission, to take effect May 23, 1912. Dr. Foulkes found it necessary, in view of the work of his pastorate to withdraw, and the Commission, in accepting his resignation, unanimously adopted the following Resolution:

In taking this action it is

Resolved, That the Executive Commission does so with deep regret, and solely on the representation, that it is asked for, to relieve Dr. Foulkes, in view of the exacting responsibilities in his new pastorate, and that it would be an injustice to him not to comply with his request.

It was further

Resolved, That the Commission place on record its warm appreciation of Dr. Foulkes as a beloved member of this body, for two years, and its sense of especial obligation to him for his marked devotion and efficiency in furthering the work of the Commission, and that a copy of this action be sent to Dr. Foulkes.

The class of persons whose term of service of three years closes with this Assembly are: Rev. James M. Barkley, D.D., Rev. John P. Campbell, D.D., Rev. J. E. Bushnell, D.D., Mr. Robert A. Brown, and Mr. Henry B. McCormick. Under the constitution of the Commission, these brethren are ineligible for reëlection.

The attention of the Assembly is drawn to the fact that the appointment of Mr. C. J. Deacon, as a member of the class whose term expires in 1914, needs confirmation by the Assembly, if he is to continue to serve, and that a member is to be chosen to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Foulkes.

The Executive Commission recommends that the General Assembly approve and confirm the election of Charles J. Deacon, Esq., of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, as a member of the class whose term expires in 1914, elected by the Executive Commission to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. T. D. Foster, of Ottumwa, Iowa.

III. Presbyterial Executive Commissions.

The subject of a plan for the organization of Presbyterial Executive Commissions was taken up at the beginning of the ecclesiastical year, and a Committee of the Commission, consisting of the Rev. John P. Campbell, D.D., and Rev. William H. Foulkes, D.D., was appointed to prepare the plan. The recommendations following and the accompanying plan were approved by the Executive Commission at its meeting in January, 1912, printed, distributed to the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, and published for the information of the Church at large. They are as follows:

I. RECOMMENDATIONS.

In view of the information received from many Presbyteries, and for the purpose of assisting to systematize and expedite the business of our Church, it is hereby recommended that Presbyteries organizing or reorganizing their Executive Commissions consider the following points as most likely to accomplish their purposes, in harmony with the action of the General Assembly and the autonomy of the Presbyteries.

I. The Commission ought to be a body separate from the various Standing Committees of Presbytery, and not composed of their Chairmen but of members elected for that position, but the Presbytery may elect members of the Standing Committees as members of the Commission.

II. The number of members may wisely vary according to the size of the Presbytery, keeping in mind that a small but strong Commission may more easily meet for the emergencies which may call for its consideration, and also the expense will at the same time be kept within smaller limits without sacrificing efficiency.

III. The Chairman of the Commission ought to be selected for that position and continued in office for three years, in order that the Commission may not be without a leader, excepting for necessary changes.

IV. In order to secure rotation in office and prevent the possibility of the power being assumed by a few, it would be better to make the members ineligible for reëlection till after a year has passed, in spite of the temporary loss which might sometimes be experienced by this requirement.

V. The term of service may well be either three or two years, according to circumstances.

VI. Executive or administrative duties may be assigned to it but not judicial business, it being a well-recognized principle of government that the Executive and Judicial Departments ought to be entirely independent of each other.

VII. Specific duties and powers ought to be enumerated in the By-Laws dealing with the Executive Commission, among which the two of greatest importance are:

1. In coöperation with the Executive Commission of the General Assembly and Synod it should be given the duty of dealing with the Budget for the Boards and all matters relating to it.

2. All the missionary interests of the Presbytery should be in its charge, which it should be directed to harmonize and advance, either through the existing Standing Committees or by recommendations to Presbytery direct. This should include the consideration of all apportionments and assessments of whatever name in these lines.

3. A third duty which may well be assigned to it, when the Presbytery has no other plan, is the study of the business of the Presbytery for the purpose of increasing its efficiency, and securing the proper balance to the various items which are to be considered. As a directing Committee in charge of the Docket, it has large possibilities for good.

4. Those Presbyteries which feel the need of an Advisory Committee competent to consider difficulties arising in any of their churches, may also assign such matters to the Executive Commission.

5. Any of the specific duties mentioned above may properly be assigned to the Commission, with power to act or to recommend, as the cases may call for, and it becomes a convenient Executive Agency to which incidental duties may be assigned, from time to time, as they arise, with such power as may be delegated with the duties.

II. PLAN.

The following Presbyterial plan is submitted along with the Recommendations.

PLAN OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION.

Chapter I. General Provisions.

Art. 1. The Executive Commission shall consist of seven members, divided into three classes, composed of one minister and one elder, elected for terms of three years each, excepting for the first and second terms, and, in addition to the six thus provided for, Presbytery shall elect a Chairman for the term of three years, and whenever the office of Chairman shall be vacant the newly elected Chairman shall be chosen for a term of three years. The members of the Commission shall be elected at the stated meetings of Presbytery. Vacancies shall be filled only at such meetings of the Presbytery. Paid agents of the Presbytery or of the General Assembly Boards shall be ineligible for membership, and members who have served a term shall be ineligible for reëlection for the term immediately succeeding.

Art. 2. The Commission shall make its own By-Laws and select its own clerk, except in cases where the Presbytery may appoint its Stated Clerk to that duty, but the Chairman shall be its Executive Officer, in whose charge the business of the Commission shall be placed, and to whom shall be assigned the duty of presenting the Commission's actions to the Presbytery.

Art. 3. All matters referred to the Commission, requiring action shall be reported to the Presbytery with the Commission's recommendations, excepting such items as may be specifically assigned to the Commission with power to act, in which case the action taken shall be reported at the next meeting of the Presbytery and shall become thereby the action of the Presbytery, subject to the provisions of the Book of Discipline, Sections 84–93.

Chapter II. Duties.

Art. 1. It shall be the duty of the Executive Commission to coöperate with the Executive Commissions of the General Assembly and of the Synods, in matters which they may bring before it.

Of its own motion it may consider and propose action on—

2. All matters relating to the budget.

3. All matters relating to the coördinating and harmonizing of the missionary interests within the bounds of the Presbytery.

In the accomplishment of this work it shall take the place of a Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

4. All matters relating to proposed appropriations, assessments and appeals to the churches, from Presbyterial Committees and other agencies inside or outside the churches, unless otherwise provided for, shall first be submitted to the Executive Commission in order that conflicts, irritation, and neglect may be overcome, and efficiency and economy promoted.

5. The Commission shall study the business of Presbytery, for the purpose of promoting economy of time and efficiency of operation, and shall have charge, for that end, of the preparation of the Docket, being aided by the Stated Clerk, who shall meet with the Commission when so desired. The Commission shall report to Presbytery such changes in the Docket as it may deem expedient, except in such cases as the Presbytery has provided for by direct action.

6. The Commission shall have authority, upon application from either the pastor or Session of a self-supporting church, to examine into and, so far as possible, adjust difficulties affecting the welfare of the church. Difficulties arising in any of the dependent churches may be referred to the Commission by the Committee on Home Missions. In any cases arising under this provision the action of the Commission shall be advisory only until such time as Presbytery may specifically direct otherwise.

7. The Commission shall be the Committee on the "Minutes of the Assembly," considering and recommending to Presbytery such action as may seem advisable, relating to the Overtures and other matters which may be referred by the General Assembly to the Presbyteries.

8. Other duties may be assigned to the Commission from time to time, as may be found advisable, and any of the provisions of this Chapter may be altered or amended in accordance with the Standing Rules of Presbytery, or immediately by unanimous consent.

9. The Commission shall incur no expense except by direction of Presbytery.

10. All provisions of the Standing Rules of the Presbytery which may conflict with any of the provisions of these Chapters and Articles, shall be considered suspended, with the adoption of this Plan. The Commission, with the coöperation of the Stated Clerk, may revise the said Rules at any time, recommending such changes as are deemed necessary.

IV. Plan of Administration of Assembly Finances.

The General Assembly of 1911 referred to the Executive Commission, with power, "the administration of the finances of the Assembly, the appointment of a Treasurer included." (See Minutes, 1911, pp. 130, 131.) A plan of administration of finances of the Assembly was adopted in due form by the Executive Commission, and became operative December 30, 1911. It is printed in full in the Manual of the General Assembly for 1912, pp. 103–109.*

In connection with the adoption of the plan, a resolution as to the services of the Stated Clerk in the management of the Assembly finances, was unanimously adopted by a rising vote, and is as follows:

"In reconstituting the office of Treasurer, the Executive Commission desires to place on record its appreciation of the services of the Stated Clerk, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., in the management of the General Assembly finances, extending over a period of twenty-seven years, and involving the receipt and disbursement of $1,577,719.47, on which interest was realized amounting to $34,496.58, or more than 2 per cent. per annum, and we hereby commend his diligence, fidelity, uniform courtesy and conscientious service, rendered during all these years, not only in this office, but throughout the whole Church."

The Treasurer chosen by the Executive Commission is the Land Title and Trust Company of Philadelphia, Pa., and by agreement serves without charge, and pays two per cent. on daily balances. The expenses of the representative of the Treasurer, however, incurred in attendance upon the meeting of the General Assembly, are to be paid by the Assembly.

V. Finance Committee of Executive Commission.

The Executive Commission herewith presents the first Annual Budget of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. This Budget was prepared by the Stated Clerk, carefully considered by the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission and by this Committee recommended to the Executive Commission for adoption. The Budget covers the year ending April 1, 1913. In presenting this Budget, the Executive Commission calls attention to the following facts:

1. The salaries of the Stated Clerk, the Permanent Clerk, and the Assistant Clerk have been fixed by the Assembly.

2. The amount recommended for the Executive Commission covers the expenses of five meetings of the Commission, and also the expenses of its sub-committees.

3. The expenses of Commissioners at the meeting of the General Assembly for 1912 are estimated as follows: Mileage, $43,000; Entertainment, $17,000.

4. The special appropriations approved are based upon the following facts. (a) Council of Reformed Churches, $200. There are 80 members of the Council in America, of which number our Church has thirty-two members. Our share of the total annual expense of $500, therefore, is the proportionate amount above given.

(b) Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, $1,350. The Churches pay $1 for each 1,000 communicants.

(c) World Presbyterian Alliance, $1,940. Our representation in the last Council (1909) was ninety-seven members, and the appropriation is $20 for each member.

5. The Budget provides $3,000 for the expenses of Special Committees. The last fiscal year we paid about this amount for the following Committees: Church Coöperation and Union, Christian Life and Work, Work on the Continent of Europe, Evangelistic Work, Princeton Theological Seminary, Advisory Council of Church Extension, Union Theological Seminary.

Budget of the General Assembly, April 1, 1912, to March 31, 1913.

VI. Report on the Unification of Committees.

In the Report of the Advisory Council on Church Extension (Minutes, Assembly, 1911, p. 60), the following recommendation is found (III, 2), which was referred to the Executive Commission:

"That Synods and Presbyteries study to unify the supervision of the mission work within their bounds, either by combining Committees on Home Missions and Sabbath-school Work, or by making the Chairmen members of both Committees, or by joint meetings of the Committees, looking to the unification of the work."

Also, from the Report of the Executive Commission to the Assembly of 1911 (Minutes, Assembly, 1911, p. 158), the following resolution, No. 4, was referred back to the Commission:

"Resolved, 4. That, to secure unity of operation in the Presbyteries in Home Missions, Church Erection, and Sunday-school Expansion, it is urgently recommended that all Presbyteries make provision that these three forms of work be under the supervision of one Committee." (See also General Assembly Minutes, p. 158, additional resolution No. 2.)

For the sake of clearness, it is proposed to consider the resolution concerning Church Erection in the first order. It is to be remembered that this action is one of four resolutions, coming at the close of a long and exhaustive report to the Assembly on Plans of Rearrangement so as to bring related Boards, etc., under one general control, and that the recommendation to bring under one control, in the Presbytery, these three related forms of work, viz., Home Missions, Sunday-school Expansion, and Church Erection, followed as a necessary consequence in the event of the adoption of the proposed plan of Federation for the Boards. After the most careful and comprehensive investigation, taking into consideration all possible relations of these Boards and the interests they respectively serve, the conclusion reached by the Commission was adverse to the consolidation, and a form of federation was proposed as the only possible way of securing the unity contemplated. It is also evident that the Assembly declined even to approve this method of unification, and the fair inference is that the mind of the Church was favorable to the existing forms of organization, and since the recommendation to bring the work of these Boards in Presbyteries under one control, is a necessary consequence of the former plan of Federation, your Committee recommends that it is not expedient that the cause of Church Erection be combined with others, but kept under its own Committee, looking toward the efficiency to be secured by specializing its methods, but that these Committees in the Presbyteries should be urged by frequent conferences and fullest coöperation to promote this cause, in harmony with the other causes represented in its appeals to the churches, and in the sphere of its operations.

Second: In considering the matter of unification of the Committees of Home Missions and Sunday-school Missions, the main thing to be determined is:

1. Whether there is a distinct field for two agencies that have so much in common, and yet do not entirely coincide either in aims or methods.

2. Whether these respective causes can be best prosecuted under one control, and

3. Whether a plan of supervision can be secured which will not entrench on the prerogative of either cause, and at the same time secure the widest possible freedom in extending both.

1. In considering the first of these points, to wit, whether there is a distinct field for two agencies that have so much in common, and yet do not entirely coincide either in aims or methods, the Executive Commission begs leave to submit the following considerations:

The General Assembly of 1910 adopted the recommendation of the Executive Commission as follows: "Where Synods or Presbyteries cannot or do not meet manifest needs for Home Mission efforts, the Home Mission Board, after reasonable inquiry of such efforts, may, as representing the highest Court of the Church, enter into such places and, according to its wisdom, institute necessary work." The obvious conclusion is, that from the beginning of our history as a Church in this land, it was always contemplated that the work of Home Missions should be prosecuted in every part of the United States. The sphere of operation and the authority to carry the Gospel has never been restricted, until now, together with certain Synods that are self-supporting, the work is national in its scope, embracing the territory of the United States, including Alaska, Porto Rico and Cuba. Therefore, it is

Resolved, That in any unification of Committees of Presbytery or Synod the free scope of the cause of Home Missions must be recognized, and its distinctive mission to carry the Gospel to desolate places must be safeguarded.

As to the field of Sunday-school Missions:

In 1870 the General Assembly recommended to the Board "to consider the propriety of establishing a department of Sabbath-schools, whose office it shall be to promote the number and efficiency of the Sabbath-schools throughout the churches and strongly recommending the extension of colportage work." This was repeated in 1871 by the General Assembly and the Board was directed, "in appointing colporteurs, as far as possible to select such persons as may be suitable for Sabbath-school missionaries and instruct them to establish Sabbath-schools in destitute localities under the supervision of the Presbyteries."

In 1872 a department was separately constituted, whose duty was to disseminate the publications of the Board by donations, and by sale through its appointees who shall be called missionaries of the Board of Publication, and who shall be appointed subject to the approval and shall be under the control of the Presbyteries, to supervise the whole Sabbath-school work of the Church in connection with the Presbyteries, and aim to lift this important agency of Christian evangelization into the prominence and efficiency which it deserves and which the great needs of our country have so largely called for at this time.

It is quite unnecessary to trace the subsequent history of the development of this newly organized branch of our Church's activity, which will be amply narrated in the twenty-fifth anniversary. But this review of its origin will show that, notwithstanding the fact that the Board of Home Missions had been in existence since 1816 and a part of its work was the organizing of Sabbath-schools, the times required, and the Assembly decided to establish, an additional missionary department under separate management, employing missionaries and disseminating literature. That the field of operation was co-terminous with the boundaries of the Home Mission Board, under separate supervision and with the added duty of strengthening and fostering the Sabbath-schools in the whole Church.

"Destitute regions" were interpreted to mean not merely sparsely settled communities, but any community, even the densely populated cities, that was destitute of religious instruction.

The result of twenty-five years of Sunday-school Missions demonstrates that the work has a well-defined place in the heart of the benevolent givers, including the large multitudes in our schools; that the natural development of these schools is into churches, and the records show that some of our most flourishing churches owe their being to the successful planting of the Sabbath-school.

The judgment of the Commission is, that while the fields are identical, the work is not essentially the same; the qualifications for missionaries differ, the one requiring ministers, the other permitting laymen as workers; the aim of the one is the establishment of churches with a view to their permanence, self-support and self-propagation, while the primary aim of the other is the religious instruction and evangelization of the children and youth in all our churches. There is need for both agencies, and any absorption of one by the other would hinder the advancement of the common cause of taking possession of our land for Christ, and any combination of Committees in Synods and Presbyteries, that would tend to minimize or less effectually advance the cause of either, is not to be approved.

2. The next matter for consideration is, whether this cause can be best promoted under one control.

From numerous opinions it seems to your Committee that, whatever the future may develop, the time has not arrived for any authoritative action that would make it mandatory to combine these two agencies in the Presbyteries and Synods, but that each cause should be in the hands of its own representatives in the Committees of Presbytery and Synod. While there is much that is common to both Home Missions and Sabbath-school Missions, there is a distinctive mission for each that requires all the time and energy and expert knowledge of their most enthusiastic advocates.

3. It remains to consider whether any form of supervision can be secured which will provide for the greatest possible liberty in extending the work of Home Missions and Sabbath-school Missions, without overshadowing or lessening the importance of one cause over the other.

It is the judgment of the Commission that the closest and most cordial coöperation between both causes is desirable, to prevent duplicating work, and to secure economy in the use of means and men, and that under existing circumstances this is possible. It is to be remembered that the General Assembly (Minutes, p. 158) has approved the recommendation of the Executive Commission, "That the executive officers and secretaries of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work have two or more conferences each year with the executive officers and secretaries of the Board of Home Missions, Church Erection and Freedmen, in order to mutual understanding and coöperation with reference to missionary work; and in order to prevent duplication and friction in said missionary work."

The Executive Commission recommends that conferences between the Committees representing these causes in the Synods and Presbyteries be held, to provide for all ordinary cases. There is now added the organization of the Executive Commission of Presbyteries, whose primary function is the supervision of all the benevolent and missionary agencies, and the coördinating of all missionary operations. To this Commission, all differences of management could be referred and efficiency and economy secured.

In the event of this method's proving insufficient, it is always competent for the Presbytery to decide, bearing in mind a recognition of the fact that each Board has a distinctive mission, and in order to fulfill this mission on the field, there should be autonomy on the part of Committees of the Synod and Presbytery, and each cause must be represented by a Committee that understands and appreciates its work, and that it is in harmony with the aims of the Board, it being understood as a part of the plan of coöperation that, whenever, in the judgment of any Presbytery or Synod, the field has reached the Home Missions stage of Sunday-school work, the Sunday-school Board would withdraw its missionary work, but provision should be made for the prosecution of its educational work when necessary, even in such conditions.

The work of Sunday-school Missions was inaugurated to do a distinctive work of religious education among the children and youth in all of our churches, and to carry on a pioneer work in destitute regions. To secure these ends it is desirable, that the Board of Publication and Sunday School Work should have access to all destitute regions, and that its methods and management should remain, as originally constituted, under the supervision of its own committees in Presbyteries and Synods.

The Executive Commission expresses its judgment, that while the Presbyteries and Synods should study to unify the work within their bounds, looking toward the closest possible relation between the work of the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, each Board should be allowed to carry on its own work through its own Committee, and recommends that the General Assembly instruct these Boards to apply these principles in their relation to each other and to their work in the field.

In making the deliverance herein contained, the Executive Commission recognizes the fact that it is the constitutional right of Presbyteries and Synods to act in the matter of uniting these or any committees on the work of the Boards, as in their judgment local conditions demand.

VII. Committees on Religious Education.

While the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work has, since its first appointment, been in a very real sense a Board of Religious Education, its responsibilities and opportunities in this direction have greatly increased in recent years.

This has been due, in part, to the action of the General Assembly and, in part, to the action of the Board itself.

In 1906, the General Assembly assigned the supervision of the Young People's Work to this Board. In 1909, it gave to the Board the general supervision of its educational work among the children and youth of the Church. In 1911, it instructed its Special Committee on Religious Education, and the Board, to carry on together the work of religious education, and perfect a plan for the transfer of the entire work to the Board.

In response to these actions of the Assembly, the Board has created a Department of Young People's Work; has added an Educational Superintendent of Sabbath-school

Missions, thus giving an educational character to its missionary work; and is now collaborating with the Assembly's Committee on Religious Education, looking forward to assuming the entire work in the near future.

It will be seen from this that the Board is promoting the work of religious education in several directions—in the local church, in its missionary and educational work in the Church at large, and in caring for our young people.

It would seem to be a move in the direction of unity and efficiency, if Synods and Presbyteries, in appointing committees on the work of this Board, would take these facts into consideration.

At the present time there is more or less confusion in regard to the Board's Committees. In some Presbyteries there are three Committees—one on Religious Education, one on Sabbath-school Work and one on Young People's Work. Would it not be possible to consolidate these Committees into one, to be known as The Committee on Religious Education, and give this Committee charge of the general interests of Religious Education, together with the special duties that have heretofore been assigned to the Sabbath-school Committee and the Committee on Young People's Work? It is, therefore, suggested that the following recommendations be adopted:

1. It is recommended that Synods and Presbyteries appoint Standing Committees on Religious Education, to have charge of the interests of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work in their respective bodies.

2. These Committees shall promote the general interests of Religious Education, in the local church, in the missionary and educational work of the Board, and in the work that is being done for the young people.

VIII. Consolidation of Missionary Magazines.

The last General Assembly, on the recommendation of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, took action as follows:

"The Committee, recognizing with thankfulness the great work accomplished by the periodicals known as Woman's Work for Woman and The Home Mission Monthly, also acknowledging the ability with which The Assembly Herald is conducted, recommends, in view of the feeling which exists, and which finds expression in Overtures from so many Presbyteries, holding that the number of periodicals is excessive, and, further, in view of the large expense now incurred in giving to the Church missionary information and appeals, that the subject of the Overtures be referred to the Executive Commission, for consultation with the Woman's Missionary Boards and with the Boards of the Church, and for consolidation, if practicable, report to be made to the next General Assembly." (Minutes, 1911, p. 79.)

In obedience to this instruction, the Executive Commission has made an earnest effort to perform the duty assigned it. Interviews, by correspondence and in person, have been held with the Committee in charge of The Assembly Herald and with women officially engaged in issuing The Home Mission Monthly and Woman's Work. That a consensus of opinion might be obtained, letters of inquiry were sent to representatives of all our Church Boards and of the Women's Boards, and to a hundred or more Presbyterian men and women in different sections of our country, and the Overtures from sixty-two Presbyteries and the Synod of Montana were studied. The past history of the Church in its magazine efforts was considered, and, last of all, valuable information was obtained from a number of our sister denominations as to their solution of this problem, and for such counsel as their experience could give.

From these different sources the following conclusions have been reached:

1. Even under favorable circumstances it will be difficult to issue an acceptable union magazine. The Church, in general, is not nearly so hungry for missionary intelligence as it should be. Opinions differ as to the essentials of such a periodical, and there are many different interests to be regarded. It may seriously be questioned whether a desirable consolidation could be effected which would lessen "the large expense now incurred in giving to the Church missionary information and appeals." There is, however, wisely or unwisely, a growing desire for a consolidation of our missionary periodicals. The spirit of this age is one of fellowship, coöperation and concentration, and it is everywhere made manifest.

2. The circumstances do not seem favorable, at the present time, for the consolidation called for in the Presbyterial Overtures. The women's magazines are self-sustaining, and more. The Home Mission Monthly, for example, during the twenty-five years of its existence, has met every cent of expense by its subscription money and has turned into the Home Missionary treasury the handsome amount of $29,000. It is quite possible the story of the Woman's Work is equally praiseworthy. With such a unique history the Women's Boards, with whom this Commission was instructed to consult, are unanimous in the opinion that the proposed consolidation is untimely and unwise. Here and there are individual exceptions, but the general voice, as spoken to us, declares these periodicals can best carry on their work at home and abroad by remaining separate from the Church magazine.

When it is remembered that these two publications are not under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly, it will readily appear that the fullness of time has not come for the proposed consolidation.

3. The Committee of the Boards conducting The Assembly Herald are not in sympathy with the suggested merger, yet they will heartily coöperate when the women connected with their magazines are friendly to the proposal. They feel, for reasons that are apparent, the initiative should be with the women.

The Assembly Herald is issued at a remarkably reasonable price, especially in its club rates; it is faithfully conducted, but does not receive the loyal support to which it is entitled, and is attended with a yearly deficit. It carries out the instructions of the past Assemblies by giving its readers monthly information regarding all our benevolent agencies, and serves as a channel through which each of these can speak. While such a mission is desirable from certain standpoints, the Executive Commission has discovered a somewhat prevalent belief, that dividing The Assembly Herald into eight or more different departments, with stipulated space to be filled by each Board, making it an instructive compendium rather than a vigorous missionary magazine, detracts from its strength, and forbids its holding an eager place in the affection of its readers or of the Boards.

We offer the following recommendations:

1. That in the judgment of the General Assembly, the effort to consolidate The Assembly Herald, Woman's Work and The Home Mission Monthly into "one periodical which shall represent all the missionary and benevolent work of the Presbyterian Church," is not at the present time practicable.

2. The General Assembly heartily congratulates Woman's Work and The Home Mission Monthly, upon their honorable history, and the many women who have insured their success. We would mention the names—household names—of the two noble editors of these magazines, respectively, Miss Ellen C. Parsons and Mrs. Delos E. Finks, who retired from their activities during the past year, one to a needed rest here, and the other to the rest which remains to the people of God.

We congratulate these publications upon their present worth and works, and would respectfully ask the Women's Boards, under whose direction they are published, if the time is not rapidly ripening when they may be profitably and conveniently united, and with them, perhaps, the child's paper, Over Sea and Land, into one magazine, without any sacrifice to present efficiency.

3. We earnestly urge our people to give their loyal support to The Assembly Herald, "the official magazine of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., published for the purpose of giving information as to all the work of the Church carried on by the Boards." We express our appreciation of the faithfulness of the Committee having this publication in charge, and would ask them to take counsel with their own experience and judgment and inquire whether its structural form could not be wisely changed, making it more of a general missionary magazine without loss to the interests of any of our benevolent agencies.

IX. Purchasing Agent and General Treasurer.

Your Commission begs to report that it has not as yet been able to nominate a Purchasing Agent, and recommends that the appointment be held in abeyance for the present.

After careful consideration of the question of a Purchasing Agent, it was found that large phases of the matter had not as yet been fully considered.

Our Church, for one thing, is gathering and expending yearly for general missionary and benevolent purposes five and one-half millions of dollars.

For another thing, this is the day of the efficiency expert. Great enterprises are employing such experts to indicate to them the most efficient and economic methods of administration. And such administrations, on such advice, are being installed, to the profit of all concerned.

The Assembly also directed the Executive Commission to consider the matter of a General Treasurer.

In view, therefore, of the whole situation, it is recommended that the Executive Commission be empowered by the General Assembly to employ an efficiency expert, for such time as may be necessary, with the view of utilizing him, in coöperation with the Boards, in seeking to devise the very best methods of conducting our Church business in the manner most efficient and economical.

It is to be said, further, in support of this larger provision, that it would, if adopted, include the matter of the General Treasurer, as well as a Purchasing Agent, as a part of the above proposed plan.

As a matter of information, it is to be stated that the following resolution, unanimously adopted, was received from the representatives of the Boards, present at the Conference, March 14, 1912.

Resolved, That it is the judgment of the representatives of the Boards in Conference, March 14, 1912, that it is not wise to appoint a Purchasing Agent, and that this action be transmitted to the Executive Commission.

X. Ministerial Relief and the Sustentation Fund.

The Executive Commission was entrusted by the last General Assembly with the task of harmonizing the workings of the Board of Ministerial Relief and of the Sustentation Fund so that, in the words of the resolution of the last Assembly, "the work may be successfully done by both agencies, and peace and harmony may remain." The resolution of the General Assembly of 1911 is as follows:

"Be it Resolved, That the supplementary Report, involving Section 3 of the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, be referred to the Executive Commission, with power to act, and that the Board of Ministerial Relief and the Board of Sustentation Fund be instructed to appear before the Executive Commission and present their respective claims; and that the Executive Commission be instructed to arrange a plan of campaign by which there will be no conflict of the two Boards, no clashing of agents in the field, that the work may be done successfully by both agencies, and that peace and harmony may remain."

At a meeting of the Executive Commission, held in New York City, June 22, 1911, the relation between these two agencies was referred to a sub-committee consisting of Drs. Foulkes, Fulton and Little, with Ruling Elders Brown and Coulter, under the following resolution:

"Resolved, That under the general powers of the Commission as laid down by the General Assembly and in response to specific resolutions referred to the Commission by the last General Assembly concerning the raising of an endowment of $10,000,000 for Ministerial Relief, a Committee of five be appointed to consider such specific resolutions."

This Committee immediately took under advisement the matter referred to it and, during the year, held numerous conferences with representatives, reported fully to each meeting of the Executive Commission, and its final Report was unanimously adopted by the Commission and is herewith presented to the General Assembly.

The first step taken by the Executive Commission through its Committee was the sending out, to a number of representative ministers and laymen throughout the Church, a brief list of questions, the answers to which, it was felt, might throw light upon the situation. The replies were substantially unanimous in asserting that the present conditions were not to the best interest of the relief of our aged ministers and, furthermore, that the Church could not well afford to support two agencies.

In view of these replies (although not considered in any sense an official interpretation of the mind of the Church, yet recognized to be an indication of the trend of its thinking), the Commission, through its Committee, issued the following call signed by the Committee's Chairman to the representatives of the Board of Ministerial Relief and of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund:

"DEAR SIRS AND BRETHREN:

"Under the general powers of the Executive Commission, laid down by the General Assembly as follows:

"'a. To receive and consider the financial report of the several Boards or Permanent Agencies of the Church and such other related information as it may deem desirable, and report thereon to the Assembly.

"'b. To consider between the annual meetings of the General Assembly cases of serious embarrassment or emergency concerning the benevolent, missionary or other work of the Church and to provide practical methods of relief. (Both of the above from the action of the General Assembly, Minutes, 1908.)

"'c. To inquire into the methods of work of the Boards and Permanent Committees of the Assembly of the Church and to recommend such changes in their methods as it may deem necessary to promote efficient administration of the Budget Plan.

"'d. To advise the Boards and Permanent Committees of the Assembly of the Church in the adoption of plans for harmonizing and unifying the benevolent and missionary work of the Church, and to recommend to the General Assembly, at any of its annual meetings, for its adoption, such acts, rules and resolutions as in its judgment will increase the general efficiency of such benevolent and missionary work.' (All of the above from the action of the General Assembly, Minutes, 1909.)

"And, further, under the authority and direction of a specific resolution of the General Assembly of 1911, which is as follows:

"'Be it Resolved, That the supplementary Report, involving Section 3 of the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, be referred to the Executive Commission with power to act, and that the Board of Ministerial Relief and the Board of Sustentation Fund be instructed to appear before the Executive Commission and present their respective claims; and that the Executive Commission be instructed to arrange a plan of campaign by which there will be no conflict of the two Boards, no clashing of agents in the field, that the work may be done successfully by both agencies and that peace and harmony may remain.'

"The Executive Commission at a meeting in New York, June 22, 1911, adopted the following resolution:

"'Resolved, That under the general powers of the Commission, as laid down by the General Assembly and in response to specific resolutions referred to the Commission by the last General Assembly concerning the raising of an endowment of $10,000,000 for Ministerial Relief, a Committee of five be appointed to consider such specific resolutions.'

"And further, the Executive Commission appointed the following named persons as a Sub-committee, viz.: Rev. Drs. Foulkes, Fulton and Little, with Ruling Elders Brown and Coulter.

"In behalf, therefore, of the Commission and of its Sub-committee, I would respectfully request at your hands:

"1. That any and all documents, papers and communications which, in your judgment, have bearing upon the matter committed to the Commission by the last General Assembly, and which you desire to have brought to the attention of the Commission, be promptly forwarded to me. I would suggest that the written exhibit include a copy of your charter, rules and regulations, leaflets, roll of participants in the Fund, etc., etc.

"2. That you appoint representatives, the number and personnel to be determined by yourselves, to appear before the Committee, July 18, in Philadelphia, and to make such oral presentation of your cause as may seem wise to you, etc., etc."

Pursuant to this call, a meeting was held in Philadelphia, July 18, with representatives of each agency, at which the substance of the information received by the Commission through its correspondence was outlined and a full discussion had concerning the harmonizing of the work of these two agencies.

As a result of this conference, the Executive Commission, at a meeting held in Spring Lake, N. J., on August 1, 1911, after hearing representatives from these two agencies, unanimously adopted among others the following resolutions:

a. That the Sub-committee on Ministerial Relief and Sustentation be given further time and full authority to consider and report, at the next meeting of the Executive Commission, the general relations between the Board of Ministerial Relief and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund.

b. That it take into account:

1. The advisability of maintaining two separate agencies for the cause of Ministerial Sustentation and Relief.

2. That the Board of Relief, with its present resources and methods, is inadequate to meet the whole situation.

3. The advisability of formulating a plan which shall be comprehensive enough to include (a) the work now carried on by the Board of Relief, and (b) that of permitting those ministers who so desire to make regular payments during a prescribed period of years.

In accordance with this action of the Commission, the Sub-committee on Ministerial Relief and Sustentation gave further consideration to the matters under discussion, and at length reached the unanimous conclusion that the only way to comply effectively with the resolutions of the General Assembly, and to serve the largest interests of the sacred cause of Relief underlying both these agencies, would be to recommend to the Commission and to the Assembly a definite Plan of Coöperation or Federation, which would safeguard the interests of each agency; whereupon, after several conferences and most careful consideration, a plan was presented, which was unanimously approved by the Executive Commission. The plan, however, owing to certain circumstances referred to further on, was again considered, conference was had at Louisville, Ky., with the parties interested, and the plan as amended is recommended to the General Assembly for adoption, as follows:

(A) The following substitution for the plan which is published on pp. 153 and 154 of the "Blue Book" of 1912.

(B) The following resolutions, by means of which the plan may be put into immediate effect as a substitution for resolutions on pp. 155 and 156 of the "Blue Book" of 1912.

(A) The Plan.—Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America hereby approves and adopts the plan of Combination of the Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as prepared by the Executive Commission, and which is as follows:

(1) That the number of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund be reduced from fifteen to twelve, and the same persons be elected members of the Presbyterian Board of Relief and Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, who shall administer these two departments, viz.:

a. The Relief Department of the Church, which shall continue the work now done under the Board of Relief.

b. The Sustentation Department of the Church, which shall continue the work now done under the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, and shall, under the charter of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, pay to all annuitants the annuity purchasable by their contributions to the Fund, plus the annuity purchasable by their pro rata share in the increments of all other contributions to Fund, the maximum amount of the total annuity to be $500.

(2) That the policy of the General Assembly be to provide for all ministers a definite pension or annuity, based upon the period of service rendered, payments made and other conditions similar to those set forth in the Ministerial Sustentation Fund; that in order to accomplish this policy it shall be the rule of the General Assembly that all ministers of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America be encouraged to identify themselves with the Sustentation Department.

(3) That the policy of the General Assembly be that the Relief Department of the Church provide for all ministers as they become disabled, who have not identified themselves with the Sustentation Department; or whose necessities require additional relief to that obtained from the Sustentation Department, provided the aggregate amount of relief shall not exceed $500.

(4) That the policy of the General Assembly be a. That all churches shall be expected to contribute annually to the Board of Ministerial Relief.

b. That a Church-wide movement be carefully planned and inaugurated to secure a sum of not less than $10,000,000 as a permanent endowment fund, to be divided between the two departments, according to the designation of the donors.

The Executive Commission calls attention to the following facts in reference to the above Plan of Combination:

1. It leaves intact the charters, rules, funds and functions of each of the two agencies.

2. It provides for ministers who are now aged and disabled and for those who shall become such.

3. It outlines a comprehensive plan for the future, whereby the element of "partial payment" toward one's own relief is amply provided for, and at the same time without in any way lessening the obligations of the Church to care for those who cannot provide even, in part, for their own disability, or for their dependents.

4. It confronts every young man seeking ordination at the hands of the Church, with the solemn and sacred expectation of the Church that he shall begin at once to provide for his own old age or for his dependents, by making regular contributions during the time of his active ministry.

5. It enables the Presbyterian Church to give its united thought and support to the great and urgent need of providing for her aged and disabled ministers, and challenges the Church graciously to bestow its bountiful gifts and to enlarge its provision for its faithful servants.

The Commission respectfully reports to the Assembly that the Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund approved both the original and the amended Plans, and has signified its readiness to enter into hearty coöperation. The Commission also reports that the Board of Ministerial Relief reported at first that it found itself unable to approve the Plan.

The grounds upon which the Board of Relief found itself unable to approve the Plan were twofold: (1) That the Commission was exceeding its authority in suggesting any Plan of Coöperation, under the action of the last General Assembly, and that it should have confined itself to efforts to assist the Board of Relief in raising $10,000,000 endowment; (2) Certain provisions in the present Plan of the Sustentation Fund.

The Executive Commission respectfully represents to the General Assembly that it has no desire to exceed the authority given to it by the Assembly, and regards itself only as an agent of the General Assembly, appointed to bring about harmonious relations between these two agencies. It further submits to the General Assembly that its conviction grows deeper, with continued consideration, that the only way to accomplish the desire of the General Assembly, and to meet the situation in the Church at large, was by such coöperation of these agencies as is outlined in the above Plan. The Commission further found that it was impossible to secure the consent of representative men to act as a Committee of seven to assist in raising an endowment of $10,000,000 for the Board of Relief. While the Commission does not interpret its functions as that of initiating matters to be presented to the Assembly, it respectfully submits, that under the direction of the General Assembly of 1908, which authorized it, prescribing its duties and powers, and in view of the task laid upon it by the last General Assembly, of "arranging a plan of campaign by which there will be no conflict of the two Boards, no clashing of agents in the field, that the work may be done successfully by both agencies and that peace and harmony may remain," the Executive Commission has not exceeded its authority in suggesting a plan of coöperation. As to the second ground upon which the Board of Relief expresses its unwillingness to coöperate in the Plan proposed by the Commission, viz., certain provisions in the present Plan of the Sustentation Fund, the Commission respectfully represents that it has secured expert legal opinion to the effect, that there are no legal difficulties or hindrances in the way of the proposed Plan of Federation or Combination of the two agencies so as to be operated by one Board of Directors. Furthermore, that should there be need for any provision or change, the new Board of Directors would, in due time, discover just what changes or modifications were necessary, and such revision could be readily accomplished by the authority of the General Assembly.

(B) The Details of Putting the Plan into Immediate Effect.— Should the plan of Combination be approved by the General Assembly, in order to make it operative, we recommend:

1. That the Executive Commission be empowered to do any and all things that may be necessary to put the plan into effect.

2. That the Executive Commission be empowered to secure, on behalf of the General Assembly, the resignations of all the members of the "Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers," and of all the Directors of the "Ministerial Sustentation Fund," their resignations to take effect July 18, 1912.

3. That the Executive Commission be empowered and directed to nominate to the General Assembly twelve persons as members of the "Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers" and of "The Ministerial Sustentation Fund," and that in making these nominations adequate representation be given to the membership of each of the agencies concerned, as well as from the Church at large.

4. That when the Executive Commission shall have nominated these twelve persons to the General Assembly, they shall be elected by the General Assembly as members of the said Board of Relief, and that they shall be nominated by the Assembly to the members of the Sustentation Fund as Directors of said Ministerial Sustentation Fund.

5. That when the General Assembly shall have elected and nominated these twelve persons as members of the said Board of Ministerial Relief and Directors of said Ministerial Sustentation Fund, that the plan of combination hereinbefore presented shall become of full effect, and that the said twelve men elected and nominated as members of the said Board of Relief and as Directors of the said Ministerial Sustentation Fund shall meet in Philadelphia, on July 11, 1912, for organization, and they are instructed and empowered to do any and all things necessary, in coöperation with the Executive Commission, to put the said plan into full effect under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania and under the rules of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

6. That the General Assembly direct the Executive Commission to secure the resignations above authorized by requesting the telegraphic reply of those whose resignations are asked, and by forwarding to them with the request the following resolution:

That in asking for the resignations of the present members of the Board of Relief, etc., and of the Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, the General Assembly is not lacking in any degree in appreciation of the faithful and self-sacrificing devotion of these brethren to their respective trusts, but because of a conviction that it is wise to create a new Board of Directors, who shall feel that they have been elected for the specific purpose of inaugurating the plan to combine two causes in harmonious coöperation. At the same time, the General Assembly has sought to conserve the best interests of each cause by selecting the new Directors in large part from men who have been identified with these two causes in their separate operations.

XI. Revision of the Rules of the Board of Church Erection.

The General Assembly of 1911 referred to the Executive Commission, with power to act, the Overtures of certain Presbyteries, requesting the General Assembly to make such changes in the rules of the Board of Church Erection as will permit it

First: To grant aid to secure sites for church buildings.

Second: To meet the needs in extraordinary cases where the need is established to the satisfaction of the Board.

The General Assembly, by a subsequent action, instructed the Board of Church Erection to revise its rules, under the direction of the Executive Commission.

In carrying out the instructions of the General Assembly, your Commission has made a careful study of the Charter of the Board of Church Erection and the several amendments made thereto and has reached certain conclusions.

I. CONCERNING THE CHARTER.

A. The Charter of 1855:

The act of incorporation of the Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was passed on March 31, 1855, in which it is stated that the Church Erection Fund was established for the purpose of aiding feeble congregations in connection with the said General Assembly, in the erection of houses of worship.

By Article 3 of the act of incorporation, the trustees have the management and disposition of the affairs and funds of the Church Erection Fund for the purpose aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the Plan adopted by the said General Assembly.

The Plan referred to is the one adopted by the General Assembly of 1854, and consists of sixteen Articles.

Article 1:

"This Fund having been committed to the General Assembly as a special trust, no part of it as now established, nor any additions which may hereafter be made to it, shall ever be used for any other purpose than that of aiding feeble congregations in connection with the General Assembly in erecting houses of worship; except so much as may be absolutely necessary to defray the expenses incident to the administration of this Plan."

Article 16 of this Plan declares:

"That the first Article shall admit of no alteration or amendment, but the other Articles of the Plan may be changed by any future General Assembly, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the members whose names have been entered upon the roll."

B. (1) The Act of Incorporation amended March 27, 1871.

The object of this amendment was, to increase the number of the Trustees of the Board of Church Erection from nine to twenty-one, giving an opportunity to place upon the Board a certain number of Trustees who should represent the West and be located in the West. This amendment came about through the proposed union of the Church Erection Fund of New York and the Board of Church Extension of St. Louis.

In the plan of union as adopted in 1870, the Board of Church Erection was expected to get an Amended Charter whereby the number of Trustees should be increased from nine to twenty-one. Second, that fifteen members, seven ministers and eight laymen, should reside in the City of New York and its vicinity. And, third, that six members of this Board, three ministers and three laymen, should be chosen from the West.

The object of having Trustees upon the Board representing the West was stated in the plan of union:

First: Because the Board of Church Erection held certain properties temporarily located in Missouri, which required local supervision.

Second: That it seemed desirable that the Board should have Western representatives on the ground who may secure grants of land which are so freely offered for church purposes by railroad and town companies throughout the West.

(2) Further amended May 16, 1886. .

By this amended Charter the purposes for which the Board of Church Erection was established were enlarged. The amended Charter of 1886 says:

"For the purpose of aiding feeble congregations in connection with the said General Assembly in erecting houses of worship and manses, and also of aiding in the establishment of schools and chapels among the exceptional populations of Mormons, Indians and Spanish-speaking people in the United States."

This amended Charter seems to have originated with the Board of Church Erection as early as 1879, when the Board of Church Erection overtured the General Assembly as follows:

"That, in view of the importance of establishing schools and building chapels in Utah, New Mexico and Alaska, the 'plan of governing the Board' may be amended, so that the 'Supplementary Fund' may be made available for the building of chapels as well as of churches, and also for authority to effect such a change in the character of the said Board as shall enable them to engage in the work of chapel building."

The Supplementary Fund referred to in the above Overture of the Board of Church Erection was created in 1866 and was to consist of the yearly interest of the Permanent Fund, together with such sums as should be raised by annual contributions of the churches. By this Overture and by the securing of the amended Charter, the Board of Church Erection recognized that by the favorable action of the General Assembly and of the State of New York, it was possible for the Board to do a broader work than could be done under the original Plan of 1854, without such modifications of the Plan by ecclesiastical and State action.

(3) Further Amendment of the Charter April 6, 1908.

This amended Charter gives the power to the General Assembly, at pleasure, to increase the number of the directors of the Church Erection Fund. After mentioning the names of twenty-one directors, the amended Charter goes on to state:

"And such other or additional persons as the General Assembly of the said Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. has designated or may hereafter, at any of its stated meetings, designate for such purpose."

II. CONCLUSIONS.

The careful study of the Charter of the Board of Church Erection and its various amendments, leads the Executive Commission to the following conclusions:

First: That the membership of the Board of Trustees of the Church Erection Fund should not be limited to those living in New York and its vicinity, but that it is very important that there should be a representation, upon the Board, of men living in the West.

Second: That the funds of the Board should be kept in two well-defined classes:

"1. Those funds that are distinctly limited by Article 1 of the Original Plan of the Board of Church Erection as approved by the General Assembly of 1854.

"2. All other funds of the Board, which, under the direction of the General Assembly, can be used without limitations by the Board of Church Erection in furthering the ends, in the most efficient manner, for which said Board is established."

Third: The Rules of the Board of Church Erection should be waived at the request of the Board of Church Erection, approved by the action of General Assembly.

We call attention in this connection to the action of previous General Assemblies:

(a) Pacific Coast Cases of 1906:

"In view of the recent calamity upon the Pacific Coast, which has destroyed many church buildings and in large measure impoverished congregations, your Committee recommends that in making grants or loans to aid in rebuilding these churches, the Board be permitted, at its discretion, to waive the rule in regard to the proportionate amount of aid to be extended."

(b) Manses for Porto Rico Missionaries:

"Your Committee also recommends that in the case of loans to aid in providing manses for our missionaries upon the island of Porto Rico, the Board, in cases where such action seems necessary to secure the needed homes, be permitted also to exercise its discretion in regard to the proportion of the entire cost to be advanced."

(c) 1907—To meet Cumberland Presbyterian Church Needs:

"That, in view of the peculiar situation that has arisen out of the recent consummated union with the Cumberland Church, the General Assembly recommends that the Board construe its rules as liberally as possible, in order that it may aid churches temporarily embarrassed in the erection of their houses of worship.

(d) Chapels for Foreign-speaking Peoples:

"That, in order that our missionaries to our foreign-speaking peoples may have some suitable places for holding religious services, the Board of Church Erection be urged to devise, if possible, some plan to secure special funds, by means of which it can furnish the Presbyteries desiring them cheap temporary chapels, built on the knock-down plan, which can be moved from camp to camp, as the exigencies of the case demand."

(e) 1908—Extraordinary Grant for Town of Gary:

"The Board reports an application from the new town of Gary, Ind., for an extraordinary grant of $5,000. This is the town referred to upon the twelfth page of the Board's Report. In view of the very exceptional nature of the case, namely, the planting, by the Steel Company, of a town in which, within a year, will be gathered thousands of workmen, and which is expected to have, within five years, a population of 50,000, the Board asks permission to make the above exceptional grant and to be permitted, after receiving a bond providing for a mortgage as soon as deed is perfected, to advance installments upon the grant as the work proceeds, such installments at no time to exceed the amounts provided otherwise at the same dates for the building.

"That the request of the Board for authority to extend aid to the church in Gary, Ind., be granted upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Board's request."

(f) Chapels for Foreign Population:

"That the Board be authorized to aid, upon their usual terms and conditions, the larger churches, in providing chapels for the foreign populations which they seek to reach."

(g) 1910—Seattle Overture:

"That the Overture from the Presbytery of Seattle, requesting the Board of Church Erection to establish, in conjunction with Presbyteries and other organizations, a Church Extension Fund, be approved, with certain amendments, as follows:

"The Board of Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. is hereby authorized to establish, in conjunction with Presbyteries and other organizations, a Church Extension Fund, for buying lots and further assisting in erecting church edifices within their own territory, beyond what is generally given or loaned by the Board, provided special funds for such purpose can be procured, the same to be repaid at the rate of 10 per cent. per year to the Trustees of the Fund; the administration of the Fund to be in the hands of the Presbyteries or other organizations, and the title of the Fund in each case to be in the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; the proportion to be raised on the field, in no case, being less than one-half of such special fund.

(h) In 1909, Restrictions Removed:

"The Recommendations of the Standing Committee on the Board of Church Erection for the year 1909.

The General Assembly approved of Recommendation No. 9, which is as follows:

"To recommend that the restrictions now imposed upon this Board be removed:

"(a) As to the cost of church buildings in the erection of which the Board may assist.

"(b) As to the time when this assistance may be given."

III. RECOMMENDATIONS.

The Executive Commission has also had conferences with the Board of Church Erection over the entire matter of the Revision of the Rules, and has also had conference concerning the granting of aid to the church at Reno, Nevada, in a larger sum than that permitted by the rules of the Board.

The Commission believes that there should be such a revision of the present rules governing the Board of Church Erection as will enable it to exercise its best judgment in carrying on the work which has been specially committed to it, without its being necessary for the Board to come, year by year, to the General Assembly and ask for the waiving of the rules governing the Board, to meet the emergencies of special cases.

In harmony with this conviction, the Executive Commission, through its Sub-committee, has had four conferences with the Board of Church Erection on the subject of the revision of the rules and kindred subjects, and at the last conference, as a compromise measure between the Committee representing the Executive Commission and the Committee representing the Board of Church Erection, the following paper was unanimously approved:

"The Assembly recognizes the faithful and efficient service of the Board of Church Erection, under the rules which the Assembly, from time to time has provided for the Board's guidance; but believing that the time has come for modifying these rules and limitations imposed by the Assembly, and under which the Board has hitherto acted, now in order to enable the Board to meet the reasonable requirements of exceptional cases it is resolved as follows:

"That whilst the rules heretofore restricting the action of the Board, and formulated by the various Assemblies, are wise and judicious in themselves and have been wisely and faithfully administered by the Board, and believing that they should be continued in general as the Code of Rules for the future action of the Board, yet for the purpose of assisting the Board to deal with cases where the fulfillment of the conditions heretofore required by the Assembly's rules is believed by the Board to be unwise or impossible to carry into effect, the Board of the Church Erection Fund is hereby authorized in such cases to use its discretion in making loans or grants from the income of the fund now or hereafter in the treasury of the Board, for securing lots, and erecting chapels and houses of worship, under such conditions or rules as shall seem to it wise; but this permission shall not be taken as the ordinary, but as an exceptional rule for the Board's action.

"Be it further Resolved, that whilst the Board should not run in debt, yet it is expected by the Assembly that the yearly interest on its funds shall be carefully and fully placed on church or manse properties, after deducting the ordinary expenses of the Board therefrom."

The Executive Commission recommends:

1. That the General Assembly approve the preceding statement and adopt its recommendations as the action of the General Assembly.

2. That the General Assembly, under the authority conferred upon it by the amended Charter of the Board of Church Erection, elect six additional members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., to be chosen, under the terms of the Charter, from the West, and that the Standing Committee on Church Erection of this Assembly be instructed to nominate to the Assembly six persons for such election.

3. That the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. is hereby authorized and directed, if the way be legally clear, to set apart from the moneys received from the John S. Kennedy Estate, $500,000, to constitute the John S. Kennedy Loan Fund, to be loaned to churches subject to the rules which now control the Loan Fund, or such as may be established by the General Assembly, and that the Executive Commission be authorized and directed to act with the said Board of Church Erection Fund in the preparation of such Rules.

4. That the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. be, and is hereby authorized and directed to make investments of its fund, known as the John S. Kennedy Fund, if the way be legally clear, in loans to the Presbyterian Churches in connection with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., upon such security as in the judgment of the Board is sufficient to fully secure the same.

5. That the action of the General Assembly of 1910, so far as it conflicts with these resolutions, is hereby rescinded.

6. That the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. be, and is hereby authorized in its discretion to place church contributions, legacies and other gifts of money received by it which are not otherwise designated, into a fund that, in distinction from the General Fund, shall be known as the Special Fund, which may be used by the Board, as part of its regular work, for the purchase of sites for the erection of church buildings in special and exceptional cases arising from applications from feeble churches connected with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

7. That the Executive Commission be empowered to do any and all things necessary to secure the full carrying out of this action of the Assembly.

8. That the General Assembly reminds the churches and Presbyteries that the demands on the Church Erection Fund are likely to be largely increased to meet the pressing needs of our rapidly expanding population, and that the Board of the Church Erection Fund will have a most delicate and difficult task to determine the just distribution of the funds at their disposal, which will be far from adequate to satisfy all the reasonable appeals which will come to them; and that the General Assembly, furthermore, urges all churches and Presbyteries to use the utmost care and wisdom in considering the entire national situation, and in exercising forbearance from pressing unduly their local interests, in the hope that further contributions from our churches and gifts and bequests from individual benefactors may be received, to increase the ability of the Church Erection Fund to meet the grave situation that confronts our Church, in its efforts towards an expansion commensurate with the nation's growth.

9. That the General Assembly hereby authorizes and empowers the Board of the Church Erection Fund to employ a Field Secretary in the general interest of that Board.

XII. Conferences with the Boards.

The General Assembly of 1911 took action, establishing an Official Conference composed of representatives of the Boards and of the Executive Commission, and also constituting a Joint Executive Committee of five, for the general oversight of the work decided upon at the meetings of such Conference. So much of the action of the Assembly of 1911 as is necessary to make clear the purposes of the Conference and the duties of the Joint Executive Committee is quoted as follows:

"1. There shall be a Conference of representatives of the Boards and of the Executive Commission, which shall meet at least once a year. This Conference shall be composed of representatives selected by each of the Boards, and the Committee on Temperance, who shall constitute one party, and the Budget Committee of the Executive Commission, or such other Commissioners as the Executive Commission may elect, who shall constitute the other party. The number of representatives each shall select is left indefinite for the present. In deliberation, the voting shall be by the representatives present; but when called for, the Boards shall vote as units and the Commission as a unit, or the Boards and the Commission shall vote and agree or disagree as the two parties.

"2. The general oversight of the work of the Conference shall be under an Executive Committee of five, two representing the Budget Committee of the Executive Commission, and three representing the Boards; one from the Foreign Board, one from the Home Board, and one from the other Boards.

"3. The purposes to be kept in view are: first, the efficient prosecution of efforts to commend the adoption of an every-member-weekly-pledge system of securing benevolent offerings from the churches, and to extend such aid as may be desired and practicable to pastors and church officers who wish to have the system inaugurated; second, to promote the realization of the appropriations annually made by the General Assembly and apportioned to the Presbyteries, by such methods as have heretofore been effected and by such other methods as, in the judgment of the (Joint) Executive Committee, may give promise of effectiveness; and, third, to promote, as far as may be possible, a spirit of the broadest missionary interest, and of such consecrated and courageous giving as shall enable the Church to meet its full missionary duty at home and abroad."

Two Conferences were held during the year—one on June 22, 1911, and the other on March 14, 1912, both in the city of New York. The Executive Commission decided to attend in a body, and there was a full attendance both of members of the Commission and of the representatives of the Boards, secretaries and members. The various subjects discussed at each of the Conferences are indicated by the headings of the several resolutions adopted thereat, all of which are submitted to the General Assembly for its approval and confirmation. The subjects are arranged for each Conference separately.

I. CONFERENCE, JUNE 23, 1911.

The official Conference, June 23, 1911, had to do chiefly with the organization of the work of the Joint Executive Committee, which had been authorized as an agency by the Assembly of 1911, to represent both the Boards and the Executive Commission. The representaives chosen by the Boards were the Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., Rev. John Dixon, D.D., and Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D.; and of the Executive Commission, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., and Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D. The Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D., served until March 14, 1912, and then resigned because of his pastoral responsibilties, and the Rev. William P. Fulton, D.D., was appointed in his place. The Executive Secretary of the Executive Commission, Rev. William H. Hubbard, D.D., was made the Secretary of this Joint Executive Committee. The Report of said Committee, made through its Secretary, will be found as part XIII of this Report.

The purposes of the Conferences are stated in the action of the General Assembly of 1911, and in furtherance thereof the following Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That one uniform every-member-pledge system be adopted for all the Boards. Where a Session, Presbytery or Synod desires the assistance of any Board or permanent agency in securing special benevolent offerings for such Board or agency, it will not be considered a violation of this plan for such Board or agency to render assistance at the request of the Session, Presbytery or Synod, provided reports of such cases be made to the Joint Executive Committee for its information.

Resolved, 2. That the Executive Committee of this Conference be instructed to carry out the budget system as widely as possible and as economically as is consistent with efficiency, through coöperation with the pastors and Sessions of the Churches, with the Executive Commissions of the Presbyteries and Synods, and with the agents in the field of the various Boards and Permanent Agencies.

Resolved, 3. That it is the sense of the Executive Commission, that the Joint Executive Committee of the Conference of Boards and Executive Commission should temporarily employ Rev. A. F. McGarrah as Field Agent, who shall work under the direction of the Joint Executive Committee just referred to, and under the direction of the Executive Secretary of the Executive Commission.

Resolved, 4. That all men commissioned by any Board or Agency commissioning such men, are not to limit their plans and appeals for missionary offerings to the Board or Agency they represent, but shall always have regard to the entire budget.

Resolved, 5. That all the field agents of the several Boards and Agencies be instructed by their several Boards and Agencies, to coöperate with the Joint Executive Committee by regular reports to the Joint Executive Committee, concerning the working out of the budget plan in their respective territories; or, if more convenient, that all men commissioned by any Board or Agencies for general work be required to include in their monthly reports to their Boards or Agencies, any work they may have done in spreading the budget idea among the churches in connection with their regular work. and that so much of these monthly reports as bear upon the budget be sent by the Boards or Agencies to the Secretary of the Joint Executive Committee.

Resolved, 6. That the Joint Executive Committee report to this Conference and to the Executive Commission at stated times the methods and results of its operation.

In addition to the above resolutions, provision was made for the representation of the Boards of the Church and the Executive Commission at the meetings of the Synods, with the understanding that the representatives of the Boards would be free to present at any time during the sessions of the Synods, such phases of the work of the Boards as any Synod might desire.

The form of a pledge card for subscriptions was also adopted, and a letter to the Sessions of the churches.

The following resolution as to itineraries by the Moderator was adopted:

Resolved, That it is the judgment of this Conference that the Moderator of the Assembly should be invited and enabled to make at least two extensive tours of our churches during the current fiscal year, the chief end in view to be a presentation of the forward united movement of the Church in its benevolences, and that the Joint Executive Committee of this Conference be authorized in conference with the Moderator to make arrangements for such tours, the expenses to be apportioned by the Joint Executive Committee to the several Boards.

II. CONFERENCE, MARCH 14, 1912.

The recommendations adopted at this second Official Conference and submitted to the General Assembly for its approval are arranged under the following heads: (1) The Joint Executive Committee. (2) The Budget and the Boards. (3) The Budget and the Churches. (4) Miscellaneous.

1. Joint Executive Committee.

Resolved, 1. That the work in the interest of the Budget, now carried on under the direction of the Joint Executive Committee, be continued for another year.

Resolved, 2. That the Permanent Agencies set apart a sum of $12,000 for this work, for the Church year 1912–1913, to be drawn upon by the Joint Executive Committee during the year according as the needs arise. If, owing to unforeseen emergencies, additional sums are required above the amount recommended, permission should be obtained by the Committee from the Executive Commission and the various Permanent Agencies for such additional sums.

Resolved, 3. That the relation of the Joint Executive Committee to the Executive Commission and the General Assembly, with a view to the proper presentation of the work of the Committee to the Assembly, be as follows.

WHEREAS, The Joint Executive Committee has been duly constituted by the authority of the General Assembly to represent and efficiently to serve all the Benevolent Agencies of the Church, as well as the Executive Commission, in the work of promoting the Budget Plan of benevolences throughout the entire Church, and

WHEREAS, The Joint Executive Committee is the executive agent of the Conference of such Benevolent Agencies and the Executive Commission, entrusted by both with the detailed task of promoting the Budget Plan, therefore Resolved, 4. That on the advice of the Official Conference of the Benevolent Agencies of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and the Executive Commission, the General Assembly reapproves the constitution and work of the Official Conference and of its Joint Executive Committee, and authorizes and directs said Joint Executive Committee to make a full and complete report of all its proceedings and work to the Joint Conference of the Boards and the Executive Commission, at a meeting to be held before each General Assembly, and that the Joint Conference submit a full report of its proceedings and work, including that of the Joint Executive Committee, to the Executive Commission, and that the Executive Commission, include this in its report to the General Assembly for its approval.

Resolved, 5. That the membership of the Joint Executive Committee be increased by one member who shall be the Moderator of the Assembly, and who shall serve as a member and the Chairman of the Joint Executive Committee for the year during which he is Moderator.

2. The Budget and the Boards.

(a) General:

Resolved, 1. We recommend that financial work in connection with the Budget, so far as church collections are concerned, should be done through Synodical and Presbyterial committees working with the Joint Executive Committee. The Permanent Agencies should be responsible, through their own agents and committees, for all educational and inspirational work. This recommendation is to be interpreted by Resolution No. 5, of the action constituting the Joint Executive Committee, and Resolutions Nos. 1 and 5 of the Joint Conference of June, 1911. (See p. 246.)

Resolved, 2. That it is indispensable to the best interests of the life and work of the Church and to the success of the Budget Plan, that each Board should have the fullest and freest educational access to the Church, and that it would be injurious and intolerable to limit the right or duty of each Board, working harmoniously with all the other Boards, to supply the Church with the fullest information about its work, to carry on the most effective educational propaganda in its power, and to maintain direct relations with the Synods, Presbyteries and particular churches.

Resolved, 3. That in carrying out the Budget Plan, the integrity of the Presbyterial Committees should be maintained, so that the Boards may continue to have direct communication with the churches through Committees representing them severally, and that the Plan does not sever the existing financial relations of any of the Boards or Agencies, with the Synodical and Presbyterial Committees entrusted with their interests respectively.

(b) Preparation of the Budget:

Resolved, 4. That in the preparation of the budget, to be presented to the Assembly, full consideration be given to the needs of the Boards, as may be discovered by the Executive Commission after the fullest conference with them, as well as to the actual gifts of the churches as realized in the experience of the Boards, thus establishing both a basis and a goal for the Budget.

Resolved, 5. That the Boards be requested to report to the Executive Commission at a time to be named by the Commission an estimate of what can reasonably be expected in the way of receipts during the next year, and a statement of reasons which have led them to their conclusions; and that after such a report, a conference be held between the Executive Commission and each Board, before the Budget is finally approved by the Executive Commission for submission to the General Assembly.

(c) Meaning of Conference:

Resolved, 6. That the "Conference" that is desirable between the Executive Commission and the Boards, in case of questions affecting all the Boards, is such a Conference of the Executive Commission with the representatives of the Boards as was held June 23, 1911, and March 14, 1912. In the case of urgent questions which arise at such times that decision cannot be deferred for such a general conference, and in the case of questions which affect only particular Boards, the "Conference" should be either between the Executive Commission and the separate Boards concerned, or between an accredited Committee of the Executive Commission and an accredited Committee appointed for this purpose by the Board or Boards concerned after due advance notice to said Board or Boards.

(d) Special Days:

Resolved, 7. That the advisability of maintaining the custom of the observance of special days, as now set apart in the Sunday-schools in behalf of certain Boards is reaffirmed, while recognizing at the same time the necessity of making provision in the Sunday-schools for systematic offerings for all the permanent agencies of the Church. This is a matter of instruction in the work of the Boards, as well as of effort in behalf of the benevolences to the Boards.

(e) Special Appeals:

WHEREAS, Certain communications have been received from the Church at large, stating that special appeals for collections from the churches are being made by certain of the Benevolent Agencies of our Church, and

WHEREAS, The Joint Executive Committee, representing not only the spirit of the United Forward Movement, but the specific instructions of the Assembly, has consistently disapproved such appeals, and

WHEREAS, The Joint Executive Committee definitely informed the Church that the adoption of the Budget Plan would preclude any special appeals from our Benevolent Agencies for Church offerings.

Resolved, 8. That the General Assembly counsels all of the Benevolent Agencies of the Church to refrain from any special appeals for Church offerings that will interfere with the most complete operation of the Budget,

(f) Synodical Visitation:

Resolved, 9. That the Executive Commission is hereby empowered to take such steps as may be necessary to authorize the Joint Executive Committee to secure an adequate presentation to Synods during their business sessions, of the Budget plan in the interest of all Boards.

3. The Budget and the Churches.

Resolved, 1. That the attention of the churches is called to the distinction between the contributions as given in the Minutes of the General Assembly, and the contributions as given in the official Reports of the Boards, and to the fact that the Budget is based on the latter.

Resolved, 2. That the Sessions and Trustees of the churches be asked to call a joint meeting, at their convenience, to determine their Budget for local support and benevolences for the ensuing Church year, in accordance with the action of the General Assembly of 1911, p. 193.

Resolved, 3. That the Sessions of all our churches be asked to secure statements from their treasurers of all receipts and disbursements of benevolences, properly audited, prior to the report of the Sessions to the Presbyteries, and that such statements be made part of the Minutes of the Sessions.

Resolved, 4. That the Joint Executive Committee secure from the Session of each church the name and address of some representative man in each congregation with whom, as well as with the pastor, it may communicate on all matters concerning the plans and work of the Joint Conference.

Resolved, 5. That the Boards, the Presbyteries and the churches shall ever hold all this financial work subordinated to the deepening of the spiritual life.

4. Boards, Miscellaneous.

Resolved, 1. That when the last day of the fiscal year of the Boards falls on Sunday, the Boards have one day of grace after the 31st of March, in which to receive contributions for the Church year before the closing of the Treasurer's books.

Resolved, 2. That the whole question of providing suitable literature which could be used by all of the Boards on the general subject of giving, thus obviating the necessity of each of the Boards publishing its literature on giving separately, is hereby referred to the Joint Executive Committee.

Resolved, 3. That the combined Reports of the Boards be issued hereafter, so far as necessary, in two volumes instead of one; that Volume I shall contain simply the text of the Reports with a general exhibit of the financial work of each; that Volume II shall contain the contributions of the churches to the Boards, arranged in one exhibit as per sample page offered, with an appropriate introduction.

XIII. The Budget for 1912–1913.

Three years ago the Executive Commission considered the first Budget for proposal to the General Assembly of 1909. Yet, within that short space, many hopes then but faintly entertained and dimly defined, have been actualized. Questions and perplexities, then anticipated, have emerged in the development of budget activities. Many of these have been overcome. Others persist. And still others arise out of new conditions, and our advance to the proposal of a new budget may profitably be deferred long enough to deal with some of these questions that might hinder its realization.

1. The basic constitution of the budget ought to be recalled. On an average, forty per cent. of the revenues of our Boards come from miscellaneous sources, from individuals, from interest on investments, from legacies, from special gifts. Manifestly, these yield no stable basis on which to project a stable plan of finance. We cannot assess individuals, we cannot compel an increase of interest, we cannot foresee legacies or special gifts. We are compelled to decline to deal with the forty per cent. of our revenues, and to confine ourselves to the sixty per cent. that is derived from living sources in the churches and their included societies.

2. The Budget as related to the Women's Societies is prolific of questions. Some of these questions are quite serious. A concrete illustration may indicate the questions in a given situation. The Church of A. in the Presbytery of B. comes under an allotment of, say, $600 for the general budget, and of $300 for the Women's Society. The total allotment is $900 based on an average of previous gifts, plus the per cent. of advance. When the Synod or the Presbytery has done what the Executive Commission does not do, viz.: made the $900 an assessment against the Church and the Women's Society; and when in its turn, the Session says that the women, as the most considerable numerical element of the Church membership, must first assist in making good the Church Budget of Benevolence before doing aught to realize their own society Budget, the situation is apt to become tense. Friction and division are the danger. What is to be done?

The women are to raise their own budget in their own way, as freely as heretofore. They are included in the allotment simply that they may have the inspiration and the standardized suggestion of the universal work.

It is not expected, any more than it has heretofore been expected under the old, go-as-you-please plan, that the women must first aid in raising the $600 ere they touch their own $300. If the general Church, will be as increasingly diligent as that expectation would compel the women, with the lesser purses, to be, it could certainly achieve any reasonable rate of advance (and all such advances are sought to be made reasonable by this Commission) that may be asked of it. Further, when the every-member-canvass is made, the women may indicate on their card just where and in what proportion their gifts are to go. And by the law of the Church, which even the General Assembly would not presume to abrogate, such indicated preferences of the individual giver must be respected by all other courts of the Church. Chapter VI, Section III, of the Directory of Worship says, "Specific designation by the giver of an offering to any given cause or causes, shall always be respected, and the will of the donor carefully carried out." This respect for the preference of the individual is part of that fundamental liberty for which our Presbyterian Church stands.

3. Another class of questions refers to the relationship of the Budget to the figures of the General Assembly Minutes. Frequently our allotments amaze brethren who write that these allotments are a retrogression; that they represent less than the individual Church or Presbytery gave the previous year, and the writer refers the Budget Committee, for confirmation, to the Presbyterial Statistical Tables of the General Assembly. It might be replied to this question that the allotment represents the minimum contribution asked, and that any Church or Presbytery is at liberty to make the maximum as large as their love and zeal may prompt. Yet this is not the real reply; it is that the Minutes include in their tables all the contributions of all the societies and individuals in any given church for any given object. Those tables represent the bulk giving of the Church, while the allotments must be based on the bare amount of cash received by our Permanent Agencies from the Church and its organizations.

4. The fact that some synods and presbyteries are putting their allotments to the individual churches on the basis of an assessment is bearing in a dangerous direction. One danger is that such assessing of benevolence shall evaporate the genuine spirit of scriptural giving, and transform the generous and gladsome giver into a reluctant and unwilling taxpayer.

Another danger is its tendency to shut the Church door in the face of those youth who, wise enough and willing enough to confess Christ as their Lord and Saviour, but who, being, as yet, non-producers and non-contributors, must not be admitted to the Church lest they increase an assessment which they are unable, and their seniors are unwilling, to bear.

And another danger lies at the other end of the line. Aged members who have passed the period of productivity, will, if retained on the roll of the Church, sustain a tax rate by their presence which they cannot sustain with their purses. Therefore, that the roll may be reduced and the assessment lowered, the temptation is to cut them off from membership.

That the Budget Plan should be so applied as to make it a flaming sword or a guillotine is regrettable and reprehensible to the last degree. We raise earnest warning against incurring such dangers by making the budget a hard-and-fast assessment. We wish to see our Church giving great sums of money under the compelling constraints of great appeals. But better is it to wait upon the slow and patient processes of persuasion, to develop the grace of liberality along certain definite lines, than to try to force a larger present revenue at the sacrifice of the spirit of true worship in our offerings.

5. Some misconception seems to exist as to the budget and its relation to percentages as between Boards. Let it be repeated that the budget of no given year is projected on any supposed relation of any scheme of percentages as between Boards, or as related to the sum total for which the budget asks. It is based rather on the ascertained averages of giving to each Board for a series of years. It could hardly be otherwise and yet preserve the liberty of the individual giver. Each Board has its favoring zones of givers who raise its average high in their locality. Now, suppose the Budget Committee penalizes each Board for its high average in one locality by putting against it the high average of another Board in another place. The indirect, reflexive result would be that contributors to all Boards would be compelled virtually, to contribute to causes to which they were not minded to give. The only percentage to which we ask attention is the percentage of advance. Take that, apply it to your average of normal church contributions, and make that the minimum of your offering to any given Board.

6. The Budget Plan is further questioned because, as conceived by the questioners, it puts a tax on diligence and a premium on inefficiency in pastors and churches. The more a pastor raises of revenue in one year, the larger his allotment the next; while the less that the inefficient raise, the less the allotment the next year. Of course, this is a possible objection. Yet, in the absence of points of fact enough to establish any law on the matter, the objection seems rather more theoretical than practical. Of course, there will come a point where the diligent can go no higher, and the common sense and diligence that makes such men effective will turn their effectiveness to the remedying of every hardship that might emerge; and the inefficiency that turns its own failure into further reason for sloth, carries its own corrective, even if the reasonableness of Presbytery and the power of opinion does not intervene.

No plan can be perfect, but the patient correction of evils as they actually emerge will carry this plan rapidly in that direction.

7. The constant urgency to increase the contributions for the Boards renders some restive. That your son or daughter requires more and more money for maintenance is, in a way, hard. But it is a splendid, inspiring fact, the opposite of which you could not contemplate without deepest grief. Your offspring is growing. The work grows. The horizon of opportunity widens. The means must be increased to meet the giving demand. We have asked the Boards to state, succinctly, just why they wish an increase in their several budgets. They have gladly assented, and their reasons will appear as an integral part of this Report.

8. Some raise a question as to the Presbyteries' being advised with by the Budget Committee through the tentative budget; or that the Presbyteries should take any action on the Budget before the Assembly had adopted it.

Let it be remembered that the Presbyteries are fundamental in our system of Church order. They constitute the General Assembly. Their assent, constitutionally expressed, is necessary to any amendments of our Constitution. And the Assembly itself, in 1910 (see Assembly Minutes, page 99, Res. 10 and 11), directed this plan of procedure, and we are glad to day that we are submitting, this year, a budget that is nearer than ever before, at once, to the calls of the Boards and the answering willingness of the Church.

With these preliminary statements, the Committee presents to the Assembly the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly authorize the apportioning to the uses of the following Boards and Permanent Agencies, the amounts of money set opposite their names, respectively, as these amounts may be secured from the Churches and several Agencies.

National Home Missions	$375,694 57
Home Missions through Woman's Board	371,003 75
Synodical and Presbyterial Home Missions	491,909 63
Board of Foreign Missions	840,590 13
Foreign Missions through Woman's Board	459,769 30
Board of Education	78,483 54
Board of Publication and S. S. Work	171,959 05
Board of Church Erection	76,585 55
Board of Ministerial Relief	127,926 47
Missions for Freedmen	88,069 04
Missions for Freedmen through Woman's Board	85,993 51
College Board	141,986 62
Permanent Temperance Committee	35,000 00

2. That the Assembly approve of the apportionments as made to the several Presbyteries by the Executive Commission.

3. That for the year 1913–14, the tentative budget be sent to the Presbyteries as early as March 1, 1913, that they may have full opportunity to study the same, and to transmit their advice at their early convenience to the Budget Committee of the Assembly's Executive Commission, for its guidance in the final framing of the new budget.

XIV. The Finances.

The Financial Statement of the Commission for the year is published as a part of its Report, and is as follows:

William Henry Roberts, Treasurer, in Account with the Executive Commission, for the Year Ending April 30, 1912.

Receipts.

From balance previous year	$1,434 72
From the Boards of the Church	9,714 29
From balance, General Assembly apportionment	1,811 93
From A. F. McGarrah	100 00
From interest	61 32
	$13,122 26

Payments.

Financial Campaign	$9,814 29
Budget Committee	392 24
Other Committees	324 61
Miscellaneous	133 50
Balance	2,457 62
	$13,122 26

Examined and approved,
H. B. McCormick,
Chairman Finance Committee.

Audited and found correct,
(Signed) Charles Lewer,
Certified Public Accountant.

The above Statement does not include the payments made by the Treasurer of the Assembly and its Committee on Finance, which appear in other Reports.

All the expenditures connected with the meetings of the Executive Commission and the work which it conducted for the Budget through the Joint Executive Committee, concisely stated, are as follows: For expenses of members at regular meetings, $3,803.36; for expenses of members on Special Committees, etc., $850.35; for legal opinion furnished by Miller, Shirley, Miller & Thompson, as to the proposed Federation of the Boards, $2,118.51; and for the expenses of the Financial Campaign in behalf of the Budget, $9,814.29. It appears, therefore, that the actual cost of the Executive Commission for meetings and its work connected directly with Assembly matters was $4,653.71; the fee paid to the lawyers having come over from the previous year, and the money for the Financial Campaign having been furnished by the Boards.

XV. Moderator's Itinerary.

In response to the action of a conference of the Boards and the Commission, and in obedience to the action of the Executive Commission itself, a moderatorial tour was planned, by means of which the Moderator was able to visit a large number of centres of Presbyterian influence. The itinerary as planned and as carried out, covered meetings of the Synods of Indiana, Missouri, Kansas, Minnesota, Colorado and Alabama, with a post-synodical conference in North Dakota. In addition to these synodical engagements, the Moderator visited and made addresses in Indianapolis, St. Louis, Emporia, Omaha, Bellevue (Nebraska), Denver, Colorado Springs, Spokane, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, Albany (Oregon), San Francisco, Reno, Salt Lake City, Kansas City, Parkville (Missouri), Nashville and Cincinnati. This tour occupied six weeks and covered 12,295 miles.

In addition to this specifically arranged tour, the Moderator has devoted a large proportion of his time and energy in service to the Church at large, visiting nearly all of the greater centres as well as many of the smaller cities, and addressing a large number of Presbyteries. In all the Moderator traveled 29,195 miles in his visitation of the Church. The Executive Commission is firmly convinced that such service as this is of untold value to the Church.

Resolved, That the Assembly expresses its approval and its grateful recognition of the services of Dr. Carson in his itinerary during the past year, and its thanks to him and to the Central Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., which has so graciously given the services of its pastor to the Church at large. And the question of finance in connection with this itinerary is referred to the Committee on Finance.

XVI. Report of the Joint Executive Committee.

The Joint Executive Committee, in undertaking the work committed to it, sent out in July a letter to the Sessions of our churches, calling their attention to the fact that the General Assembly, at the recommendation of the Executive Commission and the Permanent Agencies of the Church, directs that a united forward movement be undertaken in the interest of a more adequate support of our local churches as well as larger contributions for our Missionary and Benevolent work, and expressing the desire for the hearty coöperation of the Sessions of all of our churches in carrying these plans to a successful issue. Accompanying this letter was sent out an inquiry blank as to the present methods of supporting the local church as well as the methods of taking offerings for the missionary and benevolent work of the Church.

A most cordial response was received from the churches, promising practical coöperation in all efforts that might be inaugurated, as well as furnishing us the information as to present methods in use for raising money for local church support and benevolences. Of the 2,000 replies received, a very large number expressed a dissatisfaction with their present methods as being inadequate to meet the present needs of their church.

1. The Financial Plan.

To meet this present need for some simple financial plan adapted to the various conditions of our churches, the Joint Executive Committee devised a plan based upon the every-member-weekly-pledge system.

This plan involves the detailed canvass of the members of any congregation under the direction of the Session and the Board of Trustees of that congregation, in the interest of better local church support and larger benevolences.

In order to aid the Session and trustees in making this detailed canvass, a series of subscription blanks was prepared by the Joint Executive Committee to be furnished in such quantities as might be desired free, upon application.

It was further suggested in making this canvass that subscriptions should be taken rather by individuals than by families, and that an effort be made to obtain a separate subscription from each man, woman and child. As far as possible, these subscriptions should be made on a weekly basis. And emphasis was laid on the fact that no church was so small or so poor that it could not be represented by some kind of an offering for the causes that are being sustained by the Presbyterian Church.

The Double Budget Subscription Card.—This subscription card is intended to be used in making an every-member canvass of a congregation not only for a weekly subscription for the support of the local church, but also for its benevolences. The Joint Executive Committee lays emphasis upon the fact that this canvass is to be an every-member canvass, for experience has proved that a non-contributor to the support of a local church is frequently but little interested and will probably ultimately become a fault-finder. The secret of a happy and growing church is one where every member is a contributor to all its enterprises. No more important service can be rendered by the officers of a church than in making a direct and personal effort to have everyone, however slightly connected with the congregation, become a regular supporter of the church and its missionary and benevolent undertakings. The amount of the contribution is not so important in the first instance as the fact that the individual is enrolled as a lifter. To make it easy for the church officers to carry this idea to the entire membership of the congregation, the double budget subscription card is furnished.

During the year, on the request of the churches, several hundred thousand of these subscription cards have been sent out to be used in the every-member canvass of congregations. Wherever faithfully used the uniform report has been that the result of their use has greatly increased subscriptions not only for local church support, but also for benevolences.

One of our stronger churches, with a membership of about 500, during the past fifty years of its history had always reported a deficit at the end of the year in meeting its local church expenses. By introducing this year the every-member canvass for local support and for benevolences, it so greatly increased its subscriptions that for the first time in its history it has more than sufficient to meet the Budget of its local expenses, and at the same time has greatly increased the benevolences of the church.

A Western church with two members wrote for subscription blanks, stating that the church had been closed for six years and that they hoped to open the doors of the church for public worship on the first of January, and desired subscription blanks to be used in the canvass of the community for local support and benevolences. As the result of this canvass they obtained fifty weekly subscribers.

Single Budget Subscription Card.—There are some churches that already have a sufficient and successful method of raising all the money that is necessary for their own local support, but who desire some simple financial plan of bringing the claim of the missionary and benevolent work of the church to the attention of every member of the congregation, and urging upon each one the importance of being a regular subscriber to the support of all causes in which the church is especially interested. For the use of these churches the single budget subscription card has been prepared by the Joint Executive Committee.

2. The Adjustment to Existing Systems.

How to adjust the every-member-canvass system with its pledge cards with existing systems employed in the churches for local support has provoked a very large amount of correspondence.

The advice has been given not to attempt to introduce the new financial system in any church where such introduction would be attended with friction. There is no difficulty in making use of the system in coöperation with any existing system of finance that may be at present in use in any church. For example, if there are those who desire to pay for the support of the local church by pew rent and in quarterly payments, there is no objection why they should not make their contributions in that way, but there is a large constituency of non-contributors in every congregation who with the new system can be easily persuaded to become supporters of the work of the church, and thus (to the delight of the Board of Trustees) supplement by their weekly offerings the income derived from the old system.

3. Objections to a Percentage System.

How to adjust the every-member-canvass system with its pledge cards with existing systems employed in churches in obtaining the money for the benevolences of the church has provoked even a larger amount of correspondence.

There has been a great demand on the part of church Sessions for some system of percentages which they could use in the division of the offerings among the Permanent Agencies of the Church. But the Joint Executive Committee has felt that it would not be wise to even attempt to furnish such a system of percentages.

The Joint Executive Committee is the creation of a conference of the Executive Commission and the Permanent Agencies of the Church in the interests of coöperation, and it would not, therefore, be warranted in doing anything that would have a tendency in the eyes of the Church to lessen the individuality of the various causes which, as a Committee, it represents.

Every cause has its own constituency, more or less well defined, and larger in some portions of the country than in others. It would not be possible to devise any system of percentages applicable to the whole country that would not work injury in certain sections of the country to certain causes.

The Budget for each cause is based upon the contributions that have been made to that particular cause, and as a Budget has no relationship whatever to the Budget for any other cause except in the fact that all causes are mutually co-operative in the great one work for which the Church is established.

Besides it is very important that every member of the Presbyterian Church should become acquainted with the activities of our varied agencies as a basis of enlarged giving, and the subscription blank which has been approved by the conference of the Executive Commission and the Boards of the Church lays special emphasis upon this liberty of the subscriber, when upon all the subscription cards is the following statement, "Subscribers are urged, after careful study of the objects made, to designate the part of their offerings they wish to go to each cause."

If any system of percentages is adopted, it should be made by the church itself for itself, and should be in harmony with the coöperative scheme under which the Joint Executive Committee is working. Then the church itself should not adopt any percentage system for itself which would lessen the amount generally received from that church by any one of our Permanent Agencies.

In any readjustment that may be determined upon, there should be no lessening of the income for the several causes which existed at the time the coöperative plan was adopted.

But if there are causes that in the past have been neglected, these should be cared for by the increased benevolences of the church rather than by scaling down the contributions made to other causes.

4. The New System.

1. Women's Societies.—How to adjust the every-member-canvass system with its pledge cards with the work of the Women's Societies of the Church has been the theme of frequent correspondence.

The Budget is based upon the contributions made to the Women's Societies as much as it is upon that made by the churches to the various causes. While it is expected the women will manage the raising of their portion of the Budget for the several causes in which they are interested in their own way, they are, nevertheless, vitally a part of the Budget allotment. When women of a church make their subscriptions for the benevolences of the Church they should have regard to the amount which they are expected to contribute through their own societies for the several causes and designate upon the subscription card in what channel they desire their contributions to go. By this arrangement the every-member canvass becomes an aid to the Women's Societies rather than a hindrance.

2. One Budget.—How to adjust the every-member-canvass system with its pledge cards to the existing system in some churches of one Budget for local church support and benevolences combined.

If one Budget is to be made of the total amount that is expected to be raised for local church support and all causes, then such Budget should be made only after conference with all interests involved and should include the definite amount to be raised for local church support and for each of the several causes through the church proper, together with the amounts to be raised by the Women's Societies and other organizations within the bounds of the church, and all these several amounts added together constitute one Budget for that church. The canvass can then be made for weekly subscriptions for that one Budget. If the total amount secured in the canvass is greater than the Budget, then every interest which appears in the one Budget receives its pro rata amount of increase, and if the subscriptions do not amount to the total of the Budget, then all causes are pro rated down alike. By this arrangement, even in the one Budget, no cause has an advantage at the expense of the others.

Even in the one-Budget system, regard should always be had to the preferences of individual subscribers for particular causes.

3. Double-pocket Envelope.—After the subscriptions have been made by the members of the congregation for local church support and benevolences or for benevolences only, as the case may be, it is necessary to make provision for the gathering of these subscriptions in a manner that shall be most convenient to the subscribers. This has usually been found to be on the Lord's Day in connection with public worship.

Provision has been made for this by furnishing to each subscriber a package of double-pocket envelopes, numbered and dated for each week in the year, where the subscriptions are for local church support and benevolences, or the single envelopes, numbered and dated, where the subscriptions are for benevolences only.

It has been a practical problem with the Joint Executive Committee how to lower the fundamental cost of furnishing the double-pocket envelope numbered and dated, so as to make it possible to be used to advantage by the small church. The usual expense of the double-pocket envelope where only a small number is used has been so great that it has been almost prohibitive. This large expense for packages of envelopes in small quantities has been due to the fact that the small number of envelopes require the fifty-two changes on the printing press the same as would be required for a larger number of envelopes, and hence the cost of these frequent changes has to be placed upon the small number of envelopes used. In order to avoid this great expense of frequent changes upon the printing press, the Joint Executive Committee during the year have printed their envelopes, numbered and dated from 25 to 999, which would require no more changes on the press for the nearly 1000 packages than it would require if only twenty-five were printed. By this means we have been enabled to reduce the cost of the printed envelopes, with cartons, to six cents per package.

Another expense was saved by having the stock envelopes begin with April, July, October and January.

4. Treasurer's Record Sheets.—For use in connection with this financial system a Treasurer's Name List of contributors and the Treasurer's Record Sheet of weekly contributions are furnished by the Joint Executive Committee.

5. Reminder to New Members.—A live church is frequently receiving new members into its membership, and it is very important that the attention of one uniting with the church should be called to the importance of immediately becoming a supporter of the church, and in order to aid the Session in this important work a Reminder Card to New Members is furnished in such quantities as can be used to advantage.

6. Quarterly Statement Card.—A quarterly statement card has been provided for the use of the treasurer in making acknowledgment of the amount received from each subscriber. A nominal charge of 25 cents a 100 is made for these quarterly statement cards.

7. No Plan Self-effective.—This is the outline of the system approved by the Joint Executive Committee which is Scriptural in that it magnifies weekly giving as an act of worship. It is equally adapted to the small as well as the large church. It brings the individual subscriber into close touch with his own church and with the great world-wide enterprises undertaken by the Presbyterian Church as a whole. It results in giving a business system to our financial methods.

This simple financial plan as outlined above has been received with immediate appreciation on the part of a large number of our churches as is indicated by the fact that during the year it has been necessary for us to send out more than three million numbered and dated envelopes. But no plan, however good, is self-effective. The success of the plan depends upon the willingness of the key men of any congregation to do the personal work involved in the plan.

8. Vestibule Poster.—In September there was prepared a Vestibule Poster which gave in large, clear type, the minimum budget expected from the churches for the Permanent Agencies of the Presbyterian Church for the year ending March 31, 1912, together with the opportunity of filling in of the apportionment to Synod, to Presbytery and to the local church. A large number of churches found this a valuable means of calling the attention of the members of the congregation to the missionary and benevolent work of the Church.

5. Budget and Work of the Permanent Agencies of the Church.

A leaflet of which several thousand copies have been issued for general distribution was prepared calling attention to the Permanent Agencies of the Church and their work, together with a detailed statement of the budget for the several causes.

During the year the Joint Executive Committee called the attention of the churches to the number of contributing and non-contributing churches to the nine Permanent Agencies. Not including our Foreign Mission churches, there are 9,852 churches, and if every church gave an offering to each of our nine Permanent Agencies the number of offerings would aggregate 88,668, but during the year ending March 31, 1911, there were only 46,389 offerings reported, showing an aggregate neglect of 42,279 offerings.

Care should be taken in drawing conclusions from this statement concerning contributing and non-contributing churches. Usually the number of offerings taken by any church is in direct proportion to the membership of the church. Sixty per cent. of the neglected offerings is to be credited to churches with a membership less than fifty.

6. Letter concerning Offerings.

Up to this year it had been the custom of our nine Permanent Agencies of the Church to send out a special notice to each church expressing appreciation for the contributions received during the past year, and desiring that there should be a continuance with increase of gifts the coming year. In place of these nine separate notices the Joint Executive Committee, in the interests of economy and in harmony with the spirit of the Budget System, sent out one notice and in this gave a detailed report to each church of the causes receiving contributions and calling attention as well to those that did not receive any contribution during the year.

This notice was sent out not in the spirit of criticism, but as a matter of information, with a suggestion that each church should make an effort during the current year to send an offering to each of our Permanent Agencies.

This letter provoked considerable adverse criticism. For example, one pastor receiving the letter with a suggestion that his church had omitted to send contributions to four of our Permanent Agencies, wrote back that "it was the custom of his church to send a contribution to every one of the Permanent Agencies, and that if the errors made in the report of his church were a fair sample of the errors made in reporting other churches, that the money expended in sending out such a letter might be better used in some other way." We called his attention to the fact that the four agencies referred to did not report any contribution from his church. The result of the examination was that the church frankly acknowledged at the last that the contributions to these four causes had been omitted by them in the past year, but that in the future there would be a greater care exercised in sending offerings to each of the causes.

We have received quite a number of letters, the tenor of which was that "we had only to look in the Assembly Minutes and note that all blanks were filled," and "no one could understand how we could report lack of contributions to certain causes," and yet, when the matter was followed up, it was found that the contributions had been made for kindred causes, but had not gone directly to the Boards of the Church. For example, one church complained that "we reported them as not contributing to the Permanent Committee on Temperance when they had made a large contribution to the Anti-saloon League." Another church to the Board of Freedmen when they had made a large contribution to a colored pastor who was passing through town and presented the work of his school and they took up a collection for the Freedmen's work, but it did not go to the Freedmen's Board. Another church helped an aged minister in the vicinity, but the money was not sent to the Board of Ministerial Relief. Another made a contribution for aiding in the building of a chapel enterprise in its vicinity, but the money was not sent to the Board of Church Erection. In other cases we have found that the church Session had voted amounts to be sent to the several causes and that the treasurer had neglected to remit the amounts voted. On examination the money was still found to be on hand and had not been sent forward.

It is only by having patience and good humor that we can ultimately introduce a good business financial system for benevolences in all our churches in place of the careless manner in which sometimes the money contributed for missionary and benevolent purposes has been handled. The importance of our Missionary and Benevolent Agencies as the best possible channel to receive and to expend the contributions of our own Church people should be magnified.

During the year the Committee has received from each of our Permanent Agencies daily reports of the contributions received from the churches. These have been placed immediately in type and classified by Presbyteries and churches, so that the Committee has been prepared to furnish to any Presbyterial Committee information concerning the contributions received to date for any one of our Permanent Agencies.

The last part of February a report sheet of contributions by Presbyteries, containing acknowledgment of all moneys received by the nine Agencies during the previous ten months and a half, was sent to the churches, together with a letter from the Moderator calling attention to the amount contributed as indicated in the report sheets, and the amount to be expected by the Permanent Agencies during the remaining month and a half of the church year.

7. Coöperative Help.

The Joint Executive Committee appreciates greatly the hearty coöperation which it has received in the carrying out of its plans from the Synodical and Presbyterial Executive Commissions, from a large number of church Sessions, from the representatives of our Permanent Agencies in different portions of the field.

During a part of the year we have had the assistance of Rev. A. F. McGarrah in holding Conferences in different portions of the country, emphasizing the importance of better financial methods for Church support and benevolences. The Committee has also been greatly blessed through the large liberality of the Central Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, in enabling its pastor, the Moderator of the General Assembly and Chairman of our Joint Executive Committee, to spend a large portion of his time during this past year in making addresses throughout the country to the immense advantage of the Church as a whole, and especially to its benevolences.

In view of this most important work, we would recommend that the General Assembly request the Moderator to so arrange his other duties during the year that he can give a portion of his time to the work of the Assembly as conducted by the Joint Executive Committee of the Boards and Executive Commission.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Executive Commission.

JOHN F. CARSON, Chairman.

The Executive Commission reported upon Overtures referred to it by the Assembly. The Report was adopted as follows:

Overtures Nos. 251 to 253, 352 and 353,* as to Statistical Blanks. It is recommended that these be referred to the Committee on Christian Life and Work.

Overture No. 237, from the Presbytery of Madison, as to the Relations of the Woman's Board and Societies. It is recommended that reference be had to the Budget for 1912 and 1913, in Bluebook, pp. 170–171.

Overture No. 273, in reference to one general plan of benevolent offerings. It is recommended that it be referred to the Executive Commission for the consideration of the Budget Committee.

Overture No. 373, from the Presbytery of Nashville, on Quadrennial and District Assemblies. It is recommended that, in view of the recent action of Presbyteries against Biennial Assemblies, no action is advisable.

The following action as to undesignated gifts is submitted for adoption:

Resolved, That in order to facilitate the work of the Joint Executive Committee in carrying on the every-member campaign and the Budget System, the Stated Clerk be and is authorized to omit from the Minutes and the Handbook, the statement of the distribution of undesignated gifts as given in 1895.

The Committee on Finance, through its Chairman, Mr. S. W. Lawrence, presented its Report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Finance has given careful consideration to the matters referred to it, and after due deliberation would submit the following Report:

I. Your Committee has examined the financial report of the Stated Clerk, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., for the year ending March 31, 1912. This report is certified to as correct, by Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified public accountants.

Your Committee would heartily commend it, and voice the appreciation of the Assembly for the faithful and efficient services of Dr. Roberts, our Stated Clerk.

II. Your Committee approves the report of the Permanent

* For list of Overtures, see pp. 39–53.

Committee on Finance, as presented to the Assembly, through the Executive Commission.

III. We have examined the report of the Trustees and of their Treasurer for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1912. We find the same correct and satisfactory in every particular, subject, however, to some minor recommendations hereinafter mentioned. We believe that the affairs of the Trustees in the administration of the various funds have been carried on in a very economical manner, and your Committee desires to extend the thanks of the Assembly to them for their faithfulness. We beg to submit the following recommendations:

(a) In future reports to the Assembly, we recommend that a showing be made of the valuation of the respective properties upon which loans are placed.

(b) We recommend that the cost value and present value of all stocks and bonds be given.

(c) When property is purchased under foreclosure of mortgage, we recommend that the report state reasonable cash value thereof at the time of purchase.

(d) We recommend for election to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., Sc.D., LL.D., and the Hon. William M. Lanning, LL.D., the following-named persons: Rev. J. Harvey Lee and George V. Massey, Esq.

IV. In the matter of the expenses of the Moderator's itinerary, referred to us by this Assembly, we would recommend as follows:

(a) That Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., the retiring Moderator, be reimbursed his expenses in full incurred in the service of the General Assembly and the Boards, during the past year, in the method indicated in the Resolution on p. 246; and that the Assembly express appreciation of the generosity of his church, the Central Church of Brooklyn, in permitting him to give so largely of his time and thought to the work of the Church at large.

(b) We recommend that the Assembly provide a maximum of $2,000, for the Moderator's itinerary for the coming year, to be drawn on in the regular form of the General Assembly, and approved by the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission.

(c) We recommend that the Executive Commission communicate with communities where visits of the Moderator are contemplated with the view of providing for his expenses locally.

V. We recommend the approval of—

(a) The sum of $200 to the Council of Reformed Churches in the United States;

(b) The sum of $1,350 to the Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and (c) The sum of $1,940 to the World's Pan-Presbyterian Alliance.

VI. We recommend that Overture No. 274, from the Presbytery of Chester, relating to the reduction of assessments on the membership to not over seven cents, be answered in the negative, for the reason that seven cents is not sufficient to meet the necessary expenses. Likewise we recommend a negative answer to Overture No. 275, from the Presbytery of Troy, relating to the further reduction of the expenses of the commissioners to the Assembly, for the reason that it is already lower than will provide adequately for the commissioners.

VII. After favorable consideration of Overture No. 270, from Kansas City Presbytery, relating to the expense incurred in legal matters in Missouri pertaining to the union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, we recommend that the Overture be referred to the Executive Commission in conference with the Committee on Legal Matters on the Reunion.

S. W. Lawrence, Chairman;
William M. Curry, Secretary.

The Permanent Clerk was, by unanimous vote, authorized to cast the ballot of the Assembly for the following as Trustees of the Assembly, and they were declared duly elected: Rev. J. Harvey Lee and George V. Massey, Esq.

The Permanent Clerk was, by unanimous vote, authorized to cast the ballot of the Assembly for the following as members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund, and they were declared duly elected:

For those whose terms expire in 1912: Ministers—Anson P. Atterbury, D.D., William Russell Bennett, David R. Frazer, D.D., John S. Zelie, D.D.; Ruling Elders—D. Stuart D. Jessup, M.D., Charles Glatz and William H. Parsons.

New members for one year: Minister—John H. Boyd, D.D.; Ruling Elder—E. C. Stringer.

For two years: Minister—J. Frank Smith, D.D.; Ruling Elder—W. N. Cosby.

For three years: Minister—Robert B. A. McBride; Ruling Elder—H. P. Crowell.

The Standing Committee on Narrative, through its Secretary, presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

We desire most earnestly to call the attention of the Commissioners to the report of the Permanent Committee on Christian Life and Work found in the "Blue Book." For its knowledge and insight, for its scope and wisdom, for its sensitiveness and sympathy with the present actual life and yearnings of the Church, it is a paper of positive value, and ought to be called to the attention of all our Presbyteries. Surely, it more than justifies the action of the Assembly of 1906 in constituting this Permanent Committee, and we would call special attention to the paragraph on "Safeguarding Social Service in the Life of the Church" (p. 115), with its wise cautions and limitations; and state our earnest conviction that the best thought and effort of the Church should be given to developing the personal religious life—life that finds its foundation in reading the Word of God, and is fortified and nourished by prayer, and so made fit and strong for Social Service.

Indeed, this Committee specially charges its Chairman to declare the necessity of daily prayer, and declares its conviction that means must be found to maintain and strengthen the historic prayer meeting. Your Committee is especially constrained to this assertion, in view of the evidence brought to it that in some Presbyteries more than half of the churches report holding no prayer meeting, and in other Presbyteries too many churches have abandoned the midweek service.

Your Committee is of the opinion that we will never get better Presbyterial narratives until we get more nourishing material from the individual churches. The Narrative, no matter what its form, nor how fully answered, will always need a page or two out of the mind and heart of the pastor or elder, revealing the spirit whose outward manifestations is attested by figures and stereotyped answers. Here the human, personal touch, as in all things having to do with religion, is indispensable.

Your Committee begs leave to submit the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That the Permanent Committee be heartily commended for its vital and valuable Report.

Resolved, 2. That Overture No. 304, having to do with Evangelistic Services at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, be referred to the Evangelistic Committee; and that Overtures Nos. 245 to 250 and 352, having to do with Narrative Forms, be referred to the Permanent Committee on Christian Life and Work.

Resolved, 3. That the recommendations of the Committee on Christian Life and Work, Nos. 4 to 12, on p. 130 of the "Blue Book," be adopted as follows:

Resolved, 4. That the attention of all the Presbyteries and Synods be again called to the imperative need of better arrangements for the reporting of the Narrative, and to that end the Assembly would suggest to each of them that there be a Standing Committee of at least three rotating members, together with the Moderator and Stated Clerk, ex officio, making five, to prepare the Narrative, and that a period of at least one hour be allotted to the Report at the close of a morning session of the judicatory, to be accompanied with exercises of praise and prayer.

Resolved, 5. That the Stated Clerks of Synods be and are hereby appointed as advisory members of the General Assembly's Special Committee on the Narrative of Christian Life and Work, and that the Synods be requested to direct the said Clerks to coöperate with the Committee in the preparation of the Narrative for the Assembly.

Resolved, 6. That the Narrative of the Special Committee, when approved by the Assembly, be printed in full in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly recognizes, with gratitude to God, what has been done by the Presbyterian Brotherhood, the Men and Religion Movement, and other efforts for the improvement of spiritual conditions in our country, conducted by men's organizations. It is certain, however, that there should be a closer relation between all such movements and the churches, and the Committee on Christian Life and Work is charged with the duty of conferring with the leaders of such movements, with a view to bringing them into closer unity with other departments of Church work.

Resolved, 8. That the churches are again advised, wherever the way is clear, to unite with the churches of other denominations in the communities in which they are located, for the purpose of carrying on coöperative Christian work.

Resolved, 9. That the Committee is specially charged with the duty of coöperation with all movements within the Church for Evangelistic Work and Social Service.

Resolved, 10. That the Form of the Narrative of Christian Life and Work, with all related Statistical Blanks and Reports, be again referred to the Committee, to report to the next Assembly.

Resolved, 11. That the Committee on Christian Life and Work communicate with the Presbyteries on the subject of the laws of the States and of the United States both as to Marriage and Divorce, recommending action by each, in order to secure proper regulations by the State in connection with Marriage, and also to secure such legislation as will make the laws of Divorce more strict and more nearly in accordance with the law of God.

Resolved, 12. That the Assembly commends to the Synods, Presbyteries, congregations and generous individuals, the various interests of Home Missions, National, Synodical and Presbyterial, within the bounds of this Church, with a view to providing an adequate support for the ministry of the Gospel in the 4,000 weak and mission congregations.

In behalf of the Committee,

CLARENCE W. ROUSE, Chairman.

The Necrological Report was read, the Assembly was led in prayer by Ruling Elder D. W. McWilliams, and a hymn was sung.

Especial mention was made of Rev. John B. Devins, D.D., whose name is on the List, and words of affectionate testimony to his character were spoken by his pastor, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D.

Rev. R. S. Holmes, D.D., was appointed to express to Mrs. Devins, and prepare for the religious press a resolution expressive of the feeling of the Assembly concerning Dr. Devins. The Moderator and Stated Clerk were also requested to express the sympathy of the Assembly to the bereaved family, and also to the family of Rev. Dr. George William Knox, recently deceased, at Seoul, Korea.

The Memorial Minute is as follows:

The One Hundred and Twenty-fourth General Assembly, in an hour of solemn memory of those servants of God, ministers of our Church, who have been taken from our number during the past year, adopts the following Memorial Minute with reference to the life and services of the late John Bancroft Devins, D.D., editor of the New York Observer, who for twenty-eight years faithfully and efficiently reported the proceedings of the Assembly.

Resolved, That the General Assembly puts on record its high appreciation of the late John Bancroft Devins, D.D., pastor, journalist and Christian gentleman, who gave the whole of a singularly unselfish life to the cause of Christ. His service to the Church, to the neglected children of the poor in New York, and to the interests of the truth, are worthy of a praise we cannot speak, and we offer to Mrs. Devins and her bereaved circle the sympathy of a Church that had learned to love and prize Dr. Devins not only for what he was, but for what he strove to be.

The Standing Committee, on Home Missions presented the following supplementary Report, which was adopted:

I. WHEREAS, The Rev. Charles E. Edwards, D.D., has presented clearly to the General Assembly the condition of the churches in Bohemia and Moravia; and

WHEREAS, The immigrant problem is vitally important to the well-being of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, The weak and struggling churches in Bohemia and Moravia are nevertheless able to provide candidates for the ministry, who may be received for work in the Presbyterian Church; and

WHEREAS, The Bohemian Church belongs to the great Presbyterian family; therefore

Resolved, That the effort undertaken in this country to assist the Bohemian and Moravian Churches, through a Committee of which the Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., is Chairman, be and hereby is commended to the liberality of the Church at large.

II. Resolved, That we congratulate the Woman's Board of Home Missions upon the splendid work accomplished during the past year in enlarged gifts for the Home Missionary Board, also upon the great increase of women (50,000) added to the membership of the women's societies of the Presbyterian Church during the past year, and that we heartily endorse the work of women in the evangelization of America.

In behalf of the Committee,

CORNELIUS M. STEFFENS, Chairman.

A paper presented by Rev. C. W. Hays was referred to the Executive Commission.

The following resolution as to agencies for the circulation of the Scriptures was adopted:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church rejoices in the commanding influence which the Bible is exerting on our present-day civilization, and commends such agencies as the New Testament League, the Gideons and other organizations for their excellent service to the Church and our country in their work of circulating the Holy Scriptures.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That all financial adjustments that may be necessary in connection with the erection of the Synod of New England be left with the Stated Clerks of the Synods of New York and New England.

The Treasurer of the Assembly presented a request that all accounts directly pertaining to this meeting of the General Assembly be audited, and that the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer be authorized to make the necessary arrangements on their return to Philadelphia, where circumstances are such that the work can be more easily done, and that the audits be duly published. The request was granted.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, By this Assembly, that the Executive Commission be made the Advisory Council of the Stated Clerk in all matters in which he may desire advice.

The Records of the following Synods were approved without exception: Alabama, Arkansas, Atlantic, California, Canadian, Catawba, Colorado, East Tennessee, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

The Synod of the Philippines did not present its Records for review.

The Committee on the Minutes of Synod of Baltimore reported recommending their approval, with the following exceptions:

1. There is no record of any action taken by the Synod on the Reports of the Committees on Home Missions, Foreign Missions, S. S. Work, Church Erection, Education, Relief, College Board and Narrative, though the reports of these Committees are printed in the Minutes.
2. There is no record of any report on Systematic Beneficence.
3. There is nothing to show that reports were given by Committees on Bills and Overtures, Judicial Business and Finance.
4. There is no record of a Final Roll Call prior to adjournment.

Your Committee calls attention to the fact that the Final Roll Call is required not only by the General Assembly, but is one of the Standing Rules of the Synod itself.

5. There are no blank pages for the recording of exceptions, or for the General Assembly's Certificate of approval, as required by the General Assembly.

Your Committee calls attention to the fact that the General Assembly, in 1890, recorded this very exception on the Minutes of this very Synod.

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Illinois reported, recommending approval with the following exception, viz.: Resolution 3, on p. 583, viz., "We recommend the continuation of present incumbents as our representatives upon the State Board of Directors of the Anti-Saloon League." This action of the Synod is contrary to the provision of the Constitution of the Church, to the effect that "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical" (Confession of Faith, Chap. XXXI, Sect. IV).

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Indiana reported, recommending their approval with the following exceptions:

1. There is no record of the afternoon session of October 10 having been opened by prayer (p. 19).
2. There is no record of the morning session having been closed by prayer (p. 49).
3. The action of the Synod in suggesting persons as trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, a non-ecclesiastical body, which is contrary to the provision of the Constitution of the Church, to the effect that "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical" (Confession of Faith, Chap. XXXI, Sect. IV).*

The Minutes of the Synod of Michigan were approved with the following exception, by direct order of the General Assembly, viz.: The action in electing trustees of the Anti-Saloon League and appointing delegates to the National Convention of said League, as recorded on p. 42. These actions of the Synod are contrary to the provision of the Constitution of the Church to the effect that "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical" (Confession of Faith, Chap. XXXI, Sect. IV).

The Minutes of the Synod of Nebraska were approved with the following exception, by direct order of the General Assembly, viz.: The action appointing a delegate to the National Convention of the Anti-Saloon League, Resolution 6, p. 63. This action is contrary to the provision of the Constitution of the Church to the effect that "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical" (Confession of Faith, Chap. XXXI, Sect. IV).

The Minutes of the Synod of Montana were approved, with the following exception, by direct order of the General Assembly, viz.: The appointment of trustees of the Anti-Saloon League as recorded on pp. 10 and 36 of the Minutes. This action of Synod is contrary to the provision of the Constitution of the Church to the effect that "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical" (Confession of Faith, Chap. XXXI, Sect. IV).

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Texas recommend approval with the following exception, viz.: On p. 44, we note an act of the Synod that was irregular, in that the Synod, by direct act, consolidated the two Presbyteries of Denton and Fort Worth, whereas such action can only be taken subject to prior approval by General Assembly.

The following, presented by the Stated Clerk, was adopted:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly:

1. In the matter of the binding and distributing of the Reports of the Boards, that the same has been attended to, in accordance with the directions of the Assembly of 1911, and that the accounts for the same have been duly audited. These accounts will be found printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

2. That the Abstracts of the Reports of the Boards were printed and distributed to the Commissioners before the Assembly, as authorized by the Assembly of 1911.

3. It is recommended that the following resolutions be adopted:

Resolved, a. That the Assembly authorize the binding and distribution of 7,500 copies of the Reports of the Boards and Permanent Committees for the ecclesiastical year 1911–12, the expenses of the same to be borne by the Boards.

Resolved, b. That the Boards be requested to deliver the printed sheets of the Reports to the Stated Clerk on or before June 25, 1912.

Resolved, c. That the Abstracts of the Reports of the Boards for 1913 be distributed to Commissioners in the discretion of the Stated Clerk.

4. The Assembly is respectfully requested to approve of the continuance of the Publication of the Presbyterian Hand Book under the editorship of the Stated Clerk.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The following Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the General Assembly is responsible only for the expenses of its Commissioners and officers in connection with its annual meetings.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in their full quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy of the Minutes and Reports to the Ruling Elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; provided, that the Ruling Elders forward to the Clerk their post-office addresses, and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds; also, that he be authorized to furnish the Minutes to the lay members of the Boards.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk prepare a new edition of the Manual for the use of the next Assembly.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries, subject to the provisions of the Financial Plan of 1912.

Resolved, That, as customary, all matters connected with railroad rates and arrangements for the next meeting of the Assembly be committed solely to the Stated Clerk.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer be authorized to pay the actual traveling and entertainment expenses of the members of Special Committees, appointed or continued by this General Assembly, and of the Executive and Judicial Commissions, said expenses to be kept within as low a limit as possible; all subject to the Financial Plan of 1912 and other regulations of the Assembly.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to contract for the usual printing of the Minutes and the Manual of the Assembly, List of Commissioners, List of Overtures, Committee Reports and all blanks and papers connected with the current annual work of the General Assembly, payment for the same to be made under the regulations of the Financial Plan of 1912.

The Roll of the Standing Committees was called, and they, having reported their work completed and papers returned, were discharged as follows:

Bills and Overtures, Judicial Committee, Church Polity, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication and Sabbath School Work, Church Erection, Theological Seminaries, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Colleges, Correspondence, Narrative, Temperance, Leave of Absence, Presbyterian Brotherhood, Finance, and Mileage.

The Committee on Resolutions and Thanks, through its Chairman, Daniel Hoffman Martin, D.D., presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

The Committee on Resolutions and Thanks desires to voice the gratitude of the 124th General Assembly to all, who in any way, have helped to make this meeting of the Supreme Judicatory of our Church memorable for innumerable courtesies and thankful attention to the needs, comfort and pleasures of its Commissioners.

1. To the Moderator, Rev. Mark A. Matthews, D.D., LL.D., for the uniform courtesy, patience, fairness, quick-witted ability and wisdom, with which he has presided over the deliberations of this august body.

2. To the Vice-Moderator, Elder James Yereance, of New York, for the dignity, fidelity, unvarying cordiality and industry, which he has shown in the discharge of the duties of his high position.

3. To the Stated Clerk, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., for his splendid genius, signal ability, unfailing courtesy in managing the countless details of this great Assembly; for his rich stores of wisdom and experience, which have made possible the prompt and efficient advancement of the business of this venerable body.

We express also our appreciation of the faithful services of our Permanent Clerk, Rev. William B. Noble, D.D.; of the Assistant Clerk, Rev. J. M. Hubbert, D.D.; of Mr. L. A. Davis, the representative of the Treasurer; the Temporary Clerks, Rev. John F. Hinkhouse, D.D., Rev. Edward T. Swiggett, D.D., Rev. R. T. Caldwell, Elder Daniel Morrison, and all who, as clerks, stenographers and boy pages, have helped in the speedy and orderly dispatch of the work committed to our hands.

4. To the various local committees of this city and vicinity, who have given so generously of their time and made personal sacrifices to promote the well-being of their guests. Special mention is hereby made of the executive ability, sunny temper and unremitting labors of the Rev. Aquilla Webb, D.D., pastor of the Warren Memorial Presbyterian Church, in which the Assembly meets, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements; of Elder Logan C. Murray, Chairman of the Hospitality Committee; also of the organist and choir, and the church sexton.

5. The Assembly expresses its thanks to the pastors and officers of the various churches of Louisville, both of our own denomination and of other denominations, for their hospitality and various courtesies to the members of this Assembly.

6. We put on record also our grateful recognition of the favors extended us by the U. S. Postmaster, and of the several city organizations that have joined in making our visit so delightful.

7. We acknowledge our gratitude, also, to the newspaper press of Louisville, for the generous space they have given to the reports of the many meetings, for the uniform courtesy and consideration of the reporters, and to the Publicity League, represented by R. W. Brown and D. E. Goode, for their work in setting forth the doings of this Assembly.

8. It will be impossible to mention in this set of resolutions all the persons and all the ministries of kindness and helpfulness, for which this Assembly is grateful, but we desire to record our appreciation to all such people, and for all such acts of Christian love.

9. And now last, yet first of all in importance, the 124th General Assembly expresses its profound gratitude to Almighty God for this notable meeting, in which the manifest presence of the Holy Spirit has been felt, not only in the freedom from all acrimony and bitterness in the debates on great and serious questions, but also for the atmosphere of brotherly kindness and love which has pervaded every session of the Assembly.

10. May the blessings of God the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost rest upon the city of Louisville, upon its churches and ministers, and upon all the sacred interests committed to their care.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL HOFFMAN MARTIN.

The Minutes of to-day's session were read and approved.

The Commissioners present handed their names to the Permanent Clerk to be checked upon the Roll, and about 300 were found present. The Stated Clerk was authorized to correspond with reported absentees in order to correct the list of absentees without leave to be published in the Minutes. The following were finally found absent without leave:

The business of the Assembly having been completed and a vote taken for dissolution, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, saying:

"By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in Atlanta, Ga., on the third Thursday (15th) of May, 1913."

The sessions were closed with prayer, singing, and the Apostolic Benediction.

WILLIAM BROWN NOBLE, Permanent Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND WORK.

The Committee on Christian Life and Work respectfully presents to the General Assembly its fifth Annual Report.

The subjects reported upon are as follows:

I. Purposes of the Committee.
II. Meetings.
III. Membership.
IV. Synodical Narratives.
V. Men and Religion Movement.
VI. Safeguarding Social Service.
VII. The Giving of Money.
VIII. Marriage and Divorce.
IX. Evangelistic Literature.
X. Statistical Blanks.
XI. Defections in Church Membership.
XII. Reception of Members.
XIII. Growth of the Church.
XIV. Evangelistic Work.
XV. Ministerial Employment and Vacant Churches.
A. Vacancy and Supply.
B. Overtures on Rolls of Members, etc.
C. Resolutions.

I. Purposes.—1. In order to make clear the purposes of the Committee, the action of the General Assembly of 1906, constituting the Committee, and indicating its sphere of work, is here quoted in full.

"It is recommended that the following resolutions be adopted:

"1. That the Narrative of the State of Religion be hereafter known as the Narrative of Christian Life and Work.

"2. That a Special Committee on Christian Life and Work is hereby appointed to consist of eleven members, of whom two shall be the Moderator for the time being and the Stated Clerk; the other nine members to be appointed by the Moderator. Of the nine members to be appointed one-third shall be changed each year. The duties of the Committee shall be to consider and report upon the Narratives of Christian Life and Work from the Presbyteries, annually prepared for the Assembly, and also to report from their own knowledge upon any related matters connected with the general spiritual condition of the Church. The Committee shall not report upon any matters within the jurisdiction of other Committees or of the Boards and Agencies of the Church. The Stated Clerk of the Assembly shall be the Secretary." (Minutes, 1906, p. 222.)

II. Meetings.—The Committee held during the year one meeting, at Philadelphia, Pa., on February 14, 1912. For the careful consideration of all subjects entrusted to the Committee, the Executive Committee, organized last year, and composed of members residing in and near Philadelphia and New York, was continued, and met in Philadelphia, Pa., March 1 and 25, 1912.

III. Membership.—The membership of the Committee is composed of three classes. The one whose term expires this year consists of Rev. Stephen A.

Hunter, D.D., Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., and Hon. Henry B. MacFarland. Rev. Stephen A. Hunter, D.D., one of the most faithful members of the Committee, was prevented from attendance upon meetings during the present year by illness. The Committee desires to place on record its hearty acknowledgment of Dr. Hunter's fidelity and devotion in the performance of his duties, and its deep sympathy with him in his infirmities. Mr. MacFarland has found that pressure of business prevented his attendance upon any meetings. The Committee recommends, therefore, the following persons as the class of members for 1912–1915: Rev. G. W. Bull, D.D., Scranton, Pa.; Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa., and Mr. J. Fithian Tatem, Haddonfield, N. J.

IV. Synodical Narratives.—The Synods gave during the past year, by a decided majority, careful attention to the spiritual within their bounds. It is to be hoped that all the Synods will fall into line this year in this respect. Covering as they each do a large territory, and representing in several cases aggregations of ministers and churches which are larger in number and resources than many of the important Christian denominations of the country, the responsibility which rests upon them is great, and the opportunity for service is one which should be handled in a manner conducive to the welfare of particular congregations and of the Church as a whole. The Assembly, by the Constitution, is itself expected to give to the Synods a highly responsible place in the administration of Church affairs, as shown by the provision in Chap. XI, Sect. 4, of the Form of Government, where it is said that the Synod has power, "finally, to propose to the General Assembly, for its adoption, such measures as may be of common advantage to the whole Church." It is seldom that this power of overture is used by the Synods, or urged by the Assembly in connection with the common denominational interests. With a view to utilizing this constitutional power, it is hoped that Committees on Christian Life and Work will be appointed in all the Synods, and that they will be charged, among other things, with the duty of giving attention to the subject of proposing to the Assembly matters of common advantage to the whole Church. The proposals could be submitted to the Assembly either directly or through the Assembly's Committee on Christian Life and Work.

In general, it may be said of the Narratives which are hereinafter submitted that they indicate that there has been some improvement in spiritual conditions, but that there is yet large room for progress.

I. Alabama.—Decline of interest in midweek prayer meeting. Family worship neglected. Sunday-schools are being more thoroughly and extensively organized, with marked advancement in teacher-training, organized classes, etc. Benevolences more liberally supported, and financial obligations more promptly met. Gratifying progress in systematizing the educational and financial affairs of the churches. Increasing insistence on a higher type of Christian living, and greater activity for world-wide evangelization.

II. Arkansas.—Minutes contain no Narrative.

III. Atlantic.—No Narrative.

IV. Baltimore.—(1) Membership and Services: Decrease of seven in number of candidates for the ministry. Prayer meetings in all churches of one Presbytery, in three-fourths of the churches of another, and in less than one-half the churches of a third.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Increase of 1,400 in membership of Sabbath-schools, a large majority of these in Washington City Presbytery.

(3) Societies: Unsatisfactory reports received for societies; boys seem to be most neglected.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Many churches have held special meetings, but no remarkable interest.

(5) Family Religion: Fact that 699 persons baptized in infancy were received into Church, speaks well for home attention to religious concerns.

(6) Benevolence: No mention.

V. California.—Minutes contain no Narrative. A minister reports as follows: Churches in critical condition on the Pacific Coast, by reason of diminishing attendance on public worship, little sense of responsibility for supporting the church, Sabbath desecration, etc. Need for change of plans of work by federation and coöperation of churches. Instead of itinerant evangelism, need for patient upbuilding under guidance of men of proved competency.

VI. Canadian.—(No report.)

VII. Catawba.—(No report.)

VIII. Colorado.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership increase of 155. Increase of twelve ministers and fifteen churches. Few children at church services. Small attendance at prayer meetings, 5 per cent. of membership.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Few adults in Sunday-school, about 15 per cent. of members. Church accessions, 50 per cent. from Sunday-schools.

(3) Societies: Decline of men's work in brotherhoods. Lapsing of Young People's Circles. Splendid results of women's work.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: More concern for social experiments and entertainments than for soul-saving. Increasing indifference to church and activities. Loss of prayer life, constantly waning. Decline of spiritual life in many churches, but stimulus of spiritual life in revival zones and enthusiasm for Men and Religion Movement.

(5) Family Religion: Decadent and well nigh extinct.

(6) Benevolence: Gain in contributions for Foreign Missions, but decrease in gifts to other Boards.

IX. East Tennessee.—(No report.)

X. Idaho.—Minutes of the Synod contain no Narrative.

Kendall Presbytery.—But one Brotherhood organization in the Presbytery. Great good resulting from Men and Religion Conference. Interest shown in interdenominational missionary, temperance, and federation movements. Spiritual atmosphere poisoned by Mormonism.

XI. Illinois.—(1) Membership and Services: Ministers, increase of 6. Added by examination, loss of 559. Added by letters, loss of 174. Added to reserve roll, increase of 1,154. Total church membership, loss of 187. Vacant churches, 25 per cent. of entire number. Church attendance far from satisfactory, between 40 per cent. and 70 per cent. of membership. Small number of young people at public worship is "one of the Church's gravest problems." Churches well attended by non-communicants. Prayer meetings, from 15 to 20 per cent. of membership. In very few churches is the attendance satisfactory.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Loss of 1,164 in enrollment. This quantitative discouragement counteracted by qualitative gains in perfection of organization—teachers' meetings, training classes, graded departments. Church accessions, 80 per cent. from Sunday-schools.

(3) Societies: In many churches Brotherhood has brought new conditions of masculine vigor and aggressiveness. Adult Bible classes rapidly increasing. Christian Endeavor has first place in work for young people and is vigorous. Women's societies active for Home and Foreign Missions.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: "No movements of unusual religious interest. There are, however, indications of intense development, and the cause for thanksgiving is qualitative rather than quantitative."

(5) Family Religion: Stress placed upon the Christian Home's failure in positive religious training.

(6) Benevolence: Steady progress and a general increase. Gifts $4.93 per capita, double that of four years ago. This advance due to agitation, information and introduction of systematic methods. But there has been decrease of fifteen in number of churches giving to all Boards.

XII. Indiana.—(1) Membership and Services: Decrease of 751 in membership. Membership of the Synod is 1,000 less than it was in 1908. This decline may be variously and partially attributable to more careful revision of church rolls, decrease in population, depletion of country churches, absence of evangelistic spirit, and decay of family religion. Church attendance, 50 per cent. of membership. Sunday night service is a problem. Prayer meeting, generally poor attendance.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Encouragement found here. Increase in numbers, growth in Adult Bible Class movement, and more emphasis on teacher-training. But few members of Sunday-schools attend public worship of the church.

(3) Societies: Young people fairly well organized, but lack definiteness of aim. While some vigorous and efficient societies, this department of church work in the Synod generally is declining. Women's societies in flourishing condition, with creditable showing of work accomplished. Men's societies not vigorous and active. Brotherhoods retrograding.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Rather "pessimistic" note is here sounded.

XIII. Iowa.—Committee on Narrative says: "We have each year, published by the Synod, a document more valuable and more to the point than any possible Narrative could be. We mean the Minutes of the Synod. If the Assembly continues this Committee in its machinery, then the best Narrative to send that Committee, each year, is the Minutes of the Synod. "It is clear to your Committee, from some years of observation in all the Courts of the Church, that the matter of Narrative has become obsolete."

XIV. Kansas. Minutes contain no Narrative. A Committee reports as follows: (1) Congregational: Communicants, 38,169. Membership, decrease of 231. Received on examination, 1,893. Children at worship, 50 to 75 per cent. of members. Attendance of non-members fair. Quarterly sacramental services generally held. Prayer meeting attendance, as compared with membership, very small.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Westminster Helps in general use. Dearth of branch and mission schools. Neglect of Shorter Catechism. Majority of schools have weekly teachers' meetings and adult Bible classes. Teacher-training and Mission-training in half the schools. Home department well maintained. Fair showing as to number of church members received from ranks of Sunday-schools.

(3) Societies: Men's organizations not much in evidence. Much greater activity as to women's societies. Quite a variety of young people's organizations, with variety of objects also, with Christian Endeavor in the lead.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Little evidence of systematic endeavor for instruction and training of children. No evidence of widespread or systematic evangelism. Varied expression as to spiritual status of churches and Sunday-schools; some low, some fair, some good.

(5) Family Religion: Wide range of conditions as to infant baptisms. Some encouragement as to family worship.

(6) Benevolence: Indications that opportunity given churches to contribute to all Boards. Churches adopting budget plan, and increased contributions reported. Men's societies weak in benevolences, but better showing by women.

(7) Miscellaneous: Promptness in meeting financial obligations. Sessional supervision of Sabbath-schools not so complete as should be. Limited range of observance of special days.

XV. Kentucky.—Minutes of Synod contain no Narrative.

Ebenezer Presbytery.—The great essential for the advancement of Presbyterianism in the State is, closer coöperation, or federation, or, best of all, organic union between U. S. A. and U. S. churches.

XVI. Michigan.—(1) Membership and Services: Total increase of membership, 133; net loss in seven Presbyteries, only two showing increase. Attendance: 60 per cent. of membership Sunday A.M., and 50 per cent. P.M. Prayer meetings, lack of interest, with 10 per cent. of membership as average attendance.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Alert and progressive, yielding their quota of church accessions. Nearly all using Westminster Helps, but only two Presbyteries report Catechism taught.

(3) Societies: Women well organized; keynote of men's work has not yet been struck—this note hoped for in Men and Religion Forward Movement. Most of the churches have Young People's Societies, with fine results, except that these young people are not in the church services.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Moderate. Stirring revivals in some churches; only discouragements in others. Some signs alarming, some cheering. On the whole, tone hopeful and expectant.

(5) Family Religion: A revival of this much needed.

(6) Benevolence: Noteworthy advancement, except for Church Erection and College Board, net increase being $19,820. In nearly every instance the increase is in Detroit Presbytery.

XVII. Minnesota.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 25,503, somewhat smaller than five years ago. There are 60 per cent. of the churches that have less than sixty members each. Nearly one-half the churches no additions during the year. Evening service poorly attended, and entirely given up by some churches. Few children at public worship. Only a "remnant" attend weekly prayer meeting.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Decrease in membership of 1,624. Cause for gratitude in revived interest in Bible study. Also teacher-training classes.

(3) Societies: Things cheeringly changing for better in organizations of Brotherhoods and Clubs for men and boys.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Discouraging lapse from doctrinal and moral standards and an absence of religious convictions. The automobile extravagance is diverting strength, means and time from Lord's service, especially on Sabbath. Limited church activities by men and boys. The Synod manifests interest in the question of Church Federation.

(5) Family Religion: Neglect of family worship is stressed.

(6) Benevolence: No report on this.

XVIII. Mississippi.—Minutes of Synod contain no Narrative.

New Hope Presbytery.—The unpleasantness resulting from litigation growing out of the reunion is now subsiding, and there is promise of better things for the future in the way of aggressive work. Churches are supplied with preaching. The entire Synod has had an increase of 44 per cent. in Sabbath-school membership. Revivals have been held in nearly all the churches of the Presbytery, and two comfortable church buildings have been erected.

XIX. Missouri.—(1) Membership and Services: Net loss of 371 in total membership. Attendance at public worship, 60 per cent. of membership, with few children, and old family pew passed out of history. From 6 to 25 per cent. of members attend midweek prayer meeting.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Gain of four schools and 325 pupils. Better work than ever before, and 60 per cent. of church accessions come from the schools. Graded lessons, increased number of teachers' meetings and training classes afford encouragement. Westminster Helps generally used, but Catechism obsolete.

(3) Societies: No mention.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Signs of spiritual awakening in many localities, and goodly number of young men consecrating themselves to the ministry.

(5) Family Religion: Constantly growing neglect of family altar and Bible instruction in the home.

(6) Benevolence: Substantial growth in amount of contributions and number of churches giving.

XX. Montana.—Little data, only two Presbyteries having sent Narratives.

(1) Membership and Services: Gain of eight churches and of 298 members, but increase of only four persons received on confession. Small attendance of children at public worship. Little interest in prayer meetings, with small attendance, and many churches not attempting to hold them.

(2) Sabbath-schools: No school reported where Catechism is taught. Westminster Helps generally used.

(3) Societies: Active Young People's organizations in a number of the churches. Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies increasing in number and efficiency.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Not a period of spiritual advancement, but changing conditions give promise of brighter future.

(5) Family Religion: No specific mention.

(6) Benevolence: Total gain of $78 over last year.

XXI. Nebraska.—(1) Membership and Services: Of the six Presbyteries, five report net loss of 295 members. One Presbytery reports a gain, but gives no figures. No facts as to church services, attendance or prayer meetings.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Almost all churches maintain schools, and large numbers use Westminster Helps.

(3) Societies: Number men's societies reported, 12. Three Presbyteries report growth and activities in women's societies, but give no statistics.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Unfavorable situation evidenced by net loss of membership in churches and Sunday-schools.

(5) Family Religion: Reports not very encouraging. Christian parents fairly faithful in presenting children for baptism.

(6) Benevolence: Tenor of reports encouraging. General increase in Board contributions. Budget plan adopted by many churches. "Special days" observed by about one-third or less of our churches, except that "Rally," and "Temperance" days observed by nearly all.

XXII. New Jersey.—Synodical Narrative gives no summary of facts or conditions, but simply presents the several isolated Presbyterial Reports, from which may be gathered—(1) Services: Regular Sabbath services well maintained, except that the evening service is a "problem" by reason of its small attendance. Some Presbyteries report an encouraging number of children and young people at public worship. Prayer meetings poorly attended generally, though some shining exceptions, and many churches drop this service altogether. Distressingly few non-communicants attend religious services.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Conditions afford encouragement in matters of numbers, church accessions from Sabbath-school ranks, libraries and use of Westminster Helps, but the Catechism is not very much in evidence. Emphasis placed on need for teacher-training classes and teachers' meetings.

(3) Societies: Good deal said of "Clubs," "Bands," "Brigades," "Scouts," etc., showing organizations for boys and young men, but little definite information set forth. "Good" is the omnibus word touching men's organizations as doing social, financial, athletic work, Bible study, etc. In the Presbyterial reports generally warm praise given to women's organizations, as being "varied and effective."

(4) Spiritual Conditions: The general situation may be described by saying that the religious activities have been confined to normal and conventional methods, special interest manifested in isolated cases only.

(5) Family Religion: The report from one Presbytery may be taken for all, viz., "Family religion brings about infant baptism, but does not build the family altar."

(6) Benevolence: Churches generally contribute to all the Boards, and "moderate" gains reported in some direction. The narrator for one Presbytery may be permitted to speak for all in saying: "There are plenty of wheels and organizations, and a high personnel of ministration, but dynamic is wanting."

XXIII. New Mexico.—Minutes contain no Narrative.

XXIV. New York.—Minutes contain no Narrative.

XXV. North Dakota.—Minutes of Synod contain no Narrative.

Fargo Presbytery.—Membership gain of 45. Encouraging attendance at public worship. Considerable increase in S. S. attendance. Increase in benevolence, even with crop failures. Poor attendance at prayer meetings. Family altar neglected. Many successful evangelistic meetings. Spiritual conditions encouraging. Two young women sent as foreign missionaries.

Mouse River Presbytery.—Membership gain of 34. Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies promising. Financial obligations promptly met. General conditions encouraging.

Oakes Presbytery.—Several churches no services on account of crop failures. Two new church organizations. Advanced S. S. methods. Increased interest among young people. Budget System gaining. Temperance sentiment growing. A third of the number of churches have had helpful evangelistic meetings.

Pembina Presbytery.—Loss of membership by emigration to Canada and Montana. Churches well supplied with preachers. Growing efficiency in Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies. Revivals have deepened spiritual life. Crop failures diminished contributions.

XXVI. Ohio.—(1) Membership and Services: In point of accessions, the best year in the history of the Synod, increase of 805 baptisms on confession. Greatest increase in additions not in largest cities, but in those of moderate population and in country districts. Decadence in prayer meeting well nigh universal.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Increase of membership, 2,700. Advance made in methods and activities, and much to encourage in teacher-training classes. Adult Bible classes "lesson helps," institutes and conventions, which are producing good results; but Shorter Catechism has small place in instruction afforded.

(3) Societies: Impossible to discover much activity in the Brotherhood organization.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Presbyterial Narratives present an "encouraging view of the State of Religion throughout the Synod, not a dismal note characterizing any of them."

(5) Family Religion: No specific mention.

(6) Benevolence: Increase of total benevolent offerings, $56,274, though a decrease in offerings for Boards of Education and Relief.

XXVII. Oklahoma.—(1) Membership and Services: Churches, increase of 10. Membership, increase of 1,161. Alarmingly large number of vacant pulpits. Prayer meeting, increased attendance of men, and "coming into its own, as a meeting for instruction, devotion and the finest inspiration."

(2) Sabbath-schools: Decrease of 500 in enrollment.

(3) Societies: General languor in life of young People's Societies, but an awakening in some by changed methods of work. Women's Aid and Missionary Societies loyal and helpful. Brotherhood movement in the Synod is hopeful.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: No specific statements.

(5) Family Religion: No mention.

(6) Benevolence: No mention except increase for Foreign Missions, and a decrease for Home Missions, with a "tremendous increase" in congregational expenses.

XXVIII. Oregon.—(1) Membership and Services: Accessions by confession, 1092, 80 per cent. of these children from Sunday-schools, which shows not much done toward reaching the masses. Net gain in membership, 791. Not a single accession reported by fifty-one churches. Only nine candidates in the Synod. Large Presbytery of Portland, with forty-one churches and fifty ministers and 6,043 members, has not one candidate for the ministry.

(2) Sabbath-schools: No particular mention.

(3) Societies: No report.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Spiritual life in the Synod "is rather at a low ebb."

(5) Family Religion: "A general decline in family religion throughout the Synod."

(6) Benevolence: No facts given.

XXIX. Pennsylvania.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 273,075. Net gain of 4,120. By examination, 13,972. Two Sabbath services usually. Evening service the smaller, except in a few isolated cases, and presents quite a problem. Small attendance of children and youth. Non-church-goers scarcely ever come under sound of preacher's voice. General desertion of prayer meeting services by great majority of church members.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Church accession by profession of faith, 55 per cent. from Sunday-schools. Adult Bible classes becoming more popular. As to Shorter Catechism, Synod's recommendations of former years have been but little heeded by churches.

(3) Societies: In these organizations the women are doing commendable work, being predominantly missionary in their activities. Little reported as accomplished by the men.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: With exception of the two Presbyteries of Northumberland and Wellsboro, general religious condition is good and healthy. Though no specially marked religious interest, generally the reports are optimistic and the outlook promising. Meetings of evangelistic character held in most Presbyteries with gratifying results.

(5) Family Religion: "The most discouraging note of all reports is the decline of family worship."

(6) Benevolence: All Boards show gain, except Church Erection and College Board, which show combined loss of $10,781. Twenty per cent. of total gifts have been for missionary and benevolent work.

XXX. Synod of the Philippines.—Decided progress along all lines.

XXXI. South Dakota.—(1) Membership and Services: Net loss in total membership, 267. Accessions by examination, 429. Two Sabbath services, evening attendance less than morning. Few children attend. Family pew much neglected. Prayer meeting. Attended by 25 per cent. of membership. Is a "perplexing problem," as we are rearing a generation of young people who have little touch with the prayer meeting.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Decrease of 384 in enrollment. Practically, a school connected with each church in the Synod. Report from Presbyteries "uniformly optimistic, despite occasional lamentations over irregular attendance and lack of effective and trained teachers." Westminster Helps very generally used. Scant interest in Shorter Catechism.

(3) Societies: In some fields, quite well organized and doing good work.

Generally speaking, nothing special reported, therefore assumed not much either to encourage or discourage. No men Societies in the Synod.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Nothing special reported. There were seventy-two churches that did not receive a single member on profession of faith. Materialism sweeping over the State like a great tidal wave.

(5) Family Religion: "Same neglect as is falling upon weekly prayer meeting, though the ordinance of baptism in regard to infants is quite well attended to."

(6) Benevolence: "Gratifying increase," College Board and Home Missions made a marked advance.

XXXII. TENNESSEE.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 13,911. Net loss, 183. United on examination, 711. Having two services on every Sabbath, forty churches, out of total of 219. Some churches have two services on three or two Sabbaths each month, some having two services one Sabbath a month. Communion once a quarter usually; annually in some cases. No exact records of number of children attending public worship: in some instances, 90 per cent.; but the average is low. There are 100 churches with weekly prayer meetings, average attendance being twenty-five persons.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Number of churches without schools, 49.

(3) Societies: Number of Brotherhoods, 12. Women's Societies, 204. Young Women's Societies and Bands, 22. Endeavor Societies contributing to benevolences, 28.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Churches vacant, 37. One-third of the churches have had evangelistic services, with good results, most of the church accessions coming out of these services. Over the entire Synod there is need of a great religious awakening. Churches are neglecting social, economic and political conditions that are inimical to religious progress. Only 4 per cent. of working people connected with churches.

(5) Family Religion: Reports do not indicate extent of family worship. Out of every 117 church members, one infant presented for baptism.

(6) Benevolence: Net total decrease to Assembly Boards, $2,058, notwithstanding the increased offerings in behalf of some Boards. Number of churches contributing to all Boards, 49.

XXXIII. TEXAS.—(1) Membership and Services: Total membership, 19,240. Accessions by examination, 1,393. No facts given as to preaching and communion services.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Total enrollment, 12,827. Number of Sunday-school pupils attending preaching services, 30 per cent.

(3) Societies: Only six men's societies reported in the Synod.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: No data given.

(5) Family Religion: Nothing reported.

(6) Benevolence: No report.

XXXIV. UTAH.—Minutes contain no Narrative.

XXXV. WASHINGTON.—(1) Membership and Services: Total net gain in membership over last year, 1,736. Discouragingly large number on suspended roll. Satisfactory attendance at morning services, but evening service a problem; although apparently an increased attendance in evening worship. Good attendance of young people at preaching services. Weekly prayer service in most cases is sickly, though in some instances excellent attendance in proportion to local membership.

(2) Sabbath-schools: Appear to be in most satisfactory condition, but Catechism has not large place.

(3) Societies: Good exhibit for men's, women's and young people's organizations of various types, all of which are proving helpful in their several lines.

(4) Spiritual Conditions: Some Presbyteries report marked spiritual awakening, while others report no special awakening other than a desire for civic righteousness.

(5) Family Religion: So far as reports show, family prayer not general, yet parents faithful in presenting their children in baptism.

(6) Benevolence: Increased contributions for the nine Boards, except a falling off for Home Missions.

XXXVI. WEST VIRGINIA.—No specific data given in the Minutes.

XXXVII. WISCONSIN.—No data given further than the statement, that, during past year, there has been a gain of four churches, seven ministers and 234 communicants.

V. Men and Religion Movement.—During the year the Men and Religion Forward Movement has claimed the attention of the entire country. Some facts have been emphasized which were known to exist before the movement was started, such as the predominance of women over men in attendance at the church services; the difficulty of holding the large boys in the Sunday-school and church; the necessity of the church taking a more active part in the betterment of society; the importance of Bible study; the evangelism of our country; and the responsibility of men in the great cause of Missions. Just how far the Men and Religion Forward Movement has helped to solve the problems of the Church relating to men and boys, it is not practicable to ascertain at the time of the writing of this Report. Certainly, it is an honest effort to stimulate this phase of the work of the Church at a large expenditure of time, labor and money. It is too soon to judge of the effects of this movement. Individual churches and many communities have been greatly stirred, and the future will show whether men and boys are more interested than formerly in the work of the Kingdom. Like every other new movement, there has been more or less criticism of it. Statements in books and addresses pertaining to the work have been called in question. It is not to be supposed that speakers drawn from different churches and organizations would all wisely present the claims of the Church to the men of our day. The five points of the movement, Boys' Work, Bible Study, Evangelism, Missions and Social Service, have been, as a rule, ably and thoughtfully presented to the great gatherings of men, but, judging from the press, the one great feature was the Social Betterment of Mankind. The attitude of the Church toward the workingman was often unfortunately misrepresented, and some of the addresses tended to divide capital and labor, rather than to bring them more closely together. Men are men, whether they work with their brains or with their hands, whether they are rich or whether they are poor, and any comprehensive, widespread movement should not make class distinctions, but should so present Christ and His Church that all men will recognize the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. At the same time it should be borne in mind that Christ said, "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father," and that pure love for the brethren necessitates a change of heart. Nothing but the eternal truth of "God in Christ reconciling the world unto himself" will produce the desired results and awaken men to their great responsibility to God and man. Let us pray and work for a revival of religion, and the manifest presence of the Spirit in the Church, and when this time comes, and not till then, will there be realized all that is involved in this Men and Religion Forward Movement.

VI. Safeguarding Social Service in the Life of the Church.—The emphasis laid upon Social Service in many quarters, and the demand on the part of many leaders in the Church that attention be given to this form of church work, make it imperative that it receive careful attention from the Church at large. It cannot be regarded as a new topic in church circles, for the church from the beginning has always had a social side of service. Jesus, its founder, was preëminently a social worker. He entered into every sphere of human need that surrounded Him in order to help and to heal. He was a man of the people, and made religion a source of help in every department of life. He neglected neither the rich nor the poor, but helped all alike with a beneficent hand. He came to save men of every class from sin and death. His relations with the poor are notable both because they were so multiple and because they were so unusual in that age of the world, but He found in every man a brother. He taught the world the new lesson of universal human brotherhood. The effort of social service in the church should evidently be in the same line with the Master's work. It should attempt to reach and help the needs of men, to teach the world the path of virtue, to cure vice and crime, to place the down-trodden on the path of progress and to open new spheres of life and thought for every class. These results, it is evident, can never be attained by any purely social effort, or by the various forms of Socialism current among the people. It must rather be by carrying the religion of Jesus into the social sphere to sweeten and purify and uplift and heal.

The term Social Service is a very broad one and should receive some definite limitation in its relation to the church. We should be on our guard against a wrong interpretation of social effort. In its proper sense it is not a new form of work begun under the press of modern conditions, but a broadening of the effort of the Church to meet the needs of the generation in which we live. It should be understood that the effort of the Church is not directed toward the destruction of social distinctions which are the product of centuries of growth and development, but to the modification of their exclusiveness. There is nothing to separate the man of culture from the lives of the poor if he has the true spirit of Jesus. But this does not mean that he thereby loses the benefits of culture. He only carries them into a wider sphere. The weakness of modern Socialism lies in its emphasis upon class distinctions. The common socialistic spirit is only another form of selfishness. It demands the benefits of wealth for those who have never earned them, and denies the rights of property on which civilization has been built. The Church, therefore, cannot be used to culture and cherish this socialistic spirit any more than it can to advance the oppressive claims of selfish wealth. The proper sphere of the Church is to maintain righteousness between man and man.

For the safeguarding of Social Service in the life of the Church we should clearly mark its proper sphere. It is manifestly that department of the work of the Church which has relation to the application of the principles of our holy religion to the broad sphere of our social life, which aims to make society clean and pure and Christlike, and to put the mark of Christianity on all that men do and say. It deals with such matters as charities and corrections, child welfare, woman's work, labor and capital, public health and housing, public parks and recreations, and other questions pertaining to the economic and moral welfare of the community. To secure this welfare we must have open eyes and a ready mind; we must see life about us in its true aspect, both the evil to be restrained, or blotted out, and the good to be accomplished; and we must become the personal agents of the divine Master to do this, His work, among men. The broad questions of the nation's social life are ours to solve. How can we blot out the places of vice and crime in our land? How can we help reform and save the men and women who are on the open path of sin? How can we bring men to feel the obligation of wealth to the public good? How can we effectively contribute aid to the proper solution of the questions forever arising between labor and capital? And how can the related questions as to the liquor traffic and Sabbath observance be dealt with? In a word, how can we most effectually bring the spirit of Jesus into every avenue of daily life?

These are some of the many great questions that lie in our path for consideration. And they are surely worthy of our serious attention and careful thought, for they are yet far from final solution. In the present days of stress for the Church, when so many fields lie open for the touch of willing hands, she may well lay these questions to heart and ask divine help in their solution.

VII. The Giving of Money.—The conscience of the Church is increasingly sensitive and inquisitive about the whole question of her money-giving and her financial resources. Our financial resources are very great, but they are a trust, and so must be conserved. These resources are increasing, but not more rapidly than the demands made upon them. To these demands, originating for the most part beyond the jurisdiction of the Churches, no Church responds so generously as does ours. Often they are given priority over claims to which our own vast and successful enterprises obligate us. These claims, we believe, come first. We base this statement not upon denominational loyalty, but upon the reasonable test of returns from an investment. We confidently affirm that none of the great outside but collateral lines of Christian work, none of the more distinctively social, philanthropic and educational appeals, are likely to yield, for every dollar invested, a larger, more valuable or more stable return than the thoroughly tested, carefully safeguarded, yet genuinely progressive work carried on by our Church, through the great agencies which she has established and kept under her control. No plan for the conservation of our resources can fairly overlook this fact. We press it upon the good sense and practical judgment of our membership at large, and especially upon the attention of our men of large means.

Another factor that looms large in this question of the conservation of the Church's financial resources is the "Budget Plan" with its corollary of the "every-member-canvass." It aims to increase, not diminish, amounts given It aims to educate the Church systematically as to the work which it is doing and as to the work which it should do, but is not doing. It seeks to extend the process of giving over the whole year and to incorporate it into an act of weekly worship, but in so doing it seeks to reduce the frequency of appeals. It asks the Church to look ahead, to consider her obligations in relation to one another, and then to make proportionate and responsible provision.

The belief is that this procedure will stimulate the sense of freedom and cheerful gratitude in giving. Too often even generous and conscientious givers lose the spirit of exhilaration and personal delight, because appeals which should have been foreseen and related to other appeals have appeared, each claiming priority, in too continuous a procession. What should normally be a cherished privilege thus becomes irksome.

There are two considerations, however, which we feel must be borne in mind, whatever plan is set in operation. The worshiper must be taught how to withdraw his eyes from the busy wheels which his streams of benefaction help to turn, and lift them to the springs and sources whence these streams arise. We are talking and writing much about the collection and administration of the Church's gifts. Are we talking and writing enough about the Church's Lord and Saviour in relation to these gifts? We may not safely take this for granted. Some of our present returns are due quite as much to faithful seed sown in the past as to our recently improved methods. Our future advance depends ultimately upon the soul of the individual Christian being kept spiritually quickened and ever grateful.

The other consideration to be remembered is that no plan can safely be set into operation which is an absolutely closed system. It will not do to swing utterly to the opposite extreme from former methods, and place a twelve months' time lock on our hearts' doors. In God's Providence, emergencies arise. To steel our impulses against them, by pleading the absolute inclusiveness of the one annual appeal, is a temptation against which church members, and especially church officers, should be on guard.

VIII. Marriage and Divorce.—We beg to call the attention again of the General Assembly to the facts which were presented last year by this Committee concerning the number of marriages in the United States during 1906, namely, 853,290, and the number of divorces in the same year, 72,062. These divorces constituted 8.5 per cent. of the entire number of marriages in this Christian nation, or, put in another way, there was granted one divorce to every twelve marriages. During the year just closed there was no improvement in the situation.

This national evil, disgrace and peril can only be overcome by the union of all the Christian forces in the country, by the determined and persistent education of the people through Christian teaching concerning the sacredness of marriage and the evils of divorce. All recent discussions have more and more confirmed the conviction of the absolute righteousness of the Scriptural position held by the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, viz., that "nothing but adultery or such willful desertion as can no way be remedied by the Church or civil magistrate is cause sufficient for dissolving the bond of marriage." We beseech all under the care of this Assembly more thoroughly to instruct and train the Church and community in all the Christian truths dealing with marriage and divorce. These truths underlie all true American homes as their foundation.

As ministers, elders and people, we are bound not only to deplore the divorce evil, but positively to reinstate Christianity in the home through the family altar, the proper nurture of children and the practical separateness from the world of the sons and daughters of the Lord God Almighty.

Duty, however, does not end with the Church. This vital matter concerns the State. It is the State that legislates, not the Church. We are bound, therefore, to do all that in us lies to educate general public opinion, and to promote the enactment of civil laws embodying Christian morality as set forth in the seventh commandment and in the teaching of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

IX. Evangelical Literature.—The Assembly of 1911 directed, by Resolution No. 10, found on page 280 of the Minutes for 1911, your Committee "to consult with the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work, with reference to the publication of literature which shall set forth in a popular and definite manner the principles of evangelical religion." We are pleased to report that the Board realizes the need of such literature, and has begun to provide the same. It is preparing, for instance, a Young People's Manual of Church History, and also a Manual for Communicant Classes. It contemplates the publishing of a book on the Duties of Parents in the Training of Children. It is hoped that the Board will, in the near future, also provide booklets, not only for young people, but also for adults, dealing with the fundamentals of the Christian religion. The Committee reëmphasizes the need for this kind of literature. It is greatly to be regretted that there is not, on the part of the Church, an appreciation of the need, such as is found in some private and commercial quarters. Publications are being issued in great numbers, from the press, of a non-evangelical character, and the amount of evangelical literature is small in comparison. This fact is reinforced by the action of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America, at its meeting in Pittsburgh, Pa., March 19, 20, 1912, urging all the Publication Boards of the Churches of the Presbyterian family, to take immediate steps for the preparation of text-books on the Bible, for academies and colleges. Such text-books of an evangelical character are few in number, and yet one-sixth of the students in the colleges and universities are connected with the Presbyterian family of Churches.

X. Statistical Blanks.—The last General Assembly referred to this Committee Overtures 62 to 117, Presbyteries, asking that in the Statistical Reports in Minutes the Presbyterial lists of ministers and churches should be arranged according to the alphabetical order of the congregations; also Overtures Nos. 267 to 269 from three Presbyteries, asking for various changes in congregational and Presbyterial blanks. There were also referred to the Committee petitions from six Presbyteries against any changes in the present reports. (See Minutes, 1911, p. 55.)

These Overtures received due attention from the Committee. It was found that they had been submitted to every Presbytery, and that the requests contained in them had not been sustained by a general demand for change. It is, further, a doubtful policy which would lead to a complete reversal of past statistical methods and rules, when the changes would lead to confusion, and might be regarded as unwise, if not as departures from principles maintained by this Church during its entire existence. The Committee recommends that they be answered in the negative.

XI. Defections in Church Membership.—Defections in church membership, occasioned by removals to new places of residence, and evidenced by the placing, by Sessions, on the roll of suspended members, of the names of members absent for two or more years, have received of late serious thought from many persons deeply interested in the welfare of the Church. In too many cases, professing Christians in changing their residences, fail to resume church connections, and, lacking pastoral oversight and religious fellowship, lapse into the world. How serious this situation is, is shown by the reports, for five years, of the number of persons placed upon the suspended roll by church sessions:

	Suspensions.
1907	44,883
1908	47,132
1909	47,789
1910	48,921
1911	53,976
	242,701

The rule governing Sessions in making these transfers from the Active to the Suspended Roll requires, that only those persons suspended during a given ecclesiastical year shall be removed from the roll of active members and reported to Presbytery. That about 242,701 persons should have been thus removed in five years, is a subject not only for serious thought and earnest prayer, but also for remedies, if such can be found. In some Synods the numbers of persons suspended during the period was greater than the number of accessions on confession of faith. Confirmation as to this fact is found in the Tables published in connection with the subject, "The Growth of the Church." We do not here enter into particulars, but it is clear that Sessions should take yet greater care when revising the Rolls, that pastors should exercise a more vigorous pastoral oversight of the membership, and that Presbyteries should, by methods best suited to their particular fields, advise and guide both Sessions and pastors, so as to bring about a better condition in this vital matter. Especially, there should be, the correspondence required on the part of Sessions by amended Section No. 50 of the Book of Discipline. No names should be removed from the Roll of Active Members except after careful inquiry by the Session as to each and every absentee member, and the Local Committee, provided for in said Section, should be appointed by Presbytery. An Overture for the alteration of the Form of Government, and one for the amendment of the Book of Discipline in this vital matter will be found on page 128.

The following table shows the total number by Synods, of members placed on the Suspended Roll during the years 1906 to 1911. In several Synods it is to be regretted, that the additions on confession of faith were less in numbers than the suspensions.

XII. Reception of Members.—In connection with the whole subject of membership the Committee has been led, through a study of the situation, to the opinion that the great number of the persons who have lapsed, requires careful consideration, for one thing, of the methods in vogue in connection with the reception of persons into church membership. While it is the unvarying law in this Presbyterian Church that the terms of church membership are simply and only a "profession of faith in and obedience to Jesus Christ, followed by baptism in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost," yet this does not involve neglect as to the character of the applicants for membership or as to their knowledge of religion. It is both the usage and law of the Church to examine applicants for membership as to the credibility of their profession of Christ and the clearness of their knowledge of the fundamentals of evangelical religion. The Directory for Worship, Chap. X, Sect. 3, declares, "that those who are to be admitted to sealing ordinances shall be examined as to their knowledge and piety." It is possible that lack of care in examinations has been, in part, the cause of lapses. The proverb, "Easy come, easy go," may be applicable here.

It is, further, the opinion of many that lack of instruction in religious truth, both for young persons who have been received to full communion, and for adults who have been received on confession, is also an underlying cause of the lamentable situation which is under consideration. There should be, in every congregation, Bible or other classes, under the care of the pastor and Session, and in these classes the fundamentals of Christianity, as set forth in the Scriptures and in the Standards of this Church, should be adequately taught. The Sabbath-school may include such classes greatly to its own advantage. No sphere of work open to pastors will prove more fruitful in connection with the conservation of the spiritual resources of the churches and the upbuilding of the Christian life of the members. True knowledge is an abiding source of loyalty to Christ and the Church. We recommend, in connection with this subject, the adoption of Resolutions Nos. 1–3, found on page 129.

XIII. Growth of the Church.—Attention has been drawn in several quarters to the seeming slow growth of the Church, in members, during the past four years. For instance, the total of the communicant membership of the reunited Church, reported March 31, 1907, was 1,313,708, while the total of the reunited Church, March 31, 1911, was only 1,344,140. These two totals, it should be said, do not include the Synods in China, which were set apart to form the Presbyterian Church in China. The net increase between the two totals just given is 30,432, and is small for a period of five years. In figuring up the growth of the Church in membership during this period it is necessary, however, to bear in mind that there has been a considerable loss through the refusal of the anti-union element in the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church to accept the union. The figures for 1907 include all the resident members of the Cumberland Presbyterian congregations in that year, 144,850. That the situation may be accurately understood, a table is printed, showing the gain and loss in every Synod for the reunited Church between 1907 and 1911. It will be noticed that in the Synods in which the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was strong, there has been a considerable net loss, amounting to a total of 50,417. This net loss does not take into consideration the normal gain, year by year, of the congregations connected with either branch of the reunited Church; and such normal gain is a vital factor in ascertaining the growth of the Church, and leads to the belief that at least 55,000 persons have declined to enter into the union. On this basis the net growth of the Church during the five years would be 85,432. The table is as follows:

The above table includes 33 Home Synods. The following Synods are included in the returns of other Synods: Canadian, East Tennessee and Idaho. The Synod of the Philippines, being a Foreign Mission Synod, is not included in the list. An example of the figures above given is the following:

Three Tennessee Synods, 1907, number of members 35,497; in 1911 the number reported was 15,539; the loss, therefore, is 19,958.

There is, further, in this connection, a serious situation altogether apart from the loss through the anti-union withdrawal, and caused by the condition referred to under the head of "Defections in Church Membership." As already intimated, the number of persons placed upon the Suspended Roll during the five years, 1907 to 1911, was 242,000. To this should be added the loss by death which, during the five years, amounted to 78,339. The following figures will make clear what is in the mind of the Committee:

	Deaths.	Suspensions.	Confessions.
1907	15,501	44,883	80,243
1908	15,866	47,132	74,829
1909	15,107	47,789	82,053
1910	15,821	48,921	75,442
1911	16,044	53,976	72,880
	78,339	242,701	385,447

In the above table the total of the deaths and of the suspensions is 321,040, and the difference between this total and the total of persons received on confession, during the same period, namely 385,447, is 64,407. It is evident that the Church has received a considerable number of persons from other denominations or from persons temporarily lapsed. Counting the total increase in membership as being 85,432, the annual rate of increase is about one and three-tenths per cent., which is not far from the normal rate of increase of the population of the nation. This rate of increase is not satisfactory, and requires that the Church should give immediate and earnest attention to remedies for the existing conditions. This is especially the case in view of the fact as shown in last year's Report, that 60 per cent. of the adult males are not communicants in any Church bearing the name of Christian.

XIV. Evangelistic Work.—The Committee desires to add its own testimony to the need that exists for earnest, aggressive work along the line of the cultivation and manifestation of the evangelistic spirit in all the congregations of our denomination. The keynote of the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is found in the words, "For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." Christ teaches, and therefore we believe, that all men are, by nature, lost sinners. The members of the Church of Jesus Christ are those who, in the sight of God, are saved sinners, and as such they should follow in the footsteps of their Lord. The personal factor enters into the whole spiritual situation, as the saving and transforming force. Christ came from heaven to earth, out of conditions of absolute purity and peace, and passed into those of sin and conflict, in order that "whosoever believeth should not perish but have everlasting life." Those who bear His name should ever endeavor to follow His example by the personal effort to save lost souls. These lost ones are all about Christians in every position in society, and they should more and more seek to save not alone those whom men count to be lost, but also those who regard themselves as being of the best. These latter, as well as the former, failing to rest by faith upon Christ for salvation, are now lost sinners. Evangelistic work, therefore, is as great a need in the city as in the country; in the homes of the rich and the well-to-do as in the slums; in congregations located on the main avenues of a metropolis, as well as in mission stations for immigrants. The God of the Church is no respecter of persons, and His Church in carrying the message of salvation is to be even as He.

This thoroughgoing idea of the human need for evangelism, further, should characterize not only the membership in general, but in a marked manner the ministers of Jesus Christ. To them especially apply the words: "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us, we pray you in Christ's stead be ye reconciled to God." That message of reconciliation with which the ministry is entrusted, laid hold in apostolic days not only upon Matthew, the publican, but also upon Paul, the Roman citizen, upon the man who was despised by the masses and also upon the man who was a leader of the masses. Both needed reconciliation with God, and both, through the power of Christ, became saved sinners.

There is reason to believe that the spirit of evangelism is largely characteristic both of the Presbyterian ministry and membership, but there is also reason to insist that there is a need for its yet greater manifestation in all our congregations. The table included in the Report of the Committee on Evangelistic Work, giving the number of churches arranged by Synods, to which there were no additions on confession of faith during the year 1911, is cause alike for penitential sorrow and for importunate prayer.

What the distressing situation is in some localities, and what the supreme need, is shown by the following quotation from a Presbyterial Narrative:

"As regards general spiritual conditions, there has been little of 'Revivalism,' in effort, spirit or results—but increasing tendency to depend upon 'the regular means of grace,' Sabbath preaching, Sunday-school, pastoral instruction and the like. And with equal step the tendency advances, to look for the growth of the Church from the coming in of young people from the Sabbath-school and the Young People's Societies. Moreover, the logical outcome of this whole tendency is 'Confirmation'—by whatever name called.

"Recognizing the good here, we yet must regret the loss. Sadly we must confess that the sense of 'Lost Souls' has largely dropped out of the Church's consciousness; the spirit of infinite urgency for the salvation of the thronging multitudes, who are as sheep having no shepherd, does not burn in the Church's bosom. Dr. Lyman Beecher, dying, said: 'To save souls—that is great!' But, alas! that grand and radiant enthusiasm has faded out of the heart of the Church. Thank God for the young who are coming, singly and in beautiful groups, into the Church by Confirmation, but who shall restore to us the consuming zeal for the salvation of lost, dead sinners thronging our life's pathway? 'To save souls—that is great!'"

The warning note sounded in the above extract is repeated in quite a number of Presbyterial Narratives. In some Presbyteries, however, a very different state of conditions prevails. A Presbytery in Illinois states that "Ten churches have had Evangelistic Meetings, with marked success; and the Men and Religion Movement is growing in interest in many of the churches." An Iowa Presbytery states that "Some of our churches had spiritual awakenings during the year, the result of the combined efforts of special revival services, and united consecrated prayer on the part of the faithful." Another Presbytery states that "The most outstanding fact of the year is the manifestation of the spirit of evangelism. This resulted from the appointment of an energetic Committee on Evangelism, which secured the most capable pastor in the Presbytery, as Presbyterial Evangelist." An Ohio Presbytery reports that all of the churches but two had special evangelistic effort during the year, to which our large increase in additions is due.

XV. Ministerial Employment and Vacant Churches.—The conditions shown by the tables given below are substantially the same as in 1910. The variations as to ministerial employment are slight. For instance, the number of stated supplies in 1910 was 1,558 and in 1911, 1,582, and the number of ministers without charge in 1910 was 1,472 and in 1911, 1,522. A concise statement as to ministerial employment shows 5,926 out of 8,981 ministers in the service of congregations on the home field; 178 ministers are foreign missionaries, 134 are in transitu and 2,868 are not in the service of congregations. As to church supply, there has been a slight improvement; 203 more ministers were in service in 1911 than in 1910, either as pastors or stated supplies, and the vacant churches have decreased from 2,167 to 2,052.

Attention is also drawn to the table showing the size of the churches. We have 4,133 congregations out of 9,920 on the home field which have 50 members and less. A great number of these congregations are performing admirable service in the maintenance of the interests of the Church of Christ in the places in which they are located. Because they are weak in numbers does not mean that they are an indifferent factor, either in the growth or in the prosperity of the Church. Very many of them are rural congregations or congregations located in home missionary regions. Out from their membership comes regularly, year by year, an important element in the development of the Church. The communities which gather about these churches are to a large extent the sources from which young men and young women come to our towns and cities. The country is the recruiting ground for the city, and adequate attention to the needs of these small congregations, cannot but result in large advantage to the future interests of the Church in general. We once more urge the need of strengthening the things that are weak, by prayer, by increased gifts and by united effort, through all our Home Mission agencies. The Board of Home Missions in New York should be given double the financial resources it now possesses, and the Synodical Home Mission Agencies in the self-supporting Synods should also be the recipients of increased and increasing benefactions from individuals and from congregations.

*A. Overtures as to Rolls of Members.

The subject of the roll of suspended members naturally brings up the question of all rolls and registers in use by church Sessions, and the need of a more specific profession in the Form of Government for the placing or the removing of names from rolls and registers. The general rule as to rolls and registers is now contained in Form of Government, Chap. IX, Sect. 10, and reads as follows:

"It is important that every church Session shall keep a fair register of marriages; of baptisms, with the times of the birth of the individuals baptized; of persons admitted to the Lord's Table, and of the deaths, and other removals of church members."

The Committee respectfully recommends to the General Assembly that an Overture be sent down for the amendment and alteration of this Section. The text of the Overture is as follows:

* For action see p. 326.

"The General Assembly, under the provisions of the Form of Government, Chap. XXIV, Sect. 1, proposes to the Presbyteries the following amendment and alteration to the Form of Government, Chap. IX, Sect. 10, namely: Shall the Form of Government, Chap. IX, Sect. 10, be amended and altered so as to read:

"'X. Every church Session shall keep registers or rolls of persons admitted to or suspended from the Lord's Table; and of the deaths, and other removals of church members; but the names of members shall be placed upon or removed from the rolls of the church only by order of the Session, and in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Discipline. The church Session shall also keep a fair register of marriages, and of baptisms, with the times of the births of the individuals baptized.'"

By the adoption of the foregoing amendment and alteration of Chap. IX, Sect. 10, of the Form of Government, full legal authority will be given for the roll of suspended members, and the power of the Session as to all the rolls will be clearly stated.

In addition to the above Overture, the Committee feels that certain conditions require that there should be a definite statement as to the contents of the roll of suspended members, and of the power and duty in relation thereto of the Session. It is therefore recommended that the following amendment to the Book of Discipline, Sect. 50, be adopted as an addition to the said Section.

"The General Assembly, under the provision of the Form of Government, Chap. XXIV, Sect. 1, recommends to the Presbyteries the adoption of the following addition to Sect. 50 of the Book of Discipline as an amendment of the same. Shall the Book of Discipline, Sect. 50, be amended by the addition to it of the following paragraph, namely:

"The roll of suspended members shall contain the names of those members who have been suspended either with or without process. Such names shall not be reported to Presbytery as being among the active members of the church. The Session shall make an annual review of the roll of communicants and of the roll of suspended members, before making its report to Presbytery, and in making such review shall make no erasures from the roll of communicants, without paying full regard to the law of the Church as contained in the Book of Discipline, especially as to due notice to absentees whose addresses are known, and the Session shall make earnest effort to restore to good and regular standing all suspended members."

B. Plan of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply.

The Committee was entrusted by the last General Assembly with the duty stated in the following Resolution:

"That the Committee on Christian Life and Work be authorized to receive from the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly the returns of the Presbyteries on the Overture known as Constitutional Rule, No. 4, and if the said Overture receives a majority vote of the Presbyteries, the Committee shall prepare and submit to the Assembly of 1912, a tentative, comprehensive, and economical plan of Vacancy and Supply."

The Overture known as Constitutional Rule No. 4 reads as follows:

"The General Assembly shall have power to appoint a Permanent Committee or other agency to supervise the supply of vacant pulpits, and the service of unemployed ministers. The number of members, the officers, and their duties, shall be determined by the Assembly. The powers of the agency shall be as follows: to conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries and their Committees, concerning unemployed ministers and vacant congregations; to seek to adjust in coöperation with Synodical and Presbyterial Committees the requirements of vacancy and supply, by methods adequate to the given conditions in any Synod or Presbytery; to furnish information to church sessions and ministers; to suggest to the General Assembly plans for administration, and to make an annual report to the Assembly." (Minutes, 1911, p. 224.)

A majority of the Presbyteries having answered the Overture as to Constitutional Rule, No. 4, in the affirmative, and notice of the fact having been given the Committee by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, the Committee presents to the Assembly the following Plan for consideration and adoption.*

* For the text of the plan as amended, see p. 188.

Resolved, 4.* That the attention of all the Presbyteries and Synods be again called to the imperative need of better arrangements for the reporting of the Narrative, and to that end the Assembly would suggest to each of them that there be a Standing Committee of at least three rotating members, together with the Moderator and Stated Clerk, ex officio, making five, to prepare the Narrative, and that a period of at least one hour be alloted to the Report at the close of a morning session of the judicatory, to be accompanied with exercises of praise and prayer.

Resolved, 5. That the Stated Clerks of Synods be and are hereby appointed as advisory members of the General Assembly's Special Committee on the Narrative of Christian Life and Work, and that the Synods be requested to direct the said Clerks to coöperate with the Committee in the preparation of the Narrative for the Assembly.

Resolved, 6. That the Narrative of the Special Committee, when approved by the Assembly, be printed in full in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly recognizes, with gratitude to God, what has been done by the Presbyterian Brotherhood, the Men and Religion Movement, and other efforts for the improvement of spiritual conditions in our country, conducted by men's organizations. It is certain, however, that there should be a closer relation between all such movements and the churches, and the Committee on Christian Life and Work is charged with the duty of conferring with the leaders of such movements, with a view to bringing them into closer unity with other departments of church work.

Resolved, 8. That the churches are again advised, wherever the way is clear, to unite with the churches of other denominations in the communities in which they are located, for the purpose of carrying on coöperative Christian work.

Resolved, 9. That the Committee is specially charged with the duty of coöperation with all movements within the Church for Evangelistic Work and Social Service.

Resolved, 10. That the Form of the Narrative of Christian Life and Work, with all related Statistical Blanks and Reports, be again referred to the Committee, to report to the next Assembly.

Resolved, 11. That the Committee on Christian Life and Work communicate with the Presbyteries on the subject of the laws of the States and of the United States both as to Marriage and Divorce, recommending action by each, in order to secure proper regulations by the State in connection with Marriage, and also to secure such legislation as will make the laws of Divorce more strict and more nearly in accordance with the law of God.

Resolved, 12. That the Assembly commends to the Synods, Presbyteries, congregations and generous individuals, the various interests of Home Missions, National, Synodical and Presbyterial, within the bounds of this Church, with a view to providing an adequate support for the ministry of the Gospel in the 4,000 weak and mission congregations.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN F. CARSON, Chairman.
WM. H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

CORRESPONDENCE.

I. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. :

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Western Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System respectfully presents its annual report for the year 1911–1912, under the following heads:

1. MEETING.—The Commission, during the year 1911–1912, has held one meeting, the place being the Central Presbyterian Church of New York City, and the time February 6 and 7, 1912. The Chairman, the Rev. James I. Good, D.D., presided; and the Commission was honored first by a reception given to it by the Presbyterian Union of New York City at the Hotel Savoy on the evening of February 6, at which addresses were made by the Rev. Drs. Good, Radcliffe and Scrimger. The Commission was also entertained at luncheon by members of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church on February 7.

2. OFFICERS.—The officers for the present year are: Chairman, the Rev. John Scrimger, D.D.; Vice-Chairman, Rev. R. H. Fleming, D.D.; Recording Secretary, Rev. J. C. Scouller, D.D.; Treasurer, Mr. Philip E. Howard; Chairman of the Executive Committee, Gen. R. E. Prime. The American Secretary of the Alliance, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., is Secretary of the Western Section.

3. NECROLOGY.—During the year the Alliance has been called upon to record the departure from this life of two of its members: first, the Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., LL.D., Sc.D., one of the oldest and most active members of the body, and one of the chief workers in making the second council of the Alliance, held in Philadelphia, in 1880, a great success. He died October 30, 1911.

The other member whom we mourn, died shortly after the adjournment of the Commission, the Hon. William M. Lanning, U. S. Circuit Judge, one of the most distinguished members of the legal profession, and an earnest and devoted member of the Commission. He died February 16, 1912.

4. WORLD EVANGELISTIC MOVEMENT.—The work connected with the movement for a world-wide revival of religion has been continued through the year, and with increased prospect, from a human viewpoint, of success. The need is everywhere regarded as deep. During the fall the American Secretary visited Great Britain and Switzerland, and found that the Churches of these lands were in full sympathy with every movement having in view the spiritual awakening of the unconverted masses in their own and other nations. Committees have been formed, as already intimated, for the Churches of Australia, Canada and Ireland. Communications have also been addressed to several other Churches in the Alliance asking the appointment of committees, and drawing attention especially to the fact that what is proposed is not great meetings in the large centres of population, but a quiet, patient work in every congregation, with a view of deepening and strengthening the spiritual life of Christians and of securing the conversion of the unconverted. It has also been suggested that so far as committees shall have been appointed by the Churches of the Alliance, that the chairmen, or other representatives of such committees, should meet at Aberdeen, Scotland, June 18, 1913, for conference as to this proposed world-wide work. Such a conference would enable the committees entrusted with this work to arrive at general conclusions which would be of practical value in connection with the movement in every country; and, as has been often said, no grander monument to the lives and works of the great reformers, such as Calvin and Luther, would be more appropriate, than a world-wide revival in religion.

5. WORK IN EUROPE.—France.—The tremendous outgoing from the Roman Catholic Church is still in full force. Never since the Reformation has there been such an exodus. The constituency of that Church in this nation has been reduced from about 35,000,000 to 6,000,000. The serious feature is, however, that the exodus is away from religion to indifferentism or infidelity.

Germany and Switzerland.—Rationalism still continues its insidious work in these lands. There are, however, signs of change which are gratifying and hopeful. In the National Church of Geneva at present only eight ministers are rationalists out of forty. The Christian world is to be congratulated that, after one hundred and fifty years of Unitarian control, the ministers of this Church are now so largely returning to the Evangelical faith. What is true in Switzerland, is, to a considerable extent, true in Germany. The Orthodox Protestantism of these countries is beginning to realize the seriousness of conditions, and has begun to move aggressively for a change, which shall bring about an increase in spirituality and make Europe what it was in early Reformation days—a great reservoir of genuine religious and spiritual forces.

Bohemia.—The Protestant Christians of this land are very busy preparing for the five hundredth anniversary of the martyrdom of John Huss. There will be three celebrations in the anniversary year 1915—one Protestant, a second Catholic and the third Bohemian. Of course the great public celebration will be the chief one, and in connection with it there will be erected a great monument to the Reformers. There can be no question that the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the world, should aid the Reformed Church of Bohemia in its efforts to erect a Huss House, a building for a theological seminary and to secure an endowment. This is the psychological moment to do something for Bohemia.

English Summer Services.—Services have been held during the summer under the auspices of the Churches connected with the Western Section; at the Hague, in Holland, by the Reformed Church in America, at Frankfort, Germany; by a committee of the Presbyterian General Assembly and by Dr. Good, at Zurich, Switzerland. We desire to emphasize that there is no more important or imperative mission work than that of taking care of the spiritual needs of the increasing number of Americans who are tourists or who reside temporarily in Europe. These brethren are not at home in churches of other lands and can be best ministered to by Americans.

6. FOREIGN MISSIONS.—The Committee on Foreign Missions draws attention in its report to the extraordinary and highly significant upheavals taking place in widely separated parts of the world, the most notable being the revolution in China. The transformations which are in progress deepen greatly the responsibility resting upon the Christian Churches and their missionaries. The Churches represented in the Western Section of the Alliance are doing a large work in all the non-Christian lands. They are belting the globe with the message of salvation, and prosecuting the work of missions in 24 different countries. The work is in charge of 1,727 white missionaries; there are 7,160 native workers; the communicants number 178,629, and the sums expended aggregate more than $3,000,000, but the situation demands a large increase both of the number of missionaries and of financial resources.

Some of the chief obstacles in the way of the progress of Foreign Missions are to be found in the anti-Christian influences at home and the conduct of a certain class of white men in Asia and Africa. The peoples of these two continents regard every white man as a Christian, and the evil lives of dissolute whites constitute a very great barrier to the spread of Christianity among them. This injurious contact is not confined to individuals. It is unhappily true that the relations of the governments of the West to the governments of Asia and Africa have not always been characterized by the Christian spirit. The irritation developed by the misconduct of individuals has been intensified by the commercial and political aggressions of so-called Christian nations. It is also greatly to be regretted that officials of our own nation should give dinners and receptions on Sundays to high officials of Asiatic nations visiting the country. These pagan officials consider America a Christian land, where Christian ideas are dominant, and many of them find that Christian teachings are wholly ignored by their official entertainers, so far as the observance of the Sabbath is concerned. This condition of things should not continue.

Especial attention is called to the fact that while the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in North America are divided at home, wherever on the foreign field these Churches touch in their work, organic union has already been effected, except in small parts of northern Syria and southern China, where nineteen missionaries representing the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church still have their separate ecclesiastical connection.

7. Home Missions.—The marvelous industrial awakening of the United States and Canada calls for a corresponding spiritual awakening of the Churches to the needs of Home Missions. Either we must evangelize our people or they will commercialize us. The results of the year's work show large progress and activity in each of the Presbyterian bodies represented in the Western Section. It is noticed that in Canada the Laymen's Missionary Movement includes both Home and Foreign Missions, but that in the United States, with the exception of the Reformed Church in America, it is confined to Foreign Missions. The question is raised whether the Churches in this land should not follow the example of the Canadian and the Reformed brethren. Special attention is drawn to the large work carried on by the Churches among the Indians, foreign immigrants and Mexicans. In the western provinces of the Dominion of Canada the existence of an independent Greek Church is noted.

The Alliance respectfully commends the Churches represented in it to adopt some more uniform method of conducting the work of Home Missions. At present some include Cuba, Porto Rico and American dependencies in the work, while others confine operations to continental areas. Some include all work within the bounds of the Church in the nature of Home Missions; others allow the Foreign Mission Boards to care for the foreigners. Some unify the entire work under Boards or Executive Committees, while others allow the work to be conducted partly by local authorities and partly by Boards. Whether complete unification is feasible or not, there can be no question that much could be done to the advantage of the work in general, by more systematic coöperative work than is now the fact.

The following summary of Home Mission statistics for seven Churches is based upon information received from official sources: Number of home missionaries, 3,466; number of churches aided, 4,401; additions on confession of faith in mission churches, 138,090; expenditures, $2,289,440.

8. Sabbath-school Work.—The total number of Sabbath-school scholars and teachers in the various Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the United States and Canada is 2,425,912. All of the Churches reported for the year a net gain of membership, and one, the Reformed Church in the U. S., has, within a limited period, shown a remarkable increase. In 1894, its church membership was double that of its Sunday-school membership; the membership of its Sunday-schools now exceeds that of its churches by 25,000.

The Graded Lessons appear to be making but little progress in other Churches than the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. The report shows that the great majority of Sunday-school workers stand steadfastly by the Uniform Lessons, which have been in use for the last forty years, and which have been prolific in benefit.

The Sunday-school department of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. took steps to ascertain the proportion of Sabbath-school scholars regularly attending the worship of God in the churches. Answers to the inquiries sent out showed that only about 25 per cent. of the scholars regularly attend public worship. Out of this 25 per cent. of scholars more than three-quarters are received into the full Communion of the Church. It is evidently not sufficient for children to attend the Sabbath-school, they should be brought to church worship, and thus come into direct touch with the life of the church. In Great Britain it is said that only about one-fifth of the Sabbath-school scholars are brought to the confession and acceptance of Christ, and it is the sad fact that in the churches of Canada and the United States not 50 per cent. of the scholars become professing Christians. It is believed that to a considerable extent this is due to the comparatively small attendance of Sunday-school scholars upon public worship. The situation is a serious one and shows the need of definite work in Sabbath-schools, with a view to the conversion of the scholars.

The Western Section, therefore, respectfully overtures the General Assemblies and Synods of the Churches to take action, urging pastors and Sabbath-school workers to more earnest prayer and more strenuous efforts to bring all their Sunday-school pupils to personal confession of Christ. It is earnestly hoped that all the Churches of the Presbyterian family may, by winning the children, prepare, in coöperation with other Churches, for the greater victory of evangelizing entire nations.

The Section adopted hearty congratulations to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. upon the coming celebration, in May, 1912, of the twenty-fifth anniversary of its highly successful Sunday-school Missionary Work.

9. CHURCH HISTORY.—The Commission has heartily approved of the proposal made by its Committee on Presbyterian and Reformed Church History to place in the leading public libraries of the United States and Canada authoritative histories of our Churches. To initiate the work, the Committee has been instructed to select a limited number of communities in which it shall undertake to enlist our ministers, and through them, the librarians of the public libraries in the said communities, in the movement to place in said libraries, the best works on Presbyterian and Reformed Church History. The sympathetic support of the congregations of all the Churches in the Alliance is requested in connection with this effort to make known what our Churches have been and are.

10. PERIODICALS.—The Committee on Periodicals of the Western Section has ascertained that the Quarterly Register issued at London does not include and is not intended to include to any considerable extent the records of the activities of the British and American churches. Its main purpose is to furnish information to the English-speaking churches of religious and ecclesiastical movements among continental and other foreign churches. It is to be regretted that it does not seem feasible to publish an independent periodical for the Presbyterians of the English-speaking world. The Committee, however, is giving attention to the general subject of the best method of disseminating information concerning the Churches of the Alliance.

11. APPORTIONMENTS.—The following table shows the number of representatives in the Ninth Council to which each Church in the Western Section of the Alliance was entitled, and also the amount which each Church is requested to contribute toward the expenses of the world-wide work of the Alliance, based upon the number of Council delegates present at the Council of 1909.

Name of Church.	Representatives, 1909.	Annual Payments.
Presbyterian Church in Canada	19	$380 00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.	97	1,940 00
Presbyterian Church in U. S.	19	380 00
Reformed Church in America	11	220 00
Reformed Church in U. S.	21	420 00
United Presbyterian Church	16	320 00
Reformed Presbyterian Church, Synod	2	40 00
Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod	2	40 00
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church	2	40 00
Presbyterian Church of Brazil	2	40 00
Presbyterian Church of Mexico	2	40 00

It is respectfully requested that the apportionment of the Church for the annual expenses of the Alliance be forwarded not later than October 1, 1912, to the American Treasurer, Mr. Philip E. Howard, 1031 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The financial needs of the Alliance for the coming year will be about the same as the past year, and the portion of the expenses to be provided for by the Western Section will amount to a total of about $4,800 for the year. This estimate includes the salary of the General Secretary, Rev. George D. Matthews, D.D.; but the American Secretary continues to serve without salary.

12. FRATERNAL DELEGATES.—The Commission has appointed the following delegates to carry to the several Churches in the Western Section of the Alliance, fraternal greetings, and all the delegates are named in this Report.

Presbyterian Church in Canada	J. K. McDonald, Esq.
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.	William McKibbin, D.D.
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.	R. H. Fleming, D.D.
United Presbyterian Church	D. F. McGill, D.D.
Reformed Church in America	A. DeW. Mason, D.D.

Reformed Church in U. S.....J. H. Prugh, D.D.
Associate Reformed Synod of the South.....W. W. Orr, D.D.
General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.....J. Y. Boice, D.D.
Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.....T. P. Stevenson, D.D.

13. Tenth Council.—The Western Section respectfully draws attention to the fact that the representation in the Tenth Council, which is to be held at Aberdeen, June 17–27, 1913, is upon the following basis:

Every Church to be entitled to two delegates, preferably a minister and ruling elder; but where any Church has more than 12,000 communicants, the basis of representation shall be one delegate for each 12,000 communicants. The Supreme Judicatories are therefore requested to appoint delegates upon this basis. The figures of membership for the ecclesiastical year 1910–11 would make the representation to be as follows:

Name of Church.	No.
Presbyterian Church in Canada	23
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.	112
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.	23
United Presbyterian Church	14
Reformed Church in America	9
Reformed Church in U. S.	24
Associate Reformed Synod, South	2
General Synod, Reformed Presbyterian Church	2
Synod, Reformed Presbyterian Church	2
Presbyterian Church in Mexico	2
Presbyterian Church in Brazil	2

Please report the delegates appointed to the American Secretary.

14. General.—The Churches of the Alliance on all the six continents are to be congratulated upon the evidences of a strong spiritual life on the part of many of their ministers and congregations. The moral tone of the Churches, further, is commendable, and their relation to the nations in which they are located is favorable to continued progress and enlarging growth. While conditions in some respects and in certain lands are not as encouraging as is desirable, yet there is abroad everywhere a spirit of inquiry as to the religious situation, joined to an earnest desire for the outpouring of the spirit of God for a great revival, both within and without the Church. May our Churches everywhere, therefore, be led to earnest prayer at the Throne of Almighty Grace for God's blessing upon their work, and above all for the revival in Christian minds and hearts of that passion for souls which is the keynote of vital Christianity.

In behalf of the Alliance,
JOHN SCRIMGER, Chairman;
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

IIa. REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES IN AMERICA HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 1, 1912.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

Dear Brethren:—The Council of the Reformed Churches in America respectfully reports to its Constituent Churches upon the proceedings of the regular meeting, held in the Grace Reformed Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., March 19 and 20, 1912.

The Constituent Churches represented were: The Reformed Church in America, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., the Reformed Church in the U. S., and the United Presbyterian Church. No representatives were present from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South. The Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, was duly received by a unanimous vote into the Council, its General Assembly having adopted the Articles of Agreement and appointed delegates.

The total number of delegates present was fifty, out of a possible attendance of seventy-five.

In accordance with the action of a majority of the Supreme Judicatories of the Constituent Churches, representatives of the Boards and Executive Agencies of the Churches were present, representing Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Work among the Colored People, Education, Publication and Sabbath-School Work. The purpose was to promote in a practical manner coöperation in the lines of Christian work just mentioned, as authorized by No. 5 of the Articles of Agreement. The Agencies represented and the representatives were as follows:

1. Freedmen's Missions.

Board of Missions for Freedmen, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.—Rev. S. J. Fisher, D.D., Rev. E. P. Cowan, D.D.

Board of Freedmen's Missions, United Presbyterian Church.—Rev. R. W. McGranahan, D.D., Rev. J. W. Witherspoon, D.D.

Reformed Church in America, Representatives for Colored Work.—Rev. J. B. Voorhees, D.D., Rev. J. P. Searle, D.D.

2. Education.

Board of Education, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.—Rev. Henry C. Minton, D.D.

Board of Education, Reformed Church in America.—Rev. John G. Gebhard, D.D.

Committee on Christian Education, Presbyterian Church, U. S.—Rev. H. H. Sweets, D.D., Rev. J. S. Lyons, D.D.

3. Publication.

Committee on Publication, Presbyterian Church, U. S.—Mr. R. E. Magill.

Board of Publication and S. S. Work, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.—President Cheeseman A. Herrick.

Board of Publication, United Presbyterian Church.—Rev. R. H. Hood, D.D., Rev. J. D. Sands, D.D.

Board of Publication, Reformed Church in America.—Rev. I. W. Gowen, D.D., Mr. L. E. Turk.

Sunday-School Board, Reformed Church in the U. S.—Rev. Lewis Robb, D.D., Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D.D.

4. Home Missions.

Board of Domestic Missions, Reformed Church in America.—Rev. James M. Farrar, D.D., Rev. John B. Voorhees, D.D.

Board of Home Missions, Reformed Church in the U. S.—Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D.D., Rev. D. A. Souders, D.D.

Executive Committee of Home Missions, Presbyterian Church, U. S.—Rev. S. L. Morris, D.D.

Board of Home Missions, United Presbyterian Church.—Rev. A. R. Robinson, D.D., Rev. R. A. Hutchison, D.D.

Board of Home Missions, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.—Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., Rev. Lyman W. Allen, D.D.

5. Foreign Missions.

Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.—(Representatives unable to be present.)

Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, Presbyterian Church, U. S.—(No representatives appointed. Matter left to the regular delegates from the Church.)

Board of Foreign Missions, Reformed Church in America.—Rev. J. P. Searle, D.D., Rev. T. H. Mackenzie, D.D.

Board of Foreign Missions, Reformed Church in the U. S.—Rev. John H. Prugh, D.D., Rev. J. I. Good, D.D.

Board of Foreign Missions, United Presbyterian Church.—Mr. George Innes, Rev. T. B. Turnbull, D.D.

The Conferences between the representatives of the Agencies of the Churches and the Council and its Committees were both informational, gratifying and inspiring. The work of the Conferences, proceeded largely upon the basis of the action of a majority of the Supreme Judicatories of the Churches, in adopting the Overtures sent to them by the Council in 1911, looking to the appointment of Permanent Committees to carry forward the coöperative work of the Churches.

The text of the Overtures will be found on page 31 of the Minutes of the Council for 1912, herewith transmitted. The action upon the Overtures was as follows:

The Overtures were five in number:

a. Work among the Colored People.

b. Work among Foreign-speaking People.

c. Coöperation in Home Missions.

d. Preparation and Publication of Text-books.

e. Coöperation of Publishing Agencies.

1. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. approved all of these Overtures.

2. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States took the following action:

(a) Approved the Overture as to Work among the Colored People.

(b) Approved the Overture as to Work among the Foreign-speaking People.

(c) Adopted Item 1 of the Basis of Coöperation in Home Missions, taking no action upon Items 2 to 5.

(d) Approved the Overture as to Text-books, with two exceptions—first, striking out the words in Item 1, "and preferably the American Standard Version"; second, the addition to Item 5, "subject to review and control by our General Assembly."

(e) Approved the Overture on the Work of Publication.

3. The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church took action as follows:

(a) Overture as to Work among the Colored People. Commended the spirit of it, but did not recommend the appointment of a Permanent Committee.

(b) and (c). Took no action.

(d) and (e). Approved of the Coöperation of the Publishing Agencies.

4. The General Synod of the Reformed Church in America expressed hearty approval of the general action, and referred all the details to the respective Boards of the Church, immediately concerned, with power.

5. The General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States took the following action:

(a) Work among the Colored People, approved.

(b) No action.

(c) Basis of Coöperation in Home Missions, approved.

(d) and (e). Education and Publication Overtures approved.

Proceeding upon this approval by the Supreme Judicatories, the Council, upon the recommendation of its Committees, and with the concurrence of the representatives of the Agencies of the Churches, took the following successive actions upon Coöperative Work:

1. Work among the Colored People.

Favorable action is noted by all the supreme judicatories, except the United Presbyterian General Assembly, on the Overture submitted to them from the meeting of this Council, held in Philadelphia a year ago. Representatives of the United Presbyterian Church give assurance that further consideration will be accorded this Overture by their General Assembly, and it is confidently expected it will approve of the plan of coöperation proposed. For information and emphasis we quote here Items 1 and 3 of this Overture:

"1. That the Constituent Churches of this Council should unify, through existing agencies, or agencies to be established by the supreme judicatories, their work for the colored people of the United States of America.

"3 That this Permanent Committee shall have power to plan the co-operative work, and to put plans into operation, when approved by the Boards and other agencies appointing the Committees, subject to the supervisory power of the supreme judicatories."

We recommend that this Committee on Coöperative Work be called to meet in the First Presbyterian Church of the city of Pittsburgh, at 10 o'clock A.M., on Thursday, April 25, for the purpose of organization, and, as far as possible, the outlining of plans, to the end that the most helpful report possible may be submitted through the Executive Committee of the Council to the supreme judicatories at their approaching meetings. Should representatives of the Board of Missions for Freedmen of the United Presbyterian Church attend this initial meeting, they shall be duly recognized and accorded all the privileges of membership on the Committee. The same shall be true of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, which may be represented by three persons, appointed by their respective Boards, including their Advisory Board, subject to approval of their approaching General Assembly. The Council's Committee on Work among Colored People, or a sub-committee thereof, shall meet in conference with this Supervisory Committee.

II. Work among Foreign-speaking People.

It is gratifying to know that the Overture concerning coöperation in the important work of Missions among the foreign-speaking people met with so much approval. It is but proper to say in this connection that all of the Churches are engaged in this special work, and that, so far, there has been no friction or interference, one with the other, in its conduct; but your Committee believe that with wise coöperation, the work could be more effectively carried on. The vast number of foreign-speaking people already in our country and the large annual increase to that number by immigration, make the question of reaching them with the Gospel one of supreme importance. The welfare of our country, as well as the growth of the Church, demands that special attention should be paid to the evangelization and Christian education of these people.

The Council is of the opinion that it would be wise to reopen negotiations with the Reformed continental Churches, to secure, if possible, foreign-speaking preachers for those of their people among our emigrants.

III. Coöperation in Home Missions.

The record of the Churches shows a notable degree of progress and activity, for which thanksgiving to God is due. It shows also that the Agencies are working with a harmony of coöperation which did not exist a few years ago. But it is also suggestive of still further and more efficient coöperation. Inasmuch as the basis of coöperation overtured by the Council has been approved by a majority of the supreme judicatories of the Churches, further steps in its execution must be left to the wisdom of the different Home Mission Boards and Committees. It is not in our province to suggest to them what they ought to do, but your Committee cannot refrain from expressing the hope that, as far as possible, they should adopt the method so wisely and successfully used in the foreign field, namely, the assigning of certain fields and districts to certain Churches, for which they will be responsible. This would be according to the apostolic rule, "Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others"; or, as it is written in another place, "So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another."

The locating of responsibility must tend to its increase. Your Committee would recommend that the adoption of the Overtures referred to in this Report be reported to the supreme judicatories represented in this Council, and that they be asked to give instructions, accordingly, to their respective Boards and Committees on Home Missions.

IV. Preparation and Publication of Text-books.

I. At the joint conference of the Committee with the Education, Publication and Sunday-School Agencies, the following Resolutions were recommended to the Council for adoption.

Resolved, 1. That in accordance with the action of the highest judicatories of the Constituent Churches, the Council earnestly requests the several Publishing Boards, Agencies and Committees, to take immediate steps to appoint, each, one or two members of a joint Committee on the preparation and publication of text-books on the Bible, for Academies and Colleges; the names to be reported to the Stated Clerk of Council, and arrangements to be made for prompt action.

Resolved, 2. That the Council recommends that the function of the Joint Committee on the preparation and publication of books for religious education in academies and colleges be so extended, that it may consider matters of joint interest of the Constituent Bodies in furthering moral and religious education.

V. Coöperation of Publishing Agencies.

Whereas, The several supreme judicatories represented in this Council requested and authorized their Publishing Agencies to coöperate in the publication, purchase and distribution of literature and supplies, therefore:

Resolved, That this Council recommend to their several Agencies to meet in conference in the near future to carry into effect the plan proposed; the names of the representatives appointed to be reported to the Stated Clerk, the Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D.D., to be the Convener of the Conference.

VI. Christian Education.

The Council also, upon the basis of Conferences held, took action upon matters connected with Christian Education.

a. State Institutions.—From careful investigation it has been discovered that about one out of every six of the large number of youth in the State institutions of higher learning in our land come from homes in the Churches of this Council, that in many cases the Church has done little or nothing to meet the spiritual needs of this large company who are in the critical period of their development, and are in an atmosphere little calculated to develop faith in the fundamentals of our religion, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Council earnestly urges all the supreme judicatories of the Churches represented, to investigate more fully this problem and to seek in every possible way the fullest coöperation in ministering to the spiritual needs of these youth who are soon to become the future leaders of our national life and who must be saved to the Church.

Resolved, 2. That the various Churches be urged to unite on student-pastors, guild halls, Bible teachers, or whatever form of effort is best suited to meet the needs in the various institutions.

Resolved, 3. That the Council asks the supreme judicatories to direct their educational agencies, each, to appoint two members who shall constitute a joint committee, which shall seek to promote the coöperation of the Constituent Churches in providing student-pastors and religious education at State universities.

b. Denominational Colleges.—The Council desires to make recognition of the efficient service rendered to the Church by denominational colleges. They are an essential force in the development of ministerial and lay leadership. It is worthy of emphasis that by far the greater number of candidates for the ministry have come out of such colleges, where the atmosphere is favorable to the nourishment of ministerial ideals. In order that these institutions may continue their valuable service, it is important that while they provide for the demands and needs of the present age in broad and liberal culture, they shall also be mindful of the purposes for which they were founded, and maintain the ideals of Christian education. We further emphasize the claim which they have upon the people of our Churches for generous and adequate support.

c. Scholarships.—In order to cement more closely the relationships already existing between the several Churches constituting this Council, the Council respectfully suggests to their supreme judicatories the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this supreme judicatory authorizes its educational agency to consider, and if found advisable, to report for approval, plans to release students who have received aid from scholarship funds from any agency of ours, and who have, after their graduation from one of our own theological seminaries, accepted pastorates in other Churches being constituent members of this Council, from obligation to repay to the agencies such sums as they have received from said scholarship funds.

VII. Foreign Missions.

The extract subjoined, from the Minutes of the Council, upon the work of Foreign Missions emphasizes the great progress of coöperation upon the foreign fields and suggests three particular matters to which attention might well be given.

It appears that in the foreign field, coöperation not only between the Churches represented in this Council, but between all evangelical bodies, has become so complete as to leave little to be desired. It has led to a division of territory which prevents overlapping or friction, and to a joint control and support of hospitals, schools, colleges and theological seminaries. This is most gratifying and we heartily echo the hope of Lord Balfour at the Edinburgh world Conference that the unity thus begun in the mission field will not find its ending there.

a. Literature.—It is possible that our foreign missionary agencies might be of more help to each other and the common cause by closer coöperation with each other in the preparation and dissemination of missionary literature. Here there is a community of interest which in large measure warrants a community of goods. Whatever is found of value in one Church should become the common property of all.

b. Foreign Seaports.—In the judgment of your Committee, we do well to remember the obligation already recognized by this Council, to provide adequate religious privileges for English-speaking people, especially such as are adherents of our family of Churches, who may be residing in Asiatic and South American seaports. It is a sad and well-known fact that the influence of such communities is often an obstacle to our work among the natives. It should be our effort to make them witnesses for the truth instead of against it.

c. The Deaconess.—We venture to suggest for the consideration of the Council and the Churches which we represent, if it would not be wise to make larger and more adequate provision than now exists for the training of young women for missionary work in foreign fields and for different branches of home mission work in our own land. The Order of Deaconess has the distinct warrant of Scripture. Might it not be wise to revive the order, and through either separate or coöperative effort to provide for the thorough equipment of such as might feel called to enter it?

The Council requests that action be taken upon the several matters submitted under Sections I–VII of the Report and dealing with Coöperative Work.

The Council asks the consent of the Supreme Judicatories to the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Supreme Judicatories authorize their Executive Agencies to appoint representatives to be present at future meetings of the Council.

Resolved, 2. That each of the Supreme Judicatories appoint Standing Committees to report upon the Minutes and recommendations of the Council.

The Supreme Judicatories are also respectfully requested to elect at their next meetings the members to represent them in the Council for the next two years, or for such other periods as to the Judicatories may seem proper. The total membership of the Council is as follows:

Reformed Church in America	8
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.	32
United Presbyterian Church	8
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.	12
Reformed Church in the U. S.	12
Associate Reformed Synod of the South	4
Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored	4
	80

The Supreme Judicatories are also requested to pay apportionments for the current expenses of the Council in the following annual amounts:

Reformed Church in America	$50 00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.	200 00
United Presbyterian Church	50 00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.	75 00
Reformed Church in the U. S.	75 00
Associate Reformed Synod of the South	25 00
Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored	25 00
	$500 00

The Financial Statement of the Treasurer, submitted March 19, 1912, shows the receipts for two years (including balance on hand) to have been $1,431.35; disbursements, $255.57; leaving a balance on date of report of $1,175.78. The expenses of the Pittsburgh meeting are not included in this statement. Now that the work is being organized more fully, there will be an increasing need for moneys to provide for necessary expenses. It is proper to add that the officers serve without remuneration.

The officers for the next two years are:

President—Rev. John H. Prugh, D.D.
Vice-President—Hon. Elisha A. Fraser.
Stated Clerk—Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D.
Permanent Clerk—Rev. Walter A. Brooks, D.D.
Treasurer—Rev. D. F. McGill, D.D.

The Chairmen of the Standing Committees are:

Foreign Missions—Rev. John F. Cannon, D.D.
Home Missions—Rev. Russell Cecil, D.D.
Colored Work—Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D.
Christian Education—Rev. J. P. Searle, D.D.
Correspondence—Rev. T. H. Mackenzie, D.D.
Finance—Mr. E. R. Perkins.

The Council appointed the following named members as delegates to the Supreme Judicatories:

Reformed Church in America	Rev. T. H. Mackenzie, D.D.
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.	Rev. Wm. H. Black, D.D.
Presbyterian Church, U. S.	Rev. R. C. Reed, D.D.
Reformed Church in U. S.	Rev. J. H. Prugh, D.D.
United Presbyterian Church	Rev. J. C. Scouller, D.D.
Associate Reformed Synod of the South	Rev. G. R. White, D.D.
Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored	Rev. R. H. Goodloe.

As required by the regulations, the Minutes of the Council are herewith submitted.

With the expression of the conviction that large opportunities for service to Christ and to mankind open before the Churches through their coöperative work, we are in behalf of the Council,

JOHN H. PRUGH, President,
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

IIb. RESOLUTIONS OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WORK AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE, ADOPTED APRIL, 1912.

The Permanent Committee on Work among the Colored People, suggested by the Council of Churches holding the Presbyterian System in the U. S. A., and created by the action of the judicatories of the constituent Churches at their respective meetings in 1911, in response to suggestion, after fraternal and extended conference, adopts the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That our comparison in this conference of our respective fields shows that there is no conflict or "overlapping" in the fields and that there is much room unoccupied.

2. Resolved, That this Committee will gladly welcome for consideration, any suggestions looking to the extension and increased efficiency of this work which any of the administrative agencies may desire to make.

3. Resolved, That the Permanent Committee recommends to the administrative agencies, consideration of the desirability of seeking from the judicatories which they respectively serve such action as both these agencies and the local ecclesiastical judicatories of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches may desire to undertake in order to initiate and develop plans for coöperation in evangelical work in cities with a large colored population similar to those which have been put in operation in Louisville, Ky.

4. Resolved, That we recommend to the administrative agencies, consideration of the possible and desirable coöperation of the Sunday-school agencies of the respective Churches in counsel and in service in work among the colored people.

5. The educational, missionary, evangelistic and other general interests of the Colored Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the independent Afro-American Presbyterian Synod shall constitute part of the "coöperative work" of the Permanent Committee, provided the General Assembly in the one case and the Synod in the other shall so request and the supreme judicatories of the constitutent Churches of the Council shall approve. In that event it shall be the duty of the Executive Committee appointed by this Permanent Committee, if the above bodies approve, to give special attention to the general interests of these brethren by visiting their schools and church judicatories, when possible, or by correspondence, counseling with and assisting them in the upbuilding and extension of their independent denominational work as far as this may be done.

6. Resolved, That the administrative agencies be requested to consider the possible desirability of seeking from the judicatories such authority for the educational boards and committees under their respective control as shall enable the latter to aid in finding worthy candidates for the ministry of the colored churches and to extend aid to such candidates in churches where this authority has not already been conferred.

7. Resolved, That the Permanent Committee suggests to the delegates from the constituent Churches that they report to the bodies from which they respectively come the conviction of the Committee that the publishing agencies of these Churches can greatly aid in work among the colored people by developing singly or in coöperation literature of a twofold character: (a) Literature bringing the members of our churches information concerning the field and the work being done by each of our churches; (b) Literature educational and devotional for the colored people themselves.

8. Resolved, That joint institutes in the judgment of the Permanent Committee may afford opportunity for a form of coöperation making for economy and for the larger interests and effectiveness of such gatherings.

III. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

BRETHREN:—As stated in its Constitution, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America was organized to manifest to the world the essential oneness of the Churches that hold to evangelical and historical Christianity and meet tasks and responsibilities that can better be accomplished in union than in separation. Both the need and value of this united and cooperative effort is illustrated in the brief Report which we herewith submit of the work of the Federal Council during the past year.

First of all, we call attention to coöperative plans and activities inaugurated by the Federal Council that have opened a new chapter in the history of missionary work in the United States.

Under recommendations adopted at the meeting of the Council at Philadelphia in 1908, a joint Committee was formed in 1909 composed of the Committee on Home Missions of the Federal Council and a Special Committee representing the Home Missions Council. Under the direction of this joint Committee, a careful investigation was made of religious conditions in the State of Colorado. The facts gathered, while revealing the evils of overlapping, made even more clear the spiritual destitution in hundreds of communities. On the basis of these facts, the Committee sent an appeal with recommendations which were received with such favor that by their official action, nearly all the Home Missionary Societies of the country stand pledged to a policy that calls for conference in the allotment of "unoccupied fields among the various bodies so that each shall feel especial responsibility for given fields." The Boards of these Societies have also approved the recommendation "to decline to endorse applications for Home Mission aid in places where the Gospel of Christ is earnestly and adequately promulgated by others and where assured prospects of growth do not seem to demand the establishment of other churches."

Following this action, the Home Missions Council inaugurated the "Neglected Fields Campaign." This campaign under the united leadership of secretarial representatives from the National offices, brought together the denominational field workers in nearly all the States west of the Mississippi for conference. These conferences decided upon action regarding coöperative plans and activities that many believe marks the most notable advance ever taken in the interests of practical Christian Unity in the United States.

Not only in connection with the missionary work of the Churches in its fellowship, but in many other ways the Federal Council has proved its efficiency as a unifying force illustrating the federal conception of Church Unity as contrasted with ecclesiastical uniformity.

The story of these activities is a part of a record that during the past few years has aided in giving the evangelical Churches their rightful place in leading the Christian forces of the nation.

While never losing sight of its spiritual mission, the Federal Council has quietly but effectively voiced the convictions of the Churches on Industrial Relations, the Family Life, Sabbath Observance, Peace and Arbitration and the Separation of Church and State. In so doing, those in high places of official authority in the Nation have learned that the Protestant Churches of the country are standing together as never before.

During the year past, several of the State and City Federations that have been organized through the initiative influence and aid of the National Office of the Council have made extended surveys of religious conditions and are carrying forward coöperative evangelistic efforts to meet these conditions. In the recent Men and Religion Forward Movement, it has been found that where local Federations were effectively organized, the success of this movement has been secured with the smallest financial outlay, and with the largest assurance of permanent usefulness.

The Federal Council at its meeting in Philadelphia in 1908 gave a timely message to the world regarding the relation of the Church to modern industrial conditions. Disclaiming the function of the school, of the legislature and of the Court, the Council has declared the convictions of united Protestantism that "the Church must witness to the truths which should shape industrial relations and strive to create the spirit of brotherhood, in which alone those truths become operative. It must give itself fearlessly to the furtherance of all reforms by which it believes that the weak may be protected, the unscrupulous restrained, injustice abolished, equality of opportunity secured and wholesome conditions of life established. Nothing that concerns human life can be alien to the Church of Christ. Its privilege and its task are measured by the sympathy, the love, the sacrifice of its Lord." This message of the Federal Council has already, through the labors of its Commission on the Church and Social Service, become a source of helpful and fruitful action.

The attention of your Assembly will be called to the coming Quadrennial Meeting of the Federal Council to be held in Chicago in December of this year in the Report of your Committee on Church Coöperation and Union.

As your agency in carrying forward this great and difficult task of correlating and allying the religious forces of our country in matters of common interest, those charged with the administration of the work of the Council bespeak, through your action, the generous and prayerful support of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

WM. H. ROBERTS,
Chairman.

E. B. SANFORD,
Corresponding Secretary.

CHARLES S. MACFARLAND,
Acting Executive Secretary.

IV*a*. LETTER FROM THE MODERATOR OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NEW ZEALAND.

St. Clair, Dunedin, New Zealand,
24th April, 1912.

Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk:

Dear Sir:—I desire in a few sentences to bear my hearty testimony to the rich blessing that has rested upon the three weeks' mission conducted by Dr. Chapman, Mr. Alexander and party in Dunedin, New Zealand. There has been no evangelistic mission in the city that has moved the people so deeply and been so productive of results; hundreds have made profession of their faith in Christ as their Saviour. On "Home Nights," 173 young men and lads volunteered for service at home or abroad, should God call them; and 123 young women over seventeen years of age also volunteered. I understand that our official organ, The Outlook, which contains very full details of the mission, is to be forwarded to you. The Presbytery of Dunedin is also sending you a resolution expressing its appreciation of the rich and abundant blessing that has rested upon the labors of Dr. Chapman and party, and the great spiritual uplift that ministers, office bearers, and members of the Church have experienced. As Moderator of the Presbyterian Church, I very heartily endorse the resolution of the Presbytery. I wish also on behalf of our Church to express my hearty thanks, through you, to the Committee of which you are convener, and to the Church which you represent, for the distinguished services which Dr. Chapman and his co-workers have rendered to the people of this city and the province, yea the whole Dominion. May I also be permitted to cherish the hope that your Committee may see its way to extend the time of Dr. Chapman's return visit, beginning of 1913, to, say, at least two more months, to enable him to visit not only the three centres, Christ Church, Willington and Auckland, but also such large towns as Invercargill and Palmerston, North. By so doing a great favor would be conferred upon our Church.

With hearty fraternal greetings, believe me,
Yours very truly,

GEORGE LINDSAY,
Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of New Zealand.

IV*b*. ANSWER TO THE LETTER OF THE MODERATOR OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN NEW ZEALAND.

To the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in New Zealand:

Rev. and Dear Brother:—Your welcome letter came to hand after the meeting of the General Assembly of 1912, but that body had its attention called to the fact that Dr. Chapman was conducting evangelistic services, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Churches of Australia and New Zealand, and adopted unanimously the following recommendation:

"Resolved, That this Assembly extend its hearty greetings to Dr. Chapman and the Presbyterian Churches of Australia and New Zealand, assuring them of our interest in the work and of our prayers for God's richest blessing upon it."

In sending to you this resolution of the Assembly, it is desired to emphasize the great pleasure which the American Presbyterian Church has in the knowledge that one of its ministers, and some of its members, have been so largely useful in the service of Christ in Australasia. There is certainly no desire on our part to limit the term of service of Dr. Chapman in relation to any of our sister Churches. The only limitations that can arise are those connected with the evangelistic needs of other Churches of the Presbyterian family in other lands. We invoke upon your Church increasingly the spirit of the "refreshing" from above, that there may be yet the more added unto you daily of such as shall be saved, and that your efficient working forces may be largely increased, through the work of grace, which is still progressing in your midst. We wish for you, and all Christian Churches, so wide an opening of the windows of heaven that there shall not be room to receive the blessing, and ask you to unite with us in the prayer that there may be everywhere in our churches a great advance of the spirit of true devotion to Christ. Then shall the promise through Malachi have notable fulfillment in all our work.

In behalf of the General Assembly,

M. A. MATTHEWS, Moderator;
W. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

Va. MESSAGE FROM THE DELEGATE OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH OF AMERICA.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 21, 1912.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Louisville, Ky.:

As especially appointed Commissioner of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, holding its recent sessions in Washington, D. C., I have the honor to present to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in session at Louisville, Ky., official greetings. We wish you well in this Twentieth Century Forward Movement for a true faith, in action for Christ. See Ephesians i : 15–23.

V. G. A. TRESSLER,
Professor in Hamma Divinity School.

Vb. ANSWER TO THE MESSAGE FROM THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. cordially acknowledges the greetings of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, through its specially appointed Commissioner, the Rev. V. G. A. Tressler, Professor in Hamma Divinity School, Springfield, O. We rejoice in your devotion as a Church to the true faith, and, above all, to that fundamental doctrine of the Christian Church, justification by faith alone. We are glad to go forward in this twentieth century side by side with you, in upholding and disseminating the Gospel of Christ throughout this great nation, and invoke upon you in all your work the blessing of Him who is able to save unto the uttermost all who come to God by Him. May we draw closer together as the years advance, co-workers with God for the redemption of the world for which Christ died.

"Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace; comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work."

M. A. MATTHEWS, Moderator;
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

VI. General.

The health of the Faculty and students has been excellent during the year, and no untoward event has occurred to mar the life of the Seminary.

Two Fellowships for Graduate Students have been provided during this last year. Mr. Joshua I. Maxwell, of Geneva, has provided an endowment of $12,000 for one of the Fellowships, to be called the "Joshua I. Maxwell Fellowship," and the Alumni have provided the other, to be called the "Alumni Fellowship."

Last summer we held our first Summer School in Theology, with an attendance of forty ministers. The second Summer School will be held in July of this year, and the indications are that it will be more largely attended than the one last year.

By means of our Summer Social Fellowships, we are enabled, this year, to send eight of our students to New York, Boston and Chicago for the study of the city problem during the summer months. This is proving to be one of the most valuable, as well as the most approved methods for theological students to become acquainted with the great city problem. They devote eight months of undivided attention to their Seminary duties, and four months of their undivided attention to Social Settlement Work.

Our plan of "Ministers in Residence," adopted two years ago, continues to be a valuable method of bringing our students into personal touch with the prominent ministers of the world. These ministers remain "in residence" at the Seminary during several days, preaching, addressing the students and meeting them in private interviews.

Our new social Club House was opened for use in September, and has justified all expectations as to its value for promoting the social well-being and culture of the student body.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

GEORGE B. STEWART, President.

VI. Curricula.

During the past year, several new courses have been added to the curriculum. They are as follows: Comparative Religions, the Psychology of the Christian Life, and the Theological Thought of the XIX Century.

VII. Needs.

An increased endowment is an imperative need of the Seminary. At least $250,000 should be raised in the near future, to meet the increasing demands made on the Seminary to furnish a modern theological curriculum.

VIII. General.

The new Memorial Hall, a dormitory containing rooms for 85 students, as well as a large social hall and refectory, has been completed, at a cost of $130,000, of which about $40,000 must still be raised. This new dormitory was dedicated, with appropriate ceremonies and addresses, on May 9. The presentation address was made by Mr. E. R. Marvin, representing his father, Mr. S. S. Marvin, a member of the Board of Trustees and a generous donor. A reply was made by the President of the Seminary. This was followed by a dedicatory address by Rev. John F. Patterson, D.D., of Orange, N. J., an alumnus of the Class of 1882.

V. Report of the Examiners.

Whereas, We, the visitors of Lane Theological Seminary, have had the pleasure of attending the examinations, therefore be it resolved:

1. That we express our appreciation of the splendid work which has evidently been done by both Faculty and students.

2. That we are pleased to note that in every department the object and aim seems to be to equip the students for their life work by giving practical instruction.

3. That we approve the manifest emphasis placed upon the spiritual life of the students and upon the presentation of evangelical truth under its orthodox interpretation.

4. That we express our pleasure at the success of the Lane-Lebanon Alliance and appreciate the beautiful harmony that exists between Faculties and students.

5. That we congratulate the management and Faculty upon having the largest number of students in attendance that has ever been known in the history of the school.

6. That we commend the Trustees for many improvements which have added to the beauty of the plant and to the convenience and comfort of all, and we hope that funds will justify further improvements in the near future.

Signed by the following examiners:

Rev. William F. Padgett, Chairman, Synod of Indiana.
Rev. Ulysses S. Bartz, Secretary, Synod of Ohio.
Rev. E. Layport, Presbytery of Lima.

VI. Agreement with the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the South.

The Board unanimously adopted the following Agreement, subject to the approval of the Assembly:

"Cincinnati, May 8, 1912.

"The Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the South, hereinafter called 'The South,' and The Lane Theological Seminary, hereinafter called 'Lane,' in view of the fact that the two years' period therein provided for is about to expire, hereby agree to modify the Agreement between them, dated June 24, 1910, as follows:

"1. That the Alliance continue for another year, the Seminary of the South to be responsible for the salary of Dr. Farr and a sum of not less than a thousand dollars for scholarship aid.

"2. That during the year the Seminary of the South have the assistance of Dr. Stephens in raising the funds pledged by them.

"3. That at the close of the year, Drs. Stephens and Farr be elected as Professors in Lane Seminary, and the Seminary of the South cease to do any work in theological instruction.

"4. That Lane Seminary be privileged to seek funds in the territory tributary to the Seminary of the South.

"Except as thus expressly modified, the said Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

"Witness the signatures of said parties hereto, in duplicate, by their proper officers thereto duly authorized."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

VI. CURRICULA.

Prof. Earl Fritz Schumann, teacher of German and Music.

VII. NEEDS.

At the regular annual meeting, the Board unanimously voted the continuation of the endowment canvass, until $500,000 is paid into the treasury of the School. If the School shall keep pace with the normal growth of this work, this added endowment fund is the least possible amount required to carry on the work. Since churches are required to give to the Boards of the Church, a school of this character must be content with the crumbs that fall from the tables of Church benevolences. If the School is worthy of existence, the Church should supply the financial assistance necessary. We have made considerable progress, but the needs are crushing to the administration.

VIII. GENERAL.

We are indebted to Mr. L. H. Severance, of Cleveland, Ohio, for a splendid dormitory building, costing approximately $50,000. No gift of greater value to this work has been received during the sixty years of the existence of this School.

The sixtieth anniversary of this School was celebrated during the week of April 22 to 28. An exhaustive program was arranged and carried out, at which notable speakers were heard, among them the Moderator of the General Assembly, Rev. J. F. Carson, D.D., Rev. William H. Foulkes, D.D., Rev. John Dixon, D.D., and Rev. William H. Ensign, D.D., Moderator of the Synod of Iowa, besides notable educators and Church leaders.

This convention demonstrated the wisdom of the founders, and proved, beyond question, the tremendous value of the School for the foreign-speaking peoples in this country.

We had, in all, 146 students taking the college courses. Of this number, there are 106 candidates for the ministry. They represent twelve types of foreigners. The seven graduates are called to needy missionary fields at Columbus, Ohio, and the States of South Dakota, Minnesota and Iowa. Had we fifty more graduates, all would find fields which are earnestly praying for men.

We are grateful to the Head of the Church for unnumbered blessings, but we cannot help praying: "Lord, open more hearts, to assist us, and send larger numbers of young men for the ministry of Jesus Christ and the Church."

VI. Needs.

The German Theological School of Newark, N. J., was established in 1869, by the Presbytery of Newark, responsive to the demands of the large German immigration of that date.

In respectful compliance with the Assembly's directions, we have enlarged our curriculum, and have now under our care Italian, Hungarian, Ruthenian, Syrian and Hebrew students, in addition to our German students. This enlargement of scheme and work has not been supplemented by a corresponding increase of funds.

Then, we need also, and immediately, a new building. Some of our classrooms are in an unattractive basement, and part of our library is relegated to the same subterranean abode. Such environment is not conducive to the largest prosperity.

We should be put in a position where we can render a real efficient service for Christ and His Church.

D. R. FRAZER, President.

Approved by the Presbytery of Newark, at Newark, N. J., May 8, 1912.

VI. Needs.

A building, in which the every-day religious life and activity of the students can be facilitated and promoted, would be of very great value to us. A kind of Religious Gymnasium, where the associated moral and religious daily life can have the facilities for better development.

VII. General.

We are impressed with two facts that urge and encourage the hastening and enlargement of such work as we are doing:

1. The growing nearness of the world. It is only a journey of a few days to the West Indies and South America, and these regions are teeming with those who, in increasing numbers, are turning both their eager eyes and running feet to our shores. In six short weeks, a young man from the interior of South Africa can reach our shores.

2. The growth of Presbyterianism among this increasing people is a significant and most hopeful fact.

The demand for an educated and Godly ministry for these churches, both North and South, as well as for the mission field in the West Indies and Africa, never was greater. Each dollar given to the Freedmen's Board or to any of the Presbyterian schools accomplishes far-reaching results for the glory of God and the upbuilding of His Kingdom.

IV. Special Lectures and Addresses.

The following lectures and addresses were delivered in the Institution during the year:

One address on Ministerial Education, by the Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Education; seven Evangelistic Addresses, by the Rev. William E. Brooks, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Allentown, Pa.; six lectures on Sunday-school Management, by the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson, Educational Superintendent of Sunday-school Missions; five addresses on Sunday-school Work, by the Rev. Alexander Henry, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work

V. Library.

A library building for the benefit of the University, including the Theological Department, has been added to the plant of the Institution this year. The building was erected at the cost of $15,000, of which $12,500 was contributed by Mr. Andrew Carnegie and most of the other by colored Presbyterians in the South. An Endowment Fund of $12,500, for the maintenance of the library, has also been secured. The building will be dedicated, May 30, in connection with the Commencement, and will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the next session.

Whole number of books, 7,500. Number added during the year, 1,000.

VI. General Remarks.

There are 42 candidates for the ministry in Biddle University this year, and 20 of these are in the Theological Department. Two members of the Junior Class and one of the Middle Class are expecting to do missionary work in Africa, after graduating, if they can get adequate financial assistance. During a series of evangelistic services conducted in the Institution, in February, by the Rev. William E. Brooks, of Allentown, Pa., unusual interest was manifested on the part of the theological students. They seemed to have been consecrated anew to the work of their calling.

The Department is in urgent need of funds to employ a teacher to train students for missionary work—especially foreign work—and to give instruction in Sunday-school Pedagogy and Management. The success of Sunday-schools in a majority of colored churches, because of the illiteracy of their members, is dependent almost entirely on the preacher.

Explanation.

Since the Theological Department of Biddle University has no holdings separate from the other departments of the Institution, and since most of the Theological instructors teach also in the Collegiate Department, it is neither convenient nor practicable to make a financial report on the Theological School.

VI. General Statement.

Three scholarships were added to the permanent funds of the Seminary during the year. Other contributions were also received for the endowment fund, but not in large sums. The Seminary desires the continued approval of the Assembly in its effort to add the sum of $125,000 to its permanent investments.

Every year demonstrates more fully the importance of this Seminary in the work of the Church. The calls extended to the graduates this year, as in other years, far outnumbered the membership of the class. With the favor of God and the coöperation of the Church, it will yet do much to supply the Middle West with needed ministers.

It is in the midst of a very extensive field. Every part of our country lying between Canada and the Gulf of Mexico, and extending from the rich fields of Iowa to the crest of the mountains, a region 1,200 miles wide and 2,400 miles long, is nearer Omaha than any other Seminary of our Church. To a large extent, this is the mission field of our country, and its appeals for ministers are many and urgent. We have sent scores of workers into this needy field, and we hope to send many more.

ALBERT B. MARSHALL, President.

XIV. PRESBYTERIAN SEMINARY OF THE SOUTH.

Acting in accordance with the advice of the General Assembly, the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the South formed an alliance with Lane Seminary. The full Report of the alliance is made by Lane Seminary. [See page 201.]

ABSTRACT OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND TENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Home Missions herewith respectfully presents to the General Assembly its One Hundred and Tenth Annual Report. The Board records with sorrow the death of one of its oldest members, at the very beginning of the new fiscal year. On April 7, General A. Noel Blakeman was suddenly called to his reward. He served the Board for fourteen years, was a member of various committees, and always faithful to the cause he had so deeply at heart.

We have to record also the names of the following ministers who died during the year 1911–1912:

Rev. Harvey E. Baker	Myra, Tex.
Rev. C. C. Bullock	Avoca, Tex
Rev. E. P. Butler	Crescent City, Fla.
Rev. J. A. Cahill	Magdalena, N. M.
Rev. Robert Ennis	Jacksonville, Ore.
Rev. George Frank	Emery, S. D.
Rev. Harold James Frothingham, D.D	Elsinore, Cal.
Rev. C. B. Ludwig	Whitewood, S. D.
Rev. Samuel B. Moyer	Pueblo, Colo.
Rev. George H. Perry	Salmon, Id.
Rev. David B. Simpson	Dexter, N. M.

Faithful in labors, they have entered upon labor's final and glorious reward.

The review of the year presents reasons for gratitude, and inspiration for service. The report of the Treasurer indicates very much the largest receipts that have ever come to this Board in a single year, the gross receipts for current work being $1,491,182.85. This includes the receipts of the Woman's Board. In addition, we have received $360,000.00 further payment from the Kennedy Estate. Receipts from legacies, aside from the Kennedy fund, have been unprecedently large. The receipts from live sources—churches, societies and individuals—however, show a slight decline consequent upon the strong pull which immigration has made, in many centres, in the self-supporting synods, for local support.

The expansion of the work has kept full pace with the increase of receipts. The calls from missionary presbyteries for both old work and new have been exceptionally large. The old work has demanded more than ever before, partly because there have been hard times over wider sections of the country, impoverishing churches, than have ever been known in this administration, and partly because of the increased cost of living and the inevitable necessity, therefore, for some increase in the salaries of missionaries. To this demand the Board of Home Missions is most happy to respond.

A year ago we made provision by which the Board would coöperate with churches in securing for the missionaries a minimum salary of eight hundred dollars. This in most cases has been reached and is still found to be inadequate. In many parts of the country it is impossible to secure a fair living for a family on that sum. The Board has, therefore, taken another advance step. It proposes now to make nine hundred dollars the minimum for the missionary's salary. This will be done, however, only on two conditions: First, that the congregation that is being served shall coöperate with the Board in this advance; and, secondly, that the missionary shall become an installed pastor: this, in order to secure that great essential for permanent progress in the more permanent relation of the missionary to the people.

Within nine years, four new and very important departments have been formed. All of them began in small ways, but under the most insistent demands. All of them have now grown to be very considerable factors in the development of the broadening and deepening work of home missions. Intensive missionary farming now covers the country in its imperative demands.

The Church and Labor Department, organized nine years ago, has, by the order of the last General Assembly, been enlarged into a Bureau of Social Service, which is to include not only the relations of working men to the Church, but a consideration of all moral and social problems. It is just at the beginning of this enlarged service.

The Immigration Department, at first a branch of the Church and Labor Department, sprang to such importance that about one and a half years ago it was created a separate arm of the mission work. The immigration problem has grown to such stature as to challenge the attention of statesmen and of all denominations. The Board of Home Missions is striving to do its part to meet the challenge.

The Indian work has increased from small beginnings, a few years ago, to this present time, when it is related to twenty-seven presbyteries and finds its field of operations in fifty-seven tribes and parts of tribes.

The Church and Country Life Department finds its fruitful field in the awakening interest in rural regions, which, too long neglected, have become sources of moral peril to the nation. This department has not only made surveys in many parts of the country to ascertain conditions, but is devising follow-up work by which those conditions shall be met in the interest of a wide reconstruction of country life.

The District of the South and Southwest.—For this section the Field Secretary, the Rev. B. P. Fullerton, D.D., LL.D., presents the following statement:

In this district there are 700,000 square miles, not including that part of Georgia, Louisiana and North Carolina embraced in it. There are 20,000,000 people within the boundaries of these Synods, the increase in population from 1900 to 1910 being 3,000,000. Here are practically all the negroes in the United States, whose evangelization is an ever-present problem which becomes more and more complex as immigration into this territory increases.

In the State of Texas especially the Mexican problem is becoming acute. Because of the unsettled political condition in the Republic of Mexico, the people of that disturbed country are crossing the line in increasingly great numbers. They are practically unevangelized. While they are members of the Roman Church, they are not loyal even to that Church. In the Presbyteries of El Paso and Austin especially their numbers have become such as to excite at once our interest and solicitude. So far, very little has been done by any Protestant Church for them, and the appeal which their condition makes to us is pathetic.

The immigration problem is not a serious one in the district, although in Texas there are not less than a hundred thousand Bohemians. They are buying farms and becoming most expert farmers, and, if given the Gospel of Jesus Christ, will become good and useful citizens. At the last meeting of the Synod of Texas, a Bohemian presbytery was erected, with nine ministers and fifteen centres for Christian work. At least fifty thousand of these Bohemians are now approachable by the Protestant Church. Having abandoned their fealty to the Roman Church, they are now known among themselves as "Free Thinkers," which term by no means describes to them what it does when used by us. In northern Alabama, where the iron and steel mills and coal deposits are, Italians, Poles and other foreigners are coming in and are being employed in increasing numbers, and their condition makes a strong appeal to our Protestant Churches.

The rapid development of the South, on account of the immigration from the North, makes this a strategic opportunity for the Church. If we mean to build up the cause of Christianity without a large outlay of men and means, it must be done in connection with this rapid development. During the past year commercial conditions in the district have been adverse. In the western and northern part of Texas and a large part of Oklahoma, this past year, we have had the third year of the most damaging drought the country has seen in many decades.

The relation between our Church and the other Churches is growing more cordial. This is especially true between us and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., or what is known as the Southern Presbyterian Church.

District of the Northwest.—For this section the Rev. Robert N. Adams, D.D., had held the position of Field Secretary since the creation of that office, in 1907. After many years of service for his Church, as well as for his country, he felt compelled to present his resignation to the Board of Home Missions. In accepting it, Dr. Adams was made Field Secretary emeritus, and with co-operation and counsel has aided his successor, the Rev. William H. Kearns, D.D.

For the year's work in the District of the Northwest, Dr. Kearns presents the following statement:

We have nearly 850 organized churches in this district. In many of these the membership is small, due mainly to the fact that in the newer parts of the district there is a constant change in the population.

Recognizing the importance of thorough organization in both Presbytery and Synod, some progress has been made in securing committees which will assume responsibility for more careful supervision. In three of the Synods there are now compact synodical organizations. The committees are charged with responsibility for the work of the entire State, with the review of the presbyterial estimates, and with the duty of making recommendations to the Board. In this way we hope for greater unity and more effective work.

There is a growing sentiment in favor of federation, which, if the movement is sanely directed, will tend to correct former mistakes. In North and South Dakota there has been more or less friction between the denominations, but there are now federation councils in each State, and their aim will be to bring about a better spirit of coöperation. Under the direction of representatives of the Home Missions Council, a conference of home mission workers was held in each State, and while the main object was to study the needs, yet the question of overlapping was not ignored, and much good will result.

In this district 21 pastor-evangelists have been at work, under the direction of the Home Mission committees of the Presbyteries. Seven of these are combination men, serving under commission of both the Home Mission and Sabbath-school Boards. In three cases, one man has served two Presbyteries. These men seek out destitute communities, and open preaching stations, which frequently develop into churches, supply the small vacant churches and get them ready for settled ministers, introduce modern financial methods, hold evangelistic meetings, and so forth.

Conferences on modern methods of church finance have been held. Many churches have adopted better plans. The single and duplex budget systems are being successfully operated in many places. In some Presbyteries members of the Home Mission committee have visited the small churches, explained the method, and secured "every-member" canvasses for both local support and benevolences. Had conditions been at all favorable, large increase in gifts would have been the result. As it is, we have barely held our own. The drought of the past two years has been very severe, especially in the Dakotas and western Nebraska.

Rocky Mountain District.—For this section the Field Secretary, the Rev. Robert M. Donaldson, D.D., presents the following statement:

This district is unchanged in area, but proposes some changes in organization. A new Presbytery is projected in Arizona and one in Wyoming, looking toward the erection of a Synod in each of these States. Up to this time, Arizona has been part of the Synod of New Mexico, and Wyoming part of the Synod of Colorado. In each case expense and distances are prohibitive, interfering with full meetings and with a comprehensive study of the entire field. Marked differences in local conditions add to the complexity of administration, when the affairs of two large States are considered by one body. The erection of these two new Synods will greatly increase the efficiency of service in these respective States.

In addition to pastors and missionaries, the field force comprises eight pastor-evangelists and four synodical evangelists or superintendents. Two additional pastor-evangelists are to be supplied. One now bears joint commission from the Boards of Home Missions and Sabbath-School Work. In only one instance does the territory of a pastor-evangelist cover any part of that assigned to a synodical representative. Hence there is practically no duplication of Presbyterian field workers in the Rocky Mountain District, except where missionaries of the Sabbath-School Board are at work.

The year has been one of church building, especially in communities not heretofore provided with houses of worship. In two of the smaller Presbyteries, eight sanctuaries and one manse have been completed during the year. More attention has been given to equipment and enlargement than to extended organization. Special emphasis has been placed upon reorganization of financial systems, both in mission and self-supporting churches, thereby bringing them into conformity with the Assembly's budget system. In every case where it has been undertaken seriously, it has proved beneficial to the local organization, as well as to the general work of the church.

Pacific Coast District.—For this section the Field Secretary, the Rev. William Sylvester Holt, D.D., presents the following statement:

This district covers one-third the entire area of the United States on this Continent. There are 3,616,484 square miles in the United States. There are 1,025,154 square miles in the Pacific Coast District. When the population is considered, the Pacific Coast District is of less importance, having less than one-twentieth of the population of the country—according to the census for 1910, a total of 4,338,535.

Of the nineteen cities in the United States which contain more than a quarter of a million people each, the Pacific Coast has two; and of the cities which number more than one hundred thousand each, it has six.

By far the largest share of the gold and silver of the country is mined in this district. There are no forests in the world to-day to be compared, either in extent or in the size of the trees, with the forests of the Pacific slope.

Material Development.—New projects are continually in process of completion. The plans of the Government in irrigation extend over years, while private plans often have the long look ahead. One special thing deserving of mention this year, is on foot in eastern Oregon. For many years a vast portion of eastern Oregon has been held by a road company which has been unwilling to sell to settlers. Now they have closed out their holdings to men who are promising to put the land on the market on terms so easy as to induce settlers to purchase it.

New movements on the part of railroads are also occupying our attention. One road is steadily moving northward along the coast from San Francisco, and will reach a district that to-day has no transportation facilities. Another line is moving toward the coast from south central Oregon; another line is building directly across the State of Oregon from east to west; another line has continued its trackage from Reno, Nevada, to Lakeview, Oregon, thus opening another new section of country; another transcontinental line is said to have bought up a large tract of water frontage on Puget Sound, and secured control of a branch road running from the Sound into the Cascade Mountains to tap a belt of cement rock and coal. Oil has been discovered on the west coast of Washington, and a recent paper has devoted large space to making known this new resource. Already Oil City has been founded on the Hoh River, which runs out of the Olympic range into the ocean. These are a few illustrations of new development within the year.

Bureau of Social Service.—On April 1, 1903, the Board established a "Workingmen's Department," which later became known as the "Department of Church and Labor." This work was continued with increasing success and with rapidly developing features, until the General Assembly of 1911 instructed the Board of Home Missions to establish a Bureau of Social Service, which should include the Department of Church and Labor, and whose function it should be to "study social conditions as they are related to the progress of the Kingdom of God and to suggest to the Church practical ways of realizing the social ideals of the Gospel."

Men and Religion Forward Movement.—During eight months of the year the Rev. Charles Stelzle, Superintendent of the Bureau, has been Dean of the Social Service Department of the Men and Religion Forward Movement. In this capacity he prepared the survey blanks, designed the charts, and systematized the statistical material for the Men and Religion campaigns, in 75 of the principal cities. The bureau prepared the exhibits to be displayed in connection with the Christian Conservation Congress of the movement held in New York during April. Mr. Stelzle also was the leader of one of the teams of experts which conducted eight-day campaigns in Minneapolis, Minnesota; South Bend, Indiana; Grand Rapids, Michigan; Sioux Falls, South Dakota; Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston, Texas; Little Rock, Arkansas; Nashville, Tennessee; Paterson, New Jersey; Portland, Maine; Boston, Massachusetts; Baltimore, Maryland; Birmingham, Alabama; Charleston, South Carolina; Jacksonville, Florida; Atlanta, Georgia; Chattanooga and Memphis, Tennessee; Brooklyn and New York.

The deplorable social conditions discovered in many of these cities indicate the great need of interest and knowledge on the part of the Church concerning such matters. Many municipalities are suffering on account of an inefficient conservatism on the one hand and a criminal radicalism on the other. The Church cannot evade its responsibility for such situations.

Aside from the service rendered to what is unquestionably the greatest religious movement of the year—if not of this generation—the Bureau has profited in the larger experience that has come to its workers and in the accumulation of information with regard to conditions in the churches—and social conditions in general—in most of our larger cities.

Department of Immigration.—The work of the Home Board, among the recent immigrant populations in this country, is carried on through its Department of Immigration, the Rev. William Payne Shriver, superintendent. It was organized in the spring of 1908. It does not include the Home Board's extensive work among the German-speaking churches, nor the Spanish-speaking people of the Southwest, Cuba and Porto Rico. In its fourth year, ending March 31, 1912, the Department of Immigration has co-operated in 64 immigrant communities in twenty-one Presbyteries—an increase of 24 over the year previous.

These sixty-four communities, grouped according to their dominant populations, are as follows: Bohemian, 24; other Slavic, 10; Italian, 20; Magyar, 7; Syrian, 2; Jewish, 2; Armenian, 1; Scandinavian, 1. Of these, 18 are farming communities among the Bohemians in the West and Southwest. For this service, the Home Board has commissioned 70 workers—36 ordained ministers, 11 women visitors, 5 lay workers, and 18 students, almost all the latter being engaged throughout the year. There are 30 organized churches included, 18 drawing their membership entirely from foreign constituencies. The Department of Immigration is co-operating with local Home Mission committees in developing the plan and scope of the ministry of our Presbyterian Church and in maintaining work in no less than 12 important city immigrant and industrial centres throughout the country: New York, Brooklyn, Newark, Baltimore, Buffalo, Cleveland, Indianapolis and Gary, Indiana, St. Louis, Kansas City, San Francisco and Oakland.

Department of Church and Country Life.—The work of the Department of Church and Country Life during the past year, under the superintendence of the Rev. Warren H. Wilson, Ph.D., has been carried on along the same general lines that marked the first four months of its existence. Of special significance in point of time came the graduate schools of Religious Sociology, four of which were held during the summer, at the suggestion and with the co-operation of the department. These were at Knoxville, Tennessee, in connection with the Summer School of the South; at Auburn Theological Seminary, Auburn, New York; at the Summer School of Grove City College, Grove City, Pennsylvania; and in co-operation with the University Pastors' Association Summer School at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin.

Department of Indian Missions.—The present status of the Indian race in the United States makes the work of this department particularly important and promising. The Rev. Thomas Clinton Moffet, D.D., continues as its superintendent.

In our Presbyterian work there are now 106 organized churches, and 101 additional mission stations where services are conducted. These are supplied by 85 ordained ministers, of whom 44 are natives, and 68 assistants under commission of the Board or paid by the local congregations. The total number of communicants is 6,879, and in 102 Sabbath-schools there is an enrollment of 5,768. The estimated adherents of the Presbyterian Church are 15,695, to which 1,500 must be added of native Alaskans, for the total Indian constituency of our Church in the United States.

Conclusion.—The reading of the Report thus far has made it manifest that the new year fronts us with a challenge of most unusual opportunities. The appeals from Presbyteries were never so urgent. Still it is true that new populations are pouring into the West and new centres are forming in all the western States. Disaster in many fields, occasioned by floods, drought and irrigation disappointments, have brought unexpected and unexampled hardship on wide areas of the mission field. They must be met by more generous help. The new departments open a well-nigh limitless field for occupation. We have scaled their demands, but the responsibility we have accepted is large. And, finally, the necessary rise in the salaries of missionaries will call for a heavy drain upon our treasury. These reasons illustrate and justify the large advance of over $100,000.00 which we have been called upon to make.

We urge, therefore, large advance from the churches over last year's receipts. We appeal to individual givers for generous gifts to enable us especially to meet the calls of the new departments; to do something adequate for our immigration population; to take our share in the religious conservation of our country populations; with other religious bodies, to lift social questions into a Christian atmosphere; and to help us with some adequacy to bring the gospel message to old populations, and new, of our country's hundred millions of people.

Self-supporting Synods.—The self-supporting Synods have furnished us reports of their important and ever-increasing work.

General Summary.

The total number of missionaries under agreement with the Board during the year ending March 31, 1912, is 1,637, and they are distributed as follows:

Abstract of the Seventy-fifth Annual Report.

The Board presents herewith its Seventh-fifth Annual Report to the General Assembly. In commemoration of the work of these three-quarters of a century, it is fitting that the introduction to this report should survey briefly the growth and development of these years and bear testimony to the goodness and faithfulness of God.

The Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was organized by direction of the General Assembly in the city of Baltimore, October 31, 1837, and the first meeting of the Board was held in Baltimore, that date. The Board took over all the work of the former Western Foreign Missionary Society, and New York was made the office headquarters. A little later, the Central and Southern Boards of Foreign Missions, supported, respectively, by the Synods of Virginia and North Carolina and the Synods of South Carolina and Georgia, were transferred to the General Assembly's Board. When the Civil War broke out, the Southern churches separated from the Northern, and formed their own missionary organization. No changes were made in the constitution of the Board, either in 1837 or in 1861, but in 1870 the General Assembly reduced its membership to fifteen, the Old and New School Churches having reunited at Pittsburg the preceding year. At the Reunion the missions of the American Board in Syria, Persia, and on the Gaboon were transferred, with the support of the New School churches, to the Presbyterian Board. In 1890, the Board was enlarged to twenty-one members, one-third to be elected annually by the Assembly. It now holds the allegiance of all Presbyterian churches in every State, the New School congregations and the Cumberland Presbyterian churches having transferred their support to it at the time of the Reunions of 1869 and 1906. The Southern Church is still distinct, but its Foreign Mission Executive Committee and our Board work together in the closest harmony and confidence. The American Board, the oldest American missionary organization now in existence, has become the missionary agency of the Congregational churches, and our Board's relations to it are also wholly harmonious and coöperative.

In the seventy-five years of its history the Board has been served by seven presidents, regarding the chairmen of the Executive Committee in the early years as representing the same office as the president of the Board has filled since its reduction in size:

The Rev. William W. Phillips, D.D.	1837–1865
The Rev. John M. Krebs, D.D.	1867–1869
Mr. James Lenox	1870–1873
The Rev. William Adams, D.D.	1873–1880
The Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D.	1880–1885
The Rev. John D. Wells, D.D.	1886–1903
The Rev. George Alexander, D.D.	1903–

In the early years the Board had semi-annual meetings, then only annual, while the Executive Committee met weekly. Since the reorganization in 1870 the Board has had meetings semi-monthly, and the foreign mission day at the General Assembly takes the place of the old annual meeting.

In the early years and for half a century the missions among the Indians constituted a large part of the work of the Board, but this gradually passed over to the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, which took over the last of it in 1893. The following table shows the date of the founding of the Board's missions in each land.

Name.	Date.	Name.	Date.
Africa	1833	Persia	1835

The Report of the Missions for the year, concisely given, is as follows:

AFRICA.—The year closing has been marked by more confessions of Jesus Christ, more additions to the churches, more itinerant evangelistic work by both missionaries and natives, more village schools conducted, more opportunities beckoning, more wrestling in prayer, more competition and opposition, more new missionaries coming, more tangible and commanding reasons to thank God and move forward, than usual.

The members of the Mission clearly recognize that the time of opportunity and crisis is on, and that the rapid recent spread of Hausa people of the Mohammedan faith, the aggressive enterprise of European commercial agencies, the readiness and spiritual destitution of the multitudes untouched by any missionary influence, the certain passing of the old-time type of heathenism to whatever faith or force comes first, to say nothing of our Lord's commission, carries a clear call to move forward and take a goodly land before it shall soon be too late. Quite less than a decade's delay may easily mean lasting loss of evangelical prestige in a strategic region toward the heart of the once Dark Continent.

CHINA.—The year has been characterized by an extraordinary and profoundly significant political upheaval. Christendom has been amazed by the magnitude and also by the swiftness and decisiveness of that revolution. There is nothing in history with which this upheaval and reconstruction can be compared, except, possibly, that which followed the Crusades in the Middle Ages; but even that transformation, great as it was, is dwarfed by the vaster transformation upon which we now look.

Flood, famine and pestilence have continued to intensify the tragedy of internal strife. Vast areas have been inundated and famine reigns for the third time in five years. The Relief Committee in China writes: "A large area is without food except weeds, grass, bark, and in some cases potato vines. There is absolutely no grain. A conservative estimate is that one million people are on the verge of starvation.

The Chinese Christians have shared in full measure the privations and sorrows of their countrymen. Hundreds of Chinese pastors, teachers and evangelists, who have been supported wholly or in part by the Christians on the field, cannot now be maintained by their impoverished people. Churches and schools have been swept away by floods, families have been scattered by war, and multitudes of our fellow-believers were without food and shelter for the winter.

Our work, however, has been greatly prospered, the growth in a decade having been 175 per cent. This is the day when the faithful missionary of Christ is most needed in China. Let the whole Church of God pray for these overworked and care-burdened men and women.

GUATEMALA.—In the Guatemala Mission interest has centred around the new building operations which were made possible by the Kennedy bequest and the kindness of a group of friends in the United States. After the visit of the Board's secretary, in March, 1911, the Board voted to reëstablish its educational work in Guatemala. As a result, the Mission has been building in Guatemala City a fine Girls' School and has planned, also, eventually for a Boys' School and for two day-schools at Quezaltenango. The educational opportunity in Guatemala is a very remarkable one. The Mission not only has the permission, but the strong and urgent approval of the Government, which has promised to lend its influence to this work.

INDIA.—The tone of popular feeling and thought in India is much more hopeful and encouraging than five years ago. The wave of division and lawless nationalism has subsided, but it has given undoubtedly a great accession of permanent strength to a true national spirit. In the Church and throughout the land there is an increasing disposition to strive to meet self-support.

The educational work of the India Missions has continued its growth and influence and some progress has been made in carrying out the resolute purpose of the Board that the whole staff of teachers in all Mission schools, including the schools for Hindus and Mohammedans under Mission care, aided by the government, shall be Christian, and every influence of the schools made evangelical and evangelistic. Dr. Ewing, of Lahore, has been called to the unique honor of the Vice-Chancellorship of the University of the Punjab, the highest educational honor in all northwestern India. The Forman Christian College at Lahore and the Christian College at Allahabad have retained their positions at the head of education in these fields. The low-caste people are ready to place themselves under the care and instruction of the Christian Church, but the men and women and necessary support are not available to seize this opportunity, which has had no precedent on the mission field in our day and which will not linger for us long.

The first missionaries of our Church landed in India, on October 15, 1833. After twenty-five years of work they had 267 church members. Last year alone the Missions added 13,383 communicants and catechumens.

JAPAN.—The thoughtful men of Japan are awaking at last to the impossibility of building national morality upon irreligion. In the earlier years of the Meiji era, the statesmen who were guiding Japan, while providing for religious liberty, were themselves, as they deemed it, superior to all superstition. During the past year, under the influence of Mr. Tokonami, Vice-Minister of Home Affairs, a new movement has begun. Mr. Tokonami believes that moral teaching is indispensable and that religion is essential to morality. Accordingly, under the auspices of the government, he called a conference of the three religions to which he felt Japan must look to meet her needs. The conference was held during several days of the week beginning February 25, 1912, and was participated in by representatives of the Shinto, Buddhist and Christian religions. The resolutions finally adopted were as follows:

Shinto Resolutions.—1. The representatives of the three religions shall hold an Annual Conference for the purpose of promoting friendly relations.

2. The representatives of the three religions shall unite in the endeavor to better moral conditions and to safeguard the nationalism of Japan, which is unequaled in the world.

3. The representatives of the three religions shall mutually respect the principles of humanity and endeavor to promote the peace of the world.

4. In order to carry the foregoing into effect and also to keep in touch with one another, a joint committee shall be appointed.

Buddhist Resolutions.—1. We shall all endeavor, the adherents of each religion practicing their own doctrines and "guarding and maintaining the prosperity of the Imperial Throne," to elevate the morality of the nation.

2. Those in authority, on their part, should remove existing obstacles and hindrances; promote government, religion and education, and bring about harmony among them.

Christian Resolution.—It is our understanding that the purpose of the government, in convening a Conference of representatives of the three religions, is coöperation—each within its own proper sphere—of government, religion and education, for the upholding of morality and the betterment of social conditions; that this purpose is in accord with the great principle of religious liberty, and has due regard to the respect that properly belongs to religion; and that so the dignity of the Throne shall be upheld and the progress of the nation advanced. Thus understood, the purpose of the government is at one with our own position; and with this understanding—the adherents of each religion holding fast to their own convictions—we will strive to accomplish the great task of elevating the nation. We shall also expect the government, on its part, to endeavor to accomplish this purpose.

Korea (Chosen).—This country is now an integral part of Japan and it is being reconstructed in every part and institution. The period of transition is affecting our educational work. We must readjust all our schools to the requirements of the Japanese Department of Education. This will be a benefit in many ways, but it involves difficulties, especially in the primary schools, which have been wholly supported by local Christians, who do not find it easy to adjust themselves to the new regulations. In spite of all difficulties, there are undoubted evidences that the power of God is still working in Korea. The reports of some of the stations are inspiring reading. Syen Chyun, for example, reports that the number of Christians in Mr. Whittemore's district is 9,000, of whom 2,952 are communicants and 1,997 catechumens; that Mr. Ross reports 707 persons baptized in his territory during the year, 279 by the three associate Korean pastors and 428 personally, so that in Mr. Ross' district the number of Christians is 8,545, of whom 2,851 are new believers, 2,327 catechumens and 3,367 communicants; that Mr. McCune baptized 183 and enrolled 189 catechumens, thus making a constituency of 1,287; that Mr. Roberts' statistics show 2,368 new believers, 990 catechumens and 1,095 communicants, of whom 179 were baptized during the year, bringing the total number of professing Christians up to 4,500; and that Mr. Lampe records 232 persons received into full communion.

Mexico.—In Mexico the Revolution formally came to a close with the resignation of President Diaz and his flight to Europe, in May, 1911. In spite of Senor Madero's almost unanimous election and inauguration, in October, great unrest has continued to prevail throughout the year. The immediate result on missionary work has been to reduce materially the field of evangelistic itineration and visiting of out-stations, and has also affected the contributions of our scattered Indian congregations. But it is the opinion of the missionaries and of a large majority of the native workers that the final effect will be decidedly favorable to the extension of the Gospel.

Persia.—The year has been a year of tragedy for Persia. It began with great hopes, but these were soon rudely shattered. The ex-Shah came back from Russia, and his brother advanced on Teheran from the southwest. Both were driven off, but difficulties arose with Russia, which led to the overthrow of the new financial organization of the Americans and to the assumption of the control of northern Persia by Russia. But how different are the conditions as compared with seventy-five years ago! Then there was no door open to the Moslems and no Moslem pupils attended the schools. Even twenty years ago the Moslem door was still closed. Now all over the Moslem world the iron bars are being lowered. One of the leading Persians of the day recently told Dr. Shedd that Islam was a "foreign religion that has harmed Persia, and that the drift in the Caucasus among Moslems is away from Islam."

CHILE.—The Chile Mission reports for the past year a quiet work of mingled encouragement and discouragement. The fact that the Board was able to respond to some of the needs for building and to provide the Mission with a new school building at Valparaiso; a new gymnasium for the Santiago Institute in Santiago; a new church at Concepcion, and two or three new residences for the workers, has furnished the Mission and the missionaries with an equipment which should enable them to meet new opportunities with more efficiency than ever before. The Board has also been able to grant to the Chile Mission a sufficient increase for its evangelistic work. The result of this has appeared in a more vigorous prosecution of the evangelistic work both in the field on the north and on the south. From these fields come reports of added interest, and there is every prospect of a greater advance than for years.

LATIN AMERICA.—The General Assembly of Brazil, with its two Synods and over 12,000 members, celebrated, in Rio de Janeiro, in January, 1912, the Jubilee of the establishment of Protestant Missions in Brazil. The Rev. Ashbel G. Simonton went to Brazil under appointment from the Board, in 1859, and in eight years of service left an ineffaceable imprint upon the land. Three men are still living who have seen about the whole of the remarkable development of the work in Brazil: Dr. Lane, president of Mackenzie College; Snr. Trajano, the honored pastor emeritus of the church in Rio, and Snr. Carvalhosa, pastor of the Egreja Unida in Sao Paulo. Never did Brazil need more than to-day the work which only the Evangelical Church can do.

In Colombia there is now a larger missionary force (9) than ever before in its history, and the four stations which the Mission has longed for twenty years to have kept open are all occupied—Bogota, Barranquilla, Medellin and Bucaramanga. The land lies open before us, at once a great need and a great opportunity. The people are accessible everywhere. A man with leaflets or portions of Scripture can have a friendly crowd around him instantly. There are hundreds of large towns and small cities which are waiting for wisely planned, steadily prosecuted itinerating work.

SIAM AND LAOS.—The sixteen provinces, for which the Siam Mission is almost wholly responsible, have a population of 6,428,618. If 400,000 are deducted as the share of the Plymouth Brethren and Baptists, there are left, as the number for which the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. is responsible, 6,028,619. Every one has greatly underestimated the responsibilities of our Church and of its agent, the Siam Mission.

"The Larger Laos" is a phrase with which we desire the whole Church to become familiar. We now know that the Laos-speaking peoples number between 14,000,000 and 16,000,000, and their habitat includes vast regions north and east of our present Mission.

The average additions on confession the preceding ten years had been about 250; the largest in any year, about 400. This year, 613 in our Laos churches have confessed Christ before men. One marked characteristic of this movement toward Christianity has been the large share in it of evangelistic medical work, both in our hospitals and in out-stations. The most serious epidemic of malarial fever most of us have ever seen has recently carried off thousands everywhere and rendered a still larger number incapable, for weeks, of any real work. The result has been widespread distress and poverty, both among the Christians and non-Christians. With this have come opportunities for Christ-like ministry that have resulted in tearing down many a spirit-shrine and other signs of the old worship. But aside and beyond, everywhere, is an unwonted willingness to listen and to learn.

SYRIA.—The work of the Syria Mission has been carried on this year under peculiar conditions, causing anxiety to the workers. Their position cannot be fully understood without recalling that all their work must be done in an atmosphere of change, unrest and suspicion. For years the workers have been conscious of developing conditions, from a political point of view, which have now become openly manifest. The attitude of the nominally Christian powers of Europe, such as Italy, Great Britain and Russia, toward Turkey and Persia have tended to antagonize and solidify the Moslem forces. The situation thus created has required the greatest wisdom and caution. The slightest indiscretion would close the door of the missionary in the very fields into which they desire to go. So carefully have they handled the problem that their report says that never before have they had so many Moslem students in their schools or such eager listeners among Moslem audiences.

CHINESE, JAPANESE AND KOREANS IN THE U. S.—Chinese.—The work among the Chinese in California has been increased by the addition of a new mission, located at Marysville, a town of four or five thousand, in the Sacramento Valley. The uniting of the workers among Orientals on the Pacific Coast into one organization, under the name of "The American Workers among Orientals on the Pacific Coast," reports an advanced step in behalf of the spiritual welfare of the Asiatic population. The aim of the organization is union or coöperation, wherever possible, so as to check waste, promote economy and accomplish large results.

Japanese.—This year marks the completion of twenty-five years of the work of Dr. and Mrs. Sturge. At the beginning of their work they found a small Japanese church of 30 members. This year they report four organized churches and four other missions, with a combined membership of more than 500.

Koreans.—There are organized groups of Korean Christians located in Los Angeles, Claremont, Upland, Riverside, and a number of others scattered in several towns. The Koreans of the Claremont Mission, assisted in part by fellow Koreans, erected a building costing $2,200, of which the Koreans gave $1,700.

The total contributions of Korean Christians in connection with the Mission in the United States and in Mexico is $1,446.15, from a membership of 560.

The work among the Chinese in New York City has prospered. The Chinese Christian Church, under the care of the Rev. Huie Kin, has a membership of 43.

DEATHS.—The following missionaries finished their course on earth during the year and passed on amid the sounding trumpets to be with Him who shall henceforth be their Rewarder:

	Born.	Appointed.	Died.
The Rev. Jonathan Wilson, D.D.	Mar. 24, 1830	1856	June 3, 1911
The Rev. J. F. Newton, D.D.	July 24, 1847	1870	Apr. 28, 1911
The Rev. John E. Hail	Nov. 22, 1873	1900	Aug. 15, 1911
Mrs. William Jessup	Mar. 7, 1870	1890	Aug. 18, 1911
The Rev. Daniel McGilvary, D.D.	May 16, 1828	1857	Aug. 22, 1911
J. C. Hepburn, M.D.	Mar. 3, 1815	1840	Sept. 21, 1911
The Rev. John N. Hyde	Nov. 9, 1865	1892	Feb. 17, 1912

FIELD FORCE.—Ninety-seven new missionaries were sent to the field in 1911–12, so that the total number of foreign missionaries now connected with the Board is 1,082. The missionaries on the field are asking for five times as many as are available for appointment.

In various Missions during the last few years steps have been taken to promote the efficiency of administration and the more comprehensive and progressive development of the work. In China, the China Council, which is a central executive committee, representing all the Missions but one, with a chairman, the Rev. J. Walter Lowrie, D.D., nominated by the Council and appointed by the Board, has already proved a great help, and in Brazil, Siam and Laos, India and Japan, the Executive Committees of the Missions are filling a larger place. Many of the Missions would welcome the appointment of field secretaries for large areas like China, India and South America.

The Board has continued to pursue, in the most earnest manner, the policy of coöperation and unity of work on the foreign field in accordance with its long-recognized principle, as approved by the General Assembly in its action at St. Louis in 1900. Under this policy, the Board has joined during the year in new union work: in publication, in Brazil with the Episcopalians, Southern Methodists and Southern Presbyterians; in education, in Nanking in University, Bible School and Medical School with the Methodists, Disciples, Baptists (North and South) and with the Southern Presbyterians; in educational work for girls, with Northern Baptists and Southern Presbyterians in Hangchow; and in new comity arrangements in evangelistic or educational work, with the Berlin Society's Mission in Shantung Province in China and the Baptists in Burmah and Laos.

Home Activities.—Among the special activities at home, of which mention should be made, in addition to the steady promotion of the work by all the home agents and agencies of the Board among the churches and the Sunday-schools in the four districts of the Church covered by the Assistant Secretaries, mention should be made of the work of the Men and Religion Forward Movement and the continued and invaluable activities of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and the Missionary Education Movement. We recognize with gratitude the increasing attention to missions in the International Sunday-school Movement.

The Board rejoices in the efficient and harmonious work done during the year through the combined efforts of the Executive Commission and the Joint Executive Committee of the Boards and the Commission. The budget plan and the coöperative effort of the Boards have marked a distinct advance. There is still much room for progress.

This work in the foreign field now stands out in far clearer outline and with sharper and more definite presentation of its pressing needs. We are standing now at the beginning of a new day. The views which our missions are taking now of their own distinct responsibilities and the reports which they have made thereon to the Board, the missionary conventions of the last five years within our own Church, the consideration of missionary duty which has been the chief characteristic of inter-Church relations in America, and the ideas which found expression and confirmation in the Edinburgh Conference, and the movings of the Divine Providence in the political life of the world and in the religious changes among the non-Christian peoples, have all put us in a position where we are called upon to embrace, in our missionary policy, more adequate, more far-reaching, more courageous elements.

Respectfully submitted.

GEORGE ALEXANDER, President.

The Treasurer's Report.

In spite of the huge sums required in addition to the original appropriations, in order to meet the emergencies arising during the year, there is a surplus of receipts and credits, over appropriations and charges, of $95,076.32. Of this surplus, $38,654.74 were required to wipe out the remaining portion of the old deficit which has been carried in constantly decreasing amounts since 1907–8; the balance—$56,421.58—by special action, has been added to the Educational Endowment Fund. Thus the Board has a clean slate so far as its present financial obligations go.

It is, moreover, a lasting satisfaction that this addition of some $56,000 can be made to the Educational Endowment Fund. This, as its name indicates, is designed to serve the purpose of education, especially higher education, in the foreign field. The Board, in 1911, established this Educational Fund, using some $600,000 of the Kennedy bequest as a nucleus. It has since been augmented by additional funds received from Mr. Kennedy's estate to the extent of $120,000; Mr. Joseph N. Field added $50,000; and this year's surplus brings the total to $850,000.

The total receipts from the "regular sources," which exclude income from securities and property, gains in exchange, and similar items, show gains under every head excepting in the receipts from churches.

Churches	$684,848 01
Women's Boards	596,488 39
Sunday-schools	76,414 09
Young People's Societies	40,451 60
Legacies	175,371 37
Miscellaneous	276,007 64
Interest on Kennedy Securities	102,453 83
Total	$1,952,034 93

We give below a schedule of comparisons, such as is presented to the Board month by month during the year. Only the totals for the year are given and are compared with corresponding totals for 1910–11.

Statement of Total Receipts, April 1, 1911, to March 31, 1912, Compared with 1910–11.

Decrease	$9,107.88

[1] Not including Kennedy receipts, $831,657.77.
[2] " " " " $62,106.26.

The receipts from churches show a decrease of some $9,100, but it is highly probable that some contributions which normally would have passed through church treasuries and so would have increased their total, were this year given toward the Women's Jubilee Fund, which realized more than $200,000 over and above the regular contributions from the Women's Boards. The churches also are compared with the exceedingly good year of 1910–11, in which they gained $81,000 over the period preceding. This, however, in no way detracts from the magnificent results shown by the Women's Boards, which increased their special gifts for the year $204,000, including the Jubilee funds and their "regular" contributions some $13,000. It is interesting and significant that, counting their Jubilee Funds in the contributions for the year, the Women's Boards have come within $100,000 of giving as much as the churches have given all together. All the other regular sources of income show increases for the year, the total net increase from all these sources amounting to $279,-225.75.

As to appropriations, these were far larger than ever before, the original amount, granted to the Missions at the first of the year, standing at $1,461,771,02—more than a 10 per cent. advance over the original at the beginning of the preceding year. Appropriations covering the expenses of some ninety new missionaries, and the emergencies which are sure to arise in the conduct of a work involving 1,100 representatives on the foreign field, entailed an addition of $65,631.26. Special gifts requiring special appropriations added $391,553.93, and the Kennedy property appropriations of $831,657.77 increased the total to the unprecedented sum of over $2,750,000. The comparative figure for 1910–11 is $1,670,000. Thus if we are going to include all the special gifts and funds appropriated for the work during the year, we find we have increased over last year to the extent of $1,080,000. It must be remembered, however, that in a normal year there will not be the Kennedy Property Fund to appropriate nor a Jubilee Fund from the Women's Board, which together aggregated $1,031,000.

Abstract of Ninety-third Annual Report.

The year now closed has been, with one exception, a "record" year in our history. The missionary operations of the Board have been strengthened, a closer touch with the field of Christian Education secured, several new agencies put into successful operation, and a steady and constant increase in contributions realized, all of which furnishes occasion for gratitude and encouragement. Increased efficiency of office administration has claimed the earnest attention of the executive force, and it is with pleasure that we announce the systematizing of the records and accounts in line with modern business methods. Administrative economy has also been effected, resulting in a substantial saving of expense in certain departments.

Financial Conditions.—From the view-point of receipts from churches, Sabbath-schools and societies, this year has been the best in the Board's history, the amount received being $71,489.63, as against $65,164.60 received last year, showing an increase of about 9 per cent. In addition thereto, we have received from legacies $28,868.43, from individual givers $6,837.63, from refunds $1,810.71, from interest $16,197.75 and from loans $1,000, making total receipts of $126,204.15. It is encouraging to note that the number of contributing churches is 5,126, being an increase of 41 over last year.

Supply of Ministerial Candidates.—There were 814 applications received, during the closing year, from Presbyteries, 787 of which met the rules of the Assembly and the Board, the remainder, 27, being regretfully declined. One of our men died during the year, one was dropped, and the payments of ten were withheld, pending more satisfactory reports from their professors. Of the recommendations honored, 198 were "New Men," a decrease of 41 over last year; and 589 were "Renewals," a decrease of 27 over the year preceding. This decrease should not, however, occasion grave concern, as it does not represent an actual decrease in the total number of candidates. The ratio of 8 ministerial candidates aided, out of 11, remains practically the same from year to year.

Reports from many colleges and universities indicate a genuine awakening of interest in the call to the ministry. According to the latest returns, there are at present in the academic and collegiate departments of Presbyterian colleges 400 men looking forward to the life of a minister or a missionary. Certain features of the situation, however, do not give so hopeful an outlook. The situation in our city and suburban churches is not at all satisfactory. It is noteworthy also that a number of colleges from which we drew many ministers in other days can no longer be counted on for this service. It is becoming clear, that if the arguments in favor of the Church college be largely based on its producing very large percentage of ordained leadership, we must differentiate between efficient and non-efficient Church colleges in this particular. The Church must either support these colleges which turn out the largest percentage of ministers or abandon the argument altogether.

In 1830, our Church had 1 candidate to every 24,000 of the population; in 1894, 1 to 69,000; and in 1912, 1 to 78,000.

Several further facts may be of value:

1. The Source of Ministerial Supply.—The home environment from which our students come is worthy of consideration. Out of 198 returns as to parental occupation, we find that 20% of our students are sons of farmers, 10% of ministers, 6.5% of laborers, 4.5% of mechanics, 4% traveling salesmen, 3% of merchants, 2% of carpenters, 1% of physicians, one of an army officer, one of a pilot.

2. The Ability of our Theological Seminaries to Graduate their Students into the Ministry.—The following table will indicate the variation between seminaries, among men aided by the Board, who have entered the ordained ministry:

Seminary.	Men Aided 1905–1909.	Per Cent. Ordained.
Auburn	92	83.6
Biddle	28	85.7
Coyoacan	4	25.0
Dubuque	23	82.6
Lane	23	82.6
Louisville	21	47.6
Lebanon	51	82.3
Lincoln	49	89.7
McCormick	157	95.5
Newark, German	39	48.7
Omaha	37	75.4
Princeton	198	81.3
San Francisco	34	88.2
Western	123	74.6

Foreign-speaking Candidates.—There are at present 204 foreign-speaking candidates at Dubuque and Bloomfield Seminaries, 104 of whom have been aided by the Board as follows: 42 Germans, 17 Bohemians, 11 Hungarians, 3 Ruthenians, 1 Slovac, 2 Russians, 14 Italians, 5 Spanish, 5 Hebrew, 1 Syrian, 1 Servian. In addition to this there are 6 Cubans, 15 Porto Ricans and 5 Bohemians at the other seminaries.

Colored Candidates.—Lincoln University has 134 men in the collegiate department and 44 in the theological department, 37 of whom are, however, studying for the ministry of Communions other than the Presbyterian. Biddle has 63 men in her collegiate department and 23 in the theological department.

Prize Scholarships.—The Mutchmore Scholarship, which was offered last year to the members of the Middle Class of the Seminary of Kentucky (Louisville), was recently won by Mr. H. H. Thompson. This Scholarship, yielding $525.00, permits the successful candidate to pursue a year of post-graduate study abroad. Competitive examinations for the Newberry Scholarship were conducted at Lane Seminary, but without satisfactory results. The Board has decided to modify the rules governing the Newberry Scholarship, which has been offered to San Francisco and Omaha Seminaries, with view to competitive examinations among the students of their Middle Classes. The examination is to be held during the coming fall, when the candidates will have become Seniors. The Newberry Fellow will receive $400 during his Senior year and $800 during his year of graduate study.

Refunding Account.—It is hoped that the Assembly will earnestly admonish the Presbyteries to exercise the utmost care in learning the whereabouts of candidates who have abandoned their preparation for the ministry, and that they shall, in view of their recommendation of such candidates, use every means within their power to assist the Board in the collection of refunds of aid.

Medical Missions Students.—Eleven medical students have received aid, to the maximum amount of $150 each, from the regular funds of the Board, supplemented in some instances by special gifts from individuals. Only students in "Class A" of the American Medical Association have been aided.

Evangelistic and Vocational Campaign.—The second year in the Plan of College Visitation, as developed jointly by the Board and the Assembly's Evangelistic Committee, has amply proved the wisdom of such method. A number of conferences were held with the Interdenominational Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association and the National Board of Young Women's Christian Associations, between June and December of 1911. A policy was adopted by the four agencies coöperating in the conduct of evangelistic and educational meetings in the Presbyterian colleges. Forty-three colleges entered into the plan. The Board is convinced that this hand-to-hand, heart-to-heart work of two score of the choicest personalities in the ministry of our Church with our thousands of Presbyterian youth, is certain to produce splendid results.

Secretarial Field Work.—Dr. Cochran spent nearly seven weeks in visiting the colleges, universities and churches of the South and Southwest, making 52 addresses in 45 days, and visiting 25 institutions where about 6,000 students were addressed and over 100 personally interviewed. Dr. Hughes has constantly been on the field, not only in the East, but in the Middle West, visiting those Synods where special agreements are in force, relative to the entire support of university pastors by the Board.

Training Schools for Lay Workers.—The General Assembly authorized the Board to assist the training schools in any way that might seem mutually desirable, and commended the Board to contributors, as a proper body to receive and disburse funds designated for these schools.

Literature and Leaflets.—The Board is prepared to meet the demand for various kinds of printed matter dealing with the different features of its work. Careful attention has been paid to the character of the printed matter sent out to churches, institutions and individuals. About 315,973 pieces of printed matter have been distributed on the field during the year, and 18,200 multigraphed letters sent to possible candidates, pastors of churches, etc.

Department of Publicity and Research.—The Board has created a new department which it believes will develop into a most useful agency for the dissemination of information relating to all phases of Christian education. This department is intended to become a clearing house on all subjects pertaining to the moral and Christian training of the youth of the land.

This plan involves the careful overhauling of the present library of the Board, and the addition thereto of new books dealing with every phase of religious education as it affects the home, the church, the school and the life of our youth in general.

State Universities.—The Board, in coöperation with the several Synods, is now maintaining religious work in the following fifteen State universities:

Arkansas,	Iowa,	Ohio,
California,	Iowa State College,	Oklahoma,
Colorado,	Kansas,	State College (Pa.),
Illinois,	Michigan,	Washington,
Indiana,	Nebraska,	Wisconsin

The noteworthy developments during the year are, the increased coöperation with other denominations at university centres, the increased number of university students attending Bible classes in the local Bible and Mission Study classes in the Sunday-schools, and the increased interest among the students in the Christian ministry and in Foreign Missions.

The Board has coöperated with the local church at State College, Pennsylvania, in providing a suitable house of worship.

CHANGE OF PERSONNEL.—On February 1, our faithful and efficient Treasurer and Recording Secretary, Mr. Jacob Wilson, resigned the Treasurership, retaining his position as Recording Secretary. Mr. Edward R. Sterrett, office assistant to both the Secretary and Treasurer for several years, has been elected to the Treasurership.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH W. COCHRAN, Secretary.

Abstract of the Seventy-fourth Annual Report.

April 1, 1911, to March 31, 1912.

I. GENERAL.

The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work presents to the General Assembly its Seventy-fourth Annual Report.

* Died, July 3, 1912.

The year has been a year of earnest service, filled with educational, missionary and business activity. The net profits of the business were $30,234.22, of which one-third will go to the capital of the Board and two-thirds to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund.

In considering the profits of the Board, we should bear in mind that our primary aim is service to the Church. The funds at the disposal of our benevolent work, however, depend on the amount of business profits.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONARY WORK.—In 1887 the General Assembly instructed the Board of Publication to undertake the work of Sabbath-school Missions. To emphasize this new service, the name of the Board was changed to The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.

Progress in this effort has been full of encouragement, and presents reasons for hearty thanksgiving. Beginning with sixteen missionaries, the number has increased from year to year until now we are able to report one hundred and fifty-two missionaries and colporteurs at work during the past year, in all parts of the United States. More than twenty thousand Sabbath-schools have been organized; and into them upwards of a million boys and girls have been gathered. Fifteen hundred Presbyterian churches have grown out of these schools. The property of these churches amounts to considerably more than a million dollars.

WORKING WITH THE ASSEMBLY'S SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.—The Assembly of 1911 authorized and instructed its Special Committee on Religious Education and the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, "jointly to continue during this coming year the work of religious education, as already begun, and to perfect a plan for the transfer of the work to this Board, and report to the next Assembly."

The Committee and the Board at once adopted a plan for the prosecution of this joint work, and have been pursuing it during the year. A Joint Committee has been holding monthly meetings during the greater part of the year. Considerable progress has been made, but the way does not seem clear yet for the Assembly's Committee to transfer the entire work to the Board. It is, therefore, the recommendation of the Assembly's Special Committee and of the Board, that the work authorized by the Assembly of 1911 be continued, during the coming year, under the present arrangements.

RESIGNATION OF MR. GELSTON.—The Board regrets that it has to report the resignation, on account of impaired health, of the Rev. Willis L. Gelston, the Superintendent of its Young People's Department. Under his leadership the work of this department has developed to its present stage of helpfulness and efficiency. Rev. William Ralph Hall, who was elected a year ago to assist Mr. Gelston, will have charge of the department for the present.

THE REVISED HYMNAL.—The Revised Hymnal was issued in September, 1911, and the first copies came from the press on September 6, but it was not until September 23 that there was stock to fill orders. To April 1, 1912, one hundred and thirty-two church orders had been filled, and, in round numbers, twenty thousand copies sold.

II. DEPARTMENT OF SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY WORK.

MISSIONARIES.—The number of Sabbath-school missionaries in the field, for longer or shorter periods, was 139, besides 23 colporteurs, whose attention was given entirely to the visitation of foreign settlements. Of these missionaries, 12 were Synodical and District Superintendents, and 140 were assigned to the different Presbyteries—a total of 152.

Following the missionary policy of their respective Presbyteries, our missionaries have organized 651 new schools and revived 242, making a total of 893, into which they have gathered 30,305 persons, of whom 3,066 were officers and teachers and 27,239 were pupils.

More than 2,500 mission schools not yet self-supporting, have been aided during the year by donations of lesson helps, papers, hymnals, libraries and other supplies.

Reports received from our missionaries, show 2,455 Sabbath-schools under their care, with a membership of 112,242, and they have also visited 106,571 families in rural districts.

In some parts of the field these workers are called upon to hold evangelistic services as a means of interesting the parents and stimulating the spiritual life of the community. They held 840 such services last year, 3,401 conversions being reported.

During the year, 26,291 volumes and 9,636,635 pages of religious tracts have been distributed, besides 6,561 Bibles and Testaments, of which 3,677 were in foreign languages.

Reports from the field show that 98 new churches have grown out of mission schools organized by our missionaries during previous years. Of these churches, 78 are Presbyterian and 20 are of other denominations.

Our missionaries have assisted in the erection of 61 Presbyterian chapels, to house their new organizations. The value of these buildings is $126,850. It will be noted that the value of the property thus acquired by the Presbyterian Church during the year represents a return of 71 per cent. of the entire cost of the mission work for that period.

The Board has sustained a serious loss in its force of field workers during the year, in the passing away of Dr. Humble. For eighteen years, Dr. Humble served the Board and the Church with earnestness, faithfulness and unusual efficiency.

It is gratifying to note from the tabulated report that the pioneer Sabbath-school work of this Board during a quarter of a century has been so mighty a force in our land. During this period, 20,654 such schools have been planted, into which 1,200,000 persons have been gathered. Out of these schools, 1,515 Presbyterian churches have grown, an average of 60 new Presbyterian churches each year. Other denominations have shared in the results of the work, 601 churches have been organized by them as the outgrowth of some of our mission schools, making a total of 2,116 churches in twenty-five years—an average of 84 each year.

Grants.—During the year, donations were made, to the value of $10,970.15. Contributions amounting to $2,675.91 were made to the Board for the erection of chapels and for other special objects in connection with the work on the field.

About 5,500 Sabbath-schools used our Children's Day supplies last year, over 800,000 copies of the program and supplement having been distributed. Of the Rally Day program, 303,000 copies were distributed among 2,300 Sabbath-schools. We would urge most earnestly, that in the future all offerings given on these occasions be remitted to this Board, in accordance with the instructions of the General Assembly. The total of offerings from Sabbath-schools last year is $87,975.58.

For periods of from three to twelve months, 23 colporteurs have been at work among Italians, Hungarians (Magyars), Bohemians, Ruthenians, Russians, Poles, Slovaks, Roumanians and others of foreign speech, in Delaware, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas. They have visited 35,912 families, distributed 8,800 religious books and 68,842 pages of tracts, by sale and gift; besides, 3,677 Bibles, Testaments and portions of Scripture in at least 20 different languages. The total sales amounted to $1,717.44.

Foreign Periodicals.—For Bohemians, Moravians, Slovaks and other Slavic peoples, the Board is publishing a sixteen-page weekly religious paper, "Krestanske Listy" (Christian Journal), whose circulation has now reached 3,000 copies. For Hungarians (Magyars) our sixteen-page weekly, "Reformatusok Lapja" (The Reformed Sentinel), continues to meet the need of a religious journal for the Protestants of that nationality, who are coming to our shores. For Ruthenians, our eight-page weekly paper, "Sojuz" (Union), which for several years was published in New York, was changed in size and form, and transferred to Pittsburgh. For Italians, the weekly paper "L'Araldo" (The Herald), the publication of which was begun at the request of the Italian ministers and missionaries, shows gratifying progress. The Bible Picture Cards in six different languages are increasingly popular, being found useful not only by our colporteurs, but by the missionaries on the steamship piers, and in the mission Sabbath-schools. In connection with his duties as manager of the Italian weekly paper, Mr. di Pietro has established a depository for the sale of the best religious books and tracts published by the Claudian Press and La Speranza Press, both in Italy.

The Board continues the practice of giving a Teacher's Bible to Sabbath-school pupils who recite the Shorter Catechism from memory. Last year, 436 persons, having met the conditions, were presented with Bibles.

FINANCIAL.—Contrary to our expectations, we are obliged to report a decrease of $4,159.37 in the total contributions received during the year. A gratifying increase is noted in the congregational offerings, but a decrease of $5,790.60 in the Sabbath-school offerings on Children's Day and Rally Day, more than offset this gain, and caused us to close the year with a debt of $4,252.11.

EDUCATIONAL SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

During the year, the Board has continued and extended its various lines of educational advance, as outlined in the report for last year.

Work on the "Standard of Excellence" has been steadily pushed, with a view to bringing every Presbyterian Sabbath-school into line.

The "Educational Bulletin," with sixteen pages of information, announcement and suggestion, has been issued three times during the year, in May, September and March, and mailed free to every pastor and Sabbath-school superintendent.

The Educational Superintendent has met nearly all the Board's missionaries on the field, including those on the Pacific Coast, who, on account of the expense, are not usually called into conference, and has discussed with them the leading features of modern Sunday-school work. He has also supervised their educational activities. Much other lecturing and field service has been furnished by members of the Board's force. The missionaries report 1,003 institutes and other Sunday-school meetings held on their fields, representing 2,968 Sabbath-schools.

A "Correspondence Course for Presbyterian Sabbath-school Missionaries," under the care of the Educational Superintendent, was announced early in the year. It is based on the text-books of the Westminster Advanced Teacher-Training Course, with additional lessons to cover the missionaries' special needs.

The number of Presbyterian Teacher-Training Classes enrolled with our Department, and being examined by the Superintendent of Sabbath-school Training, is 253. The International Sunday-school Association has reported 464 Presbyterian Teacher-Training Classes enrolled with their various State Associations. We have 132 students enrolled in our Correspondence Course. The number of students examined last year was 969; examination papers received and marked, 3,434; diplomas awarded to 390 students who completed the First Standard Course.

III. THE DEPARTMENT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

To secure, as far as possible, direct communication with the leaders of the Young People's Societies, the Department secured, as formerly, through the Presbyterial Chairmen of the Committees on Young People's Work in each Presbytery, a record of the society officers and a report of the work. These records and reports for the past year have been a distinct improvement on former years.

Another activity given peculiar emphasis was the Summer Conferences. Four were held in different parts of the country, reaching about twenty States. The enrollment was larger than in any previous year. Five Conferences are planned for this summer.

To rally all the forces for aggressive work in the fall, the annual Rally Day program, together with other Rally Day literature, was issued. The influence of Rally Day is increasing each year. Young People's Day, aiming to present the young people's work to the whole Church and to secure financial support for the Department, was also observed by a large number of societies. A Winter Conference for Presbyterian young people was held in Pittsburgh, in conjunction with a general Church Conference, with most gratifying results. Looking toward increased education along definite lines, the Department issued a leaflet, "Study Courses." This outlined an educational program for all the young people's societies of the Church.

IV. EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

The Graded Lessons.—The Graded Lessons were adopted by the International Sunday-school Association, at the earnest request of teachers and workers in all parts of the country. These lessons were begun October 1, 1909. The lessons for the Primary and Junior Departments were then introduced. They became popular at once, and a great many of the Sabbath-schools of the Presbyterian Church adopted them. Many, however, still continue to use the Uniform Lessons, helps for which are published as heretofore.

The General Assemblies of 1909, 1910 and 1911 expressed their appreciation of the results of the work of the International Sunday-school Association's Lesson Committee in the Graded Lessons, so far as published, and commended them to the favorable consideration of pastors, sessions and Sunday-schools.

It is impossible to state precisely the extent to which the Graded Lessons are now used, but it is probably safe to say that in the elementary grades one-third of our schools have adopted them.

In October of 1910, Graded Lessons for the Intermediate Department were issued. There was at once a demand for them from perhaps one-third of the schools in the Presbyterian Church.

One of the principal difficulties in preparing and planning for the publication of these Graded Lessons was the necessary cost of such preparation. If undertaken by our Board alone, the lesson helps would have been too expensive for popular use, the necessary prices being, in many instances, prohibitive. This led to an arrangement by the publication departments of several of the larger churches, including the Methodist Episcopal Church, North and South, the Congregational Church, and the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., for uniting in their publication. This coöperation has made it possible to bring the cost of the lessons down to a figure which will not be burdensome to most of the schools.

It will be interesting to those who use the Graded Lessons, to know how the editorial work is provided for. The editors of the several denominations engage the lesson writers. These receive definite instructions. Their work is then submitted to the joint body, and is reviewed by each of the editors, whose corrections are incorporated in the final copy. Thus, it will be seen, the utmost care is given to the preparation of the lessons for the Graded Series.

The Board has expended upon the Graded Lessons, including editorial work, composition, electrotyping and all other processes of manufacture, also handling, freight, postage and necessary clerical work, as follows:

Beginners' Lessons	$43,221 78
Primary "	48,479 83
Junior "	54,681 67
Intermediate "	17,995 59
Total	$164,378 87

Upon the above expenditure, the economies effected by coöperation have amounted to $25,345.60—approximately 16 per cent.

Pocket Testament League.—Last year the Board assumed the management of the Pocket Testament League—the world-wide movement which had its origin with Miss Helen Cadbury, who is now the wife of the well-known Mr. Charles M. Alexander. The League has grown until the work is now carried on in thirteen different countries, and fully 300,000 members have been secured, as explained in the inspiring book, "The Pocket Testament League Around the World."

There are no fees of any kind. Membership cards and literature are furnished free of charge, and suitable Gospels and Testaments in the King James and American Revised Versions are furnished at a very low rate for those who desire to purchase them.

Lesson Helps.—The following is a brief description of the character and purpose of the periodicals published by the Board:

The Westminster Teacher is a monthly magazine especially prepared for teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools and for use in adult classes.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition use is exclusively for teachers.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is used in senior and adult classes.

The Westminster Adult Bible Class is a monthly magazine for use in Adult Bible Classes.

The Westminster International Quarterly is designed for pupils of the intermediate grade.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is designed for younger children in the Junior Department.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly is for the little folks of the Primary Grade.

The Westminster Home Department Quarterly is for the use of those who, while unable to attend the sessions of the Sabbath-school, yet desire to study the lesson week by week.

The Westminster Normal Quarterly was issued to cover a two years' course of lessons for use in advanced and normal classes.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared for intermediate and younger scholars, but may be used in any grade.

The Westminster Lesson Card use is adapted in grade to younger children and to primary classes.

THE WESTMINSTER GRADED SABBATH-SCHOOL LESSONS—INTERNATIONAL COURSE.—The Westminster Beginners' Graded Series cover the new Two Years' International Course for young children of the kindergarten age.

The Primary Graded Series (course complete in three years).

The Junior Graded Series (course complete in four years).

The Intermediate Graded Series (course complete in four years).

The Senior Graded Series (course complete in four years) to begin October 1, 1912.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.—Forward has had another year of growing circulation and popularity. The best short-story and other writers for young people are among its contributors. In view of the low price of Forward and the advanced cost of material and production, it will be necessary, at an early date, to increase the subscription price of this paper.

The Comrade is a bright and popular paper for boys and girls, adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in some schools for a paper at small cost.

The Sunbeam is a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people.

V. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

There have been published, during the year, 4,352,314 copies of books and tracts, and 66,248,215 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8,000 copies of the Annual Report for the year ending March 31, 1911, make an aggregate of 70,608,529 publications for the year.

The work of placing these publications on the market is performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the Depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco and Nashville, and six other other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

SALES.—The sales of Books and Sunday-school and Church supplies for the year amount to $354,224.82. These include not only the publications of the Board, but those of other publishers as well. The sales of Periodical Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers amount to $557,031.83, making aggregate sales for the year of $911,256.65. These amounts do not coincide with the Treasurer's account, as they include credit sales, whereas the latter takes cognizance only of cash receipts. The above figures of sales include not only those of the main house, at Philadelphia, and Depositories throughout the country, but also those made by the Sabbath-school missionaries.

CAPITAL AND NET PROFITS.—The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $335,141.23. The net profits of the past year are $30,234.22. Of this sum two-thirds, or $20,156.15, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, and will be paid in quarterly installments during the next fiscal year. The remaining third, or $10,078.07, has been added to capital. In addition to this, the sum of $75,000, which represents the amount advanced by the Business Department, in 1895, toward the purchase of the site upon which the Witherspoon Building stands, has been returned, during the past year, to the Business Department, out of available funds in the hands of the Trustees, and placed directly to the credit of capital. The capital has, therefore, been increased by the addition of these two items to $420,219.30.

ANNUITY GOLD BONDS.—The Annuity Gold Bond plan inaugurated three years ago is nearing completion. The mortgage on the Witherspoon Building is now only $80,000. Since the last interest period, bonds to the amount of $28,000 have been sold, so that but $52,000 remain to be disposed of. It is hoped that these will be taken before the meeting of the General Assembly, and that the Board will have the satisfaction of announcing, at that time, the complete removal of the mortgage incumbrance on the Witherspoon Building.

Respectfully submitted,

ALEXANDER HENRY, Secretary.

Summary of the Statistics of the Sabbath-Schools

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, BY SYNODS AND PRESBYTERIES.

Prepared by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department from the Reports of the Presbyterial Sabbath-school Committees.

NOTE.—Columns showing number of grades in each school, and number of Boards to which each school contributed, are omitted because they have significance only as they refer to the reports of the individual schools, and cannot be totalled. The star (*) before the name of a Presbytery stands for last year's Report.

Abstract of the Forty-Second Annual Report.

In the prosecution of its work during the past year, the Board has aided in building churches in every State except five, and also in Alaska and among the Mexicans, Mormons, Indians and negroes.

There is a prevalent belief that the Church is losing its influence among men and that Christian faith is waning, but the facts in the experience of the Boards of the Church do not justify that belief.

Never before in the history of our country were the resources of the Boards so greatly taxed to meet the demand for the means of grace and for the privileges of the sanctuary as at the present time.

Distribution.—The apportionments have been distributed among thirty-nine States, Alaska, the District of Columbia and Porto Rico.

The State of Washington received the largest number of appropriations, which was 25, and the largest aggregate amount, $26,413. Oklahoma follows, with twenty-one appropriations, aggregating $19,240. These were the States of greatest increase in population during the decade from 1900 to 1910.

The number of churches aided by this Board since the beginning of its work, in 1844, is more than 96 per cent. of the number of churches now upon the roll of the General Assembly.

It will be observed that in five of the States no appropriations are reported for the year now under review. From some of these States applications were received and favorably considered, but in some cases the churches were not prepared to receive the appropriations and in others the churches applying succeeded in raising sufficient funds to meet their necessities.

It is an interesting and instructive fact that in more than twenty of the States in the list, the number of churches that have received aid from the Board exceed the number now on the roll of their Synods.

Resources.—The work of the Board is divided into several district departments. It is necessary, therefore, to tabulate the resources by which the work is maintained:

For the last ten years the annual contributions of the Church to this Board have advanced but $10,300, i.e., from $59,300 to $69,500—only 8.8 per cent.—while the demands have increased from $246,626.50 to $443,948.00—55.5 per cent.

Departments.—This statement of the resources of the Board presents a clear view of the growth and variety of the work which has been entrusted to it.

Through bequests designated for special purposes, and by successive enlargements of the sphere of the Board by action of the General Assembly, its work has become complex as related to distinct funds in its keeping.

1. PERMANENT FUND.—This fund was originally established in 1854 as an endowment of $100,000. By successive additions it is now $2,788,744.31. It is invested in bonds and mortgages in the City of New York and in securities received from the executors of the will of John S. Kennedy, in pursuance of the terms of the will and also in railroad bonds purchased with cash received from the estate of John S. Kennedy as directed by the General Assembly in 1910, as follows (see pp. 408 and 178 of Minutes):

"2. That all investments made of this fund be made in accordance with the laws of the State of New York concerning the investment of the funds of Savings Banks in said State."

II. THE GENERAL FUND.—This fund is the annual income derived from church and individual contributions, interest on invested funds, sales of properties of defunct churches, and appropriations returned by churches. It is distributed annually among needy churches either as grants or as small loans without interest to be repaid in annual contributions, under the following conditions provided by the General Assembly:

1. The church applying must be a corporate body, and the title to its property must be held in fee simple either by the church or a Presbytery or a Synod, or a Board of the Church at large.

2. The application must be endorsed either by Presbytery or its Standing Committee on Church Erection.

3. The amount granted or loaned must be secured by a first mortgage upon the church property. This mortgage bears no interest, and is not due (in case of grants) unless the church be dissolved or the property abandoned.

4. Before payment by the Board, a certificate must be received from the Trustees, showing that the appropriation will complete the building and leave the church without debt excepting to the Board.

5. No grant or loan without interest shall exceed one-third of the value of the property, nor ordinarily $1,000 in amount.

6. No grant or loan from this fund may be made to pay a debt more than one year old or a debt contracted for any other purpose than church building.

III. ALLIED FUNDS.—These funds are governed by the rules of the General Fund except as otherwise specified.

1. Buell Fund.—This fund is derived from a bequest of $34,000 from the estate of Mrs. Electa K. Buell, of New York, for aid of churches in our "Western States" and in communities where there is no other Presbyterian church. This fund is now practically exhausted.

2. The Van Meter Fund consists of $6,000 from the estate of the Misses Van Meter, of New Jersey, the interest from which is to be used to aid church building within the bounds of the Presbytery of West Jersey. By the instruction of the General Assembly of 1911 the annual income of this Fund is transferred to the Presbytery of West Jersey to be by it appropriated.

3 The Gilchrist Fund consists of $10,000 derived from a bequest of John Gilchrist, of Boston, Mass. The interest, as it accrues, is to be used in aid of church building within the bounds of the Presbytery of Boston.

4. The Stuart Fund is a small supplemental fund to be used in exceptional cases which do not come under the rules of the Board. It is now practically exhausted.

5. The Barber Fund.—This Fund is held by the Trustees of the General Assembly. The apportionment of interest which falls to the Board of Church Erection is used exclusively in aid of negro churches not under the care of the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

6. The Sara A. Palmer Memorial Fund.—The income from this invested fund is used under the rules of the General Fund in every respect.

IV. THE LOAN FUND.—This fund had its origin in 1891 and was endowed principally by a legacy from the Stuart estate. It went into effect a year later. It amounts to $250,000. At the beginning of last year this fund was practically all loaned to churches. The year began with but $222.65 available for use The year closed with applications approved up to the amount of $80,500.

The administration of this fund is governed by the first four rules of the General Fund, except that the amount loaned may be one-half of the value of the property and the amount not to exceed $5,000 ordinarily, and must be returned in annual installments not exceeding ten, with interest, ordinarily at the rate of 6 per cent., with a rebate at final payment of one-half the aggregate interest. Bondsmen are required to insure prompt payments.

V. MANSE FUNDS.—1. The Manse Fund had its origin with the late Hills, and was endowed by Mrs. R. L. Stuart. From this fund small loans without interest (and small grants in exceptional cases) are made to churches erecting inexpensive manses. This fund is now all in use.

2. The Raynolds Fund.—This fund was endowed by the late General William F. Raynolds, of Detroit, Mich. From it loans are made at a low rate of interest to churches building more expensive manses than those to which the former fund applies.

3. The Hoyt Fund.—This is a small fund derived from a bequest of the late Dr. Ezra Hoyt, a former member of this Board. It is used much as the Raynolds Fund, but for weaker churches and at a still lower rate of interest.

VI. LIFE INTEREST FUNDS.—These funds are available only after the death of the donors.

SUMMARY.—The demands have so far exceeded the resources that applications for sums aggregating $80,000, which have been approved, await the income of another year for confirmation. The appropriations have been made with careful discrimination, and with great regret that many worthy and needy churches are compelled to find temporary relief elsewhere, until such a time as the Board shall be able to confirm and pay their appropriations.

It will be observed that the average grant applied for from the General Fund for the two years is nearly the same, being respectively $845.97 and $845.10.

The number of applications to the Loan Fund was 13 in excess of the number during the previous year and the aggregate of the amounts applied for was greater by $59,900. The average amounts applied for during the two years were respectively $2,535 and $2,905.

The number of appropriations from the General Fund exceed those of last year by 17, and the average amount appropriated $991, against $884 last year, while the aggregate amount is $23,733 greater than last year. This increase was made possible by the residue of income from the Kennedy Fund after the demands of the evicted churches of Tennessee had been met.

The number of appropriations from the Loan Fund was six less than last year, but the aggregate amount was $26,000 less than the loans of the previous year, while the average loan was $2,595, against $2,611 last year—a decrease in the average loan of $16.

"THE SEATTLE PLAN."—Respecting exceptional cases where extraordinary aid is required, the General Assembly of 1911 (Minutes, pp. 124, 125) adopted the following recommendations of its Standing Committee:

"That the Presbyteries needing aid in buying lots and building under exceptionally severe conditions, be advised to coöperate with the Board in raising special church extension funds as approved by the General Assembly of 1910."

This action has reference to the Seattle Plan (see Minutes of 1910, pp. 182–185).

The Seattle Plan has the merit of providing for all exceptional cases with money specially contributed and designated for the purpose.

Pursuant to that action of the General Assembly, the Board invited all Presbyteries to unite with it in creating such special funds in the manner provided.

Only nine Presbyteries expressed a desire for such a fund, but none of these has found occasion to enter into the plan. All the other Presbyteries that responded approved the plan, but were contented with the existing provisions of the Board.

THE KENNEDY SPECIAL EMERGENCY LOAN FUND.—The General Assembly of 1911 referred to the Executive Commission Overtures Nos. 243 and 244 from the Presbyteries of San Francisco and Nevada.

Having those Overtures under consideration, the Executive Commission recommended that the Board create from the Kennedy Fund a Special Emergency Loan Fund of $250,000, to meet large situations, and that special rules be adopted by the Board governing the administration of such a Fund. These special rules should make provision for ample security from the churches borrowing larger sums.

In accordance with these recommendations of the Executive Commission, the Board adopted the following resolution, which met the approval of the Executive Committee:

"Resolved, That a Special Loan Fund of $250,000 be created, by setting aside from the income of the Kennedy Fund, on or about the 1st of May and on or about the 1st of November in each year, the sum of $25,000, until the sum of $250,000 has been set aside, and that such Fund be applied to meet applications which, while beyond the ordinary scope of the Board's action, recommend themselves to the Board as requiring such exceptional action—the Board to have full discretion in the terms of such appropriations."

Revision of the Rules.—The Board received from the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly a communication containing the following instructions:

"Resolved, That the Board of Church Erection be instructed to revise its Rules, under the direction of the Executive Commission."

Under this resolution the Board received from the Executive Commission directions "to revise the rules so as to provide more liberal grants from the General Fund and larger loans from the Loan Fund." In transmitting its directions, the Executive Commission expressed its judgment that it will be entirely possible for the Board of Church Erection Fund, without impairing its integrity and with only a slight modification of its rules, to meet the present demands of the Church.

In accordance with this instruction, the following paper was adopted by the Board, approved by the Executive Commission, and is presented to the General Assembly as the report on revision of the rules:

"Whilst the rules heretofore restricting the action of the Board, and formulated by the various Assemblies, are wise and judicious in themselves and have been wisely and faithfully administered by the Board, and believing that they should be continued, in general, as the Code of Rules for the future action of the Board, yet, for the purpose of assisting the Board to deal with cases where the fulfillment of the conditions heretofore required by the Assembly's rules is believed by the Board to be unwise or impossible to carry into effect, the Board of the Church Erection Fund is hereby authorized in such cases to use its discretion in making loans or grants from the income of the fund now or hereafter in the Treasury of the Board for securing lots, and erecting chapels and houses of worship, under such conditions or rules as shall seem to it wise; but this permission shall not be taken as the ordinary, but as an exceptional rule for the Board's action.

"Be it further resolved, that whilst the Board should not run in debt, yet it is expected by the Assembly that the yearly interest on its funds shall be carefully and fully placed on church or manse properties, after deducting the ordinary expenses of the Board therefrom."

As the Board understands it, the purpose of the rules is to balance, as nearly as possible, the receipts and expenditures and to regulate the appropriations so that the income of the Board shall be justly and wisely distributed among the aid-receiving churches throughout the country.

The Outlook.—The rapidly increasing demand upon the Board has a manifold significance. It is indicative of national growth and material prosperity. It speaks, with emphasis, of the advancing movements of our beloved Church, which, moving in harmony and good fellowship with other branches of the Church of Christ, points to the progress of the Master's Kingdom. We may rejoice and take courage, for a larger future.

D. J. McMILLAN, Secretary.

VIII. CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH ERECTION.

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

Terms expire 1913:

John C. Cobb, of Missouri. Isaac H. Orr, of Missouri.
W. J. Edwards, of Missouri.

Terms expire in 1914:

Thomas H. Cobbs, of Missouri. Rev. E. B. Surface, of Oklahoma.

Terms expire in 1915:

Rev. C. E. Hayes, D.D., of Arkansas. Rev. E. E. Morris, D.D., of Arkansas.

SIXTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

We beg to submit herewith our Sixty-sixth Annual Report to the General Assembly, in session at Louisville, Ky., May 16, 1912.

The Board has elected, subject to your approval, Rev. C. E. Hayes, D.D., of the Synod of Arkansas, and Rev. E. E. Morris, D.D., of the Synod of Arkansas, to succeed themselves in office as corporate members, until 1915.

The Board has confined its efforts entirely to collecting outstanding loans due the Church Erection Fund, and to the disposition of some real estate properties.

Only one Church Erection claim has been settled in full during the year—that of Marlow, Okla. Suit was brought and the mortgage foreclosed. Others are in process of settlement.

There remain uncollected at this time loans as follows:

Congregation.	Date of Loan.	Balance.
Scott City, Kans.	November, 1888, @ 1 year	$500 00
Topeka, Kans.	November, 1900, " 5 years	1,952 00

" "	" " " 4 "	60 00
" "	" " " 5 "	60 00
		$2,692 00

DENVER PROPERTY.—As was reported at your last session, the People's Presbyterian Church (Colored) has purchased this property. Plans at the time of our last report, that seemed promising, have failed to secure results. The Home Mission Committee of the Presbytery has taken the matter in hand, and it is now promised that by the early fall settlement in full will be had.

Abstract of the Fifth-seventh Annual Report.

The Board had upon its roll for the year ending March 31, 1912, 1,251 names: 520 ministers, 650 widows, 37 orphan families, 14 women missionaries, 17 guests in The Merriam Home at Newton, N. J., and 13 guests at The Thornton Home, under the care of the Board at Evansville, Ind. This is the largest number the Board has ever had upon its roll.

During the year, 162 new names were added to the roll. This is the largest number of new names ever added to the roll in any year of the history of the Board. These comprised 90 ministers, 63 widows, 5 orphans, 1 woman missionary, and 3 guests at The Merriam Home.

There have been 225 ministers on the Roll of Honor during the past year. Their average age is over 78 years, and the average time they have been in the ministry has been 49 years. Thirty-four of these have been added during the year just closed, and 20 of these venerable men have died.

Since the Rule of 1889, relating to Honorably Retired Ministers, was adopted, 559 ministers have availed themselves of its privileges.

The appropriations to men on the Roll of Honor, during the year, was $76,975, being an average of $342, as all of the honorably retired ministers did not ask for the maximum amount of $350.

There is a large number of retired ministers in our Church who have very small incomes, and who should have considerably more to live upon than they now receive, but when they realize the suffering there is among their brethren, they do not ask for any support from the Board of Relief. They, in a true spirit of brotherhood and magnanimity, practically say to the Board, Distribute the limited amount of money you receive to the families of our brethren who need the help of the Board more than we do.

Deaths.—Seventy-seven of those upon the roll passed away during the year: 47 ministers and 28 widows. Two ministers died at The Merriam Home.

Average Appropriations.—The average amount appropriated to ministers on the Roll of Honor during the year was $342.

The average amount appropriated to all the ministers on the roll of the Board was $283.

The average amount appropriated to widows was $172.

Receipts for the Current Fund for the Years 1910–1911 and 1911–1912

	1910–1911.	1911–1912.
Contributions from churches and Sabbath-schools	$116,296 79	$115,647 95

Miscellaneous	832 60	896 71
	$259,225 35	$311,949 34

Receipts for the Endowment Fund.—During the past year the Board received for the Endowment Fund $35,127.25.

The Board is very glad to report to the General Assembly that the past year has been one of the best and most encouraging years in the history of its work. Whilst there have been 162 additions to the roll, the largest number it has ever had in any one year, and the whole number on the roll has been 1,251, the largest number ever on the roll, the receipts have been much larger than usual, and the Board has been enabled to pay all appropriations promptly and in full every month as payments have fallen due.

The receipts from the churches were a little less than those reported the previous year, but if we had not been required to close promptly on the second of April, the receipts would have been larger from the churches than during any previous year in the history of the Board, as many contributions were received soon after the books were closed, which had been made by churches during the year.

The Board has therefore every reason to be greatly encouraged in the vitally important work committed to it by the General Assembly.

"February 15, 1912.

"The Special Committee, viz.: Messrs. Lowrie and Heberton, appointed to confer with Dr. Alexander Henry, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, respecting Overtures from the Presbytery of Pembina and the Synod of North Dakota, referred by the General Assembly of May, 1911, to the said Board and to the Board of Ministerial Relief, respectfully report:

"That conference was had with Dr. Henry. On the part of the Board of Relief, your Committee represented that this Board judges, that Colporteurs and Mission Laborers under the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, who are laymen, and who become disabled, cannot be aided by this Board. As for the laborers under the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, who are ministers, these have the same claims on this Board that other ministers have.

"On the part of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, Dr. Alexander Henry said that the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work deferred in this matter to the judgment of the Board of Relief.

(Signed) "SAMUEL T. LOWRIE, Chairman;
"W. W. HEBERTON."

The foregoing Report was approved by the Board of Relief.

Abstract of Thirty-first Annual Report.

This is the thirty-first year since the organization of Relief Work by the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Thornton Home.—There have been seventeen persons as guests in the Home during the year. Cost per capita for the year, $332.75. Six of these coming as temporary guests, two ministers, with their wives, for rest and recuperation, expecting to provide again for themselves in the near future; two being orphan girls completing their course in school.

As set forth in the Report of the Board to the General Assembly of 1908, the terms of the Union agreement provided for the continuance of Thornton Home, and the maintenance of a committee, at Evansville, for its management, and to assist in the general work of the Board in this part of the territory.

The reasons for delay in effecting a complete merger having fully disappeared, it is now a mere matter of detail in arranging for such merger, in accordance with the terms of the Union agreement. The legal questions involved in working out the details of the merger are now under consideration by the counsel of the two Boards.

The terms of the following members of the Board expire in June: J. E. Williamson, Esq., J. C. McClurkin, M.D., and Mr. August J. Schlaepfer. The General Assembly is asked to nominate their successors, to be elected for a term of three years, at the annual meeting of the Board, in June, 1912, as provided by the terms of the Board's charter, it being understood that the corporate existence may terminate at any time.

The Report of the Treasurer is as follows: Current funds: receipts, $5,674.44; disbursements, $5,656.80; balance, $17.94. Administration accounts, receipts, $1,118.70, all of which was expended. Endowment and Reserve Fund, net total, $41,790.67.

By Order of the Board,

S. B. SANSOM, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of the Forty-seventh Annual Report.

We are thankful to be able to say again that we have once more closed our fiscal year with funds on hand sufficient to satisfy every outstanding financial obligation.

We have again this year, as last, received more money and expended more money than in any other year in the whole history of the work.

During the last year the annual congregational collections from the churches amounted to only $527.69 more than the year before.

Sunday-schools increased their gifts to the Board by $922.86.

The Young People's Societies fell behind, to the amount of $1,069.32; and the Women's Societies went ahead of last year, to the amount of $2,101.85.

The receipts from miscellaneous sources increased $17,514.41, and the interest from invested funds was $3,784.01 more than the year before.

The receipts from legacies was unusually large. Only in one other year have they ever been as large. They amounted this year to $43,635.30, being an increase over last year of $17,169.32.

The number of churches that helped us in any one way was 5,966, an increase of 14 contributing churches.

The number of churches that helped us by congregational collections was 4,929, a decrease of 21 churches.

The number of Sunday-schools that contributed to the Board directly was 357, just one more than the year before, and the number that gave through the Woman's Board was 661, an increase of 120, making a total increase of 121.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing directly to the Board was 36, a decrease of 11, and the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 1,146, an increase of 51, making a total increase of 40.

The total receipts from all sources for the year was $255,418.16, being an increase over last year of $41,040.92.

The amount of money given to the work by the colored people on the field, as reported to us by the ministers, was $68,118.41. This included expenses for church buildings, repairs, contingent expenses and ministerial support.

The amount given by patrons and friends of our schools, as reported from the field, was $77,838.09. None of this money went through our treasury or is in any way included in our statement of receipts and expenditures for the year.

The colored people under our care gave to the work of the Freedmen's Board $870.78. They gave to the other Boards of the Church $2,190.31.

The Farm Homes scheme, in the neighborhood of Keyesville, Ga., and connected with the Boggs Memorial Academy, to which reference was made in our last Report, has passed the preparatory stage, and may now be considered as fully set in motion. Eight comfortable settlement houses have been provided, and two others repaired and put in good condition. As many more could have been rented if we had had more land, but we prefer to wait the results of the present venture before going more extensively into the scheme.

The Carnegie Library Building, begun when our last Report was made, has been completed. The $12,500 donated by Mr. Carnegie was not quite sufficient to carry out the plans agreed upon, and Dr. McCrorey, President of Biddle University, made himself responsible for $2,500 more before the first of April, giving his note for this amount. The note was redeemed and the money paid in within the specified time.

The location of Harbison College having been changed from Abbeville, S. C., to Irmo, near Columbia, S. C., the initial building was erected during last summer and early fall, and the school has had a successful year. The school is distinctly an agricultural college and the attendance is limited to boys only. The prospects are that an additional building will be needed in the near future.

A property in Knoxville, Tenn., owned by the American Missionary Association, and once occupied by that Association for school purposes, has for some years been occupied by a school under the care of the Board. Our white friends in Knoxville, interested in the school, offered to raise $1,000 of the purchase money if we could buy it for $5,000. A cash offer for this amount was made by the Board to the Association, and accepted in view of the kindred work in which the two organizations are engaged—the price previously asked having been fixed at a much higher figure.

Another growing school, this time at Chattanooga, Tenn., occupying a rented building, commended itself to the good people of the city, who agreed to pay the cost of half of a desirable location if the Board would erect a suitable building thereon. A lot has been purchased for $3,500 and plans are drawn for a $4,600 building.

On January the 13th, MacMillan Hall, at Crockett, Tex., was totally destroyed by fire—a four-story brick building donated more than twenty years ago by Senator MacMillan, of Michigan, in memory of a deceased daughter. The building will be reërected with the money received from the insurance companies.

The Board has had in mind for some time the wisdom of employing one man all his time as an Evangelist, whose work will be to visit our churches and schools, in the interest of a safe and sane evangelism. Several liberal contributions have already been made by individuals for this purpose. The Board has selected Rev. J. J. Wilson, of Wadesboro, N. C., one of our faithful and highly esteemed pastors.

As to the selection, we have not heard as yet even one dissenting voice. We have hopes, therefore, that great good will be accomplished, and that through this man there shall be gathered into the churches many of such as shall be saved.

On behalf of the Board,
EDWARD P. COWAN,
Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The College Board is happy to report an increasing number of churches contributing and an increased amount received from church contributions for our college work. The comparison of the closing year with the year preceding is as follows:

	1910–11	1911–12
Number of churches contributing	4,966	5,010
Amount contributed	$162,145.89	$189,525.20

These and the individual gifts to the Board and to the colleges are found in the financial statement of Receipts and Disbursements shown on pp. 434, 435.

The following table shows the value of the Christian college as the main source of supply for ministers and missionaries for our Church:

SOURCES OF SUPPLY FOR THE STUDENTS NOW IN EIGHT OF OUR SEMINARIES.

Name of Seminary.	Christian Colleges.	Christian Universities.	Other Christian Institutions.	State Institutions.	Institutions not classified.	No Institution given.	Total Undergraduate Students.

San Francisco	11	.....	3	3	.....	1	18
Omaha	13	.....	.....	.....	1	3	17
	388	46	32	33	10	41	550

Of the above 550 students,

466, or 84 per cent., are from Christian institutions: 70 per cent. from Christian colleges; 8 per cent. from Christian universities and 6 per cent. from other Christian institutions.

33, or 6 per cent., are from State institutions; universities, normal schools and high schools.

51, or 10 per cent., are from unclassified or unknown institutions.

Of the 388 students from Christian colleges,

214 are from the colleges coöperating with the College Board.

174 are mainly from Christian colleges of sister denominations, with some from institutions in foreign countries, whose Christian character is well known.

The following table shows the different lines of social service for which our colleges are preparing Christian leaders. This table comprises only one-third of our colleges—those from which complete reports were received in time for this preliminary report of the Board. The others will doubtless make an equally creditable showing when received.

The appeal of the Christian college to the Church is justified by the work the college does for the Church in preparing Christian leaders in so many departments of social service. It is the appeal of the loyal and efficient service of the Church, whose service is limited only by the means furnished to it by the churches and by individuals of goodwill toward Christian education.

For the large amounts received by the colleges during the past year ($1,342,925.86 in all), the Board most earnestly gives, and asks the Assembly to give, large credit to the untiring and self-denying efforts of the presidents of the colleges.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT MACKENZIE, Secretary.

The Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund respectfully submits its Third Annual Report to the General Assembly.

The progress which this agency of our Church has made during the past year is a source of great gratification and encouragement to those upon whom the responsibility of carrying out its provisions rests. No agency of our Church during the first three years of its operations has made larger progress than this agency has made. It has fully justified the expectations of those who formulated the plan, and the faith of those who welcomed it as a much-needed advance movement looking towards a better provision for the aged and disabled ministers of our Church, their widows and orphans.

The Board respectfully reports that the Executive Commission proposed to it, during the fiscal year just closed, a plan of federation, or coöperation, with the Board of Ministerial Relief. This plan involves the continuance of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, with its charter and organization, as an annuity department of a Board, to be known as the "Board of Ministerial Relief and Ministerial Sustentation." With this understanding the Board agreed to said plan, subject, of course, to the approval of the General Assembly.

Since being put into operation, the Sustentation Fund has made an average growth of $10,000 a month in cash and subscriptions, over and above the necessary expenses. Besides this, over forty persons of wealth have either put it in their wills or signified their purpose to do so. This, in time, will largely increase its permanent endowment.

The Fund is already paying 25 per cent. of the full amount of the benefits to annuitants. This percentage will be increased after May 1, 1912, to 30 per cent.

There was in the treasury of the Fund, April 1, 1912, $196,194.72 in cash and approved securities. For other financial details reference is made to the Report of the Treasurer.

The adequacy of the Table of Rates, as prepared by the President and the Actuary of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company, has the endorsement of the Actuary of The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States.

The Board of Directors were greatly encouraged by the gift of $50,000 recently received from a generous friend of the Fund, and which the Board trusts and believes will be supplemented by other large gifts from people of means.

The following extract from a letter received from the treasurer of one of the most prominent churches in western New York and a leading business man of the place, enclosing a check for the Fund, is a fair sample of the endorsements and commendations of the Fund which are being constantly received:

"I will say that the members of our Committee (Session) feel that this is one of the best and most worthy objects to which they have ever had the pleasure of contributing. It commends itself to all, and is a businesslike way of handling a proposition vital to the interests of the entire Church."

The main object of this agency of the Church is to provide a permanent Fund, the interest alone of which will be used, and which will provide not only for those who are now serving in the ministry of the Church, but will continue in perpetuity to perform this noble service to all who will take up their work in the future.

Several of the other Protestant denominations have under consideration the adoption of this plan of providing for their aged and disabled servants. It has been adopted and put into effect by the Evangelical Association, one of the strong German Protestant denominations in this country. Bishop Breyfogel, of this Church, in acknowledging the assistance rendered him and his associates by the Secretary of the Sustentation Fund, in the preparation of the plan for his denomination, says:

"I regard the Ministerial Sustentation Fund of the Presbyterian Church the best plan yet devised for the support of ministers who by reason of disability are no longer able to render regular pastoral service, and for their families. The General Conference of my own Church has just adopted the same general plan, with certain deviations in matters of detail, and for the purpose of adapting it to a different form of Church government. A number of representative laymen of our Church have already given our Fund a very substantial endorsement in the form of generous contributions."

The Rev. Dr. Adams, of Minneapolis, Minn., for more than forty years a Home Missionary, twenty-seven of which he served as a Synodical Superintendent and District Field Secretary, writes:

"Nothing can do so much to steady the nerves of the ministers of the Presbyterian Church as the knowledge that they are provided for financially, in case of accident, disease or old age.

"The Ministerial Sustentation Fund does answer the many perplexing questions that disturb the mind of the minister in his chosen life work, where there is seldom opportunity to provide against failing health or declining years."

The Board of Directors requests that the Fund receive strong endorsement in the way of reaffirmation by this General Assembly:

1. Because it is an agency of the Church, unanimously approved by the General Assembly of 1906 and succeeding Assemblies, and the Plan, which was formulated by a Special Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1902, was submitted to three previous Assemblies for consideration and approved by them.

2. The Plan embraces the best features of the plans in successful operation in the Presbyterian Churches of Scotland, Ireland, Canada and Australia.

3. Because the Fund is an Annuity, or Pension, Fund and is based upon well-recognized economic principles:

(a) That the beneficiary of any Pension Fund should be a contributor to the Fund.

(b) That pensions should be based on length of service and a certain attained age of retirement and disability.

(c) That a Pension Fund should operate immediately, automatically and continuously, in providing for the beneficiaries, in case of disability, old age or death, and without the humiliation of confessed want.

4. Because of the success which has so far attended the Fund, and the generous responses to the appeals made in its behalf by thousands of the liberal members of the Church. These responses are a guarantee that the Fund will accomplish the purpose for which it was established by the General Assembly, viz., to relieve the distressing financial condition in which many of our most faithful ministers find themselves, when disabled or when reaching the age of retirement, and also to relieve the pressing needs of their dependent loved ones in the event of their death.

The following resolutions are submitted for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Report of the Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund be and hereby is approved.

Resolved, 2. That this Assembly hereby expresses its gratification at the progress the Fund has made during the fiscal year just closed.

Resolved, 3. That the Secretary of the Fund is hereby directed to convey to the friend of this cause who contributed the sum of $50,000, the appreciation and thanks of this Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be requested to present the following names to the annual meeting of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, to be held on the third Tuesday in June, 1912, as the names approved by this Assembly for members of the Board of Directors of said Fund, for the term expiring June, 1915, said members to continue in service until July 18, 1912, or until their successors are elected: Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., Rev. J. R. Sutherland, D.D., Mr. Thompson McClintock, Mr. W. P. Scott.

In behalf of the Board,

The undersigned, a certified public accountant, in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., hereby certifies that he has examined the accounts of William H. Roberts, Treasurer of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, and, after careful vouching as to items of charge and discharge, does approve the same as correct; that he found that there was at the close of the fiscal year, March 30, 1912, investments of the par value of $186,000, costing the sum of $182,402.86, and the total cash balance as shown by said account, to wit: the sum of $13,791.86, duly deposited to the credit of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, William H. Roberts, Treasurer, in the following banking institutions:

Fairmount Savings Trust Company, Philadelphia	$13,204 92
The Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia	586 94

CHARLES LEWER,
Certified Public Accountant.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23, 1912.

In addition to the above financial statement, the Treasurer draws attention to the fact that the above Report covers only eleven months, and that during that period $90,357.61 have been received as donations and contributions from churches and individuals; that $20,721.29 have been received in dues from members, and $4,588.65 from interest on securities and bank balances—a total of receipts for the period of $115,667.55. There are, in addition, in the hands of the Treasurer, $148,425 in outstanding subscriptions. While these are not cash assets, yet the experience of past years shows that at least $145,000 of the amount will be promptly paid. The Fund, as an agency recently established, has been obliged to employ a large number of field representatives to carry on the work in an adequate manner, but the cost of management is less this year than last.

The total amount of dues received from the members, from the beginning of operations, has been $92,925.79, and the additional funds on hand belonging to the Endowment and Maintenance Accounts amount to $103,268.93. Only the income from the Endowment Account can be used for the general purposes of Ministerial Sustentation. Counting in simply this income, along with the dues of members and the balances of other accounts, the Fund had 33 per cent. actual available assets, on April 1, 1912, to meet its 20 per cent. of legal obligations, as shown by its certificates, issued to members. The Fund is a successful agency of the Church.

Abstract of Thirty-first Annual Report.

1. More than 1000 meetings have been held by our representatives, in 28 States. Besides assisting in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Utah, Montana, Nebraska, Missouri, Maine and Colorado, addresses were delivered before Synods, Presbyteries, Ministerial Associations, Theological Seminaries, Universities, Colleges, High Schools, Temperance Institutes, Sunday School Conventions, Y. M. C. A.'s, Chautauquas, Presbyterian Churches and Sunday-schools. A prize of $25.00 each was provided for a prohibition oratorical contest in some of the Theological Seminaries and Colleges.

2. The equivalent of more than twenty-five million (25,000,000) pages of literature, in eleven languages, was supplied in connection with the work mentioned in paragraph one. This literature went into every State of the Union, to South Africa, Central and South America, Canada, Korea, India, Ireland, Scotland, England, Alaska, the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico, Ceylon, Mexico, East and West Indies, Russia, China, Bulgaria, Holland and New Zealand. Large quantities were supplied in the prohibition campaign in Maine and Texas.

3. Besides supplying literature free to thousands of Presbyterian organizations, we have furnished it at cost to applicants in almost every sister Church in the United States, and some in Canada and European countries, as well as to other temperance organizations. The Temperance Resolutions of the Assembly have been distributed among our churches.

4. A column has been supplied each week in some of the Presbyterian papers, a supplemental lesson has been prepared for each quarterly temperance lesson in the Westminster Senior Quarterly. Some phase of the question has been presented in each issue of The Assembly Herald. Many new tracts have been issued and most of the standard ones reprinted. A press bulletin has been sent to hundreds of secular and religious papers and widely used.

5. More than twenty thousand (20,000) personal communications have been sent out, including a letter to most of the Sunday-school superintendents in the entire denomination, so far as we have had their names and addresses. Many thousands of requests for information have come from pastors, elders, Sunday-school teachers, Christian Endeavor officers, Missionary Societies and other interested individuals.

6. One hundred twenty-five thousand (125,000) copies of a temperance program, including responsive reading and music, with recitations accompanying, prepared by the Committee, were used by our Sabbath-schools. Nearly one hundred thousand (100,000) Art Pledge Cards and Pledge Rolls were ordered by Sunday-school superintendents and teachers.

7. Two of our lecturers attended the World's Congress Against Alcoholism at The Hague. Temperance surveys of cities and an original investigation of the Army Canteen have been made.

8. Two Secretaries and two lecturers have been employed during the entire year and four additional lecturers for a part of the year, one of the latter speaking Spanish and the other various Slavic languages. These, with the stenographers, are the only persons drawing salary.

9. The Amethyst, official organ of the Committee, has a circulation of 95,000, and is increasing rapidly.

10. The receipts for the year have been $33,886.94, and the disbursements $29,543.90. Thus, at small expense and with a limited number of workers, the Assembly's Committee has served a denomination numbering more than one million three hundred thousand communicants, with fully twice as many adherents, and reaching into almost every part of the world.

INCORPORATION.—The last Assembly authorized the Committee to incorporate, and the same has been done, under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, so that the Committee is now qualified to receive legacies and annuities, and hold property the same as other permanent agencies of the Church.

GROWTH.—With incorporation, came a feeling of stability and permanency, which has magnified and dignified the work, and made it easier to secure the kind of talent necessary to maintain the high standard of past years.

FEDERATION.—The National Inter-Church Temperance Federation was further strengthened, during the past year, by the addition of the Reformed Church in the U. S. A., making, in all, nine denominations in the Federation, representing a membership of more than twelve millions.

The significance of this arrangement is greater than is easily comprehended, since, for the first time, it gives an official temperance voice to the united Protestantism of this country. The Federation thus becomes, to the temperance reform, what the Federal Council is to the Church at large in other lines of Christian effort.

CHARLES SCANLON, General Secretary.

XV. REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD.

The National Brotherhood, as anticipated, has found its chief activity the past year in connection with the Men and Religion Forward Movement. The Secretary has spent a large proportion of his time in the campaign cities before, during and after the visits of the specialists, endeavoring to enlist Presbyterian men in the immediate activities of the campaign and to lay the foundation for the permanent practice of the impulse and instruction resulting therefrom. It is the grateful testimony of the campaign leaders that no other Brotherhood or Secretary has contributed more to the success of the Men and Religion Movement.

With the mighty Conservation Congress in New York City, closing April 24th, the Movement as an organization ceased to exist. The results already visible and tangible would go far to justify the effort and expenditure involved; but the truest value of the Movement is its initiation of a program and campaign whose influence will be felt not only for five years, but through all coming time. In this aspect it has rendered a service which eternity alone can suitably appraise; and it has opened before the Church a door of opportunity more inviting than any in recent history.

The Men and Religion Movement was the intensified and temporary pursuit of the same objective which the Brotherhood from the beginning has set before itself as its steady and permanent aim, viz., the enlistment and efficiency of the individual man in the local church: with its corollary of a broader local church work to cover, separately or in federation, many forms of service now often left to outside agencies. The lines along which efficiency may be sought have been sharply and helpfully defined by the fivefold message of the Men and Religion Movement,—Bible study, boys' work, evangelism, social service, missionary extension at home and abroad.

All who have come in contact with the Forward Movement have realized more and more that unless the impulse thus started can be perpetuated, the Movement will have been relatively a failure; and that this can only be done by carrying the lines of organization and activity down into the individual churches. Except in a few cases suitable for federative work, the logical and effective appeal to the individual church must be through its denomination; and in our Church the Brotherhood seems definitely marked out as the agency for such appeal, and no other is in sight.

It was no less sagacious a man than Fred B. Smith who stated in the Conservation Congress with the utmost possible emphasis, that a Brotherhood or its equivalent is an absolute necessity in every denomination, for harvesting the fruits of the Forward Movement.

The Council has not been perfectly certain how far its sense of the duty and opportunity of the Brotherhood, in connection with the Men and Religion Movement, was shared by the Church at large, and especially by the ministry, upon whose cordial support and coöperation the very life of the Brotherhood must always depend. A letter of inquiry was therefore sent out, and replies were received from more than two hundred and fifty persons, including pastors of large and small churches in city and country throughout the United States, secretaries, editors, educators, together with a few laymen. The earnest thought and kindly spirit disclosed by these letters are here gratefully acknowledged.

Later, a two days' conference was held in New York between members of the Council and a large and representative group of pastors, secretaries and others interested in the welfare of the Church and of the Brotherhood.

As a result of this correspondence and conference, supplementing and interpreting the experience of the past five years, the Council has been led to certain very definite convictions.

1. Some special agency for promoting masculine activity in the Church is necessary, probably always, but especially now, for conserving the impulse of the Men and Religion Forward Movement. This promoting agency must be broader than the single church, and logically it should be central, national, church-wide. Such an agency must not exist for its own sake or to draw men aside into independent activities, however good. All questions of name, organization, machinery and government must be subordinate to its final aim of efficiency in the local church, and every form of activity a means to that end.

2. The Brotherhood is the agency through which this work should be carried on. It was a surprise, even to those best informed, to read in the correspondence and hear in the conference the emphatic and unhesitating expressions on this subject. Scores of pastors bless God for its ministry in their churches and say its abandonment would be "a disaster," "a calamity," "unthinkable," and even "a crime." One writer forcibly declares if the Brotherhood were abandoned to-day, another organization with like ideals would arise to-morrow. Even those who sound a note of disappointment over past results can suggest no other agency to meet the present opportunity, and, with almost negligible exceptions, agree that the organization must be continued and strengthened rather than disbanded or even feebly carried on.

3. As to organization and machinery, the Brotherhood was made a separate organization by order of the Assembly; that is an unimportant detail; it might as well have been a Permanent Committee, like that on Temperance, or a Special Committee like that on Evangelism. But since it exists as a separate organization, there seems to be no good reason for changing its form.

It is not, as is sometimes said, merely another machine for the pastor to keep in motion. This could only be true if the Brotherhood were pursuing some other ends than those which the pastor has at heart. If understood as an agency whose sole purpose is to help men help the Church, no pastor should find it irksome.

Nor is it merely another in the long series of movements, conventions and inspirational addresses. It is not a movement apart from the Church; and the supply of conventions and conferences, in the long run, will be largely governed by the demand.

Of course, the Brotherhood must not overlap or duplicate existing agencies in the Church. If, and in so far as, it has done so, it is a grievous fault, which must be corrected by closest coöperation with the Boards and other existing agencies. The aim of the Brotherhood should rather be to make these agencies effective by inspiring men in the churches with intelligent interest in them.

That the first Council was composed of laymen was not their doing. The Brotherhood has never been exploited as peculiarly a laymen's movement. Its constitution and literature make no distinction between ministers and laymen. From the beginning the question of electing ministers to the Council has been repeatedly considered, and advice received both ways from ministers as well as laymen; a number of ministers still insist that the Brotherhood should be continued as a laymen's activity. Certainly, there has been no intentional sidetracking of ministers, or disparagement of their official and personal leadership. But it now seems reasonably clear that the Brotherhood will be strengthened by the election to the Council of a number (though perhaps not a majority) of ministers, who will bring to the policy of the organization the indispensable benefit of the ministerial point of view.

It is therefore the intention of the Council, at the earliest convenient time, to fill certain existing and anticipated vacancies in its membership by the selection of ministers.

4. As to objective, the Brotherhood has sometimes been criticised for a supposed insistence upon uniformity of name, organization and machinery; which simply betrays a lack of acquaintance with the facts.

Others have found fault with the Brotherhood for aiming at nothing in particular. What the Council supposed itself to be aiming at is set forth above, and there are many words of approval for this flexible method of pursuing the one fixed aim.

Because conditions in the local church vary, there can be no uniform method for reaching this final goal. Success even when reached will mean different things in different places. Hence the Brotherhood must find its unifying principle, not in stimulating everybody to do the same thing, but in a common loyalty to Christ and His Church, and a common purpose that men's obligations to the Church shall be fulfilled.

The Council has often tried to draw out suggestions as to what particular thing should be made the objective. Almost invariably the term "definite objective" seems to stand for prescribed or uniform method; and this turns out in each case to be the particular thing in which the writer is especially interested. from Adult Bible Classes, through Foreign Missions, Personal Evangelism and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, to Helping every Man to earn an Hones t Living, and the Redistribution of the Materials of Prosperity.

Perhaps it would be wise, as a means to an end, to set all our men at one job—if we could agree on the job!

One correspondent reports a promising federation of Brotherhoods broken up by a smart secretary's trying to make it a collecting agency for his particular cause.

There is much room for misunderstanding here. All possible definiteness is urged in the work of particular Brotherhoods, many of which have helped to build churches, clear off debts, support mission workers, and do all manner of special things needing to be done then and there. But no single line of work for all Brotherhoods has been found, or, it is believed, can be found.

From the beginning the Men's Bible Class has been recommended as in most cases the best starting point for Brotherhood organization, and such classes are welcomed to affiliation as the Brotherhoods of their respective churches. But the appeal even of the Bible Class is not universal; men who do not respond to it can often be enlisted in other lines of activity. Moreover, even the successful Bible Class ought to be only a point of departure for the broader program of church efficiency which the Brotherhood presents.

The fivefold message of the Men and Religion Movement seems adapted to all churches and Brotherhoods, and the promotion of this plan by the Brotherhood will furnish new definiteness to its program.

Most of all, this fivefold division should make it easier to develop leaders in special lines. For the lack of leaders is perhaps the most frequent and significant note of discouragement in all the recent inquiry. Wherever a Brotherhood has found a man, it has almost always achieved success.

This difficulty is not peculiar to the Brotherhood. It is the tragic problem of the Church—even of Christianity. The Brotherhood, no more than any other agency, can supply a method of Christian work that does not involve sacrifice of time and cultivation of leadership. If the Brotherhood could do nothing more than promote the training of leaders, it would justify its existence. Such training, however, is hand-to-hand work; the central organization can help it forward only in a general way. Pastors in their own churches, key men in the Presbyteries, conferences of picked men from the churches of a city or neighborhood, and every other means must be tried for this indispensable object.

5. Finance. The Brotherhood is sometimes spoken of as an expensive luxury. No one knows this better than the members of the Council. It is doubtful whether the Church at large has felt the financial burden very perceptibly. Certainly the Church has a right to protest against any unnecessary expenditure.

The indications are that the suggested enlargement of the budget in connection with the appointment of District Secretaries would not be generally approved at this time. The quieter promotion, if successful, will inevitably lead to a demand for a larger working force and consequent increased expense; though very much may be done through volunteer help if it can be secured and properly directed.

But if serious work is to be undertaken at all, it will require from ten to fifteen thousand dollars a year.

It is the clear conviction of the Council and all its advisers that it is not desirable, even if it were possible, to meet this by large gifts from a very small number of men; and the members of the Council are frank to say that if it were desirable, they do not know where the men could be found.

On the other hand, no plan of contributions from the local societies has thus far produced satisfactory results, though the receipts from this source may be expected to increase with the growth of the organization.

It seems clear that the budget must be raised by active personal solicitation from individuals, in comparatively small amounts, and it is hoped that this policy will receive the hearty endorsement of the Assembly, without which a favorable response can hardly be anticipated.

In the light of the foregoing, the Council presents the following as its policy for the coming year.

(a) To coöperate with the existing Boards and other agencies of the Church and to become, so far as possible, the means of arousing intelligent interest on the part of all the men of the Church in the departments of church life which these Boards and agencies represent.

(b) To promote, so far as possible, the enlistment of all the men in our churches in one or more of the departments of activity outlined by the fivefold division of the Men and Religion Forward Movement.

This means that there ought to be:

(1) In every church a men's organization which, under whatever name and with whatever functions, shall include five groups or sub-committees, under active and competent chairmen, for the study of these respective subjects as related to their own church and community, and the application of the results of such study.

(2) In every community where there is more than one Presbyterian church, some systematic interchange of fellowship and suggestion between these groups of men along the lines of their common study and interest.

(3) In every larger city, an efficient central body whose chief business shall be to see that the men of the churches are thus organized and at work, and, if not, to know the reason why.

(4) In every Presbytery, an active committee for the same purpose.

(5) For larger fellowship, stimulus and inspiration, state or synodical organizations; conventions, local, state and national; periodical and special literature; and such intimate and helpful supervision as is possible through correspondence and personal visitation.

The function of the National Brotherhood in this scheme is, of course, to promote, rather than to execute; but its promotion will be marked by point and persistence. It will endeavor to set Presbyteries and cities and groups and churches and individuals in motion toward the attainment of this fivefold organization. It will supply literature that will not merely urge the appointment of the committees, but will indicate how they may be successfully started and what they are to do afterward; the literature of the Men and Religion Movement in this direction is of the greatest value. Its monthly magazine, already a powerful instrument of suggestion and help, under the self-denying editorship of Dr. William C. Covert, will continue and increase its helpfulness. The General Secretary and other leaders will render such personal help as they are able, by visitation and otherwise. And unless the hopes of the Council are grievously disappointed, the national headquarters will become the real centre of information and inspiration in respect to Presbyterian men's work for the entire country.

The settled conviction of the council has been immeasurably deepened by the recent expressions of so great a body of pastors, secretaries and other leaders, that, in order to succeed in its work, the Brotherhood must be deeply rooted in the confidence and affection of the Church at large. To this end, it must be quick to discern the mind of the Church and to retrace any steps taken in error, as well as eager to enter upon new paths of service as they shall be opened before it. On the other hand, the Church must learn, even more than heretofore, to look upon the Brotherhood not as an independent, still less an alien organization, but as the right arm of the Church and the pastorate, working within the very innermost circle of church activity and loyalty. Without such a relation, the whole enterprise is doomed to failure; with it, the present crisis of opportunity will prove the gateway to large and abiding success.

It is the belief of the Council that this vital relation will be promoted if the Assembly shall see its way clear to appoint a special committee, perhaps of seven members, to confer with the Brotherhood Council in order to plan adequately and efficiently for carrying on the work of the men of the Church along the lines suggested by the Men and Religion Forward Movement, and to coöperate with the Brotherhood in securing adequate financial and practical support, to the end that the entire manhood of the Church may be more completely and successfully enlisted in the entire work of the Church. Such committee to report to the next General Assembly.

By order of the Council,

CHARLES S. HOLT, President.

IV. The Finances.

I. REPORTS ON ASSEMBLY FINANCES.

1. Report of the Permanent Finance Committee.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Your Committee appointed by the General Assembly in 1910 and reappointed in 1911, having ended its work and having turned over all moneys remaining in its hands, together with the books and vouchers, to the Treasurer appointed by the Executive Commission of the Assembly, submits its Report hereto attached, which has been duly verified and found correct by the public accountants whose certificate is hereto attached, and asks to be discharged.

Your Committee takes occasion herewith to express its sorrow, in the loss to it and to the Church at large, of one of the most valuable of its members, in the death of Hon. William M. Lanning, whose generous services and wise counsel it had the benefit of during the almost two years of its existence.

T. ELLIOTT PATTERSON,
WM. P. POTTER,

The above statement shows, in general, the financial condition of the General Assembly from year to year for twenty-eight Assemblies. The management which began with 1884 resulted in such economies that a surplus was accumulated, which enabled the Assembly to meet in Portland, Ore., in 1892, and Los Angeles, Cal., in 1903, without calling for additional funds from the Presbyteries, and also to reduce the apportionments from 1896 to 1905. The interest earned during the period amounted to $35,013.18.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

*The Assembly year is in each case that of the year first given, i.e., the Assembly year 1902–1903 is the year including the expenses of the Assembly meeting in 1902. The Assembly year ended about April 30 until 1909 and now ends March 31.

† Includes loan of $3,000.

‡ Includes loans of $7,000.

8. Financial System of the Assembly.

The General Assembly of 1911 referred to the Executive Commission, with power, "the administration of the finances of the Assembly, the appointment of a treasurer included." (See Minutes, 1911, pp. 130, 131.) The following plan of administration of finances of the Assembly was adopted in due form by the Executive Commission, and became operative December 30, 1911. The members of the Permanent Finance Committee assented to the Plan. The Stated Clerk personally submitted to the Executive Commission the proposal that a Trust Company be appointed as the Treasurer, and cordially assisted in the preparation of the Plan. See the Resolution as to the services of the Stated Clerk on p. 217, Minutes of Assembly for 1912.

PLAN OF ADMINISTRATION.

1. Treasurer.—The office of Treasurer of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. is hereby reconstituted, and The Land Title and Trust Company of Philadelphia, is elected Treasurer of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

2. Duties of the Treasurer.

(a) To receive all funds for the financial administration of the General Assembly, including the presbyterial apportionments for the mileage, entertainment and contingent funds, receipts from the sale of Minutes by the Stated Clerk, and moneys from any sources as ordered by the General Assembly. These funds shall be deposited by the Treasurer in the name of "The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A."

(b) To disburse the funds of the Assembly, in the intervals between its meetings, for amounts as provided for in the budget hereinafter referred to; payments to be made upon warrants or vouchers showing the character and amount of the expenditures, to be drawn by the Stated Clerk, vouched for and signed by him as correct, and countersigned by the Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission. Upon receipt of a voucher or warrant in due form from the Stated Clerk, the Treasurer shall draw a check for the amount, to the order of the party named in the voucher, and shall return the check to the Stated Clerk, to be countersigned by him and transmitted to the proper person. The Stated Clerk and the Chairman of the said Finance Committee shall each designate a representative to sign for him, should need arise; said representatives to be approved by resolution of the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission. A certified copy of the resolution shall be sent to the Treasurer.

(c) To pay the mileage and entertainment bills of commissioners at the meetings of the General Assembly. For the payment of these bills the Treasurer may deposit sufficient funds, as provided in the budget, in a local bank or trust company to be selected by the Treasurer in the place where the Assembly meets, and the Treasurer, or his representative, shall draw a check to the order of each commissioner, upon a voucher signed by the chairman of the Mileage Committee and countersigned by the Stated Clerk, or his representative, to pay the mileage bills of commissioners; also a check to the order of each commissioner, upon a voucher signed by the chairman of the Hospitality Committee and countersigned by the Stated Clerk, or his representative, to pay the entertainment bills of commissioners. All checks for mileage and entertainment shall be countersigned by the Stated Clerk, and shall be delivered by him to the Mileage and Hospitality Committees respectively for distribution to the commissioners in such manner as these committees may deem best.

(d) To keep the books of accounts of all receipts and disbursements, and to make a report to the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission quarterly, and to the Stated Clerk upon his request. The Treasurer shall also make an annual report, which shall be audited by a certified public accountant, appointed by the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission, and shall be transmitted through the Stated Clerk to the General Assembly, to be referred in due course to the Standing Committee on Finance of the sitting Assembly for examination and approval.

3. Duties of the Stated Clerk.

(a) To send notices of apportionments to the Presbyteries, specifying the amounts due for the mileage, entertainment and contingent funds. The notices shall give instructions that all checks or drafts shall be drawn to the order of "the Treasurer of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A."; and such checks or drafts shall be forwarded to the Stated Clerk, who shall keep a record of all receipts, and transmit daily to the Treasurer, the drafts, checks or moneys received by him from said apportionments, and also from any other sources as ordered by the Assembly. Payments or apportionments made by Presbyteries while the Assembly is in session shall be transmitted to the Treasurer by the Stated Clerk, and the entire account of the apportionments shall be reported to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk.

(b) To send forms for the mileage bills to each commissioner, so far as feasible, at least ten days prior to the meeting of the Assembly. These forms, duly filled out, shall be presented by the commissioners, with their credentials, at the time of enrollment, to the Stated Clerk, who shall deliver them to the chairman of the Mileage Committee, which committee shall examine, and, if found correct, approve them; and the chairman of the Mileage Committee shall issue a warrant or voucher to the order of each commissioner for the amount of his mileage bill, to be countersigned by the Stated Clerk and delivered to the Treasurer for payment. The Stated Clerk shall also countersign warrants or vouchers that have been duly drawn and signed by the chairman of the Committee on Hospitality, to pay the entertainment bills of commissioners, and deliver the same to the Treasurer for payment. The Stated Clerk shall have power to appoint a representative to sign for him.

(c) To prepare an annual budget for the expenses of the office of the Stated Clerk and of other expenses of the Assembly. The budget shall specify each item of expense definitely as to character and amount, and shall include the salaries of the officers of the Assembly, office assistants and stenographers, allowances for postage and incidentals, and the cost of printing and distributing the Minutes. The budget shall also contain an estimate for the traveling and entertainment expenses of commissioners for each General Assembly, and an allowance for the expenses of the Moderator for official visitation of the Church. Said budget thus itemized, shall be submitted to the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission, and after examination and approval, shall be presented to the Executive Commission at its March meeting in each year, for action. Certified copies of the budget, when approved by the Executive Commission, shall be presented to the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission, to the Stated Clerk and to the Treasurer, and shall be the general warrant both for the Stated Clerk and for the Treasurer, for payments to be made upon particular vouchers duly drawn in accordance with this plan. Any questions arising in connection with the budget, and any special needs, not specified, arising from time to time, shall be considered and decided by the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission, which decision shall be binding upon the Stated Clerk and upon the Treasurer.

(d) To provide for payment of the expenses of the Executive Commission and of special committees. Each member of such bodies shall furnish to the Stated Clerk an itemized statement of his expenses upon a form duly approved by the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission. These accounts ordinarily are to be paid to the members separately by the Treasurer on vouchers of the Stated Clerk duly drawn. Should the need arise, a voucher, in due form, may be drawn by the Stated Clerk upon the Treasurer for a lump sum, out of which amount the Stated Clerk shall pay the expenses of the members of such bodies, and the individual accounts, countersigned by the chairmen of such bodies and duly receipted, shall be the vouchers of the Stated Clerk and of the Treasurer for the payments made, and any balance shall be returned to the Treasurer.

4. Duties of the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission.

(a) To exercise a careful oversight of the administration of the finances of the General Assembly with a view to the greatest possible economy and efficiency; to examine and approve the budget, and to see that said budget, when adopted by the Executive Commission, is strictly adhered to and effectively carried out; to authorize the signing of warrants or vouchers so as to provide for the payment of the items of expenditures contained in the budget, and also all other expenses arising from time to time by reason of special needs.

(b) To receive and examine the quarterly and annual reports of the Treasurer and the Stated Clerk; to provide for the auditing of the books of the Treasurer and the special accounts of the Stated Clerk by certified public accountants; and also to arrange for loans when necessary for the financial administration of the General Assembly, and the notes shall be signed by the chairman of the Finance Committee of the Executive Commission and countersigned by the Stated Clerk.

Mr. Jacob Wilson, Recording Secretary.
The Philadelphia Trust Co., Treasurer.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in accordance with the ninth section of its Charter, respectfully report to the General Assembly the state of the accounts of the Corporation for the year ending March 31, 1912.

These accounts are herewith presented and made part of this Report, and consist of the Treasurer's Annual Account of the Principal and Income, showing the receipts and disbursements of both funds and the balance of each on hand at the end of the fiscal year, together with the investment of the principal.

These accounts are accompanied by the Reports of the Committees of the Board on Finance and on Accounts, with the usual certificate of these Committees as to the conditions of the finances and the investment of the Funds as shown by the account and the audit of the Treasurer's account. The certificate of Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified public accountants, as to the examination of the accounts, cash and securities of the Corporation, is also appended.

The disposition of the income received upon the various Trusts appears in the Treasurer's accounts.

There have been but slight changes in the amount of principal or income of the Corporation during the past year, the principal account showing a total investment of $1,083,515.27 as against $1,080,853.79 for the previous year, and the total income from investments $50,124.17 as against $50,435.85.

There are no arrearages of interest due and unpaid. The net income derived from investments, after deducting taxes, water rents and repairs on real estate held was $49,143.97, or about $4\frac{55}{100}$ per cent. on the amount invested. The total expense of administration, including printing, auditing, compensation of Treasurer, Solicitor and Recording Secretary amount to but $2,466.90.

It is with great sorrow that the Trustees report the death during the year of two of the members of the Board, Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., Sc.D., LL.D., and the Hon. William M. Lanning, LL.D. The latter was the Vice-President of the Board. These two brethren were alike eminent for piety, patriotism and erudition. It will be necessary for the General Assembly to fill the vacancies caused by their death.

Respectfully submitted for the Corporation,

GEORGE STEVENSON, President.

Attest:

JACOB WILSON, Secretary.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Special attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended, it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chapter xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly.*

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage. N.B.—It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that Commissioners asking compensation for sleeping car fare attach receipts to their claims for Mileage for all sleeping car fares. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

* See also Sec. 8, p. 448[37].

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills, and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every Minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to three and one-half cents for Mileage, and three cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all six and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage and Contingent Funds, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangemen's, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer are authorized to pay, subject to the provisions of the Plan of Financial Administration of the Assembly.

☞See, Minutes of 1912, p. 448[19].

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1912 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, carriage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery which has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly) to every ordained Minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 448[a] of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of Christian Life and Work within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending March 31st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1906 (Minutes, p. 223), and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Standing Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Church. The blanks for the Congregational Narratives are also furnished by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

3. A Tabulated Statement. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, together with the Narrative, at least ten days before the meeting of that body.

A statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations; organizations and dissolutions of churches; receptions and dismissions of Ministers and churches; together with the number of deaths of Ministers since the last Annual Report, are to be inserted in the proper places in the Tabulated Statement.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Follow exactly the established form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 448[41] Minutes, 1912, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record Ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, not alphabetically, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, or duplications, and put their P. O. address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) Report as in transitu the name of each "dismissed" Minister, of whose reception by another Presbytery you have not been officially informed.

(4) ☞ Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other Minister. If the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll and give its P.O. address. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words, such as German, Welsh, Spanish, etc. ☜

(5) Place after the name of every Minister an abbreviation, denoting his occupation: e.g., P., for a Pastor; P.E., for a Pastor Elect; P.Em., for a Pastor Emeritus; C.P., for a Colleague Pastor; A.P., for an Associate Pastor; S.S., for a Stated Supply; D.M., for a District Missionary; C.M., for a City Missionary; T.M., for a Tract Missionary; S.M., for a Synodical Missionary; S.S.M., for a Sabbath-school Missionary; P.M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; P.Ev., for Pastor-Evangelist; F.M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D.Sec., for a District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Agt., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H.R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and for other Ministers without pastoral charges, no designation whatsoever.

(6) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P.E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S.S., for one that has a Stated Supply, and V., for one that is vacant.

(7) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(8) Additions.—In the additions to church membership, distinguish between those by Examination, those by Certificate, and those by Restoration. The column headed "Restored" is to include all those who have been reinstated, whether from the Suspended Roll or on restoration after full judicial process.

(9) Losses.—In the losses, distinguish between those dismissed, those placed upon the Suspended Roll, and those deceased. The column headed "Dismissed, etc.," is to include the members dismissed to other churches, also those erased from the roll under Section 53, Book of Discipline, and also those excommunicated. The column headed "Suspended Roll" is to include the number of non-resident members whose cases were acted upon during the year by the Session under Sections 49 and 50, Book of Discipline; also those suspended after full judicial process.

(10) Baptisms.—In the baptisms, distinguish between the persons baptized upon confession and those baptized as infants.

(11) Balancing of Returns.—Compare your report of communicants with that of the previous year and adjust the return so that it will balance. For example: Total members previous year, 205. Additions, "Examination" 22, "Certificate" 16, "Restored" 5, total 43. Losses, "Dismissed," etc., 12, "Suspended Roll" 18, "Deceased" 6, total 36. Gain, 7. Net total this year, 212.

(12) Sabbath-school Membership.—To include officers, teachers and scholars in all Sabbath-schools connected with the congregation, not including the "Cradle Roll" nor the "Home Department." [Note.—A separate statement of the details of Sabbath-school work is to be made, on its special blank, for the use of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.]

Funds.—The columns for the Funds Contributed are to be filled as follows:

1. Home Missions.—To include all moneys paid to the Board, all moneys paid for Presbyterial and Synodical Home Missions and Sustentation, also all moneys paid to any general Home Mission object; including contributions of societies, value of boxes, merchandise, etc.

2. Foreign Missions.—To include all moneys paid for the spread of the Gospel in foreign fields, whether given to the Board or other agencies; including contributions of societies, etc., and gifts to institutions connected with the Board.

3. Education.—To include all moneys paid for the education of candidates for the ministry, whether to the Board or other agencies, and also gifts to Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work.—To include all moneys paid to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for its missionary operations, and to other Sabbath-school organizations. The contributions for the support of the Home Sabbath-school are to be placed in the column headed "Congregational."

5. Church Erection.—To include all moneys paid for church erection outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund.—To include all moneys paid for the support of disabled ministers and missionaries, and in aid of their families, whether to the Board or otherwise; including contributions of societies, etc.

7. Freedmen.—To include all moneys paid for the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise; including contributions of societies, etc., and gifts to institutions connected with the Board.

8. Colleges.—To include all moneys paid to Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether to the Board or otherwise. Contributions to the institutions connected with Foreign Missions and Freedmen are to be placed under those heads.

9. Temperance.—To include all moneys given to the Permanent Committees on Temperance or to other Temperance agencies.

10. General Assembly, etc.—To include all moneys given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether for Presbytery, Synod or General Assembly. Give both dollars and cents in this column.

11. Congregational.—To include all moneys collected in or by the congregation for expenses—the salary of the minister, the support of the church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor, building and repairing edifices, the liquidation of debts and other purposes. Moneys received from any other church or Board for the salary of the minister or other expenses should not be included.

12. Miscellaneous.—To include all moneys paid to Bible Agencies, Tract Societies, Christian Endeavor, Young Men's Christian Associations, Hospitals, and general benevolence.

Bible Society.—To include all moneys paid to the American Bible Society, or to other Bible agencies. A blank is sent for these contributions, which are reported separately (see p. 447), in addition to being included in the "Miscellaneous" column.

Individual Gifts.—If the donors do not object, the direct gifts of individuals to any of the Boards, or to the causes they represent, should be reported with other gifts under the proper head. Individual gifts for religious and charitable causes not included in the regular schedule should be placed under the head "Miscellaneous."

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(13) The Names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Addresses in the next column; next give the Names and Addresses of the Local Evangelists; these are not ordained ministers. Of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the churches of the Presbytery—the Number only is to be given.

(14) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(15) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(16) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian names of every Minister (an initial letter is not a name), and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible and arranged in strict accordance with the established form.

☞Forward the Statistical Report by April 25, but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the office of the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

FORM OF A PRESBYTERIAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly shall meet annually, on the third Thursday of May, beginning at 10.30 A.M.; the afternoon session shall be held at 2.30 P.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of Saturday, the third day, to the Presbyterian Brotherhood and to the Board of Education.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions; the evening to the College Board.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Thursday, the seventh day, to the cause of Temperance.

5. The whole territory of the Church shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Districts, composed of Presbyteries, so arranged, by combining the smaller Synods, and dividing the larger by Presbyteries, as to make nearly equal delegations, as follows, e.g.:

6. (a) The General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections, composed of Commissioners, so arranged as to make the Sections of nearly equal delegations. The Electing Sections shall be numbered the same as the Electing Districts.

(b) The members of each Electing Section shall be seated together in a compact body. Accordingly, each Commissioner shall be assigned to his seat in advance of the meeting of the Assembly, by the Committee of Arrangements, under the supervision and direction of the Stated Clerk, and shall occupy such pew or seat from the beginning of the first session until the end of the second day.

(c) The organization of the Electing Sections shall be effected in the following manner, to wit:

Immediately after the roll call, and before the nominating and seconding speeches for Moderator shall be made, the Stated Clerk shall announce one Commissioner in each Electing Section as the Convener thereof, and the receiver of any necessary papers for the section. Under the supervision of such Convener, each Electing Section shall then elect a Chairman and a Secretary. The quorum of an Electing Section shall be a majority of its members.

7. (a) The roll shall be called immediately after the opening prayer at the afternoon session of the first day, in the following manner, unless there be a motion to the contrary, to wit: only the names of absentees as they appear on the roll of the Permanent Committee on Commissions shall be called, at which time any needed corrections may be made.

(b) After the election of the Moderator, the Permanent Clerk shall report absentees from the first roll-call. Vacancies in the Electing Sections may then be filled by the Assembly. Whenever additional members take their seats, the Permanent Clerk shall add their names to the roll.

(c) No Commissioner failing to enroll shall be allowed to vote in his Electing Section.

8. The election of the Moderator shall be effected immediately after the roll-call and the organization of the Electing Sections, in the following manner, to wit:

(a) Only one speech nominating a candidate for Moderator shall be made, limited to ten minutes; and only one speech, and that not to exceed five minutes, shall be made in seconding the nomination of a candidate.

(b) Where there is only one nominee for Moderator, the election may be made by acclamation. Where there are more than one, the election may be made by ballot, in the following manner, to wit:

After the nominations are made (the organization of the Electing Sections having been effected (see Rule 6, (c)), the Chairman of each Electing Section shall appoint two tellers. Each Commissioner shall write the name of his choice on a blank, to be provided in advance by the Stated Clerk. The tellers shall collect the ballots and count them, under the supervision of the Chairman. The result shall be recorded by the Secretary on blanks in duplicate, one of which shall be handed to the Stated Clerk, with the number of the Section written thereupon. The other shall be retained by the Secretary.

(c) When the reports of the ballots have been handed in from all the Sections, the Stated Clerk shall read each aloud, giving the number of the Section and the vote cast. Tellers appointed by the Stated Clerk shall take and tabulate the votes as read. The Moderator shall then announce the vote as tabulated. If no one has received a majority of the whole vote, another vote shall be taken in the same manner. When one shall have received a majority, the Moderator shall announce the result, and declare him to be elected.

9. The election of the Standing Committees, by the Electing Sections, shall be effected immediately after the election of the Moderator, in the following manner, to wit:

(a) The Electing Sections shall meet, at the places assigned them, for the purpose of electing the Standing Committees, toward the close of the second session of the first day; but if not at that time, then at 9.30 A.M. of the second day.

(b) The Standing Committees shall be numbered consecutively, and shall each consist of twenty-three members, including the Chairman and eleven ministers and eleven elders. The Committees shall be chosen from the Electing Sections as herein provided. The quorum shall be a majority of the members. Each Presbytery shall be represented on some Standing Committee.

(c) On odd-numbered years, each odd-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed.

(d) The Stated Clerk shall furnish to each Electing Section properly printed Election Return Blanks, for the election of the Standing Committees, which shall be filled in by the Secretary of the Electing Section, and returned forthwith to the Stated Clerk, and the Stated Clerk shall, if possible, furnish to each Chairman, before the close of the first day, a list of the members of his Committee, and shall also announce, at the close of the evening session, the names of the Committees on Bills and Overtures and on Judicial Business.

(e) As soon as possible after his election, the Moderator shall appoint an additional member of each Standing Committee, who shall be the Chairman thereof, provided that he shall not appoint more than one member, as Chairman, from the same Electing Section, except in the case of the Committees on Mileage and on Finance, and the Chairmen of these two Committees shall be Ruling Elders.

If the Moderator shall appoint, as a member and Chairman of any Standing Committee, any one chosen by any Electing Section, as a member of that or any other Standing Committee, the appointment of the Moderator shall take precedence, and the Electing Section shall choose another member to fill the vacancy on the Committee, caused by the Moderator's appointment.

10. The Stated Clerk shall give notices to the Commissioners as to their places in the Electing Sections and as to the Committeemen to be chosen. He shall also assign their places, in the Electing Districts, to new Presbyteries that may be erected during the intervals of the meetings of the Assembly, and he shall attend to other details connected with the operation of the Plan.

11. The Reports of the Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Christian Life and Work, first Friday, 2.30 P.M.
Sabbath Observance, first Saturday, 11 A.M.
Ministerial Relief, first Monday, 10 A.M.
Education, first Monday, 3 P.M.

Freedmen, Tuesday, 10 A.M.
Colleges, Tuesday, 2.30 P.M.
Temperance, Tuesday, 4 P.M.
Home Missions, Wednesday, 10 A.M.
Publication and S. S. Work, Wednesday, 2.30 P.M.
Foreign Missions, Thursday, 10 A.M.
Church Erection, Thursday, 2.30 P.M.
Correspondence, Thursday, 4 P.M.

12. That the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions have each two hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Colleges have each one and a half hours; that the Chairmen of the Standing Committees be allowed two-thirds of the time allotted to their Committees, which may be divided as the several Committees may elect; the remaining one-third of the time shall be given to the Commissioners, no Commissioner being allowed to speak more than five minutes, until all other Commissioners have been heard who desire to speak on the pending question. Only one formal address in explanation of a Report shall be made. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to communicate these Rules to the Chairmen of the Standing Committees, upon their appointment.

13. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same. and then deliver them, for distribution or reference, to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

14. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly shall be ready to present their Reports on the second day of the session. Only one formal address in explanation of a Report shall be made. (See Rule 27.)

15. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the Reports of Standing Committees.

16. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

17. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

18. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its Report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly, on the Report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

19. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

20. In all regions, where through the organization of Union Presbyteries or the existence of Missions without Presbyterial organization, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each Mission organized, as such, under our Board of Foreign Missions, may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile, in this country, to and during the Assembly, and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247]. This rule shall also apply to Home Mission Presbyteries whose members are so located as to prevent regular meetings, and in the discretion of the Assembly. The names of the Advisory members shall be called at the first Roll-Call, and seats shall be assigned them by the Stated Clerk. [1907, p. 88; 1908, p. 130.]

21. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108; 1898, p. 132].

22 Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church, during the interval between Assemblies, may be filled, until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 123].

23. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

24. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee, before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

25. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination, by the General Assembly, is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36; 1893, p. 41].

26. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly [1896, p. 130].

27. All reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk forty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, shall be printed by him, and copies shall be sent, in bound form, to Commissioners, so far as practicable, immediately upon notification of their election; and copies shall also be delivered to the Assembly on the second day of the sessions.

28. Upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer of any of the Benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly [1898, p. 132].

29. The Moderator, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, should an emergency requiring action at any time arise, are authorized to provide a new place of meeting for the General Assembly.

30. Hereafter, all Overtures from Presbyteries and Synods, which are to come before the General Assembly, shall be, so far as practicable, in the hands of the Stated Clerk at least two weeks before the meeting of the Assembly, and by him shall be printed in convenient form for distribution on the floor of the Assembly, such distribution to be made not later than the second day of the Assembly.

31. All Overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers, connected with the business of the Assembly, must be presented to the Assembly not later than the close of the second day of its session.

32. The election of members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly shall take place on the morning of Tuesday, the fifth day, as the first Order of the Day, in the following manner:

It shall be the duty of the Judicial Committee of the General Assembly to report to the Assembly, on Tuesday, the fifth day, suitable nominations to fill the vacancies on the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly, from which nominations, together with any others regularly made by the Commissioners at the same time as those made by the Judicial Committee, the necessary number of persons shall be elected, on Thursday, the seventh day, as the first Order of the Day.

33. The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly shall have authority to adopt rules pertaining to its own method of procedure, and shall report the same to the General Assembly; provided, that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution of the Church or the rules adopted by the General Assembly.*

34. The Standing Orders and Rules may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the Assembly, upon motion duly made.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. Subsequent Assemblies have modified them from time to time.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

* See Rules for Judicatories, No. XLIV. See also p. 448[54].

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present being a Commissioner, or, if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the Standing Committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members: but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the Clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the Clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper endorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to orders of business or reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it, as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its sessions, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate, but it shall not be in order for any one debating another motion to propose the motion to lay on the table or the previous question, at the close of his remarks, unless he shall obtain the floor again for that purpose. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, viz.: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall be admitted only when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and, lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule, the "yeas and nays" shall not be called except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If, on such a rising vote, the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles, and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order, or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely, in their speeches, to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business which, in their judgment, ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. It is expedient that Judicatories appoint a Standing Committee, to be known as the "Judicial Committee," to whom shall be referred all papers and questions of a judicial nature, and whose duty it shall be to recommend to the judicatory answers to judicial questions, and orders of procedure in all judicial cases.

In the General Assembly, the province of the Judicial Committee shall be to pass upon the question of the regularity of the papers and the record in all cases referred to it by the Assembly; to determine, upon the face of the papers, whether questions of doctrine or Constitution are raised, and if, prima facie, there is a case, to recommend the same to the Assembly for reference to Judicial Commissions. The members of the Judicial Committee are not debarred by their appointment from sitting and voting as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church Session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.

XLIV. Whenever a case is to be taken from an inferior judicatory to the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk of such inferior judicatory shall, at least twenty days before the meeting of the General Assembly, send a notice concerning such case to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, who shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission, unless the General Assembly shall have ordered otherwise, that the services of the Commission will be needed at the approaching Assembly; but if no such notice shall be received by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, he shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the services of the Commission will not be needed at the approaching Assembly.

XLV. These Rules may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the judicatory, upon motion duly made.

RULES OF THE PERMANENT JUDICIAL COMMISSION.

In accordance with the requirements of the Constitution, the Permanent Judicial Commission respectfully reports to the General Assembly the following Rules of Procedure:

1. The General Rules for Judicatories, as far as applicable.

2. Vice-Moderator.—In addition to a Moderator and Clerk, the Commission shall elect, annually, a Vice-Moderator, who shall act as Moderator in the event of the death, disability, resignation or absence of the Moderator, or of the termination of his commissionership; and he shall hold office until the election of his successor.

The Vice-Moderator shall be a member of the Commission, whose term expires at a period not less than two years from the date of his election.

3. Clerk.—In the event of the death, disability, resignation or absence of the Clerk, or the termination of his commissionership, the Moderator shall appoint a Clerk pro tem., to serve in the interim of the meetings of the Commission.

4. When the Moderator receives notice from the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly that the services of the Commission will be needed at any time or place, he shall forthwith notify each member of the Commission that the services of the Commission will be required at such meeting.

5. The Commission, when so ordered, shall meet at the same time and place with the General Assembly, and shall convene for organization at 5 o'clock P.M. of the first day of the meeting of the General Assembly. The time and place of all other meetings shall be determined by the Moderator and the Clerk of the Commission, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission or the General Assembly.

6. Immediately after the organization of the Commission, at any meeting of the General Assembly, the fact shall be reported to the General Assembly, and at the same time a report shall be made as to vacancies existing or about to occur, caused either by the expiration of the term for which members were elected or by death or resignation, for reference to the Judicial Committee, according to the Constitution.

7. The officers of this Commission shall be elected, annually, on Tuesday, the fifth day of the meeting of the General Assembly, at 3 o'clock P.M., and such officers shall assume the duties of their several offices upon the final adjournment of the General Assembly, serving in the interim between meetings of the General Assembly and until final adjournment of the next succeeding General Assembly.

8. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, or some one designated by him, to appear before the General Assembly to present the findings of the Commission in cases referred to it by the General Assembly.

9. The Commission shall designate a member or members to represent it in the General Assembly to defend any action or finding of the Commission.

10. The Commission shall set a time limit for arguments of such litigants and their counsel as may appear before the Commission in any case, and shall so notify them prior to the hearing of the same.
